

SENATOR GOEBEL

Addresses a Vast and Enthusiastic Audience at Mt. Sterling.

An Eloquent and Powerful Argument on the Issues of the Campaign. The L & N and the Trusts Aim to Control the State.

Mr. Sterzinger, Ky., Aug. 31.—Fully 8,000 people packed as close as they could stand, today heard Senator Goebel speak and saw him goebel upon the issues of the campaign. The speeches undoubtedly had excellent effect. Senator Goebel was never in better voice, and the evident sympathy of the crowd with all he said inspired him. It was by far the best speech he ever made, and the audience was held spell bound. He said:

"Fellow Democrats, the most active opponents of the American ticket to-day, my fellow citizens, are the L & N Railroad, the American Tobacco Trust and the American Tobacco Trust. They are engaged in an effort to control the state government. Your plank program adopted at Louisville is a defiance of the efforts of these corporations. (Applause.)

"You are now to determine whether you, by your duly elected servants, or the L & N railroad, the American Tobacco Trust and the American Tobacco Trust are to govern Kentucky. (Applause.)

"The L & N Co. entered the campaign early. They are in possession of the Louisville Democratic convention, and in the letter of President Smith, of that company, they have entered the campaign, and will only desist upon the making of a pledge that the Legislature of Kentucky will do nothing that they object to. Now, the first time in years, corporations are thrown on the mask and entered upon an open effort to manage the affairs of a free people."

"Hon. John Young Brown, the alleged nominee of an alleged convention at Lexington (Applause) said in accepting his alleged nomination: 'to home shall I sell your neighbors. I have heard here that I do expect the delegates that do not intend to go home."

"The man who made the motto of the Louisville Stockingham Theater band? Did he expect them to sell their neighbors that they saw on one of the chief actors there (Applause) the Brown. The lobbyist of the L & N Railroad. (Applause) That they saw in the horrible and fear-inspiring appearance were drawn with forep-like beaks, apparently cannally lying on the collar with intent to sample the life fluid of the wearer.

"The great advantage this device possessed was that it inspired the friends of the weaker to make vain efforts to remove the bug. First the rescuer would make wild waves of his hands while shouting 'to scaring the bug.' This falling he made a frantic grab and encounter merely the glossy stiffness of the collar. Then he would stop the device in being worn to some considerable extent, but its efficacy in reducing thirst is on the wane.

PAY FOR THE SOCIETY NEWS.
Those Whose Names Get in Print in London Must Pay Big Prices for the Notice.

All the personal paragraphs and society news that appear in the London papers are paid for except that which relates to the royal family, the nobility and the diplomatic corps, says the Philadelphia Times. If an ordinary citizen gets a ball or married off his daughter or entertains the prince of Wales at dinner he is compelled to pay for his glory. Mr. John W. Mackay, Mr. William Waldorf Astor and other ordinary persons, native or foreign, in London society pay for every notice they receive in the newspapers. Sometimes the report of a ball or a wedding costs $200 or $400 for every newspaper it appears in. The following standing announcement concerning what is known as the "agency column" will be found in the London papers:

"All society, personal and fashionable paragraphs, except those relating to royalty and official incidents, will be charged for at a minimum rate of one shilling for two lines, each succeeding line ten shillings and sixpence additional."

Therefore when any of your friends in London send you a copy of an English newspaper containing a personal notice you may understand it has been paid for.

All the advertising in English newspapers is on outside pages. The newspaper or other reading matter is on the inside.

price of school books and Indiana had in Indiana such a law has been on the statute books for ten years, and it has been a satisfactory law in every respect. In my opinion, if anything should be done as free as possible it should be the opportunity of every poor child in Kentucky to get an education.

"Fellow Democrats, the Republican party should be judged not by what it says but by what it does." (Applause.) Senator Goebel recalled the introduction of the Chinese school book. He said it had been opposed by Mosquet who participated in the "bastard convention" at Lexington (laughter and applause), by George Alexander and by James C. Gillespie. (Cheers.) "That bill," continued Senator Goebel, "would have saved the parents of about three million of the Kentucky the enormous sum of $700,000 per year." (Applause.)

