WILSON IS RE-ELECTED

Necessary Votes Are Vindicated By Doubtful States In Recent Contest

PROBABLY NO CONTEST

PRESIDENT NOW HAS 288 ELECTORS WITH NEW HAMPSHIRE AND NEW MEXICO PLACED IN WILSON COLUMN.

Understood That Frank H. Hitchcock and George W. Perkins Have Advised Hughes to Concede Election—400,000 Majority.

REPUBLICANS SHOW GAIN.

New York.—The Republicans will have 217 votes in the next Congress, according to the latest returns available. This is an increase of one in the total Republican membership previously reported. The change is based on reports from the Sixth New Jersey district, showing the election of John H. Ramsey, Republican. The election of Mr. Ramsey from New Jersey and the consequent loss of one Democrat from that state leaves the Democratic membership of the House at 212, as indicated by returns thus far received. On the face of present figures the Republicans fall one short of the 218 votes necessary for a working majority.

Western Union Newspaper News Service. New York.—Woodrow Wilson has been re-elected President of the United States.

He carried California. California settled the thrilling race that kept all America enthralled for nearly 60 hours. If the final outcome is as now indicated the final vote in the electoral college will stand: President Wilson, 272. Charles E. Hughes, 259.

With the President's popular majority unofficially estimated at more than four hundred thousand votes, the possibility existed that his vote in the electoral college might be increased from 272 to 288. The addition of New Hampshire and Minnesota in the Democratic column would give President Wilson an increase of 16 electoral votes.

It is understood that Frank H. Hitchcock and George W. Perkins already have advised Mr. Hughes to concede the election. William R. Wilcox, national chairman, has opposed such action and has induced Mr. Hughes to wait.

Hanging by a thread for more than two days, the contest narrowed down to the 13 votes in the Pacific Coast state. Friday the Republicans conceded that California had gone Democratic. It will be by a close margin. The final plurality may be not more than 3,000. But in a battle of ballots like that which has held the nation almost breathless, 3,000 votes are almost mountainous.

Charles E. Hughes and William R. Wilcox, Chairman of the Republican National Committee, plan to remain in New York for a week or more to await the result of the official count of the vote in California. Once the official count is finished they expect to take a vacation. Mr. Wilcox said The National Chairman of the Mr. Hughes at the

It is not all gain to be wealthy. If anyone is inclined to covet Mr. Rockefeller's fortune under the impression that if he had it he would be a happy and contented man, let him solace himself that in many ways he is far better off than the oil magnate. Rich men have many limitations that poorer men do not have. The rich man to a very large extent leads an isolated life. He cannot have the wide circle of friends that other folks have. He is uncertain whether the profession of friendship and the various courtesies extended him are sincere or just expressed because he is the richest man in the world, but the poor man has no misgivings on that head. The wealthy man has his every action and saying scrutinized, the poorer man is free to go and come and free to enjoy himself as he pleases. On the whole his life is more rational and whole some, though he may not always think so. To be sure, the ability to have palatial houses, yachts, and other expensive pleasures is a good deal necessary to happiness even to health. It is not likely his homely will prevent anyone from aspiring after wealth, but there are lots of folks who ought to be thankful they are no better off than they are, yet they are not thankful.

The election has come and gone. Again the Democrats are successful, because they have proven a friend of the people. For the first time the farmers of the West woke up and having been given their financial freedom by Woodrow Wilson, they showed their appreciation by casting their vote for him.

Now, with that event past, let us all turn our attention and best energies toward the development of Rockcastle. We are all neighbors and friends and together let us study and work to increase her industries, improve her land, invite capital, boost her many advantages, improve her morals, drive the boot legger out, encourage sobriety and take a lively and intelligent interest in all good things.

THE voters of the state were so eager to hear Senator J. C. W. Becham during the campaign just closed that those in charge of the same, whose duty it was to select and assign speakers, found it impossible to make any thing like all of the appointments for him that were requested. His speeches were justly considered by those who heard him to be the ablest and by all means the fairest exposition of Democratic doctrine heard in the state. He labored untiringly for the ticket and the result shows how effective was his work.

