For some time, he was held in that attitude and ordered not to look at any of them. After hearing out to two explosions in the bank he was ordered to walk inside, where he was locked inside the vault until 6 o'clock next morning, when Ed England, the book keeper went to open up. He was confined in the vault for nearly seven hours. The robbers were successful in getting only few cents in the way in a drawer in the desk. The damage done the safe was about $500. Any one who will undertake it will no doubt do well. I cannot now state just when it will be paid, but it will, of course, be sent out as soon as possible. Regretting that this state of affairs exists, and assuring you that it is unavoidable under the circumstances, H. V. MCCREERY, Supt. Pub In't. Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 8, 1900. Mr. Davis says he will notify the teachers, through the paper when money comes. The following clipped from the Galveston News of Nov. 1st tells of the marriage of a Rockcastle boy: The first wedding to take place in the First Presbyterian church since the storm was celebrated at 7 o'clock last evening, the contracting parties being Miss Kathryn Hamner daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Hamner, of 1902 Church street, and Mr. W. J. Newcomb. Owing to the conditions brought about by the storm the wedding was a quiet affair with the relatives and immediate friends present. The ushers were Mr. D. N. McKennie and Mr. Fred Evans. Mr. Albert Steirer was the best man and Miss Bula Jackson maid of honor. Dr. W. N. Scott, the pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride was attired in a handsome suit of gray Venetian cloth, trimmed in silk and white applique, and wore a velvet hat. Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb left last evening for a short wedding trip. Mr. Newcomb has resided in Galveston during the past ten years, coming here from his old home, Mount Vernon, Ky. He holds a responsible place here with the Southern Pacific company, and is highly esteemed. His bride is one of Galveston's most estimable and popular young ladies. ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS. Under the provisions of the new party law, adopted at the State convention in Louisville June 14th 1900, the Democrats of Rockcastle county are requested to meet at their respective voting places at 1 P. Vernon and organize by electing a chairman and secretary of said county committee, who may or may not be a member of said committee. R. L. Brown, Chm. November, 14 1900.

BERRY HOWARD TALKS. Berry Howard is reported as having said: "Well, I guess Beckman is elected Governor, but he won't be Governor more than nine days." The statement is said to have been made in Pineville the day after the election. The information is said to have come from one of the most prominent men in the mountains, by letter, to a friend of the Governor's at Frankfort. A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life. Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Theo. Wesley Druggist Mt. Vernon Ky.
