Best Out of an Increase of His Pension.

A Mexican war veteran and prominent editor writes: "Seeing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cholera, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I am reminded that as a soldier in Mexico in '47 and '48, I contracted Mexican diarrhoea and this remedy has kept me from getting an increase in my pension on every renewal a dose of it restores me." It is unequalled quick cure for diarrhoea and pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Theo. Wesley Druggist Mt. Vernon.

A prominent Chicago Woman Speaks.

Prof. Ross Tyler, of Chicago, Vice-President Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cholera Remedy says: "I suffered with a severe case of this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but failed to give relief and the medicine used me no amount. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cholera Remedy and I took one dose and it took me right out of bed. I am now as well as ever."

VICTORIA DEAD

KING EDWARD VII NOW RULER OF ENGLAND.

Takes Oath and Lets Privy Councilors Kiss His Hand

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 23. Queen Victoria is dead and Edward VII. reigns.

The greatest event in the memory of this generation, the most stupendous change in existing conditions that could possibly be imagined, has taken place quietly, almost gently, upon the anniversary of the death of Queen Victoria's father, the Duke of Kent.

The end of this career, never equaled by any woman in the world's history, came in a simply furnished room in Osborne House, the most respected of all women living or dead, lay in a great four-poster bed, and made a shrunken atom whose aged face and fingers were a cruel mockery of the tall girl who in 1837 began to rule over England.

Around her were gathered almost every descendant of her line. Well within view of her dying eyes there hung a portrait of the Prince Consort. It was he who designed the room and every part of the Castle.

At 3 p. m. Tuesday brought an end to the successful reign of Queen Victoria, which lasted sixty-three years, seven months and one day. She belonged to the House of Hanover, who began their reign in 1714 with George I, son of Elector of Hanover, by Sophia, daughter of Elizabeth, daughter of James I. He ruled from 1714 until 1727, and was 67 years of age. The next was George II, the only son of George I. He reigned from 1727 to 1760, thirty-three years, and was 77 years of age. Thence came George III, grandson of George II. His reign lasted from 1760 until 1820. George IV, eldest son of George III, reigned to 1830 and was 68 years old. The fifth, was William IV, third son of George III from 1830 to 1837. Then came Victoria, who stands prominent above them all. She was a daughter of Edward IV, son of George III, whose reign lasted a little over three score years. She ascended the throne in 1837, and was 81 years old.

Albert Edward formally assumed the title of Edward VII, King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and Emperor of India in London Wednesday, taking the oath before the Privy Council, according to tradition. The Councilors thereupon kissed his hand and swore allegiance, the House of Lords and House of Commons doing likewise, except in respect to the kissing. Edward, on his arrival in London, was greeted in silence, but after the ceremony his subjects found their voices and cheered.

The funeral of Victoria will be a gorgeous affair, and from information received it is thought the interment will take place at Frogmore, where the Queen's husband, Prince Albert, is buried.

HER MAJESTY, Queen Victoria, the Sovereign Ruler, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain, and Ireland, passed quietly away at Osborne Palace Tuesday evening at 6.30 o'clock, surrounded by her children and grand children. It was a day of great sorrow to the people of England, when the sad tidings were heard, from city to city, town to town and hill top to valley. "The Queen is dead." As a ruler and as a woman, she was dearly loved by all her subjects. She was generous and kind hearted, always ready to lend a helping hand to the suffering humanity of her domain. Under her reign, England has risen to be one of the greatest Nations on the globe. Commercially speaking, it is among the first and in defense second to none.

The Louisville Times says: "The Commoner" Mr. Bryan's paper made its appearance at Lincoln, Neb., Wednesday. In its salutatory the editor defends the name of this paper against the charge that it is demagogic by pointing out that it is not pollio of 1900 years ago were worthy of specific mention in Scripture - "the common people heard him gladly" - it surely is not demagogy to stand as the champion now. Mr. Bryan is always convincing in his illustrations, but we can't help recalling that it was about 2500 years before the "common people" of Massiacia days were allowed to see a luncheon for hungry lions in Rome. Must we of this day wait that long before the lions of platory let up on us?