THERE are about five thousand Jews in our comparatively small army. That is a revelation to those folks who think that all Jews are bankers, clothiers or peddlers. The history of all countries shows that the Jew is as patriotic as other men, and that with the exception of our own land and Great Britain the Jew meets with hardships and persecution in well nigh every land.

SUNSHINE is one of the most powerful remedies for the ills of life and also one of its greatest preventatives, and it has the additional merit of being free. This does not refer merely to the rays of the sun, though it includes them, but also to the sunshine of the heart which brightens every-

WITH meat packers making unheard of profits it is no wonder that consumers have to pay thirty-five cents, or thereabouts, for bacon. The injustice of such prices never strikes the magnates whose sole desire is to make gigantic fortunes, regardless of what it may cost others. Evidently not all the hogs are four-footed.

It is easy to think and not decide; it is easy to decide with out thinking, but it is not always easy to think and decide aright.

LIVINGSTON

Mr. Rosco Gregory has moved his family to Covington, Ky.—Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Cook and daughter, Miss Lyda, were called to Mt. Vernon latter part of week on account of the death of Mrs. Cook's father, Judge Lair. Another good man gone to his reward.—Rev. Shaw of Barbourville, will hold a series of meetings at the Christian church, beginning Thursday the 16th. Everybody cordially invited.—Mrs. S. C. Franklin, of Mt. Vernon, was here between trains Sunday, en route home from Berea.—Charley Carpenter will move his family to Stanford in a few days, as he has been transferred to that point as Signal Maintainer.—Urban Chunging will move his family from London to our town in a few days.—C. E. Rice was here a few days ago from the L. & E. R. R., where he has a position as yard master.—Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hughes, of Louisville, have been visiting Mrs. Hughes' parents at this place, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hayse. Later they have moved to Maysville, Ky.—Miss Eliza Todd, of Level Green, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Owens.—Mr. D. M. Preston, of Cincinnati, was here between trains a few days ago, en route to Brodhead.—Mrs. J. B. Hayse is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Quinn at Paris, Ky.—From indications there will be another wedding in our town in the near future. Now, we don't intend to give any names but a certain young man is making lots of trips to the post office.—Robert Griffin went to Mt. Vernon today to hunt a few days.—T. J. Nicely, of Mt. Vernon, was here between trains, Wednesday.—Mrs. Steve Ramsey and children, of Mt. Vernon, were here between trains, Wednesday, en route home from Brush Creek.—Well, dear Signal readers, we promised you in our last letter that we would not write another letter until after President Wilson was elected. We have kept our word. Tonight (Tuesday), one week ago, we felt awful bad politically, for we heard the United States and half of China had gone republican, and on arriving in Mt. Vernon, Wednesday morning, we were tempted almost beyond that which we were able to bear. But there came a voice from the west saying Wilson is elected, and what a change was wrought on earth. Men (we mean republicans) that had such a good broad smile, began to seek shelter and those that were following for Hughes became silent.—The Democrats here got the East Bernstadt band down last Saturday night and we had a fine time. About 9 p.m. a crowd of about 50 ascended the top of Mount Pisgah a peak on the Livingston heights overlooking the little town with two anvils and a keg of powder. A bonfire was made and up to a late hour in the night the anvils kept booming, all rejoicing that Woodrow Wilson had been re-elected president. Now say, dear friends, we told you of this weeks ago. We talked to you with tears in our eyes, but you would not listen and all our pleadings did no good. Now we are safe in the saddle for the next four years, but we are a sympathetic people. We mean us democrats. Our sympathy goes out after you. We know you will inhabit the Salt River neighborhood for the next four years to come. Lets drop politics and go to work. Of course, our republican friends feel bad and we know how to sympathize with them, for we felt the sting last Wednesday for a few hours.—Rev. Baker filled his appointment here Saturday and Sunday.—On Thursday morning my better half (we mean our wife) awoke us early, claiming that it was impossible for her to sleep on account of the terrible noise on the outside. When we arose from our bed and investigated it looked like the town was alive with roosters and all crowing. Now, we do not keep any chickens, but they were in the yard and standing on the fence delivering the democratic news. We believe it was our republican friend's roosters, being afraid to crow on their own premises and came where a warm welcome awaited them. Later we found out the cause of it all, when we opened the morning papers and saw the seal had turned and Wilson was re-elected.

