

STATE ODDS AND ENDS.

TRAGEDY AT A DANCE.

The Heavily Drunk Smoked a Cigarette Near the Corps After Committing the Crime.

London, Ky., March 5.—One of the foulest and most cold-blooded murders ever perpetrated in this section was committed near East Bernstadt, a mining town in this county, at the Smallwood mine, a disreputable joint on the Big Run, a L. & N. railway. Leonard Hughes, a young man from White's Station, Madison county, while at the Smallwood resort attempting a dance, was slain by Leonard Smallwood, Hamp Gregg and others, while he begged for his life had the whole top of his head shot off.

While Hughes, who had been shot twice in the head with a .44-caliber Colt's revolver, lying on the floor still dripping with blood, his murderer, Leonard Smallwood, took a seat by the fire and pulled his cigarette and smoked it while he feet on the murdered man's body. The corpse lay there all night, and was not removed until after the coroner's jury had viewed the body.

ONE DEAD, ONE DYING.

Terrible Results of a Little Boy Spilling Powder on an Open Hearth Near Grayson, Ky.

Grayson, Ky., March 5.—While Ant Mullins and Marlon Dowde were starting to work in the coal mine at 2-year-old boy kicked a half a gallon can of miling powder and ran toward the fire, and as Mullins attempted to catch him the child dropped the can on the open hearth, spilling part of it.

The powder exploded with terrific force, setting fire to the clothing of Ant Mullins, her three children and Dowde and Mullins. Mrs. Mullins, a sheet of flame, ran to a pool of water and, by Mullins and Dowde tore the clothes from the children and saved them from themselves. Mrs. Mullins has since died, and her husband is dying. The others may recover.

PLEADED GUILTY.

A Louisville Hardware Dealer Pleaded $1,000 For Penalty Billings a Car Load of Freight.

Louisville, Ky., March 3.—The federal grand jury returned an indictment against John W. Price, secretary of W. H. Beckman & Co., hardware dealers, one of the largest wholesale houses of this city. The indictment alleges that Price on October 10, 1898, had taken to the E. L. Wilson Hardware Co., of Beaumont, Tex., a car load of mixed hardware, guns, ammunition, etc., labeling and billing and shipping them as "hardware material in the rough," the rate on which is lower than the rate on mixed hardware.

The indictment is said to be the result of rivalry between St. Louis and Louisville wholesalers in the Texas market. Later in the day Mr. Price pleaded guilty, and Judge Evans fined him $1,000.

Charge Made By Creditors.

Louisville, Ky., March 3.—An amended petition filed in the federal court makes some serious charges in connection with the bankruptcy proceedings instituted against J. B. Nugent, a Fourth avenue dry goods merchant. Nugent's creditors allege that Will Nugent, son of E. B. Nugent, has left the city with money realized on his father's house and the stock of his store, and that he can not be located. The amount young Nugent is said to have taken is about $14,800. It sets forth that Nugent now has assets of about $7,000 only, while his liabilities are $40,000.

Quarrelled Over a Pair of Socks.

Middlesboro, Ky., March 5.—Will and John Stevens, brothers, fell out over the possession of a pair of socks at the mines, when the former pulled a pistol and shot the other through the breast, inflicting a fatal wound. The men were colored. Stevens made his escape.

Used His Father's Knife.

TORE DOWN THE CREPER.

Lieut. Chas. Ward Confesses He and Sergt. Geo. Pearce Hit the Dead-End Bay By Court-Martialing.

Frankfort, Ky., March 4.—Lieut. Charles Ward, of Company C, Teachington, and Sergt. George Pearce, of the same company, who are also sergeant-major of the 2d regiment, tore the creper from the marble columns of the creper, Pearce confessed to Lieut. Col. Morrow and implicated Ward. The latter is now at home, having in the meantime been relieved from duty to return to business. The act is thought to have been the result of a thoughtless romp.

