

AGILE THROUGH

Entertained By Senator Goebel and Mr. Blackburn at Bowling Green.

The Hostile Attitude of Certain Railroad Men and Riders Explains a "Massive Arrangement" of Recent Arrivals and Records Here.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Aug. 28.—The banner meeting of the present campaign in Kentucky was held in this city this afternoon when between 4,000 and 5,000 people attended the speaking of Senator Goebel and Mr. Blackburn.

Senator Goebel was introduced by Judge Robert Rodes and spoke as follows:

"LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,—I believe this place was picked out by Hon. John Young Brown to hold the campaign of the bolters against the Democratic party. I wish Hon. John Young Brown were here today. There was not a single free railroad train; there was not a single free ticket; there was not a single free lunch to help carry a crowd to such enormous proportions, but every man paid his way to come here.

MALICE BE AWAIBED.

"Before I go into the box what I want to say is something about certain statements that were made in this community some weeks since. I never assaulted a man in my life unless he first assaulted me. But I ask no quarter; I fear no foe. Referring to his Kenton county free tickets, Goebel pointed out that he had braced him in one election in every precinct and on a total vote of 75 '39. This man, "remains," Goebel says, has not changed a particle in 10 years.

"If I had been a drunkard and a debauchee," said the speaker, "I too would have changed, and would carry out the name of the house as I am, a clean, sober, business man."

"Another opponent from the mouth of the Lexington river had demanded money while in the legislature from the Lottery Co., and I have the original copy of the letter at home," he added. Meyers drew a stipend from the lottery company, and his present stand on the lottery bill is that he (Goebel) had a bill passed taking away that stipend. He had been defeated two years ago in Kenton county by 3,000 votes. He referred to the fact that John Droegge, his opponent candidate for treasurer, had charged this man with attempted bribery, and the latter escaped the grand jury on a technicality. The opposition of other individuals, he said, was a matter of speculation affecting their financial interests which he had aided in passing.

"Along with these scorching remarks on purificationists, Balam, Myers and Droegge, he said:

"There is also W. H. Mackey, of Covington. He was chairman of the Palmer and Buckner and the Binders committees of Kenton county in 1896 and 1897; he was member of the board of directors of a turpentine company when I secured the passage of a law which restricted the grand jury vote in half and I thereby interfered with his business somewhat. I think you ought to know the reasons that animate these assaults upon me."

"As to our Louisville Dispatch and Post Senator Goebel said:

"The Dispatch is owned by the L. & N. Railroad Co. and every free copy of that paper and the Louisville Post is paid for out of the coffers of the L. & N."

RAILROADS AND BILLS.

"He dwelt at some length on public acts of his which had aroused the hostility of the railway corporations. Senator Goebel discussed his fellow-revards' bill. He said in explanation that the law which provided for compensation to the employees for injuries in service should be the same as it is to the traveler. If an employer is injured by another in many cases the company is not responsible. The liability on the employer should be the same to the employee who he hands him every day as it is to the ordinary traveler.

"I have had several letters," said Senator Goebel, "making a general position with reference to double headers and whether I would do something to the legislature. If elected, I would have the passage of a law prohibiting the running of double headers on freight trains. Let me explain what is meant by double headers.

"It is double the number of cars in one train, to which there are two engines and one crew of men. The employees on the second engine have no chance to escape in case of a wreck. They are boxed up in a box car and that is why the employees oppose it. They think their safety outweighs the saving to the railroad company by double headers. The law is in some other states and it should be here. It is to give some protection to the railroad employees. Now, if this is an unjustifiable hostility, I want to confess my error."

Senator Goebel said that during the strike in 1894 some railroad men were thrown into jail and he was called upon by the representatives of the

A GRAND RALLY

Senator Goebel Addressed the Democrats at Danville, Ky.

He Explains the New Election Law and the Yellow-Backed Bill. The Speaker denounces the Revenue Act of Attorney General Taylor.

DANVILLE, Ky., Sept. 7.—The grand rally in central Kentucky his afternoon meeting of the Democratic party, aroused grand enthusiasm, that in the county seat of Boyle, where the majority of the trustees and voters are unknown.

The Fair commissioners had made a special charge in their program in order to give a good showing to the crowd of the Democratic leaders. The crowd, the hour for the speaking of the speaker was the largest, and he was fully 750 persons who could not get into the building to witness the speaker's platform.