The speaker then took up the McChord railroad bill, classifying it as a Democratic measure and saying that the Republican convention and ignored by the railroad convention at Lexington he explained the provisions of the McChord bill and cited the fact that Geo. Alexander and James C. Gillespie, who attended the Democratic convention, had voted on this bill. "Not with the Democrats," he said, "but with the veto of the Republican Government." (Cheers.)

"Senator Goebel went into details in explaining the railroad excitation which the McChord bill with correct. He especially to the explanation as to why he had to leave Kentucky. He said that the McChord bill was a 'clear-statement of the issues confront the Democrats' and 'as to whether, if Republican rule shall be continued indefinitely, if Kentucky's one shall go to Kentucky or to Bryan, if J. C. S. Blackburn shall go to the senate or some Republican or Democrat shall be named, if the legislature shall take the place of Democracy.'"

BUGS ON THEIR COLLARS.

Fashionable Men Now Wearing Queen's-Size Jewels on Their Neckwear.

When somebody starts a new idea in wearing apparel or any other matter which interests humanity, the idea is seized upon with avidity. This is especially true of the fashion world. When somebody starts a new idea in wearing apparel or any other matter which interests humanity, the idea is seized upon with avidity. This is especially true of the fashion world.

"When the neck-towel-kissing bug came before the time lights were dimmed, while some climbed out to the walls, others knelt at the easements in prayer. Engineer Otto placed a long ladder against the outer wall and rescued half a dozen. Six were forced to jump for their lives, and fortunately all but Sister Bertrand escaped without serious injury. The escape of Sister Agnes seemed almost a miracle. She was cut off on the fourth floor and elected to jump from the window rather than plunge into the furnace that had once been a stairway. She climbed out on the sill and then seized the slatted awning net clear of the building. Then she loosened her hold. She struck the ground square upon her feet and then fell over on her side. Before any one could reach her she got up and walked quickly away unhurt."

FIVE MEN INJURED.

A Casting Weighing Twenty-Six Tons, on the Crane, at the E. F. Allis Works in Milwaukee, Wis. Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 29.—While at work hoisting one of the immense castings for an engine bed for the Metropolitan Street Railway Co., of New York, five men were seriously injured at the foundry of the E. F. Allis works shortly before midnight Monday.

The men had raised the casting weighing 27 tons from the mold while three below were at work "dusting" it. This task accomplished, the signal was given for the two cranes, Nieman and Dooley, to return to their cages on the crane, where the engine for hoisting is located, when the entire structure gave way, throwing the cranes to the ground and burying their companions beneath. The men were extracted with difficulty. The loss to the Allis works, in addition to the immense damage done the machinery, will be especially severe, and it is found all casting of large work in the industry for several weeks and perhaps months. This will mean a loss of thousands of dollars.

ENTIRE PARTY DROWNED.

DARDANELLES, Aug. 29.—About seven miles below here a party of Negroes, consisting of Mrs. Caloin Jackson and two children and Mrs. John Smith, with three children, and Louisa Price, a grown woman, were crossing the river in a skiff, when from some unknown cause the boat capsized, drowning the entire party.

KILLED HIS FAMILY AND HIMSELF.

WINDSPRICE, Mo., Aug. 29.—Frederick Johnson, a Gilbert Plains farmer, Monday shot and killed his wife and three children and then committed suicide. No reason can be ascribed for the deed.

SUNKEN SPANISH SHIPS.

Three of the War Vessels in Manila Bay Rattled and Are Rebuilding at Hong Kong.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Naval Constructor Hobson has submitted to the navy department an supplemental report to that recently made on the condition of the Spanish ships raised from Manila bay and now being rebuilt under his supervision at Hong Kong. These ships are the Isla de Cuba, Isla de Luzon and Don Anastasio. He set forth in detail the condition of the work.

