hardest fought campaigns in the The SIGNAL espoused the of a mooracy, because it beaght; and granted every one else the privilege of supporting whom they pleased. We now, will drop politics until conther camand iry to give you all the general news we can.

DECENT Democrats have been subjected to embarressment and humiliation of arrest by Federal authority charging intimidation negro voters and then dismiss the warrant on motion of the prosecu-tion. But up to this good moment we have not heard of any Republiscan votes-buyer being "grabbed" and held over for 'urther trial. Rockcastle could furnish several good cases. For instance, one old colored man was promised $5 by a promisent church member, and after t c old negro voted, the good Samartan would only pay him one dollar; while another one of the colored race got $1 25. With the same go-ally spirit, the same dear brother in Christ gathered two white men from the corn field, and

THE Louisville Dispatch would have gladly supported Goebel, and as war-uly and as enthusiastically as it did his his election law, had it not been that Bill Haldeman and the Courier-Journal were his friend In other words, The Dispatch is foolish enough to believe that it can live, grow powerful and rich abusing the Conrier-Journal.
Stewart, O'Ncal-and Duke work themselves into a frenzy in their contempt for W. N, Halderman and Henry Watterson, the latchet of whose shoes they are not worthy to unloose. Remember gentlemen, remember, "That abuse is not arrument, contempt is not criticism; and a reasonable people will not consider a cause just that, defends Itself by vituperations."

WE have always held Hon. A E. Willson, of Louisville, who traveled with Gen. Taylor on his al car, in high estimate, but we think more of him now than to the incendiary speakers in the following strong language. "I have no use for a man who talks about wading in blood. He is a fool. Men in the nineteenth cent-ury think and act without shedding blood. The men who talk of blood are ignorant and out of date. Peo-Lie pay no attention to such froth Now let big-wig, Deboe and cock-eyed Geo. Denney paste that in their hats and then give Charley onston and the Louisville Dispatch a dose of squint essence

It behooves our people to "get a hustle on themselves." if they ex-pect to get the Southern Railway to run through our county via Brodhead, there should be a move made for concerted action in rendering all possible assistance towards securing the right of way by donation and purchase. Danville and Stanford are leaving no stone unturned in their efforts to ad to come their way, and in case it does, it will miss our county almost entirely. It would be of vast benefit to us in many ways, to have this road, and not the least would be the amount of taxes, it castle, and Brodhead especially, is interested in the building of the Southern Railway connection between Burgin and Jellico. The Eagan left for northern Missouri to make it their future home.