"On the platform, many speakers and Senator Blackburn were present. C. McClendon, ex-Governor of Kentucky; J. H. Hays, ex-Governor; and Mr. Vernon, ex-Chief Justice of the county, and Bush, ex-Governor, were very enthusiastic. The speaker appeared on the platform at 7 o'clock. The speaker, who was in the center of the attentive audience, every vote he spoke to the sentiment.

Senator Goebel addressed the crowd, giving a sketch of the campaign in Kentucky and the state of affairs in high place among men. Goebel is a friend of the poor and the members of the Democratic party of poverty. The speaker said he had never seen a man who had not the right to know the law, and he would daily tell of the wrongs of the oppressed, the poor and the weak. He said he would tell of the wrongs of the oppressed, the poor and the weak. He said he would tell of the wrongs of the oppressed, the poor and the weak. DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

- For Governor, WILLIAM GOEBEL, of Kenton. For Lieutenant Governor, J. C. W. BECKHAM, of Nelson. For Attorney General, BERT J. BRICKKIRIDGE, of Boyd. For Auditor, HUIS G. COULTER, of Graves. For Treasurer, F. G. HAGER, of Boyd. For Secretary of State, C. B. HILL, of Clark. For Sup't. of Public Instruction, H. V. MCHENRY, of Livingston. For Commissioner of Agriculture, J. B. NALL, of Jefferson. For Railroad Commissioner—Third district, A. W. HAMILTON, of Montgomery.

The Trenton Democrat says: "It is certain that Kentock's next Governor will be Goebel, and his victory in November makes it more probable that he will be on the national ticket in Nov., 1900."

The Rev. Fowler, during a sermon in a revival meeting at Bardwell, made a fierce attack upon Senator Goebel. The congregation was disgusted, and some of the auditors got up and left the place during the tirade.

REPUBLICAN SENATOR DeBoe expresses it "$5 per day per diem." The Senator long ago showed he had no use for school books, and his Owensboro speech demonstrates that his love for education hasn't grown any more fervent than the devil's affection for holy water.

FORMER Congressman John D. White, the well-known Republican politician of the mountains, says that under no circumstances will he vote for Taylor for Governor, as he is a politician not worthy of support.

It will be observed that Bolter Brown grew hot in the collar down at Russellville over the probable "removal" of O'Neal and Davis from the Board of Election Commissioners for Jefferson county, but had not one word of censure for the failure and refusal of the Republican Committee to recommend Phelps for reappointment. If they are all honorable gentlemen, as Mr. Brown testified, why is it all wrong to "remove" the Bolters and all right to drop the Republican member? Because "the ox knoweth his owner and the ass his master's crib."

In declaring he would have changed the platform of the Louisville Convention if he had been nominated Mr. Brown admits that he is not only opposed to what he calls the work of a minority of the delegates, but to the work of all the delegates as well, for the platform was adopted by a unanimous vote. When John S. Rhea reported and read the platform John B. Thompson moved to amend by striking out the sections relating to the Election Law and the McChord Bill, but the amendment got no vote, save possibly that of Mr. Thompson himself, and the report was then adopted without a dissenting voice. The fact is that Bolter Brown has reached the stage that he is agin everybody and everybody that isn't for his sole glorification.

While Hon. William Goebel was speaking at Lawrenceburg he read a telegram from Congressman C. K. Wheeler, of Paducah, saying W. H. Sweeney had charged in a speech that Goebel contributed to the Palmer and Buckner campaign fund. Senator Goebel said he had just replied to Mr. Wheeler's telegram, as follows: "Sweeney's statement that I contributed to Palmer and Buckner campaign fund is a falsehood. I contributed $700 to a Bryan Democratic campaign fund in 1896; was Chairman of the Kenton County Bryan Campaign Committee in '96, when Democratic majority increased over 500, and Chairman Reception Committee that brought Bryan to Covington in '96."

It is to be regretted that newspaper publishers allow their partisanship to over balance reason. We had many papers of both leading political parties in the heat of a campaign that published barefaced falsehoods against their opponents. Such proceedings never gain a vote. It only discredits the paper that is guilty of such fraudulent statements. While charging both sides with meanness, we are bound to say that Wm. Goebel is the worst maligned man to-day in Kentucky, and his meanness maligners agree not from the Republican party. If he was such a blood-thirsty man as he has been represented we cannot see why he has not before this time, added the scalps of numerous libelers who stand back at nothing, not even the grave in their slinky, "dangerous" work, against a man who much their superior, that he looms up as a mountain above a mole hill.

