

LEAP dedication held

The New LEAP dedication was held August 25 at the LEAP building in Calloway.

Executive board members present were Carol Blackburn, president; Jane Denny, treasurer; Sharon Manning, secretary and Wayne Bullock, member.

Not present were Bebel Falin, vice-president and members, Harvey Hensley and Joe Rowland.

Father John Rausch, of The Commission on Religion and Appalachia (CORA), was honored for his work with LEAP.

The dedication speech was delivered by secretary Sharon Manning.

"From now on the public will see the New Face of LEAP. The face of our communities through our existing programs and new programs designed to meet the challenge of the new millennium," Ms. Manning said.

For more information call 453-9800 or visit our tear facility in Calloway and become a member!

LEAP board members, Carol Blackburn and Jane Denny presented Father John Rausch of CORA with an award and handcrafted wreath made by LEAP members.

Minds in the Middle

Although mid-term has passed, students still have time to improve their grades. The end of the first grading period will be on October 3.

This Thursday will be the first meeting of the school year for students who participate in the Berea College Educational Talent Search Program. The 8th graders will meet at 12:00 and the 7th graders at 12:45. 6th grade participants will be determined within the next 3 weeks. The meetings will take place in the Challenge room.

The Y-Club membership drive ended on Friday. The executive council members will meet this Thursday after school until 4:00.

There will be an after school party this Friday from 3-5:00. The cost of admission is $3.00. Students must have team permission and a note from parents in order to attend. Remember that you must be picked up by 5:15 or you will not be allowed to stay for future after school events.

The 8th grade girls basketball team won the championship of the annual Tip-Off Tournament by defeating Jackson County on Saturday 57-18. The girls made it to the championship game after winning Friday against Whitley County 46-12. The 7th graders also defeated Whitley County by a 46-12 margin. The 7th graders lost to Clay County 57-18. The girls made it to the championship game after winning Friday against Whitley County 46-12. The 7th graders also defeated Whitley County by a 46-12 margin.

and the second half was not completed. The girls will play at Northern Pulaski Thursday evening and Monday evening at RCMS against North Laurel. The 6th grade girls will play Saturday at Corbin.

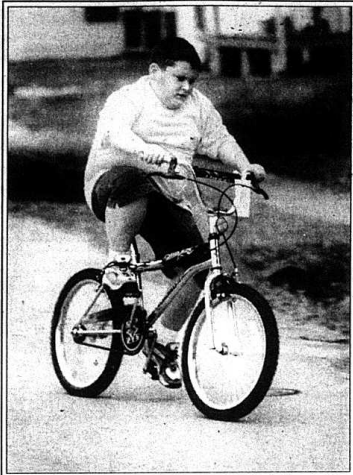

The RCMS football team will play against Lloyd Middle School in Wayne County on Thursday evening. Saturday, the 8th grade team won the Rock Hard Bowl by defeating Bell County 56-8. The 7th graders lost 14-8 to Whitley County 8th graders.

Mrs. Becky Smith's 8th grade Comets homeroom is winning the attendance battle. In second place is Mr. Richard Cope's homeroom (6th grade Voyagers team), and in third place is Mrs. Dottie Parsons' homeroom from the 7th grade Adventurers team.

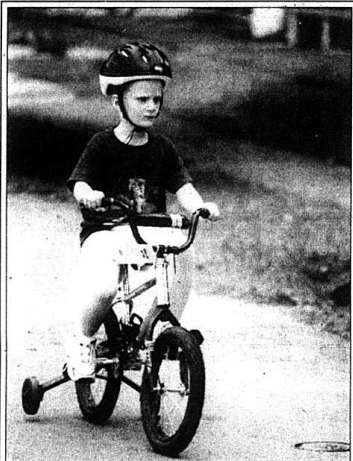

The Voyager team would like to recognize Lara Cash and Michael Santo as their Students of the Week.

Next Monday and Tuesday, our 6th and 8th graders will be participating in the Governor's Kentucky Incentives for Prevention (KIP) Student Survey. The survey is designed to provide the school with information on drug, alcohol, and tobacco use. The students do not put their names on the surveys and the surveys are completely confidential.

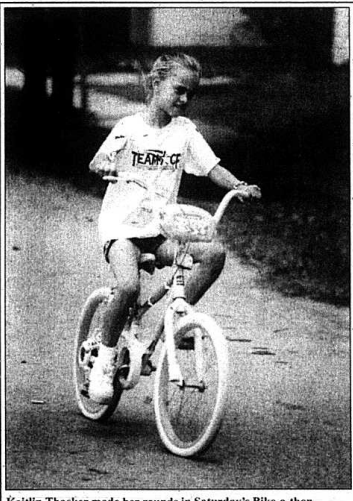

Here is a suggestion for parents. Send us a "Good News Telegram" to share positive family news or an "I'm Proud of My Kid" note to share things your child has done. This will help the staff get to know our students better!

Travis Lane was among the riders in Saturday's Cystic Fibrosis Bike-a-thon at Brodhead. The annual event is organized by the family of Suzanne Graves, who died from the disease in 1999. This year's event raised over $10,000.

Josh Linville rode in Saturday's Cystic Fibrosis Bike-a-thon at Brodhead. The annual fund raiser netted over $10,000.

Kaitlin Thacker made her rounds in Saturday's Bike-a-thon.
