

The Cedar Rapids Dolphins won this year's Lake Cumberland Swim Association Conference Meet, which was held at the Lakewood Country Club in Russell Springs over the weekend. The Dolphins also had four swimmers who won Best Swimmer in their category. They are pictured above: in front, Brittany Calhoun, 7-8 division. Back row, from left: Allison Anderkin, 13-14 division, Andrew Hammond, 15-16 division and Tara Burton, 17-18 division.

Dolphins Win Conference Meet

Former Cedar Rapids Dolphin Jessica Albright was the coach of this year's team, which won the conference title on Sunday in Russell Springs.

The Cedar Rapids Dolphins won the Lake Cumberland Swim Association Conference Meet over the weekend. Dolphins swimming in their last conference meet are shown above from left: Angela Owens, Cody Cox and Suzanne Brown.

10-year-old Victoria Clontz competed in the Breat Stroke finals during the Lake Cumberland Swim Association Conference Meet over the weekend. The Cedar Rapids Dolphins took the Championship over the six other swim teams in the competition.

Dena Gabbard takes off in the 7-8 girl's Backstroke finals of the Lake Cumberland Swim Association Conference Meet, which the Dolphins won over the weekend in Russell Springs. The Cedar Rapids Dolphins won the Conference title.

Terry Lunce and Vicky and Daniel Myers are shown above discussing the construction of a kennel by Rockcastle Adoption Agency for Pets. Lunce and Myers are both officers in the organization, which is in the process of contracting with the Rockcastle Fiscal Court to handle the county's stray dogs. At right, Mrs. Lunce is the group's President, which is a non-profit organization. The kennel is located off Old Sigmon Road.

"Fair"

(Cont. from Front)

test will be held at 1 p.m.
 The Midway opens at 6 p.m. on Monday night and this year's new attraction, ICW Wrestling will take place at 8 p.m.
 Tuesday, exhibits for the Rockcastle County Agricultural Fair can be entered beginning at 10 a.m. with judging at 2 p.m.

The Midway again opens at 6 p.m. that night with wrestling at 8 p.m.

On Wednesday, the Midway opens at 6 p.m. and the Demolition Derby begins at 8 p.m.
 Thursday is special family day with all rides 25 cents from 12 noon to 4 p.m.

At 6 p.m. the Midway re-opens and the Demolition Derby is at 8 p.m.

Friday the Midway opens at 6 p.m. and Mud Races begin at 7:30 p.m. Exhibits will also be on display from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Saturday the fair concludes. The Midway again opens at 6 p.m. and the Mud Races are at 7:30 p.m.

A full page containing the Agricultural Fair can be found on page B-7.

"Indictment Dismissed"

(Cont. from Front)

charge of fleeing or evading Mt. Vernon police and to operating a motor vehicle on a suspended license. Judge Cain also set a November 16th trial date for a Somerset man accused of flagrant non-support.

Richard Jay Weston, 30, was indicted in November, for allegedly owing nearly $10,000 in child support payments.

"Gospel Sing"

(Cont. from Front)

ning at midnight and continuing until approximately 5:00 a.m., the stages of both the old and new barn theatres are filled with the glorious sounds of Southern Gospel music.

For ticket information - call 606-256-2638 or 800-765-7464

Kristy Brown, a 2000 graduate of RCHS, attended VIP Day at Somerset Community College and was the winner of a $50 tuition voucher presented to her by Pat McCoy, Administrative Assistant to the President. Students were given tours of the campus, received information on the various programs and had the opportunity to talk with advisors, faculty and staff regarding different areas of study. The faculty and staff hosted a cookout of hamburgers and hot dogs with an array of side dishes.

John Bullock and Mike Sanders are shown cleaning up the debris from a tree which was destroyed during a storm which hit the county on Sunday night. Several trees were reported down and some power outages were reported in the county. Over the weekend nearly one and half inches of rain fell in the county and on Monday, 1.12 inches was recorded at the Cox Funeral Home weather station. During July a total of 4.56 inches of precipitation was recorded and the high temperature recorded was 89 degree and the low was 57.

Over 170 students gathered at Cumberland College on July 14th and 15th to learn more about college life. This new student orientation was the second of two orientation weekends held this summer. Among those in attendance was Angela Janette Owens, daughter of Steve and Onna Kaye Owens of Rockcastle County. She plans to study Chemistry during her time at Cumberland. Owens was representative of several students in attendance from the Rockcastle County area. During the orientation students and their parents had the opportunity to meet other incoming freshmen and learn what to expect when they return in the fall. They also met with academic advisors, financial planning and registered for classes.