Land, Stock, Crops

Now that the hatching season is over, the roosting perches should be given a weekly application of kerosene not a slight sprinkling, but a good, thorough soaking.

The best time for this is just before the fowls go to roost, as the fumes from the kerosene will do much toward driving the mites from the fowls. Of course, care must be used with fowls intended for exhibition, as the oil will produce a dullness in the plumage.

If fowls are badly overrun with mites, a mixture of lard and kerosene rubbed well into the feathers will kill them. The same mixture of old feathers will soon give way to a new suit, the beauty of the plumage will not be in the least affected.

All old nests and litter should now be removed and burnt, and new, clean straw should take their places. The young fowls which are old enough to want to roost on perches should be allowed to go into the house with the old fowls.

If any leak appears in the roof, repair it now, and do not wait till the rainy season sets in. Bank up the ground on the outside, so that the house will be comfortable, and arrange the scratching shed so that when needed it will be ready for use.

COURT DAY. Capt. Ferrell reports a large crowd in town; streets lined with single and melon wagons; plenty of male colts on the market. A good many sold at prices ranging from $15 to $45. A goodly number of plug horses offered, and several sold at from $24 to $46. Merchants seemed to have enjoyed a good trade.

Capt. Ferrell is billed for the following sales: Powers' land sale, Silver Creek, Sept. 7th; Perkins' land sale, Tates Creek, September 16th; G. B. Millon's general sale, September 29th, and several other dates not known.

3,000 cattle of various kinds were on the market yesterday. Prices ranged from 3 1/2c to 4 1/2c per pound. A few sheep were on the market; they brought from $3 to $3.50 per head. 63 mule colts were sold to one man from Pennsylvania, at an average of $26.25. Aged mules brought $40 to $80; about 25 changing hands at these prices. Horses brought from $20 to $60; one extra good one sold at $125.—Register.

It seems that the killing of J. Wickham by Wm. Whitebeck, near Harrodsburg last Sunday was a cold blooded assassination. After the shooting, Whitebeck's sister, who was the wife of his victim, begged and pleaded with him to kill her and her child also.

The Mt. Vernon Brass Band is being re-organized. Among the new members we find the names of Denny McClure, Conn. Brown, Lloyd Maret, Luther and Eugene Mullins. Will T. McClary, a first class musician, will be the teacher, and in a short time we will again have a good band.

Rev. O. M. Wallin will be ordained at Freedom church, the 4th of October. The church has the official aid of Mt. Vernon, for head, Flat Rock and Poplar Grove churches. By request Mr. Wallin will preach that day. Subject: "Why am I a Baptist?"

A news comes from Pineville that a hawke took place between revenue officers and moonshiners the first of the week, on the Virginia side near the Wecker, county in which a shiner, Oats, was killed and another shiner was wounded. The officers escaped unhurt. A large still and some whiskey were destroyed.

Near Berea the first of the week while a colored association was in progress, a general fight broke out in which Officer Coyle, who was dangerously stabbed in the back, was fatally arrested, and one of the others was seriously wounded. The cutting was done by Will and John Chasteen of this county. The Chasteen boys were misbehaving at church, and Coyle and a colored man Moran were deputized to make the arrest, with the above result.

The folks of Louisville, will inaugurate the Industrial Exposition, Street Fair, Midway Carnival and Festival of Fire, in that city on October 9th and continue to 21st, inclusive, except Sunday.

The finest lines of attractions money can procure will be provided, notwithstanding the gate admission will be only 10 cents. The working capital has all been provided by the folks. The lowest excursion rates will be given by steamboat and railroad lines. The wonderful success of the Lexington Fair, held by the folks is a guarantee that Louisville will do even better than Lexington.

News comes from Clay county that Deputy Sheriff Thacker was shot and killed and the mule on which Bob Smith, who accompanied Thacker, was riding along the road was slain. When the mule fell dead Smith lay motionless on the ground for a couple of minutes by the side of Thacker, fearing death and thus escaped assassination.

At the time Thacker was killed he was on his way to where one of the Griffins lived, about six miles from town, to make an arrest.

Thacker had testified in court for the Philpots against the Griffins in the Philpot-Griffin killing on July 7. The Philpot faction are up in arms and it is reported that they have sworn vengeance against the Griffins. Thacker is the man who was taking Robt Philpot's bond when the battle took place between the Philpots and Griffins on July 17. Thacker was killed within a quarter of a mile of the scene of the Philpot and Griffin battle and within one hundred yards of where Dave Chadwell, the Griffin faction leader was shot from ambush two weeks ago. Thacker belonged to the Masonic Order. The Philpots swear extermination of the Griffins.

