STATE NEWS PICK-UPS.

DEMURRERS OVERTHROWN.

Federal Court Will Hear Questions on Which It is Charged That Negroes Were Intimidated.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 20.—In the case of several persons arrested during the recent state election for alleged intimidation of negro voters, Judge Evans in the United States court overruled the demurrer of the defendants, which brought into question the jurisdiction of the federal court. Judge Evans held that Congress passed Section 507 of the District of Columbia Code, which forbids the intimidation of negro voters, and that it was the duty of the court to see that the provisions of the statutes were enforced.

He held that if congress had no power to protect the colored people against intimidation, etc., then they were left at the mercy of combinations of politicians and brute force, and the fact that the election was one at which only officers of the state were voted for did not in anywise take away the jurisdiction of the United States court to protect the colored voters under the constitutional amendments and sections referred to.

AGAIN IN TROUBLE.

Editor Moore Will Be Asked to Explain to a Louisville Court Why He Has Broken His Promise.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 20.—C. C. Moore, editor of the Blue Grass Blade, of Lexington, who has been convicted several times on the alleged offense of sending obscene matter through the mails, was summoned before court and sentenced to prison for two years ago should not be revoked and sentence passed on him.

District Attorney Hill has asked for a copy. Mr. Hill says that Moore was convicted here two years ago before Judge Linn and sentenced to prison for two years and his judgment was suspended. Mr. Hill says that he now has information of an official nature that Moore has broken his promise and is sending obscene literature through the mails. He wants him summoned before court and sentenced to prison.

Death of Richard A. Buckner. Lexington, Ky., Feb. 20.—Judge Richard A. Buckner, one of the most noted lawyers of the Kentucky bar of a half century ago, died at his home at 87th year. He was an intense union man during the civil war, and did much to keep Kentucky out of secession. He was commander in chief of the 10th Kentucky brigade in 1862, and was speaker of the Kentucky house of representatives in 1881.

Celebrated Her 103d Birthday. Lexington, Ky., Feb. 18.—Polly Cloud Graves celebrated her 103d birthday anniversary. She was born seven miles from Lexington, on Cane Run creek. Her grandfather was Maj. Thomas Graves, of the staff of Gen. Lafayette, during the revolutionary war. She has all her faculties, but her eyesight is slightly impaired. Of 13 children but two are living. One was the cashier of the Old National bank here, died two years ago.

Medals for Orators. Christiansburg, Ky., Feb. 18.—The seventh annual meeting of the Midwestern Cyclamathian union was held at the opera house here. Mr. P. D. Porter, of the Kentucky university, Lexington, won the first prize, his subject being "The Burgomaster's Death." The second medal was awarded to Henry Browning, Greenock, Scotch collector, Georgetown. Other speakers were D. K. McKinley and W. B. Reed, Winchester; B. S. Van Meter, Richmond; J. T. Gurn, A. M. Collier, Lexington, and B. Letcher, Danville. The medals were awarded by Rev. E. L. Norton, pastor of the Baptist church, this city. The judges for the occasion were the Rev. Messrs. McElroy, Gray, Norton, Spears and Haley, of this place.

They Want to Go to Congress. Greenup, Ky., Feb. 18.—Hon. W. T. Cole has announced his candidacy for congress from this (the Ninth) congressional district. He is a son of ex-Governor Judge A. E. Cole, of Mayfield, and a nephew of some of the best men of this county. His father, Dr. J. C. Cole, and his brother, Dr. A. B. Cole, are also practicing the medicine.

COMMITTEE CALL.

One for Kentucky Republicans Will Be Issued in a Few Days—Name of the Candidate.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 19.—Chairman C. M. Barnett, of the republican state central committee, will in a few days call a meeting of his committee in Louisville to set a time for the state convention to elect delegates to the national republican convention. Many names are suggested by the republicans as delegates at large. Among them are W. O. Bradley, Senator Deane, John W. Starnes, Sam J. Roberts, W. S. Taylor, Albert S. White and W. A. Gaines.