Rev. Thomas Clifford filled his regular appointment at Hopewell, Saturday and Sunday.—Mrs. J. J. Debord, of Level Green, spent Friday night with Clara Carmical at this place.—Mrs. Eugene Stokes and Miss Clara Harmon spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. James Barnes.—Willie Sowder bought a fine mch cow from George Winstead last week.—While the family of Tobe Bassell were away from home their dog broke into Mrs. Robert Marler's turkeys and killed five of them.—Ernest, the ten year old son of Joe Hines, while engaged in a game of baseball last Friday was struck by one of the pupils and severely hurt.—Miss Bertha Carmical spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Eliza Gentry.—Mrs. Jesse Kirby spent Tuesday with Mrs. James Arnold.—Mrs. Alfred Barnes, of this place, spent Thursday with her niece, Mrs. Golden Cummins at Mt. Vernon.—Mrs. Joe Hines, is numbered with the sick.—There will be a box supper at Hopewell school house, Thanksgiving night.—Mrs. Tom Price spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Pitman.—Mr. Wm. McKinney, of near this place, were married last Sunday, have not learned the bride's name.—Charlie Doan will leave Saturday for Indiana.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Drug gists, 75¢.

Hunting Season

Just at this season of the year it will be of interest to every one to be made familiar with recent legislative regarding game protection. Information as given on the back of your hunting license, but it might be as well to read the following synopsis of three recent acts:
Reducing the non-resident or alien license fee from $15 to $7.50 increasing the maximum penalty for hunting without a license from $100 to $200; repealing the provision permitting a residence land owner to hunt on adjoining farms without a license; authorizing, in case of conviction, the levy and collection of a fee of $5 for the former (S. B. 134); shortening the season on doves from five months to six weeks; prohibiting all hunting of woodcock; closing the squirrel season on December 15, thus abolishing late winter shooting; reducing the season on rabbits to two and one half months thus prohibiting late winter and summer shooting; protecting wild turkeys, native pheasants (ruffed grouse), imported pheasants, and Hungarian partridges, whenever caught or killed; prohibiting export of all protected game, except game lawfully killed and in possession of a hunter, and under permit, birds and animals raised in captivity or which have been purchased for propagation; creating a bag limit of 12 a day on quail and limiting the number in possession to 12 for each successive day's hunt; limiting the bag on doves to 15 a day and possession to 15 for each successive day's hunt; providing that game birds or animals bred or reared in captivity must be disposed of by owner or propagator, under permit of game and fish commissioner, without reference to the game laws, and the dead body of any bird or animal lawfully reared in captivity may be sold when properly tagged; protecting deer and elk until 1927, and prohibiting hounding (ch. 21)

WANTED. Man past 30 with horse and buggy to sell Stock Condition Powder in Rockcastle County.

Job J. McCall, age about 55 years, a resident of the Mareburg section, died Monday evening of cancer.

The deceased made a strong and noble fight against death and when he realized that nothing more could be done, it was indeed pathetic to see him and hear him talk during his last days.

No community could claim a bigger hearted man or truer friend than Job McCall and his friends were numbered by those who knew him best.

His wife leaves four daughters and three sons to mourn the loss of a devoted companion.

The funeral took place in the Mareburg burying ground Tuesday.

Judge J.B. Lair, aged about 85 years, and one of the county's very oldest, best and most prominent citizens, died last Saturday at his home about two miles north of town.

Just one week to a day the Judge was in town feeling and looking as well as usual for a man of his age.

The following day, Sunday, he was over taken by a severe attack of pneumonia, which his frail physical condition brought about by a long life, could not throw off.

Four children survive Mr. T. B. Lair: a successful farmer living a short distance north of town, Mrs. G. D. Cook, of Livingston, Armp and Miss Carrie, who are unmarried and lived with their father.

The funeral was conducted Monday afternoon at the home by Rev. Soward, and the burial took place in the family burying ground near the old home beside his wife who preceded him to the grave only a few years.

BIG SUIT

FILED TO ESCHEAT THE OLD SHAKER ESTATE FROM THE HEIRS OF THE LATE GEORGE BOHON, OF HARRODSBURG.