Republican Senatorial Convention.

The Republican Senatorial Convention of this the 17th Senatorial District met in Court House at this place, at 2 o'clock p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 5, J. Betharum, of this county, Republican nominee for legislator, was made temporary chairman, and Jackson Morris, of Jackson county, and W. T. Davis, of Bell county, were made secretaries.

After the several committees were selected and they had made reports, the Hon. John H. Wilson of Harboursville, was escorted to the chair as permanent chairman. The nominations were then in order: Morris, of Jackson; Whitehead, of Whites; Denton, of Pulaski; Golden, of Knox, and S. J. Lewis of Rockcastle, were put in nomination. A great deal of fine oratory was indulged in. Hon. S. V. D. Stout, of Williamsburg, in his flowery speech, said that after the vote was cast in November, and that they were Republicans, that they would take the 'omnis' and 'same scrub oak and being over, balloting with much interest being had. There were 117 votes before the convention, before 6 or 8 o'clock of the first ballot.

A. G. Lovell, of Montgomery, of 46 votes, and B. N. Roller, of 33 votes, were the only nominees. The vote of the county was 121 for Lovell and 113 for Roller.

Gov. McCreary and the McCleure family. Everything like man's life.

Messrs. Frith and Finley were the first to address the Convention. Brody's speech is somewhat of a political one, himself and all indications pointed—that the way Laurel went so went the district, and it so proved.

Laurel was impartial with her favors until the wind up was reached. Bro Dyche was 'otin the key and worked the lock at the proper time.

J. R. Cook, a Rockcastle boy, was present from Somerset and championed his good friend, Judge Denton.

W. T. Davis, an old newspaper man, from Pineville was one of the secretaries.

A. N. Bentley, the clever M. M. of Livingston with Wm. Dilhon were right in the midst.

It's a fact, not to be denied, that there were some mighty clever fellows in the meetings.

After 3 1/2 hours, it seems that some speakers ought to know the war is over and not attempt to resurrect old passions long since dead.

Preaching at the Baptist church in this city, by Pastor G. W. Wheatly, Saturday night, Sept. 9. Subject—Baptist Doctrine on Baptism. Sunday, 11 a. m., Baptist Doctrine on Lord's Supper. Sunday at 7:30 p. m., Infant Baptism in New Testament Doctrine.

When you come to town, bring your watches, clocks, spectacles to S. C. Franklin at the Signal office to have them repaired.

This space is reserved for Houk & Son, who will tell you what they have to sell when their manager, James Houk, Jr., who is now in the city buying stock, returns.

L. M. Houk is still confined to his room.

It is rumored that the Collegiate Institute will open shortly.

Mrs. Cleo Brown and son, McKenzie, have returned from an extended visit to Stanford, Lancaster and Danville.

James Houk Jr. of the firm of Houk & Son leaves in a few days for Louisville to lay in their fall stock of goods.

James Colyer, who was so seriously injured last week is slowly recovering, yet not out of danger. We have always admired the young man for his kindness, courage and manliness, and no one will be proud to see his speedy recovery than the SIGNAL force.

Dr. O'Bannon in the last six weeks has treated fifteen cases of smallpox at Rowland, and all have gotten well except George Moore, his two children and John Cogle. These cases are in the same house. The disease appears to be of a very mild form.

Three sons of Frank Campbell, residing at Kennard, Mason county were suffocated by foul air. James went down in an old well to clean it out, and soon afterward was heard to hallow to his two brothers, "Pass" and Henry, who stood at the top of the well. The two brothers lowered themselves, and all three were killed.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

WHEREAS, E. E. Prothrocher has sued me for slander in making certain charges against him. I now wish to state that on investigation of said charges I find I was in error, and while I did not make all the charges as stated in the petition I now withdraw all the charges I did make against Mr. Prothrocher, affecting his honor and standing, and will say that said charges were made in anger and without foundation.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF DIARRHOEA.

A PROMINENT VIRGINIA EDITOR Had Almost Given Up, but Was Brought Back to Perfect Health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

READ HIS EDITORIAL.
"From the Times, Hillsdale, Va., I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. R. Moore. Sold by Theo. Wesley, Mt. Vernon, Ky."

Mrs. Joyce Smith died at Wildie yesterday. She was the daughter of Will Woods.