He says they were more damaged by fire than by shot, and that most of the rebuilding has been made necessary by the burned woodwork. They were 30 percent completed on July 1, and Mr. Hobson says they will be ready to be turned over to the navy for service within six weeks after the arrival of the batteries and the electrical plants. These ships were some three weeks ago, so that there is every prospect the vessels will be in commission before long. He again urges that efforts be made to raise the other ships sunk in Manila bay, and says that the Velasco and Don Antonio Ulloa are in the first rate condition, as the Spaniards sank them at their anchors before they fairly got into action. He recommends a careful examination be made and says that if the authority is given him he will visit Manila and make a personal inspection of the sunken ships.

THE CONVENT FIRE.

Four Persons Were Killed, Two Are Missing and a Number Injured.—Scene of Ten Building, Newark.

BARKHILL, N. Y., Aug. 30.—The fire that broke out at 1 o'clock Monday morning destroyed nine of the 13 buildings of St. Agnes convent and orphanage, entailing a loss of $150,000 and caused the death of four persons. Two persons are missing. Twenty-five inmates were injured by falls, jumps and burns, none serious.

Three more lives were lost than to the heaviest fire in this city since the death of the old inmates of the convent building. The fire was caused by a candle falling slowly, each arch being sustained by the cross beams supporting the entire structure.

As the mass gained impetus bars of iron inches thick snapped with a loud report, and the great mass moved faster and faster in its descent. The ground it fell with a crash, and was heard blocks away, the structure leaving the walls practically unharmed and sending up great clouds of dust and dirt.

That more men were not killed and injured was almost a miracle. Fully 30 men were at work in the space covered by the arches as they fell. A number of the men happened to be at excavations of which there are many in ground beneath the steel works, and although somewhat battered by their tumble, were saved from the great mass of iron and brick that crashed down over them. Several of them were standing under the arches when they commenced to fall and running to the sidewalks, by great good fortune, happened to stand in the space left vacant by the curve of the arches away from the sidewalks. Had the arches fallen to either side the loss of life must have been much heavier, but they fell to the south on a line parallel to the side of the building and none of them save the two southern arches fell at all outside the space to be occupied by the building.

COTTON MILLS SYNDICATE.

It is sought to Control All the Mills in the South by a Capitalization of One Hundred and Fifty Millions.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 29.—Reynold G. Greene was here Monday presenting a syndicate of New Yorkers who seek control of the cotton mills of the southern United States for $150,000,000. He declines to give his offering price, but asks the mills to send a committee to New York to receive the details of the bids from the men who are organizing the syndicate.

Bankers who were in session here Monday morning with Mr. Greene were told that local banking interests would not suffer by a trust such as he proposed for local management and local banking would be a part of the plan.

REPORT CANARD'S SUICIDE.

ALBANY, Aug. 29.—J. M. Sinclair, high sheriff of Donagel, committed suicide by shooting himself on receipt of the announcement that his daughter, 18 years of age, had been drowned in an accident on the coast of the country. The latter story now turns out to be false and has caused an immense sensation in the country where the family is prominent. The author of the falsehood which caused the father to commit suicide is unknown.

STEEL ARCHES PELL.

The Live Cranes Out, Three Men Missing and a Large Area Rebuilding at Columbus Building.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 29.—Twelve steel arches, each weighing 35 tons, which were to have supported the upper structure of the Coliseum building, in course of erection on Wabash avenue, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, fell to the ground late Monday afternoon. It is known that six were crushed out. The bodies of three men are supposed to be under the wreckage.

Seven are in the hospital with injuries received of three will survive, one may possibly recover, and the balance are for the greater part seriously injured.

All of the arches were standing, and the balance are for the greater part seriously injured. It was the intention of the steel contractors, the Pittsburgh Bridge Co., of Pittsburgh, Pa., to erect the arches Monday night by means of general contractors. The immense "traveler" or derrick, which had been used in the erection of the arches had been removed, and the agents of the bridge company were accounting their work as practically completed, when suddenly and without the slightest preliminary warning, the arch fell upon them suddenly fell over against the other arches.

The weight was too much for this. It gave way, crashed against the third and then one by one the great steel arches fell over the south, precisely in the same manner as a number of the arches fell. Nearly all the men who were killed were at work on the top of the arches, 60 feet above the ground. Some of them made a vain attempt to slide the arches, but before they could help themselves they were hurled to the ground.

