Berea College

Berea College is a well-established undergraduate institution distinguished by its student labor program, history of interracial education, service to the Appalachian region, continuous, integrated learning environment, and emphasis on perspectives and values deeply informed by the Christian faith. The campus is located 40 miles south of Lexington, Kentucky in the town of Berea (pop. 10,000).

As a continuous learning environment built upon Berea's Great Commitments and Common Learning Goals, Berea College expects all workers to be active learners, workers, and servers, and seeks to be placed where the Christian values of human compassion, dignity and equality are expressed and lived.

Communications Technician
Phone Center

Berea College is seeking a Communications Technician to install and maintain the campus telecommunication network. This is a full-time position requiring a high school diploma or GED and two years of technical training in telephone systems which includes knowledge of the local area network wiring principles and topologies, and two years experience in a PBX and/or local area network environment. Must be analytical, detail oriented and committed to producing quality work. Excellent customer service skills and the ability to work under pressure are necessary. Duties are physically strenuous and require climbing, working in confined spaces and extreme temperature conditions. Must possess a valid driver's license and be able to respond in emergencies.

Applications are available at Rustic Cottage on the Berea College Campus or send resume and cover letter to Carolyn Howard, Berea College, CPO 2189 (BC), Berea, KY 40404. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. For information on current vacancies, please call the Berea College Jobs Line, (859) 985-3053.

In keeping with the College's inclusive Christian tradition and its emphasis on the dignity and worth of all people, Berea embraces and values diversity through encouragement of applications from women and members of minority groups. Employment decisions are based on training, education and experience related to the requirements of the job. All applicants for employment are considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age or disability. Berea provides reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities.