Miss Ora Adams, County School Superintendent of Mercer County, Brings The Proceedings.

Harrodsburg Nov. 11—A suit, intended to win the State the right to seize the old homestead of the Shaker Colony, in Mercer county, was entered in the Circuit Court here yesterday afternoon.

The estate of Colonel George Bohon and the four aged survivors of the sect, now in its twilight—Dr. W. B. Pennybaker, James Howard, Mary Settle, and Sarah Pennybaker—are made the defendants in the suit, filed by Miss Ora L. Adams, superintendent of the Mercer County Schools and the Mercer County Board of Education.

The Shaker Colony was started in Mercer county a half century ago. It was a religious sect with rigid tenets much the same as the Quakers. There was no intermarrying and as the years passed the Colony dwindled.

The Shakers realized that their Colony would pass into oblivion and as the surviving members aged, they would be unable to care for themselves. They went to Colonel George Bohon, a banker and merchant, who had befriended them and placed in trust with him $5,000.

This money was given to Colonel Bohon with the provision that when the last member of the Colony became old to support themselves, he was to care for them, give them food and clothing and when they died, a decent burial.

An agreement was drawn up whereby at the death of the last member, the 900 acres of rich land, which has housed the Shakers would revert to Colonel Bohon as his reward for his care of the Shakers.

Colonel Bohon died. His estate was kept intact, however, and is carrying out his part of the agreement. The four Shakers, the two men and the two women, are aged and their wants are being attended to by the Bohon estate.

It is this agreement, which will be attacked, that is being attacked. The suit instituted by the Mercer County School Superintendent and Board disputes the validity of this agreement and denies that the Bohon estate had any right to acquire the land.

The suit charges that when the contract was entered into, the Shakers had dissolved as a society and its survivors had abandoned the purposes for which the property was held. Therefore, it is charged, the deed is invalid and the property should revert to the State.

The land that is made issue of suit is considered one of the most valuable agricultural sections of the State. It has a number of buildings and the soil has been developed into excellent farm land. It is considered a very valuable piece of property.

The Shakers have led a secluded life, cloistered from the world in a way, and have been regarded as an institution in Kentucky.

A REMARKABLE VICTORY. When Woodrow Wilson went under the wire the winner last Tuesday he accomplished a remarkable feat.

When Woodrow Wilson went under the wire the winner last Tuesday he accomplished a remarkable feat. For the first time since 1850 the country has two Democratic administrations in succession.

Further more, he is the first Democratic president to succeed himself since Andrew Jackson was returned to the White House for the second time.

Four years ago the combine vote against Wilson was more than a million and a half in excess of the vote for him. On Tuesday this great majority was swept away and the President goes back to Washington by a vote of four hundred thousand over that of his opponent.

It is one of the greatest tributes to the personal character of a man in American political history.

Right Way to Select Seed Corn. By RAY MAHARG. The custom in this section of the country has been for the farmer to select his seed corn out of the crib in the spring just before planting.

By this time of the year there has been quite a bit of the best ears damaged by mice and rats. They usually eat the heart of the corn or cut the caps of the kernels, which makes it unprofitable to plant.

Most cribs are open which lets the rain and snow in. This damages the kernels so they do not germinate properly. A good size ear of corn usually has about 500 kernels. Each kernel representing a stalk or ear of corn.

HERE'S SMILE OF PERFECT HEALTH

This Man Was Rheumatic Cripple Five Years.

FINDS STRENGTH NEW WAY

John Lands, Victim of Chronic Stomach Weakness, and Generally Run Down Constitution, Tells How He Won New Vigor—Now Hale and Hearty. Enjoys Life to Limit.

Can YOU smile like this? Hearty, jolly, contented—it's the smile of perfect health. It comes from bounding red blood, joy in living, the vim and vigor of sound manhood.

How long since YOU have smiled like this? Be honest with yourself. Do you face the mirror in the morning with weary pleasure over another day born, or do you get up tired, droopy and weary, with a bad taste in your mouth, aches in your body and bones, and a grouchy feeling against all the world in your heart? If the latter, then you need just what John Lands needed—and found.