Many of them uttered "pleating shrieks" for aid as they fell. Most of them were killed outright by the sudden nature of their injuries. The skulls of the unfortunate men were crushed like eggs, and their bodies were hurled to the ground.

Some structure began falling slowly, each arch being sustained by the cross beams supporting the entire structure.

As the mass gained impetus bars of iron inches thick snapped with a loud report, and the great mass moved faster and faster in its descent. The ground it fell with a crash, and was heard blocks away, the structure leaving the walls practically unharmed and sending up great clouds of dust and dirt.

Old Phil Thompson, old Matt Adams, old Tom Turner, old Judge Beckner and other old "has-beens" make up a sweet lot to purify politics. Everyone of them is dead politically, but they want to tread the stage again before being buried forever. —Stanford Journal.

Hon. R. C. Warren, of Stanford, spoke here Monday last to a fair audience of Rockcastle Democrats. Every one knows that it was a splendid speech, as R. C. never delivers any other kind. His hearers were well entertained and are, if possible, still stronger in their faith of Democratic triumph in November.

Judge James Denton has consented to accept the nomination for State Senator from this Senatorial District if the Republican convention that meets at Mt. Vernon sees fit to name him as a candidate. Judge is perhaps one of the best men they have in their party and they could not do better than name him. —Somerset Journal.

Well what's the matter with Rockcastle's candidate, Lieut. S. D. Lewis? He is candidate and should get the nomination.

Hon. James B. McCreary made a rousing Democratic speech here Monday. He showed up the Republican mismanagement of State affairs in their true light, and urged Democrats not to be led off by any side issues to aid the Republicans in again securing control of the State administration. He spoke for an hour and a half to a large audience who were heartily in sympathy with him. —Nicholasville Democrat.

"At this very hour by the watch" said he, pointing to his time piece on the table, "John Young Brown is standing on a platform in Bowling Green trying to convince his hearers that John C. Breckinridge and not Douglas was a boulevard. Let me recall a little history. Charleston was the meeting place of the Democratic convention in 1860. Breckinridge's name was never mentioned in that convention. The Douglas people captured the temporary organization and elected as temporary chairman General Thompson Flourney, of Arkansas, whose wife was my sister. However, they failed to capture the permanent organization and Caleb Cushing, of Massachusetts, was made chairman. He was not a Douglas man. The convention had more trouble than our recent convention at Louisville. It lasted from the 23rd day of April to the 3rd day of May. Then it took a recess to meet May 18 at Baltimore. The two conventions were held. One nominated Douglas the other nominated Breckinridge. But the chairman of the convention which nominated Breckinridge was Mr. Cushing, the regularly elected chairman. Brown helped with his cor. organs and to defeat Breckinridge just as he is now trying to defeat Goebel. Douglas carried one Southern state—Missouri. Breckinridge carried the rest—Blackburn at Elizabethtown.

Don't expect your hens to lay when you neglect them and complain that there is no profit in poultry.

Don't let your fowls roost in a damp house, and then wonder why they wheeze and have swollen heads.

One hundred hens will consume one hundred pounds of grit during the year, and still some people foolishly neglect to supply it.

Don't neglect to give fresh, cool water to the fowls twice daily. Many of the so-called diseases have their origin in a failure to get pure water.

Messrs. Wills & Broadwell, assisted by J. D. Duvall bought Wednesday about 25 mule colts at prices ranging from $15 to $40. Good second rate mules brought about $25 for horse and $35 for mare colts. —Winchester Democrat.

Five cent hogs are here. The man who predicted this price is now honored as a prophet. The market has been steadily tending upward, with the inevitable declines that accompany such an advance, until this high figure was reached on Monday for an especially attractive lot. A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA.
A PROMINENT VIRGINIA EDITOR Had Almost Given Up. But Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
READ HIS EDITORIAL.
From the Times, Hittelle, Va.
I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up, all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man to-day and feel as well as I ever did in my life. —O. R. Moore. Sold by Theo. Wesley, Mt. Vernon Ky.

