YESTEREAY was Thanksgiving Day and many a gobbler will gob-ble no more; and many hen has gone to her last reward. We have reason to refolce and be glad. Our county is rapidly improving morally and physically and intellectually. Mr. Vernon has more churches, more preaching and more good people than she ever had before. Our College is rapidly growing with a splendid corps of teachers; Brodhead and Livingston are in the very front of the onward march with bright prospects for the new railroad which will make it a beautiful city. The people of Orlando, Wildie and Conway are prosper-ous and happy. With plenty corn in the crib and "shock," the smoke ouse full of meat; fat hogs in th pen; Lucinda well and the child ren hearty; with the hoe cake on skillet and de taters in de pot; with a feeling of rest and being at peace with both Jew and Gentile we well sing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise Him all creatures here below."
