ANNOUNCEMENTS

HON. JAMES D. BLACK, candidate for Governor, subject any regular action of the Democratic par The selection of Hon. Adlai E on, of Illinois, for the Vice Presidential nomination is a worths compliment to that distinguishe Democrat. He will strengthen the national ticket, because the people ne end of the country to the other, respect and admire him. He was born in old Kentucky, in the county of Christian, attended Cen tre College at Danville and when about 16 years old moved with his parents to Bloomington, Ill. At an early age he began the practice of law. He served two terms in congress from the Boomington district which is greatly republican From 1884 to 1888 he was Post master General under Grover Cleveland and numinated and elect ed with Cleveland in 1892. He made an admirable presiding officer over the federal senate for four years and retired in '96 with the higest esteem of that body. Ex Gov. J. Proctor Knott says that with an intimate acquaintance of years with Mr. Stevenson, he Bever knew him to utter under any fircumstances a single syllable savoring of profanity, irreverence or We have often heard Hon. John W.