Those mentioned as possible delegates from the Fifth Congressional district are Postmaster Baker, Charles E. Sapp, Alf Davis, Booker Reed and R. L. James.

It is extremely probable that Baker and Sapp will be the men selected, unless Dr. Baker's name R. L. James is in his place.

CONDUCTOR SUSTAINED.

He Had a Right to Eject a Passenger Who Was in Distress on a Train Bound to Another Station.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 20.—In the law and equity division Judge Tony handed down an opinion that the damage suit of Charles Woodward against the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis railroad. The decision was on the validity of the non-transferable clause in a railroad pass.

The plaintiff was a ticket from a train at West Point, Ky., December 19, 1899, and walked back to Louisville a heavy rain. The ticket was for a non-transferable pass between Louisville and West Point, Ky., and the plaintiff was a former employe of the road, and had been purchased by plaintiff from a colleague, Judge Tony, of Covington, and had purchased a ticket, which they will present to him this week. The ticket was sold and cost $75.

Brookingsville Will Speak in Canada.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 20.—Col. W. C. P. Breckenridge has received an invitation from the Anglo-Saxon union of Toronto to attend a banquet there on February 28. He will be invited to speak on the "Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes." Among the other invitees are Charles Bradford, of England.

Blows Into the Air.

Greenup, Ky., Feb. 18.—The boiler of Boggs & Co.'s large saw mill and grist mill at Warnock exploded. The entire works were blown away, causing a loss of several thousand dollars. John Braden and H. N. Rateliff, two workmen were blown away from the site and are so seriously injured that they will die.

Investigating a Swindler.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 17.—J. M. Lewis, of Kansas City, in a letter to the Orange Wallace Muff, says there is a tradition in his family that the land on which the city of Lexington is built was granted to his grandfather, William Lowe, for his services in the war of the revolution. W. H. Polk, a local historian, has been engaged to investigate the "legend," and is largely credited.

Miners Looked Out.

Williamsburg, Ky., Feb. 17.—Operators of the Proctor and coal mines, at Red Ash, looked out several hundred miners, members of the United Mine Workers of America, who were about to strike a demand for a general meeting in conference with the recent Proctor agreement. The operators declined to employ the men. The Proctor people shipped 30 cars of coal.

Marshall and Curtis, President on His Resignation to Franklin.

The Action Favoring Taylor and Marshall Respected by Democrats in Kentucky Yesterday—They Were a Queer in the House.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 20.—The senate convened at 10:30 A. M. today, both Carter and Marshall present, the Republicans after prayer and led by Lieut. Gov. Marshall, the republican senators left the hall. The democratic senators recognizing President Pro Tem Carter, paid no attention to the republican proceedings and continued in a quiet manner. The democratic senate then adopted a motion by Senator Allen, of Lexington, to adjourn the former proceedings and to call a special session of the senate.

The democratic senators adjourned after adopting the Allen resolution. The House convened at noon, Speaker Marshall presiding. The democratic majority of the democratic legislature sitting at Louisville Saturday was read. Mr. Hickman (dem.) demanded a roll call on the question of the passage of a joint anti-Goebel memorial voted with the democrats for the purpose of making a demand.

Having a cough, I bought Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor's trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored to their healthy state. —E. A TEXT BOOK

For the Campaign of 1900.

by

W. H. HARVEY.

The Author of "Coin's Financial School."

This book is now having a wonderful circulation. The retail price is 25 cents. In size, it is 35 pages larger than "Coin's Financial School," profusely illustrated with best paper, enameled cover in two colors.

Its treatment of the subjects of money, trusts and imperialism is exhaustive and yet simple and plain as the A. B. C's.

The Book is a school, and the little boy Coin the teacher. His school in May, 1894, "Coin's Financial School," electrified a nation and moulded the political sentiment of a national political party.

Experienced agents are wanted for each county in the United States.
