THE BRITISH WAVEDER

Big Guns Met the English Troops as They Advanced at Ladysmith Monday.

WILD RUSK WAS MADE ON THE BOERS

Monbert was in Command of the Forces and Showed White That He Was Master.

After a Hundred Wives Had Fallen the English Retreated in Order," They Assert: The Boers' Gun Is Reported as Heavy.

LADYSMITH, Oct. 31.—The naval brigade arrived Monday morning at half-past nine and commenced firing with six quick firing guns with great precision. The Boer forty-pounders, which had again begun to shell the town, were temporarily disabled at the third and fifth shots. Brick fighting is in progress on the right and left flanks.

The advance was made at dawn with the object of shelling the Boers from the position where Sunday they had mounted a number of guns. On reaching the spot, however, it was found that they were in a position to shell the town, and the movement developed into a reconnaissance in force. The enemy were posted on a range of hills covering a front of several miles. The British force was disposed in the following order: "On the right, three regiments of cavalry, four batteries of the Royal Artillery, and the column was infantry, in the center, three batteries of the Royal Field Artillery, two regiments of cavalry and two batteries of the Royal Artillery.

night Gen. Buller's plan of operations was as the movement developed, the force constituting our center, which was disposed under cover of a kopje about three miles from the town, while the left flank was held by the Fusiliers and the Gloucesters. The scheme was well devised, but failed in execution owing to the fact that the Boer position which formed our objective was evacuated.

Our artillery quickly reduced the volume of the enemy's fire, but the attack delivered on our right flank was the principal one and the column was compelled to change. The Boer attack had been intended for a time and our infantry advanced, covered by cavalry. The enemy now began to develop a heavy counter attack and as they were in great numerical superiority, Gen. White gave orders for the infantry to be gradually withdrawn. The movement was carried out with great steadiness and deliberation, under cover of our guns, which made excellent practice. Some shells were thrown into the town from the enemy's 40-pounders at a range of over 6000 yards, but no damage was done. The engagement lasted several hours and resulted on our side in casualties estimated at from 90 to 100. Boer losses must have largely exceeded this total. The attack was admirably delivered by our right and the Boers were fairly driven out of their strongholds near Lombard's kopje. It was not possible, however, to push the success much further, as beyond that point lay a long, broken ridge affording every kind of natural cover. Of this the enemy took the fullest advantage.

The shells failed to dislodge the Boers, and as our infantry moved forward in extended order, they came under a heavy and well directed rifle fire, the effect of which was soon apparent. Gen. White, who was with the center, seeing that the troops on the right were somewhat pressed, sent to their assistance the whole center column, with the exception of the Devonshire regiment.

The battle had then lasted four hours, during which the artillery fire on both sides had been almost incessant. The naval brigade, which landed at Durban, had arrived on the scene toward the end of the fight and immediately brought their heavy guns into play. Their practice was magnificent. At the fourth shot the enemy's 40-pounders had been knocked out of action.

The town is now freed from apprehension of bombardment. Throughout the engagement the Boers held their ground with courage and tenacity and, considering the intensity of our artillery fire, they must have suffered severely.

HOBART HAS A RELAPSE

The Vice President of the United States is Critically Ill—Heart and Stomach Trouble the Cause.

New York, Oct. 31.—Vice President Hobart, who has been ill for weeks at his home in Paterson, N. J., suffered a relapse Monday morning. He had a succession of choking spells, resulting from an imperfect action of the heart, an old affliction, complicated with inflammation of the stomach. Mr. Hobart has not been able to attend to his private affairs for the past two or three days, and an intimate friend has been given power of attorney to sign checks and to attend to other matters of that character.

One of the physicians in attendance at 6 o'clock Monday night said that while the condition of Mr. Hobart was serious, he was better than at any time within the last 24 hours.

At 10 p. m. news from the sick room of Vice President Hobart, that he was conscious and able to recognize those about the bedside. It was stated that no early change for the worse need be expected.

At midnight everything was quiet at the residence of Vice President Hobart. The lights were all out and everything

Mr. Hobart's illness, said, however, that the report that Mr. Hobart's mind was in any way affected by the illness was untrue. This statement was also made by members of the family and by Herbert Tuttle, the vice president's secretary.