The signing of articles of incorporation of the Crawfordsville, (Ind.) Trust Company with a paid up capital of $25,000, is among the important items which come to us from that State. Associated with the new enterprise are men of prominence in Crawfordsville, and it is noted that one of the number is the able banker of that city, A. F. Ramsey, president of the Crawfordsville institution, the Citizens' National bank. Mr. Ramsey has long been an influential factor in the financial world of Montgomery county, and his success has been due, not alone to his energy in all that he undertakes, but to his thorough knowledge of the fundamental principles of banking, acquired by practical experience in that line. President Ramsey's connection with the new trust company will be of much value to that enterprise. The company commenced business August 1st. [New York Financial Review.

Mr. Ramsey is a Rockcastle man, and from his multitude of duties, we are satisfied he is a mighty busy person. He owns a telephone exchange, a controlling interest in a large bank, of which he is president, a thirty-thousand-dollar hotel, store houses and dwellings, president of a life stock insurance company; a number of natural gas wells and other enterprises too numerous to mention.

RATTLESLAKE EATER.

A Georgia Negro Who Captures and Eats a Rattlesnake—Makes a Meal of Them.

MOSS HENDERSON is a noble son of Africa and lives two in from America in a rocky field where rattlesnakes are most plentiful, says the Savannah Herald. Moss takes his living by capturing snakes and selling them. This is the truth, strange as it may seem. One day lately he killed a large one and he tried to eat it. He thought of snake and Moses ate it. The other day he brought a very large snake to the city, trying to sell his hide. There were no tatters on it. The snake was very poor, and Moses said it would do to eat, and he stuffed it with corn and sold it a good price. Every day those snakes make good deals of money for Moss. He says right down the snake of a rattlesnake is a fatty article that makes an ash, when fried, that will cure any case of rheumatism. It is strange how many people he sells this rattlesnake oil. He has a long list of certificates from other intelligent whites, who declare that he has cured them of all their other remedies have failed. He sells a vial of the oil for one dollar and guarantees a lasting cure.

THE INDIAN TERRITORY.

A Missouri Woman Suggests That When It Becomes a State It Shall Be Called Jeffersonia.

Mrs. Robert H. True, of Clinton, Mo., writes to the St. Louis Republic suggesting that when the Indian territory becomes a state it be admitted to the union under the name of Jefferson. She says:

"I have made the suggestion to several prominent citizens of the territory in my recent trip through that important section, and they view the proposition with favor. It is a suggestion of the entire territory to honor the memory of Thomas Jefferson, under whose direction Louisiana purchase was made. Jefferson's name is forever associated with the history of Louisiana."

ROCKING BEAUTIFIES WOMEN.

How an English Scientist Accomplishes His Purpose for the American Woman.

The rocking chair, according to an English scientist over here for the purpose of writing a book of travel, deserves even a higher place in American homes than it occupies in England. He says that the exercise of the exercise one gets on a rocking chair, you will see that it is an upright, window-blinds device, a young woman's rock her in her chair in the course of a morning. In fancy it would take a calculating barber to tell you that. At any rate, the exercise she gets is excellent and ample. That push which the toes give to her chair in motion, repeated and repeated, makes the finest, the best pound and fun and it keeps misshaping flesh off the ankle, protects the ankle delicate and slender. Such delicate ankles under such robust calves made me fear, when I first came down and saw your women in their bathing dresses that the pressure of the exercise on the legs, the land, had gotten a foothold here. I am convinced now that it is not so.

HEALTH TO MRS. PINKHAM BROUGHT.

A general who was conducting a war in a distant land wrote to the agricultural department of the government to win him a ton of scowps. When asked what he intended to do with them he replied:

"There is no shade in our trenches, and the heat kills the men in the firing line. If it would rain as much as you can, my men would not get so hot and tired, but my attention was attracted by a burst of song from a bird."

THE DRUGGIST'S WORK.

There is a drugist in one of the suburban districts who advertises:

"I have frequently observed that the vegetarian, 'that when a man lives on bread becomes stout and healthy, and if he eats meat he looks sallow, and, as he gets fat, he will grow corpulent.'"