Lieut. Col. Morrow will order a court-martial. He predicts that Ward and Pearce will be severely punished. The charge against Ward will be confined to the creper, but Pearce is in talk of prosecution in the local courts, but Morrow said: "I shall not surrender these men to the civil authorities. They can be punished, but once for this offense, and that will be court-martial."

KENTUCKY WILL LEAD.

Republicans From the Southern States Will Meet in Nashville to Consider an Election Law.

Frankfort, Ky., March 4.—The committee appointed by the republican legislative caucus to arrange for a convention of the republicans of Kentucky, Virginia, Missouri, Mississippi, Alabama, North and South Carolina, to inaugurate a movement against the election laws now in force in those states, held a meeting and organized. Senator N. E. Howard, of Butler county, was elected chairman, and Senator W. H. Cox, of Mayfield, secretary.

The Kentucky state convention will be held some time between now and April at Louisville. The convention there will issue an address to the publishers of the states mentioned, calling a convention of all of them to meet at Nashville, Tenn., later.

Was With Morgan.

Glasgow, Ky., March 5.—Harmon H. Barlow, one of the wealthiest citizens in Barren county, is dead. He was captured by Morgan's raid into Ohio and sent to Camp Ingalls. With other prisoners he was in a daring conspiracy to escape, but his plans were discovered and thwarted. Mr. Barlow was the oldest son of the late H. Smith Barlow, a noted Kentucky politician.

Miners Were Wrong.

Owensboro, Ky., March 2.—Coal miners at the New Holland mines went back to work after a strike of three weeks. While out the men organized and joined the union. As soon as they organized higher union officers took the strikers they were wrong in their demands. The mine owners signed the union scale. The miners demanded the right to assign men to places in the mines.

Another Charged With the Crime.

Bourmes, Ky., March 5.—Milford Bartlett, who was arrested several weeks ago, accused of burning and killing a wife in an old abandoned cabin, was given his examining trial before County Judge Catron and acquitted. A Negro named Bowen came back to work after a strike after the Bartlett trial, charged with the murder of Mrs. Bartlett.

Fine Fields Promised.

Louisville, Ky., March 2.—From final payments which are being made on entries for the Kentucky Derby of 1900, valued at $5,000, the Clark stakes, $1,000, and the Kentucky Oaks, $3,000, were paid to the Kentucky Jockey club, feels assured of numerous fine fields for those events. The limit for these payments expires on March 10.

Assisted White on a Visit.

Palmox, Ky., March 5.—Alvin Hart, a prominent young farmer of near Demossville, while on a visit to his father near Concord, suicided by shooting himself. He leaves a wife and three small children. The latter have been ill with diphtheria, and the father's illness here is assigned as the cause for the rash act.

Wife and Child Mysterious.

Columbia, Ky., March 2.—The wife and 2-year-old child of Peter Cooper died within a few minutes of each other and rather mysteriously. He left after breakfast to work about one mile away. At about 9 o'clock he was sent for, and on reaching home found them both dead. The case may be investigated.

Revised for Goebel's Assassination.

Frankfort, Ky., March 2.—In the house the Ward bill, appropriating $100,000 for carrying out the assassination of William Goebel, was discussed for nearly five hours and finally passed by a vote of 57 to 37—a strict party vote.

RETURNING THE ARMS

Their Shipment From Frankfort to London Has Been Stopped.

The Removal of the Arsenal Register Was the Subject of a Resolution Passed by the Senate.

London, Ky., March 4.—Two full loads of army equipment, including small arms, two Gatling guns, five cannons and large quantities of ammunition of all kinds, arrived here over the L. & N. from Frankfort, addressed to Colonel Williams, Capt. Parker, of the London company of state guards, is in charge of the war implements, and has a strong guard over them. The meaning of the move is not generally understood here.

Frankfort, Ky., March 4.—Shipment of the guns and ammunition of war to London continued Monday. Carriage of small arms and other equipments was shipped Monday morning. The Gatling gun and other arms in use by the soldiers on the state house square are of course still here. Republican Gov. Taylor left for Butler county Monday morning to attend the funeral of his brother, Alonzo Taylor.