A. A. Wilson, Mr. Hobart's life-long friend and law partner, said he did not think Mr. Hobart would die Monday night, but that he feared the vice president had not long to live. He refused to enter into details relative to the malady from which the patient suffered, but his idea was that it was necessarily fatal, although not immediately so.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The news that Vice President Hobart had suffered a severe relapse and might not be able to survive the latest attack shocked Washington, where he is decidedly popular and highly respected. It had been known for some time that a sudden attack might completely prostrate him at any moment, and it was realized that his days of activity were over, but whether his friends were or were not prepared for Monday's advice.

PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 31.—Dr. Newton left Vice President Hobart's house at 8 1/2 Tuesday morning and went to his own home, half a block away. He was very reticent as to the condition of the vice president, but said the patient was still sleeping and that there had been no change in his condition.

KNOTT'S REIGN AS BANKING FIRM FAILS.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—The bank of D. A. Sayre & Co., whose president, E. D. Sayre, died Sunday, was assigned Friday. It was the oldest bank in the city, having been founded in 1820. The assignee states he will pay dollar for dollar, but it will take all the property belonging to J. W. and E. D. Sayre, Jr., sons of the president, who are the chief stockholders, to pay out. They have a large amount of negotiable paper, but as it is several months under the bank could not secure money to meet the calls.

Monday's Louisville Times has the picture of Louis Landram of... He came to be an Editor. It is rich.

Instead of the L. & N. taking Goebel on an excursion up Salt river to the meshes of defeat, he will, like the old hero of Manlia, ride a battle ship with the sails kissing every breeze to a glorious and much deserved victory.

The partisan papers are now striving to elect their man by abusing the other side. A man who is demagogic enough to be influenced by such rot ought not to be entitled to a vote.

Hon. C. G. Gilbert's speech here last Saturday was chock full of common sense and replete with truths bearing on the best interests of the people. A crowded house greeted him and gave undivided attention to the speaker who kept them well entertained for nearly two hours. Every Democrat was highly gratified with the speech and much good was accomplished by our Congressman's coming among us.

RESPONSIBILITY.

Ex-Gov. Brown, Senator Goebel or Gen. Taylor, which? We always contended and do so now, that every person is the absolute owner of his own ballot, with the unquestioning right to cast it on election day as he thinks best. You should follow the dictates of your best judgment and conscience. We have our opinions and are perfectly willing to give our reasons for those opinions. You need not accept them unless those reasons which influence us are sufficient to satisfy you. If there be a man that thinks he can best serve his country by voting for Brown, let him satisfy that feeling. We shall think none the less of you, but we do not think that you are beguiled and misled by false and fraudulent representations. Gov. Brown will never be Governor again. He has no more chance than a one-legged man at a log-rolling dance. He stands convicted by his two basest friends: C. C. McChord and Harry Woodson of being for Goebel until he was nominated; he stands convicted by his protegee, Frank Pease and his friend, Dr. Gulphise; that he would take the sump in October if his wife got better. These are sufficient reasons to convince you that you should not vote for him. Brown don't expect to be elected; neither does the L. & N. railroad look for it. Taylor came up from a penniless youth and stands very well himself, but he is opposed to having cheaper school books when fifteen other States have them and such a law as we want passed. The law has proved the poor man's friend in those States why not here? Gen Taylor and his party are in favor of trusts oppressing the people because they had a chance to vote in the last session of the General Assembly for an anti-trust law but each and every one voted against it when it was brought up for passage. He is opposed to the McCord Railroad Bill to prevent unjust charges. He Hindoores nothing; he favors nothing definitely, therefore, we couldn't vote for him.

Every important measure that directly affects the people is set out in the Democratic platform and Senator Goebel stands firmly upon it and every plank of that platform. It is peculiarly his own. The laborer can find relief there; the railroad employe can gather much consolation from the Double Header Bill which prevents railroads from putting the work of two crews of men upon one. The honest voter can know that when the election law his vote will be counted as he cast it. The shipper of coal, wheat, timber and stone will know that he can get a reasonable rate and the merchants numerous freight bills will be lessened. The poor, hard working parent will know that he can buy his school books 40 per cent cheaper. For these reasons we are for Senator Goebel because this is a business ticket; it is the people's ticket; it is the contractors' ticket; it is the business man's ticket; yes, it is the peoples ticket.