This report that the Southern railway is to build a line from Burgin, Ky., to Jellico may turn out to be a bluff. The 103 miles of new track would cost $3,500,000. It is now announced that if the Southern railway gets a favorable lease of the Green and Crescent line, which it now operates, the necessity of building the new link will be obviated. Negotiations are pending between President Spencer, of the Southern, and the trustees of the Cincinnati Southern for the lease of the latter line, and if the trustees come to President Spencer's terms the Burgin Jellico branch will not be built - Louisville Times.

The Cadets at West Point have finally awakened to a realization of the feelings of the better elements of the people of the United States in regard to bearing, and decided to forever refrain from the brutal practice now. It is a wise decision on their part, for public sentiment said it must stop, and stop it would anyway, and they have simply taken the shorter route to the solution of a problem which had to be solved. One more step in the advancement of civilization.

The Republican leaders in Kentucky, with Bradley and Combs on one side, and Deboe and Sapp on the other, are getting up a row among themselves as to who is the biggest Republican in the State. Bradley and Deboe both want to be elected to the United States Senate when Deboe finishes delivering his salary, but we fell to see the reason for either one of them feeling way his time chasing shadows. Governor McCreary exceeds Deboe in the Senate.

This Paper is getting ready for publication, which we shall be glad to have to know would be published beyond this year.

Mullins was here Wednesday on business. John and D. M. Preston were up from Livingston Monday. Mr. J. A. Taylor went to London yesterday on business. Miss Fannie McFerron is visiting relatives here this week. T. D. Mullins, of Livingston, came yesterday to see his brother R. B. Rev. A. J. Pike and W. H. Sower were here yesterday on business. W. G. Dowell passed through Tuesday, on his way home from Corbin. Dr. J. S. Burdett and John Sigman, of Brodhead, were here yesterday. R. L. Joplin, who is now located at Somerset, was here the first of the week. Hon. J. Craft, of London, was on Wednesday's train en route to Louisville. Prof. Ewers, principal of the College, reports fine progress and several new pupils. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boone, of Wood, are here visiting their daughter, Mrs. Jas. Rickles. Misses Virgie and Rosa Griffin, of the Pine Hill neighborhood, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Griffin. Miss Rosa Gearty entertained a few friends Saturday evening in honor of Miss Arthusa Cloyd of Crab Orchard. Judge Alcorn, of Stanford, passed through the first of the week on his way to Williamsburg, where he is attending court. Judge Williams and Attorney L. W. Bethrum went to E. M. Johnson's near Big Hill, Tuesday to take some depositions. J. E. Houke has moved up over his store-room. The way he has ever thing arranged it will make it very pleasant living upstairs. F. L. Turpen has sold his stock of groceries in the cellar to Mr. Henry Fish, and will return to his home at Langford's the first of next week. Mr. Hamilton and his son Mat, of Wildie, were here Monday and told us that a splendid meeting, conducted by the Rev. Combs, with several additions, had just closed. Mr. Fritz Kropfer writes us a very interesting letter from Leipzig, Germany, under date of Jan. 8, 1917, saying that he made the trip across the Atlantic in 9 days, that he was having a very enjoyable time and that he and Mrs. Kropfer would return to Antrim about the middle of February.