Frankfort, Ky., March 6.—In the democratic senate Monday Senator Bell introduced a bill which is aimed at Republican Gov. Taylor and republican minor-state officials. The bill provides that any state officer, who shall forcibly hold possession of the office for a larger period than five days after the legislature or state convention shall have declared another person legally elected, shall be guilty of felony.

There was more war talk in the democratic senate Monday. Senator Triplett, anti-Goebel democrat, offered a resolution to investigate the truth of published reports concerning shipment of state guns and military paraphernalia to London by Republican Gov. Taylor, and to demand the return of the state arsenal. If the reports are found to be true and return of them is refused, the committee appointed to make the investigation shall bring in a bill making an appropriation of $25,000 to buy new guns and also authorizing Gen. John B. Castleman to issue a call for sufficient number of volunteers to take the guns from them so in possession of them and return them to the arsenal. A storm of applause followed the reading of the resolution, which lies over one day.

Frankfort, Ky., March 6.—The orders for shipment of guns and ammunition from the state arsenal to London, Ky., by the republican state authorities was revoked, and a car loaded with munitions of war was consigned to the London agents. The soldiers, acting under orders, worked all forenoon loading the car. There is a report that the war department at Washington has unloading and has ordered the guns and ammunition at hand taken to London to be returned here.

This promises to be the liveliest week in Frankfort since the stormy period which immediately followed Goebel's shooting. Before the end of the week starting arrests will probably be made in the attempt to stop a conspiracy in the assassination. The men who are expected to be brought to Frankfort are known, and it is hinted that they may be arrested.

Taylor gives no explanation for shipping arms to London further than saying that as the soldiers are gone the munitions are no longer needed in Frankfort.

The friends of the McChord railroad anti-extortion bill will make a fight in the house to take the bill out of the hands of the day. Those leading the opposition to the measure claim that every republican member will vote against the bill and in breaking a tie, the bill will be defeated. A number of democrats are out of line with their party on that bill, notwithstanding the fact that they are not generally understood by the democratic state party.

"Planet Mercury" Probably Lost.

Halifax, N. S., March 6.—A Frenchman at West Publow, near Yarmouth, reports that he picked up a life preserver on the shore with the name "Planet Mercury" on it. The steamer Wanda on Saturday picked up a life preserver and a sailor's clothes. Several life preservers and a steamer's hatch were picked up by South Shore fishermen. The name on the preserver found would seem to settle the identity of the wrecked steamer.

The Association Is Dead.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 6.—The Independent Window Glass Manufacturers' association, formed last year, and organized by a number of the independent manufacturers, has proved a failure, and notices have been sent out announcing that the association is dead.

"TELL MY FRIENDS TO BE BRAVE AND FEARLESS, AND LOVAL TO THE GREAT COMMON PEOPLE."