Senator Wm. Goebel was born in Pennsylvania 42 years ago and with his parents, came to Covington when quite a knee-pant, bare-footed boy, where he has ever since lived, and where he has risen to be a leading and trusted lawyer. This boy's father was a poor railroad laborer, and William began life by selling newspapers on the streets of that city for a living. He started without the aid of fortune, without the aid of rich and powerful friends, and totally without family prestige. But realizing that every boy builds his own fame and fortune, with the Promethean spark burning within; with an honest desire to leave behind him the record of an honorable life and to write his name indelibly upon the history of his adopted State, he began battling for the coveted goal of his laudable ambition. He assiduously labored to gain an education, and finally went into Ex-Gov. Senator John W. Stephenson's law office as an errand boy—swept his office, split his kindling wood, built his fire and ran law citations for him. That wise, able and benevolent Ex-Governor realized there was both merit and merit beneath that ragged jacket of young William Goebel, and made him his law partner. Quickly did his great natural talent grasp legal questions and bravely and learnedly did he represent his clients. When that legal luminary was called upon "to join him innumerable caravan" that is daily moving to the City of the New Jerusalem, he made Wm. Goebel, whom he knew so well, because of his intimate association, executor of his will without requiring any bond or surety. For twelve years he has handled that large estate and made settlements every two years, with the court without a single objection from the widow and daughter. To all fair minded men, that is sufficient proof of his honesty. But the reputable Republicans, such as Morrow

Bradley, Verkes, and all that know anything of him admit that. No one can doubt his ability, because for many years he was the law partner of Hon John G. Carlisle, and was even employed by Ex-Gov. John Young Brown to represent this State before Supreme Court of the United States. Judge Morrow says that he is a man of honor, truth and ability. In 1887, his people elected him to the State Senate, where he has been ever since, enjoying the honor longer than any man ever set from that district. As a member of the Constitutional Convention he proved himself of great service to the State, and inserting that Section in our organic law that compels corporations to pay land holders, a reasonable compensation in money before taking their land to public use. He is also the father of that Section which gives the right to an administrator, heir or devisee to recover damage for loss of life of a single man killed through the negligence of railroads. Every act of his, his public life has shown him to be the friend of the masses.

The railroad companies are fighting him as if it never fought any other man. It is determined, if possible, to elect Gen. Taylor, but the people say: Nay! Nay! Pauline! Because it is not best to let great railroad corporations control the Legislature of our State, Senators and Legislators. It is determined that the country merchant is treated right in his rates; to see that the shipper of our cattle, hogs and produce are not robbed by freight dealers in lumber, slaves, stone and coal are not forced out of business by extortion. The L. & N. may howl and contribute their thousands; the Insurance Company may organize to defeat him; the banks may say "away with him"; the lifted and venaal newspapers may abuse and slander him; and corporations may exclaim: "Down him! Bradley and Morrow may stillifer their conscience, pleaded guilty, to the people's ticket; may chop up the boys on the trenches on the "slowing around the circle," but mark what we say: the honest, unpurchasable voters of Kentucky will march to the polls next Tuesday and elect William Goebel, governor of this great State.

A. H. Thurness: Mgr. Wells Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, Ohio, writes: I have been affected with Kidney and Bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones, accompanied by excruciating pains. Other medicines only gave temporary relief. After taking Foley's Kidney Cure, the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, little fine stones etc. and now I have no pain across my kidneys and feel like a new man. Foley's Kidney Cures has done me $1000 worth of good. C. C. Davis Co., Mt. Vernon, Dr. Clark, Brodhed, Hagan Bros. Livingston.

Goebel's last speaking in the present campaign, at Music Hall last Monday night, will be a rousing and fighting close to the game political fight; any candidate euerupt in Kentucky. It isn't in the cards to beat such intrepid couple with so much ability.

Mrs. Thomas Riddleman, Parsh, alliville, Ky., writes: I was troubled with Salt-Ried for over thirteen years, had tried a number of doctors without relief. My husband bought a box of Bannor Salt, which I applied two or three times and my hands began to get better. In a short time they were entirely cured.

EX-ELECTION LAW. The new provisions and Working Arrangements are being widely explained. This statute was rendered necessary by the frauds which the vote count in 1898 have shown. It is a systematic violation of the law, and the commission of a crime, which the law designed to prevent. It is a crime, that provides for the punishment of such a crime shall be a division of the proceeds of the sale of the property of the elector. "What good reason can there be why the same school books, manufactured by the same party, should in Kentucky cost 43 per cent or nearly one-half more than they cost in the States of Ohio, Indiana? Such is the fact, solely because the law of the State of Indiana gives the representatives of the Republican party in the last general assembly the right to select the books to be used in the schools of that State. It is the opportunity of every child in the Commonwealth to see that the Democracy of Kentucky affirms that it is as true now as it was when Jefferson first proclaimed the Declaration of Independence, that 'government derives its just powers from the consent of the governed; and that this applies to all peoples everywhere. It is the duty of every citizen to secure no more a British colonial policy than we should have a British colonial policy. It is the duty of every citizen to secure no more a British colonial policy than we should have a British colonial policy."