LOCALS

W. S. Cummins was down from London Tuesday. John H. Coffey paid us a very pleasant call Wednesday. James Fish was in town Wednesday and says he is in the fight for County Judge. Misses Mary and Jullia Colyer spent Saturday until Monday with friends in Livingston. Miss Etta Hayes of Wildie, left Wednesday night for a visit to relatives at Thorstonville, Indiana. Albert Allen was here Wednesday to see his son, who is attending the Collegiate Institute. James Maret spent several days in Lancaster this week looking after some telephone business. Mrs. Chas Spillman came Sunday to see with her mother Mrs. J. L. Joplin, who is still very home. J. Maurice Brown left Monday for Colorado, where he will work for the Santa Fe Railroad. E. C. Walton and Joe Waters, the Stanford editors, were on Saturday's train en route to Livingston. Miss Berda Martin, one of the teachers at the college, visited home folks at Mareburg Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Tom Hatcher, of London and Mr. Herman Frith, of Brodhead were here Sunday to see their best girl. Mrs. Will Casper, of Nashville, Tenn., game Sunday to spend a few days with her parents Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Gentry. Some unknown person dropped a letter (in the post office for this week), which contained quite a number of good locals. This we appreciate and trust that will not be the last time. The only suggestion we have to make, is that you just bring them to the office of hand them to us any where you see us. We are always more than thankful to get such items. DEAD—Mr. Marshal E. Mullins died Tuesday night, at his home about one and a half mile East of here, of apoplexy. He was about sixty years of age, served this Magisterial district at one time as Justice of the Peace and was always regarded by those, who knew him, as an honest, upright, christian gentleman. He leaves a wife and seven children, four sons and three daughters, all of whom are grown. TROUBLE CEASED—The arrival of Col. Roger Williams with a company of eighty men and a gattling gun stopped for a while at any rate, the trouble in Corbin between the Whites and Showwell. The Whites were arrested and placed in the Williamsburg jail. The Whitley county grand jury which is in session here, will investigate the matter good and find all probability will find indictments against members on both sides for murder.

The Columbia Opera Company passed through here on their way to Richmond. Mr. Dick Hocker, of Junction City, has been visiting his brother and Sister. Bowman & Cockrell are loading ties on the yards. They have loaded about 20,000. Mrs. Cordelia Ramsey, of Mrs. Hill, N. C., is visiting her brother Mr. Joe Oliver. W. M. Fields made us a short visit this week on business and returned to his Lincoln's home. Mr. W. S. Cummins and daughter, of London, spent a few days with Mr. J. A. Mullins' family. Steve Owens has returned home on a short visit from Knox county, where he is running a sawmill. Mr. Henry Browning has returned to our city and has taken an interest in the store of W. M. Fields. Misses Mary and Jullia Colyer of Mt. Vernon, were here visiting Misses Ulna Herrin and Martha Haum. We understand that Mr. W. C. Mullins has purchased the property lately occupied by Herrin & Son, from Fields & Herrin. Blankenship & Herrin will commence work on the property of Jailer Geo. Griffin soon, when the building will be raised and many changes made. E. C. Walton, of that good old Democratic paper, the Interior Journal was with us this week. Ed is like "rip" Van Winkle—he swore "off."

Our old friend, Pete Reneker is on the run through here. "Pete" is one of the best conductors, and traveling public may be assured of kind treatment, when on his run. Some people think that a public officer should ferret out all infractions of the law, when it is simply impossible, from the fact that those who complain conceal the evidence in their possession. In the McWhorter case it was claimed that he had been struck with a stone, when the facts of the case are, that he stepped into a hole in the platform and sustained severe injuries. "Doc" and the "Parson" went out during this week—everyone knows that the Parson is a fine singer (that is over the water)—on their return from their call they made the air ring with their melody, as they reached this side of the river they were met by a man who asked, who struck my dog? The Doc answered saying, that was the Parson singing, when the man exclaimed, Oh! Hallelu.

