In Loving Memory

In Memory of Mose Hampton who died Nov. 1, 1999
A Family Friend

Here I sit today,
Wondering why you had to go away.

You never said how sick you really were.
You were the best friend we ever had.

You were here when times were bad.
You were here when we lost our home.

Helped us hold our heads up and go on.
You watched us grow from two to a family of a few.

You were here to lend a hand
And help us on this land.
You helped us build our new home,
We didn't thank you enough, now you are gone.

No matter how bad the weather was,
You always came by to check on us.
The holidays are very rough, because we are used to you being with us.

But, you left in the twinkling of an eye.
We did not get to say goodbye.
Hunting season gets a little lonely,
We miss the deer stories of Mosey.

You left precious memories of you,
With all the things we used to do.
You have gone to be in Heaven,
Walking on beautiful streets of gold.

But, your moans we will die,
We know you had to go, to get to that Heaven in the sky.
Sad, but true. We really miss you.

Love,
The Chesnuts
Spud, Sue and Girls
