

STATE ODDS AND ENDS.

JOHN G. BLAIR FOR GOVERNOR.

The Populist Meet in State Convention at Frankfort, Ky., and Nominates a Full State Ticket.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 28.—The populist state convention Thursday named a full ticket, John G. Blair, of Nicholas county, was nominated for governor by acclamation. The platform adopted indorses Warrenton Barber, of Philadelphia, for president, and Ignatius Kennedy, of Manchester, for vice-president. It re-affirms the former populist national platform and declares in favor of government ownership of all public institutions, and of stamping out trusts, emphasizing the government ownership of railroads. It condemns the federal state election laws, as an attempt to disfranchise the voters of the state, and says further:—

"We revere to see that Hon. Wm. J. Bryan for whom the populists of Kentucky voted in 1896 to president of the United States, by his public endorsement of the ticket nominated at Louisville, and the platform there adopted, assumed the responsibility of endorsing criminal attempts of corrupt elements of Kentucky politics to subvert the ballot. In order that the populist party be preserved forever free from fraud, insidious and political corruption, such as now dominates both the democratic and republican parties in Kentucky, as well as in other states, as exemplified in the late struggle of the democratic convention, controlled by policemen and others sent here to defeat the will of the honest masses of Kentucky, and the republican convention at Lexington, controlled by federal office holders, we endorse the policy of applying to the management of the people's party as far as practicable, the principles of the direct legislation in nomination and the conduct of the party affairs."

The following is the ticket nominated, there was no opposition:—
For governor, John G. Blair, of Nicholas; lieutenant governor, W. S. Hoopes, of Louisville; auditor, Sam Graham, of Marshall; secretary of state, Ken Kerren, of Callaway; treasurer, A. H. Cardin, of Crittenden; commissioner of agriculture, W. J. Hanzo, of Mercer; superintendent of public instruction, John C. Suberland, of Anderson; railroad commissioner, second district, John H. Hood, of Spencer; third district, Wm. Patrick, of Harlan.
The populist state convention just before a adjournment Thursday night elected Wm. Hoopes of Washington county for United States senator. Hevins was a probability for the nomination, but was later entered against Blair.

The May Baby.
ELKTON, Ky., July 28.—Little Julia Thompson, the five-year-old daughter of Pastor G. E. Thompson, of the Presbyterian church, fell 30 feet from a window. The fall produced a severe bruise, and rendered the child unconscious for some time. Her condition is critical, but the physicians say she may recover.

Found the Body.
LAGANER, Ky., July 28.—The body of Malcolm Thompson, of Brookville, who was drowned in the Ohio river while on his way to the democratic convention about five weeks ago, was found floating in the river three miles above Westport, this county. The body was identified Friday morning and sent home.

Mrs. Grant Green Dead.
FRANKFORT, Ky., July 28.—Mrs. Grant Green, an 85-year-old widow, died Friday after a long illness. She was the wife of the late Col. Grant Green, former state auditor and cashier of the Farmers' Bank of Kentucky.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.
TOMPKINSVILLE, Ky., July 28.—Near Hayesville, Macon county, Tenn. Tandy Fishback was instantly killed by the explosion of a sawmill boiler. He was blown against a tree and his head mashed to a jelly. Other hands were hurt.

"Limberneck" Kills Chickens.
LEXINGTON, Ky., July 28.—A new and fatal disease has made its appearance in local poultry yards. It is called "limberneck," and is caused by reducing the number of "springers." It seems to be a form of paralysis. By it the chicken is attacked at the junction of the neck with the back. The neck becomes limber, and it is speedily reduced to the breast and the chicken is dead.

Dead Some Choice Spithers.
VANCENBURG, Ky., July 28.—Mrs. Martha Sparks has been sent to jail in default of the payment of a $5 fine assessed by Judge Hays. She was arrested on complaint of John Morris, who proved that Mrs. Sparks had called him a bald-headed scorpion and a bow-legged rhinoceros.

Officially Denied.
FRANKFORT, Ky., July 28.—The story that Gov. Bradley promised representation to the legislature for a republican candidate for governor, to call an extra session of the legislature to repeal the Goebel election law is officially denied.

TROOPS INEFFECTIVE.

Inspector Reports on the Funds—He Says An Extra Session of the Legislature Is Not Necessary.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 28.—State Inspector Lester made a lengthy report on the Clay county situation to the governor Friday, but it contains nothing sensational. The report while surrounded by troops, indicates the uselessness of sending troops there during the term of circuit court; that the present conditions there does not necessitate a special term of court in August, but that at the regular October term the grand jury should thoroughly investigate the killing of Tom Baker, and indict the guilty man if the evidence will warrant it.