The L. O. R. M. seem to be gaining very fast in our city as they have call meetings nearly every night, when some poor Pale face is placed upon the back of the "franklin" seat, who purchases his face "red." I don't know much about it, but think it must be awful good on the "head" and more so when he is used by L. O. R. M., which I understand they are not allowed to use a side-saddle—Oh you poor soul!

one of the ablest lawyers in Eastern Kentucky. Now see here, Ed, what is the matter with you. Please come down to our city and I will introduce you to Solomon T. Stuepe, who not only knows the law, but can make law for you any case. Why it is that Mrs. W. does not scold you for this picture I can't see, you know Casper is a fine looking gent. (at least he thinks so) and the picture does not do him justice. The Mother's Favorite. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children; to take and always cures. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the best medicine made for these diseases. There is not the least danger in giving it to children for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Theo Wesley Drugist Mt. Vernon.

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. Little sexual disorders started at that time grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are killing graveyards prove this. Wine of Cardui combats a palid and capillary menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Many women, young and old, owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. There is nothing else to give women freedom from pain and to fit young women for every duty of life. $1.00 bottles at druggists.

Miss Belle H. Strayer, Tolly, Kan. "I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time, was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything. In fact, was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui, with Theodor's Black-Drug, when needed, and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me."

Land, Stock, Crop.

Hinkle of Bardstown, bought of John Burdett, 18 mules at $100. He also purchased of Will Thurston, of Bradford-Lexington, eight mules at $80.—Lexington Enterprise.

The Kentucky Live Stock Breeders' Association was organized Tuesday at Louisville, with $5,000 capital stock paid in. The date of the first exhibition was not selected. The object of the association is the advancement, improvement and development of fine live stock. Every class of fine live stock is represented in the association.

Louis Deshaizer sold last week to Walter & Co., 5 shoats 680 pounds at $4.50. Eugene Woods, living on the State pike, near town, has sold his tobacco crop at 7 cents per pound. C. Adams, of Mud Meeting-House community, sold on the 13th, to Walter & Co. one fat cow, 1,330 pounds at $3.50 per hundred.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

Thursday of last week R. K. Haft sold to Henry Beard, of Lexington, 60 extra 3-year-old mare mules, broke, fat and all right, for $225 a head. This was probably the best all-round lot of mules in the State, and certainly in this section. Joe Hendrick also sold to same party 17 good ones at $120.

The demand for mules to go to South Africa is the cause of the boom, which also extends to the common horse market. It is an old story which shows nobody good, and Kentucky is willing to furnish British with mules even if they does synch with the Boers.—Fleming's Times-Democrat.

E. K. Hart, of Fleming, sold to Beard, of Lexington, 60 mules at $225 each. Dr. D. H. Kincaid, of Boyle, sold some fat hogs, weighing 220 pounds, at $6 and 53 sheep at $3. John C. Brown bought in Pulaski 50 hogs at $4 to 4c. G. M. Givens sold for W. Lyon & Co. to Shelby T. Harrison, of Lexington, a coach horse, of a high acting mare for $415, and bought of Allen Bros., of Casey, three mules at $80. D. C. Casey, of W. W. Lyon & Co. hogs for March's delivery at 4 1/2c and has a lot on hand he bought of various parties at 4 to 4 3/4c. He bought of C. K. McClure 11 cattle at 3.80.—[Interior Journal].

Dr. W. O. Robards sold his farm of 330 acres to John Starks, of Louisville, at $70. Mr. Starks, who is a successful Louisville merchant, will use this as a country home.—[Advocate].

Fox & McDowell sold a bunch of feeders to George Culton at 4 1/2c the first of the week.—[News].

Owing to the great demand, for mules in South Africa, the prices are getting better every day.

THOUSANDS SENT INTO EXILE. Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to an other climate. But this is costly and not always sure. STUNTED
Does your hair split at the end? Can you pull out a handful of hair by running your fingers through it? Does it seem dry and lifeless? Give your hair a chance. Feed it. The roots are not dead; they are weak because they are starved—that's all. The best hair food is—
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR
If you don't want your hair to die use Ayer's Hair Vigor once a day. It makes the hair grow, stops falling, and cures dandruff. It always restores color to gray or faded hair; it never fails.