John Lands is the smiler in the picture. He is a machinist and lives at 712 Freeman avenue, Cincinnati. It is the experience he has been through that makes him smile today.

John Lands—His Smile.

Hobbled on Crutches.
For five years John Lands suffered from a weak stomach and kidney trouble. Rheumatism set in and at times made him virtually a cripple. He had to hobble around on crutches for weeks at a time, laying off from his work, losing time and money, suffering agony.

"I have taken full a hundred different kinds of medicine to relieve my condition during the last five years," he said. "But nothing seemed to do me any good. Food would lie heavy on my stomach, and I had to take cathartics constantly. Then I had an extremely bad case of rheumatism. Once I had to lay off work for four months. I had to use crutches a good many weeks at a time."

"Look at me now! I am hale and hearty and enjoy life to the limit. I am in full possession again of all my natural vigor."

Tania Did It.
"What did it? Tania, the wonderful new tonic and system purifier. It is one hundred per cent efficient. No medicine I ever took has done for me one-tenth of what Tania has done. Ask any of my friends who have seen me daily. They will tell you the same thing. This Tania is positively marvelous."

Tania, the ideal reconstructive tonic, is being especially introduced in Mt. Vernon at R.H. Miller, also at Central Drug Co., Livingston, and John Robins' Drug Store, Brodhead; W. M. Owens' Store, Barr Line Broc., Crab Orchard; S. E. Welch, Berea; J. Reynolds & Son, Bee Lick, where the Tania man explains its merits.

PRESIDENT WILSON ELECTED ON FACE OF THE RETURNS

Republicans Demand a Recount of Votes in Several Close and Pivotal States.

RECORD-BREAKING INTEREST IN THE NEWS

Entire Nation Kept in Suspense While Election Judges of a Few States Counted to the Last Ballot Before Result Was Known—Soldier Vote a Factor.

New York, Nov. 11.—On the face of the returns, unmodified and still incomplete, Woodrow Wilson has been elected president of the United States with a majority of at least eleven in the electoral college. But the Republicans place a cloud on his title that is likely to remain for a week or ten days, and in the meantime the Republicans are declining to pay their election bets.

The situation is extraordinary and has resulted in days of nerve-racking strain for the people of the country. If the election officials of a few remote precincts in a few states know how the nation has been waiting breathlessly to hear from them, they must be awed by the enormity of their importance. For on those few precincts has depended the nation's choice of its chief executive.

That Mr. Wilson's victory over Mr. Hughes will not be conceded without a recount in the close states, such as California, New Hampshire, New Mexico and North Dakota, was determined at conferences of the Republican leaders here. Chairman Wilcox asserted a recount would be demanded wherever the margin of Democratic victory was so small that comparatively few votes would turn the scales. He and his associates say they take the position that there should be no cloud upon Mr. Wilson's title to the presidency.

The Democrats, for their part, declared that there must be a recount in New Hampshire, even though the returns gave the state to Mr. Wilson.

That the returns are still incomplete is due to the presence on the border of the National Guard of a number of states. The soldiers are permitted to vote by mail, their ballots being forwarded to the auditors of their home counties, and in Minnesota, especially, the vote of the Guardsmen is likely to cut a figure in determining whether the state goes into the Wilson or the Hughes column.

Minnesota was as bad as California in the matter of shifts, and as its delegation is nearly as large, it, too, was watched with the intensest interest. Through days and nights of counting the race was a seesaw, with but a thousand or so of votes separating the candidates. Neither side would admit defeat, and even now both are awaiting the soldier vote and the official count.

New Hampshire a Surprise.
Perhaps the most surprising of all the states was New Hampshire. It alone of all New England failed to give the Republican candidate a substantial plurality, and for days no one knew in which column it would land. The astonishing closeness of the vote was shown by the rival claims, three days after the election, of 100 plurality for Hughes and 84 for Wilson. In the circumstances it is no wonder that the managers of both parties should demand a recount.

New Mexico, with three electoral votes, attracted national attention by placing itself early in the list of doubtful states, and as it soon appeared that almost every electoral vote would be vital, the returns from down on the border were grabbed hot off the wires. After veering back and forth for days, New Mexico was definitely placed in the Wilson column, though there, too, the president's margin was so scant that it was afforded for the call for a recount. A few mistakes discovered in the figures of the precinct officials might well swing the state over to Hughes.