The passing away of that noble spirit of Mrs. Margaret Fish from its earthly abode of cares and toils "to her home not made with hands eternal in the heavens," impresses upon us the grave fact that the old landmarks are rapidly going their way. She belonged to the aristocracy of Rockcastle to the first settlers who blazed their way "by Walker's Cabin on the Cumberland and settled among our hills and dales. She belonged to that class of strong, energetic, business-like women who recognized the vast difference between the empire masculine and the empire feminine, yet possessed to a marked degree, the attributes of both. She could milk a cow as well as turn a "hoe-cake," feed the stock from the well, filled barn as well as she could make up a bed or sweep the house. A gardener always; a farmer in fact and in truth. With a full appreciation of economy and with a saving inclination and disposition, she was a helpmate indeed. Several times a week's butter and eggs were sent to the stores and with them she always kept her credit side the larger. She sold with business-like accuracy the products of the farm and knew the durability and adaptability of every field of their large and rich farm. Never was there a better or a more obedient family of children reared, than were brought up by these good parents who were always watchful and mindful of their best interest. Ten years ago went "Grandma" Haley. Before and since, the dying embers of life's fire has gone out and the saintly souls of Aunt Lucy Adams, Mrs. Chesnut, Aunt Betsy Cook, Mrs. Armp Gadd, Mrs. Caleb Guinn, Aunt Martha Albright, Aunt Polly Hiant, Aunt Millie McClure have winged their way through the Pearly Gates of Paradise into the City of eternal rest and peace. Few of their like and of that old school remain. Mrs. Elizabeth Whitehead, Mrs. James H. Hark, Mrs. Mary Conn and Mrs. Ashley Owens yet survive. They have lived to witness many a change for the better in this old county now—80 years old. They have seen generations come and go. They have seen Mt. Vernon, Brothead and Livingston build up. They have seen the dense forest converted by the lawman's ax into beautiful farms. Brier patches and sassafras fields have given away to clover land and meadow. The wild cats have made music at their door while panther bravely tramped the picket line near by. But thank God no more the hideous and threatening howl of wild and ferocious animals bring fear to their hearts for they have gone and in their place we find the noble, docile animals—the peacock, pigeon and dove? All this they have seen and even much more. While these remaining few have traveled life's rugged highway to ripe old age that venerable age hath brought its rich fruition. We say with reverence and profound admiration, God, bless this noble class, both living and dead; we are thankful for their lives; for their holy example; their righteous living; for their motherly advice and friendly admonition.

The recent sad news from starving India has aroused the generous emotions of our people and in this hour of great trial financial aid is being evoked by the severe reverses in South Africa. Church auxiliaries are raising money every where to be sent to six million starving people.

How, Harve Hein, the faithful and efficient county attorney of Lincoln, wants to go as a District Delegate to the National Democratic Convention which will be held in Kansas City, July 4th. Search the ranks of Democracy from Cumberland's Peak to the Ohio and you can find a better worker or a more liberal contributor for the upbuilding of our principals than the gentleman from our neighbor city of Stanford. Tall and handsome, with a striking physique and intelligent brainy look, he would make an ideal delegate. We rise to second his nomination, tender him our best services, yet, if need be, grease our tongue, pull off our collar and cravat, roll up our sleeves, hoss-up our pantaloons and go to work for his election.

To the glibbed headed "editor" of The Williamsburg Times we desire to say that men who live in glass houses ought not to throw stones. From the looks of the Times, which so clearly shows the absence of brains, proves that he is not much pumpkins himself. We would advise the editor, Burlesque to have either Drs. Moss, Watkins or Adkins to perform a surgical operation on his head and put an ace in it. No wonder the editorial column of that weak and without news-paper is filled with patent medicine advertisement. The next thing, the paper had better advertise for an editor. Just look at the writing for it, and any one will know the rest. When Green Denham and later, Walker Mason printed the paper, it was not only decent but newsworthy. However, when it got out of their hands, it went down to Jericho. The looks of the weak and slinky thing shows plainly that its last dollar is already gone. John Siler or "Cherley" Keaton might loan him a little on a good bankable note, if he could get Jim Ellison or Dr. Gatlin to sign it with him. But we would pity them because we know what it is to pay security debts. These good men might loan him a little money, but not brains, which above all things, he needs just now.

The remains of the young man Hughes killed by Smallwood at Pittsburg last Saturday night was brought through here Monday and taken to Whites Station for burial. It appears that he was but a boy and was at that place working for his uncle, by chance he had gone to a party at the house of Smallwood and while they were engaged in dancing Smallwood came in wild with in intoxication and ordered young Hughes out of house, Hughes begged for his life, said he would go at once but before he could get out he was struck over the head with a revolver and then shot and instantly killed. If there was any cause for the horrible deed it remains yet a secret. It will be remembered that Smallwood killed his own brother four years ago and was imprisoned for a term of three years, rumors are deathly dark on his part.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of a doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to call at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. The band boys have received their uniforms, which will beyond a doubt, be as pretty and as flashy as any of the uniforms worn by country bands. The coats and caps being made of maroon and the trousers of dark green, with dark red stripe down the side. Taking it all together, we think them to be the most striking contrast we have ever seen.