The inspector recommends that the next legislature should give credit judges more power in selecting juries and that the governor should be given the sole power to appoint special judges in felony cases where the regular judge is out of the state. He thinks the governor could have taken no action that would have checked the strike and can do nothing now under the law that he has not done to solve the problem and that an extra session of the legislature is not at all necessary. The inspector's report, when read between the lines, indicates that an extra session is beyond the realm of possibility, unless a miracle should change the governor's present view.

A STATE CONFERENCE.

The Anti-Goebel Democrats Will Be Called Together, but at Washington, on Wednesday.

A conference of the anti-Goebel democrats will be called to order at Woodland park Wednesday afternoon. Some 25 counties have instructed delegates to be present, and on the basis of the Louisville convention this means about 230 delegates. Several other counties will hold conference Tuesday, and it is expected that fully 500 delegates will be present. Maj. P. P. Johnson has left the city and will not be present, but Gov. Reynolds is expected. When Reynolds is nominated the convention will claim a party emblem and will order to be placed at the head of the ballot. The Goebel ticket claims to be entitled to the use of the party emblem.

To Improve the Road.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 1.—The Lexington City railway has filed a mortgage to the Columbus Trust company, of Baltimore, for $1,500,000. The money raised by this mortgage will be used to improve and extend the street car lines, probably connecting Lexington with several surrounding towns.

Committee Meeting.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 28.—Chairman Long, of the republican state campaign committee, will call a meeting for Friday or Saturday when an advisory committee will be located in this city either at the Fifth Avenue hotel or the Young Men's McKinley club rooms.

Pitcher Brokers Released.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 1.—Pitcher Brashear was released by the colonels Sunday. He will probably go back to the western association. Catcher Sedgewick was released by the St. Louis club and left the Clevelands here Sunday night.

Tree Uprooted.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Aug. 1.—A terrific rain and wind storm was passed over this county Saturday did great damage. R. K. Young's tobacco barn was blown away. There was no wind so strong that an immense tree was torn up and blown against a stock barn in which Mr. Young had taken refuge. The whole end of the barn was crushed out and he had a narrow escape.

Smallpox in Frankfort.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 28.—The city council of the state capital held a special session Friday, and upon recommendation of the health board, again issued orders closing all churches and prohibiting public gatherings indefinitely. A former proclamation of this kind was rescinded last week.

MOB VIOLENCE IN GEORGIA—THE PEOPLE ARE FLEEING.

Gov. Chandler Issues an Appeal to the People of the State—Aba's Injunction Upheld by the Court.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 1.—Gov. Chandler Monday night issued an appeal to the people of Georgia to help him stop the violence and lawlessness that has been manifested in different parts of the state. He said that it is for the people to uphold the law, and that in bringing to speedy trial all criminals, and by the force of a virile public sentiment, bring punishment to the lawbreakers of all kinds.

Then the governor tells of the proaches heaped upon the state by repeated outbreaks, and says that the purity of the fair mothers and daughters of Georgia must and shall be preserved, and at the same time the liberties of all of the law-abiding Negroes in Georgia must and shall be protected. Arson and burglary and assassination and robbery and rape shall be stopped, and at the same time the law must stop. The good of both races and the fair name of the state demand this.

"The ordinary processes of the law are amply sufficient to punish criminals. Our judges are pure and incorruptible. Our juries are composed of our most intelligent, upright men, who seldom make mistakes. They often make mistakes, and the law never knows where to stop after punishing the guilty, and then, with the blood of one victim, it offers for the blood of another, and often offers on the altar of vengeance those who are ruthless, upright men. "We must away with the mob, we must re-entrench the law. We must restore the altar of reason and equity down the altar that passion and prejudice have so often profaned and defiled."

The anti-Goebel democrats will be called together, but at Washington, on Wednesday. A conference of the anti-Goebel democrats will be called to order at Woodland park Wednesday afternoon. Some 25 counties have instructed delegates to be present, and on the basis of the Louisville convention this means about 230 delegates. Several other counties will hold conference Tuesday, and it is expected that fully 500 delegates will be present. Maj. P. P. Johnson has left the city and will not be present, but Gov. Reynolds is expected. When Reynolds is nominated the convention will claim a party emblem and will order to be placed at the head of the ballot. The Goebel ticket claims to be entitled to the use of the party emblem.

POLICEMAN PLEADS GUILTY.

O'Brien was charged with having stolen a gold watch, a chain and two charms from the body of George B. Rhoads, president of the Stuyvesant Fire Insurance company, who was run over and killed by an eighth avenue electric car on June 10.

BALTIMORE QUARANTINES.

Dr. Adam Sampson Files Suit Labeling the Spanish War Vessel as Spanish and Mischievous Stores.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Dr. Adam Sampson has filed a suit in the supreme court of the district, labeling the Spanish vessel of war, Marie Teresa, and miscellaneous stores and supplies captured by the United States navy who served with the United States naval force and took part in the naval engagement of Santiago on July 3, 1898, and in captures made subsequent thereto.