Wilcox Demands Recount.
Friday National Chairman Wilcox of the Republican party handed out the following statement: "The result still depends upon the vote in a few close states. It must be borne in mind that the returns thus far announced are, in most states, unofficial, and may be changed by the official count required by the laws of those states."

Twice during these unofficial computations yesterday in California mistakes in additions were announced from that state, substantially changing figures previously given.

"It is a common experience that the result of the official count almost always varies from the returns first announced."

"Where the vote is as close as that reported in several states, it may well be that material changes will result from the official count."

"We owe it to the country to take all necessary steps to see that an exact and honest count of the vote is made. When the current seemed to be running against Mr. Wilson on Wednesday, the Democratic managers announced their intention to demand a recount in every close state."

"All we desire is to make sure that the vote is counted as cast."

Both sides say that a recount might be taken in regard to a recount, but little likelihood of a contest being carried to the house of representatives as it was after the Hayes-Tilden campaign in 1877. Legislation enacted in 1887, which made the state sovereign in pronouncing judgment in a recount of the presidential vote.

How Congress Stands.
Congressional election returns, nearly completed, assure President Wilson in the forthcoming administration a Democratic senate, but with five districts still undecided, the best that the Democrats could claim was a plurality of four votes in the house.

Upon the basis of revised returns the Democrats have elected 215 members of the house and the Republicans 211. In addition there have been elected one Independent, one Socialist, one Progressive and one Progressive Protectionist.

Four districts in West Virginia, two of them nominally Democratic and two Republican, and one district in New Mexico, are still undecided. If these districts do not change, the Democrats will have 217 and the Republicans 214, a plurality of only three.

flour, apparently having been elected in Montana.

Six States Go Dry.
Prohibitionists are jubilant over the results of the election where prohibition was an issue. From Washington the legislative committee of the Anti-Saloon league issued a statement, saying:

"Prohibition has taken another great leap forward. Michigan has voted for state-wide prohibition by 75,000 majority; Nebraska by 35,000; Montana by 20,000 and South Dakota by 25,000. Idaho has adopted a prohibition constitutional amendment by a majority of 3 to 1. Utah has probably elected a legislature pledged to enact state-wide prohibition. Washington, Iowa, Colorado, Arizona and Arkansas have defeated attempts of the liquor people to secure the adoption of proposals which would nullify their prohibitory laws."

Thus 24 states out of 48—one-half of the States of the Union—have now declared for state-wide prohibition, and over 60 per cent of the population and 85 per cent of the area of the country is now under prohibitory law.

Women Vote as Do Men.
From the general result it is clear that as the men voted in the suffrage states, so did the women.

In Illinois men and women seemed about equally divided as to "prohibition." The state went for Hughes by a big plurality.

In Kansas, Colorado, Montana, Washington, Oregon and California, where women also vote, Wilson was successful, but his pluralities were not sufficiently large to indicate that the woman voters supported him as a unit.

Farm Vote the Factor.
There are several great outstanding facts concerning the result of the election, one of which is that labor, in all the big industrial states except Ohio, declined to give its undivided support to President Wilson despite his claim to it on the score of having persuaded congress to pass the Adamson "eight-hour" bill. New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, Indiana, all gave the Republican candidate pluralities, and Ohio's vote in favor of Wilson is not certainly to be attributed to the labor vote.

Another interesting development was the independence of the West, which is asserting that it elected a president without the aid of New York and Pennsylvania and other big western and central states. When it was found, early in the evening of election day, that the empire state had gone for Hughes, the newspapers of the metropolises, even those that had supported Wilson, conceded the victory to the Republicans, without waiting to hear from the middle West. When the returns came in from these regions, it was found that the farmer and stock raiser had decided the election, and that the fact that calls for confirmation of the election of Hughes by the United States senate by something like 300,000 plurality, and yet the state went Democratic on the presidency.

Where the vote is as close as that reported in several states it may well be that material changes will result from the official count. We owe it to the country to take all necessary steps to see that an exact and honest count of the vote is made. When the current seemed to be running against Mr. Wilson on Wednesday, the Democratic managers announced their intention to demand a recount in every close state.

