PATRIOTIC KENTUCKIANS.

The Y. M. C. A. at Elizabethtown is the first to have a parade at Lexington.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 28.—Friday was Kentucky day and a tremendous crowd was in town to witness the brilliant parade and drill. Col. Henry Waterson addressed the Kentucky volunteers. Scores of excursion trains were run from the depot on the state and it is believed the largest crowd of strangers ever seen in the city was here. Col. Waterson, in extended Col. Waterson, who began speaking at 3 o'clock. Three hundred school children and patriotic airs when the strangers entered the grounds. In the parade were the First regiment, Kentucky volunteers, State college bands, city officials, Knights of Pythias and other orders.

The regiment was mustered in as a whole Friday afternoon. A company was mustered Friday morning, two remaining companies were mustered in the afternoon. The two troops of cavalry were mustered. Capt. Ballance hopes to begin mustering the 1st regiment Saturday and expects to get all the soldiers away from here by the middle of next week.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 21.—The graves of the federal dead in Cave Hill cemetery were decorated with appropriate ceremonies. An address was delivered by Prof. Reuben Post Halleck, of the male high school, and patriotic songs were sung by the pupils of the male and female high schools. Preceding the decoration of the graves, the veterans, the sons of veterans, the members of the W. R. C. and the members of the various auxiliary orders in the city formed a parade and marched to the cemetery and thence to the lot set apart for the federal dead, where the exercises were solemn and impressive. The bands of the city were present. The bands of the city were present.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 21.—The War Alger telegraphed Gov. Bradley Monday afternoon, ordering him to include all of the Kentucky volunteers in four regiments. This will allow only one regiment besides those already formed, and will admit of the Negro regiment which Gov. Bradley desired should be raised and for which officers had been picked out. The governor sent several telegrams protesting against the proposed change but did not succeed in getting the war department around to his way of thinking. The companies are to be recruited up to 100 men each.

QUEST KNOWN AT CAMP COLTON. Camp Colton, Lexington, Ky., May 20.—This camp was not the scene of activity which marked it last Sunday when the 2d regiment was organized. The 2d regiment boys rested Sunday, for the greater portion of the visitors went to Camp Irwin and to disturb the quiet of this camp. However, scores of the boys received callers and were the recipients of baskets of good things sent them from home or friends in the city. Monday Gov. Bradley will be here to present the officers of the companies.

MURDER AT BOWLING GREEN. Henderson, Ky., May 21.—Foster D. Ball, agent of a tobacco company, was shot and killed near Scottsboro, this county, by Homer Taylor, Ball, who had secured a forged license. Taylor for a sum of money, went with the deputy sheriff to lay on some property of Taylor's. Three bullets entered Ball's chest. Sheriff Duggan, with a posse, arrested Taylor about an hour after the shooting. Ball is the son of the late Mayor Ball of Henderson, Ky. He represented this county in the legislature in 1891-92.

FOUND IN THE MOUNTAINS. Henderson, Ky., May 21.—A coat and vest were found at 12 o'clock Monday at the foot of a mountain. The items were recognized as belonging to J. C. Barnes. Immediately parties began climbing the river, he had attempted suicide by jumping from the rocks. At 6 o'clock Monday evening the body was fished out of the river a short distance below. He was 27 years of age and had quite a sum of money. He was probably insane.

WEEK KENTUCKY CULTURE. Lexington, Ky., May 21.—The Wellborn Money preached the weekly sermon of West Kentucky college at the Methodist church to a large audience. The graduating class this year is composed entirely of young women—Misses Florence and Myrtle Elliott, Jennie Rice, Clara Brown, Mattie Taylor and Mary McDonald.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

The Cincinnati Southern Railway shops at Ludlow damaged to the amount of $10,000.

LUDLOW, Ky., May 28.—The Cincinnati Southern railway shops were the scene Monday morning of a disastrous fire, resulting in a loss of $10,000, fully covered by insurance, and the complete destruction of what is known as the largest and finest of its kind in the world. It is believed the largest crowd of strangers ever seen in the city was here. Col. Waterson, in extended Col. Waterson, who began speaking at 3 o'clock. Three hundred school children and patriotic airs when the strangers entered the grounds. In the parade were the First regiment, Kentucky volunteers, State college bands, city officials, Knights of Pythias and other orders.

Third Kentucky Now Ready. Lexington, Ky., May 28.—The Third Kentucky regiment was completed Saturday morning and mustering Officer Ballance has wired the war department for instructions regarding the disposition of it. Col. Smith and Chaplain Thomas were the last men sworn in. Col. Smith is expecting to leave for the Fourth Kentucky and the First under Col. Castleman, will be mustered in by the 1st of next week. The two cavalry troops were mustered Saturday.

Desha, Breckinridge, son of Col. Billy Breckinridge, who has been made judge advocate of the First regiment Kentucky volunteers, will be attached to the staff of this unit. Maj. Gen. Joseph Breckinridge.

NEW STATE GUARDIAN. A new annual commencement of Madison County was held Friday. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by President R. Linn Cary, of Kentucky university, of Lexington. Edward Southern Hines, of Butler college, delivered the graduation address.

ARMY OF INVASION.

American Troops Embarking for Trip to the Island of Cuba.

It is likely that no less than four regiments of Infantry Expedition will be loaded to different parts of the Atlantic coast.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The military invasion of Cuba has begun. The orders of the war department are being carried out at an early hour Monday morning. The troops that have been prepared at the march ports began to be loaded on the morning of the 28th. The troops are being loaded on the morning of the 28th.

How many troops started Monday morning, are questions which the war department is not prepared to answer. They have a desire that the Spanish should be kept from attacking our soldiers. Therefore nothing of the details of this invasion should be learned. There is a suspicion that the start will be from Tampa and Mobile.

All of the vessels of that Cape Verde fleet may not be bottled up in the harbor of Santiago de Cuba, but Schley is at last cock sure that Cervera is there.

The United States, thirty days after the declaration of war has an army of 200,000 regulars and volunteers in the field, and knows where he can get two million more of the same kind if the great powers would like to see an army that is an army.

It is not probable that important preliminary steps toward an offensive and defensive Anglo-American alliance have already been taken, but it is obvious to even a blind man that Mr. John Bull and Miss Columbia are making eyes at each other.