A lawyer, once in an adjoining county, asked a lady (who was weeping), why she wanted a divorce. Her reply was "The wretch accuses me of snoring in my sleep of having cold feet of going through his pockets, or talking all the time, of hitting him with dishes, of scolding him, of making him sleep in the woodshed nights! It would take a saint to live with him, and I want a divorce on grounds of incompatibility of temperament."

The State Senate, by a vote of 16 to 3 passed the Johnson Bill amending the Goebel election law. The school per capita for the State, will undoubtedly be reduced this year. At $2.75 for each child disclosed by the census to be of school age. A cut in the per capita to $2.40 is anticipated. Necessity for this reduction in the per capita allowance is due to the fact that the resources for last year were not sufficient to meet the $2.70 per capita. Nevertheless the amount due under that allowance must be carried forward as a deficit and paid out of the school fund for this year. In order to pay off this deficit and pay a surplus in the school fund of the State to meet same the per capita allowance must be reduced. Former State Superintendent of Schools W. J. Davidson, on entering upon his duties, found a deficit left by his predecessor by reason of too high a per capita allowance. Superintendent Davidson reduced the per capita and strove to pay off the deficit, but the last year in office he also raised the per capita beyond what the resources of the State warranted, thus leaving a deficit for his successor. The school per capita must be estimated and fixed before it is known exactly what the resources will be, so it is impossible to gauge the matter exactly. For instance Superintendent Davidson popped up the per capita from $2.30 to $2.70 in a single year.

LEGISLATURE.

The following taken from Chicago paper, is a pretty good burlesque on the present Legislature.

"The Speaker of the House of Representatives mounted the rostrum and called the meeting to order with the but end of a Smith & Wesson's great work on 'Scientific Ventilation'."

"The Speaker—Will the Congress please read the minutes of the preceding meeting? I mean the Clerk."

"The Clerk—I regret to state that a gentleman from Breathin county accidentally got off two of my fingers as he was holding up my hand to give the barkeep the mystic sign last night, and I have been unable to write up the minutes."

"The Speaker—Well, it is immaterial. The Clerk can perhaps in form us whether there have been any vacancies on the roll since our last meeting."

"The Clerk—I think not, but there are several members on the 'missing' list."

"The Speaker—Before taking up the business of the day, I must request the gentlemen from Rockcastle county to quit firing his gun at the skylights."

"The gentlemen from Rockcastle—I was simply trying to catch the Speaker's eye. I have a bill here, Mr. Speaker, to provide a navy for the State of Kentucky."

"The Speaker—Without objection the bill will be referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs. I believe that is the gentleman from Clay county who is waving 'Bowie knife' at the chair."

"The gentleman from Clay—Mr. Speaker, I wish to introduce a bill providing for the equipment of the members of the Legislature with amorphized shirts and the most modern fire arms."

"The Chair—The bill of the gentleman from Clay is referred, with out objection, to the Committee on Cemeteries and State Defense."

"The gentleman from Jefferson—Mr. Chairman, I wish to move that the Legislature make an appropriation to provide for each member of this body with a copy of the Code of Kentucky, also the Code Duello and a history of the Clay county feud."

"The Chair—The gentleman's motion is referred to a Committee on Education. The Sergeant-at-Arms will please remove the gentleman from Whitley and the gentleman from Harlan from the hall so they can hear their guns to a better advantage on the innocent bystanders."

"The gentleman from Nelson—I am authorized to extend an invitation to the members of this honorable body to pay a visit to their establishments at any time suitable to their convenience."

"The Speaker—The invitation is accepted and motion carried. The Legislature stands adjourned to meet in Nelson county at early sunrise to-morrow. That portion of this honorable body reaching the locality before the hour mentioned, will be furnished proper irrigation by our friends on the grounds."