All we desire is to make sure that the vote is counted as cast.

The statement was given out following a conference between George W. Perkins, George W. Wickersham, former attorney general; Herbert Parsons, National Committee man; Senator Weeks, Travis H. Whitney, Colonel George Harvey and Mr. Wilcox.

Charles E. Hughes will be the next president of the vote contest goes to the House, according to former Attorney General Wickersham, of Washington, who feels sure the election will be decided by Congress. Should enough electors be deprived of votes by contests to make a tie in the electoral college or should neither candidate have a majority of the total electoral college, then the election would go to the House. In such cases the vote is taken by States, the representation from each state having one vote.

Were in Doubtful Column.
As the fight closed in its last period, the states of California, Minnesota, New Mexico and New Hampshire were in doubt, with the President having the better of it in all except Minnesota. Each one, with the exception of New Mexico, normally is solidly Republican.

California, the home of the most radical of all the Progressives, showed a strong leaning to the President from the start. The women and the Progressive had flocked to the Democratic standard.

From the Democratic headquarters was flashed to 100 cities that the suspense was over; that the President was re-elected, and that the time for formal celebration had arrived.

West Triumphs Over East
It was the final curtain for the most nerve-racking contest for the presidency. The fight will have its legal tangles, in conference at Republican headquarters some of the leading attorneys of the city, among them George W. Wickersham, one time attorney general, decided to begin proceedings at once for a recount in the states where the count has been close. This includes California, North Dakota, New Mexico, New Hampshire and Minnesota. The Democrats had threatened recount proceedings in the event that their cause was lost. They had made a sweeping inclusion of a dozen states.

Watching every move made by their rivals and listening with eagerness to every return from the debatable states, powerful men in the Democratic party gathered at Democratic headquarters and announced that they, too, would take part in any proceedings for a canvass of the vote.

Lines Already Take Shape.
The lines early Friday had already taken shape for the battle of legal events over the election, and there were strong intimations that before the curtain is really and truly rung down upon the situation the battle will have been taken to the House.

Simultaneous with the celebration at the Golden State had spoken its final word and that the President had carried off the honors of the remarkable struggle the Democratic National Committee learned of the threatened recount proceedings.

It issued a statement which said in part: "The President has carried the country by a plurality from 200,000 to 300,000, with an Electoral vote absolutely sure and with Minnesota, West Virginia and New Hampshire to be decided. To say there will be any contest is an insult to the intelligence of the American people."

"There is nothing to add to our statements previously made. We have claimed the re-election of President Wilson since Tuesday morning. We have been fighting especially for the Western States."

Pacifism Plays Its Part.
This continued straight through till the final returns came along Thursday night. The tidal wave—and it was all of that—which rose in some of the Republican strongholds rolled through parts of the Central West, and strengthened and swelled by the spirit of pacifism and almost unbelievable prosperity, swept over the farm lands, the wheat fields and the prairies of the West.

Women voted for the first time in Illinois. They did not go in the overwhelming numbers expected to the President. But in the other 11 states where women vote, Arizona, Colorado, California, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nevada, Utah, Washington, Wyoming and Oregon, they voted for the President and Oregon—except 34—those of Illinois and Oregon—will be cast for the President.

BACK TO LAW FOR HUGHES.
Washington—Charles E. Hughes has given up his residence in Washington and will move his effects to New York, according to the information of friends here. It is said the former justice will resume the private practice of law in New York, of which he was engaged, prior to his retention as counsel in the insurance investigation and his subsequent public career.

100 YEARS OLD.
With the remarkable record of having established over a hundred and twenty thousand Sunday-Schools throughout the country, with a half million teachers and five million scholars, the American Sunday-School Union is now preparing to celebrate its one hundredth anniversary. The Society has issued an interesting pamphlet concerning its history and work and also a leaflet titled "Sunday-School Pioneers in Rural America." The latter relates some of the amazing experiences of the Society's missionaries in the wild and undeveloped sections of the country. Both of these pamphlets will be mailed upon request to all who are interested in knowing more about this unique organization which stands alone and unequalled in community development work in rural America. The headquarters of the Society are at 1816 Chesnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