The statutes provide that shall be unlawful to kill or have in possession squirrel between the first day of February and 15th day of June. Quail, partridges or pheasants cannot be killed between January 1 and November 1. The killing of doves is prohibited between February 1 and August 1. There is no restriction placed upon the killing of rabbits, but it is generally accepted as the proper time after there has been frost. There is danger of the law against tainted food, being invoked should the rabbit be sold during warm weather.

Too Late.

A horseman burnt into the prison yard. He received the shock and was a paper aloft.

Two days later the warden, sadly, said: "The man hanged already."

"No," but he has eaten the hearty breakfast of ham and eggs, coffee and potatoes. Executive clemency was all right in its place, but it could not be suffered to interfere with the conventional course of events. Yes, the horseman's deed was undeniably heinous, but it could not be suffered to interfere under the circumstances.—Detroit Free Press.

"I feel my day is trying and let you know what your medicine, 'Drops,' has done for me. I had been sick for 18 years, but was able to go most of the time, but a year ago last May, when I was taken down and not to rise more, and about six weeks ago I saw your advertisement in the Chicago Tribune. I bought a bottle. After taking a few doses, it did me so much good that I ordered more for myself and friends and in every case it did me good and gave perfect satisfaction. Dr. Wood's family physician, who had been treating me 18 years, is taking 'Drops,' and says it is the best physical medicine he has ever used. May 31, 1909."

The above refers to "Drops," a perfect cure for rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, and all other pains. The proprietors, Swann & Co., 125 N. Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., offer to send a 25c sample bottle for only 10c. Write for it. Send no money. Send your advertisement to last week.

Through-bred.

A New York society dame, who is an ardent upholder of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, has written a letter to her club which is exceedingly long. A man who called on her the other day was informed by the doctor and asked her to have some tea with him and all her humane theories could be allowed. The lady, however, had cut off Snap's tail and ears to the fashionable degree, and he looked very much better and replied, with some hauteur:

"My dear sir, Snap expected it. Every thoroughbred for ten years expects to be cut off his tail and ears shortened." And that was the first time I ever thought of "cutting" a dog's tail and ears.

This kind of soldier is not a soldier for the purpose of despatch as the so-called regular soldier, who is supposed to be a soldier fighting machine and to have no conscience. So long as we adhere to the principles of the declaration of independence just that long a volunteer army is the best of the best. "I suppose you had money to burn in the Kingdom."

"No, answered the man who had been bitten by the bee, 'we didn't have anything but a little bottle of Pinckham's Vegetable Compound. We were told it would cure me, and it did. I had a bad case of indigestion, and it cured me. I had a bad case of indigestion, and it cured me. I had a bad case of indigestion, and it cured me."

How's That?

WOMEN DO SUFFER!

Even so-called healthy women suffer!

But they are not healthy!

The marks left by pain are on the young faces of many of our daughters. Pain that leaves its mark comes from a curable cause. If that cause is not removed its influence reaches out and overshadows a whole life. The reason Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been so uniformly successful for over a quarter of a century in overcoming the suffering of women, is that it is thorough and goes directly to the cause. It is a woman's remedy for women's ills.

Miss Emily E. Mack, of 148 Freeman St., Greenpoint, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I wish to state that I used your Vegetable Compound with the greatest success. I was very sick for nearly a year with hysteria, I was down-hearted and nervous; also suffered with painful menstruation and pain in back and limbs. I often wished for death, thinking nothing would cure me. I had doctors, but their medicines did me no good. At last, by the advice of a friend, I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am happy to say it has entirely cured me."

FANNIE SHERMAN, of Fremont, Mich., Box 748, writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I feel that I must write you and tell you what your medicine has done for me. I had neuritis of the stomach for two years, so bad that I could not do any work. I had two or three doctors, but did not seem to get any better. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and improved from the first, had better appetite, and after taking three bottles of Compound and one box of Liver Pills, can say that I am cured. Your Vegetable Compound is a wonderful medicine."