Adm. Sampson says that the fleet of the United States was acting under his immediate command, as commander in chief, that Commodore Winfield S. Schley was the commanding officer of a division of the fleet under his order and Capt. French E. Chadwick was fleet captain or chief of staff. He denies the capture of the Spanish vessels and says that the captured property has been or will be surveyed, appraised and inventoried, adding: "This will show that the Teresa was worth $100,000 over and above the cost of recovery."

The daily Interior Journal, issued by G. C. Keller and A. G. Huffman during the Hustonville fair was a gem.

The Louisville Post says—but the Post, no decent man would read or quote from it.—Interior Journal.

Editor Louis Landrum with the Lancaster Record has accomplished more for the benefit of his town than any other man in Garrard county. When he goes out after anything he never fails to bring it in. There was the electric light, changing of train schedules, the construction of new hotels, stores, opera house, the southern railway survey and now waterworks. Much of the credit is due Mr. Landrum for agitating the question that brought and will bring on to completion these various enterprises.

If the editor buys a peck of onions, a load of stove wood, coal, a mess of beans, turnips, apples, meat, lard, butter, corn or any other necessities from his subscribers they demand cash on the spot; while the subscribers often have little care when it comes to taking the paper on a credit, which is sometimes extended into years and in many cases finally refuse to pay at all. This is not justice. Because the editor is a good fellow and wants to treat you decently is no reason why you should drag on forever with your imposition upon him in putting off from year to year the payment of what is due. He has his printers to pay, material to buy and living expenses. It takes money. Now you old codgers and young ones too, rich poor and all other grades of humanity who are in arrears to this paper we ask you again to come up and settle. If you don't mean to do so write us a card and we may send you a receipt. We never force any one to take our paper but when one subscribes for it we expect at last some pay for it. It is embarrassing, not only to the editor, to publish these words, but to a great many good people who always pay for their paper. We in self defense or rather self preservation are compelled to insist on your paying up if you owe us.

LEXINGTON, KY., Aug. 1.—(Spl.)—Mrs. Mary Love Lawless died at her home in this city last week. She was once the belle of Rockcastle County and the sweetheart of Lincoln. Her romance with the man who afterward became President was more than a half-century ago. She was just budding into girlhood. Lincoln had accompanied Alexander McKee from Illinois to Mt. Vernon to attend McKee's wedding. Mrs. Lawless, then Miss Mary Love Joplin, was a bridemaid, and although 17 years his junior, Lincoln fancied he loved her. Her husband was James Richard Lawless, the son of a wealthy Louisville planter. In later years Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln on different occasions visited the Lawless home.—[Cincinnati Post. Lincoln may have gone to Lancaster with Alexander McKee and never came to Mt. Vernon.

The case of Abraham Samm, for the killing of Felix Mink, of Livingston last week was tried yesterday before Judge Williams who rendered about, as we remember, the following decision, when the evidence was finished. "The strong, brave, vigorous and robust defendant of 38 is charged with murder in the killing of an aged, infirm and decrepit old man of 78, more than four times his senior." The defendant went with a deadly weapon concealed, where he was seen stopping and was heard to have had an animated conversation with young Mink, the grandson of the deceased, about cutting some timber, using vile and insulting language. The deceased was called out of the house and asked by the grandson to show defendant the boundary line which he readily agreed to do. "This kind of conduct has made a defendant more angry, who was yet cursing and abusing the young man." The defendant told the deceased to go ahead that he would attend to him later. The defendant left with his pistol half way out of his pocket going in the direction of the deceased. In two minutes, according to the only witness who heard the shooting, the firing began. The deceased, in his dying statement made to several persons under the sense of impending death and immediate dissolution, stated that only one shot or two was spoken when the defendant pulled his pistol out and fired twice the powder striking the victim. The bullet struck the defendant's chest behind the neck, and he fell to the ground, uttering groans and struggles, then his statements. The crime shows that Mink was weak and was very feeble. The defendant went prepared to take human life, raised a difficulty with young Mink, killed the deceased in the woods and killed him without giving him any warning of his malicious intention to do so. From this evidence the taking of Mink's life was without cause or provocation and to my mind the presumption of his guilt is not only great according to the requirement of the constitution but the proof is evident. The defendant is held without bail."

IS IT RIGHT
For an Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?
From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard, N. C. It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by Williams & Wesley, Druggists, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

WOULD NOT SUFFER SO AGAIN FOR FIFTY TIMES ITS PRICE.
I awoke last night with severe pain in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & Curdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—C. H. Wilson Livervyman, Burgetstown, Washington Co., Pa. This remedy is for sale by M. C. & D. N. Williams.
