STARVED

Slow growth of hair comes from lack of hair food. The hair has no life. It is starved. It keeps coming out, gets thinner and thinner, bald spots appear, then actual baldness.

The only good hair food you can buy is—

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

It feeds the roots, stops starvation, and the hair grows thick and long. It cures dandruff also. Keep a bottle of it on your dressing table.

It always restores color to faded or gray hair. Mind, we say "always."

50 CENTS A BOTTLE. All druggists.

"I have found your Hair Vigor to be the best remedy I have ever used for my hair. It has made it grow again, and it has restored its color and its softness. I have used it for several months, and I can say that it is the best hair food I have ever used."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to endorse Chesley Payne as a candidate for Magistrate in the Fourth district...

The gamblers are catching it good and strong in Louisville. Hurrall for Judge Barker!

Old man "Billy Grippie" has stolen the freddie of many a home in Rockcastle and forced an overdose of work on the doctors.

ROCKFELLER the great old King has given to Browns University another quarter of a million dollars. Watch out, coal oil gone up again, will be the next cry.

Mrs. NATION, the saloon wrecker, is still in jail at Atoka. She says that she will conduct her own defense. This woman of fame now spends her time while incarcerated, in writing articles for magazines.

A suit brought by Mrs. Sarah Boring against Congressman Vincent Boring for divorce and alimony, was decided Tuesday night, by special Judge, Waddie. The divorce was granted and Mrs. Boring was restored to her maiden name, Miss Sarah Randall, but was denied alimony.

In a raid made on a saloon at Millwood Kansas by masked farmers, Mrs. Letcher, the proprietor of the saloon was killed. There seems to be no telling where this matter will end. It may be as far reaching as the John Brown raid, and again it may cause much blood shed and result in nothing good.

WELL we were wrong in our last issue, Mark Hanna, through his agent, Mr. McKinley, will call an extra session of Congress to pass the Ship Subsidy Bill, and those who contributed so liberally to the campaign fund with the expectations of this bill being passed, will yet be rewarded. Mark is one of those who don't care for expenses, as long as the people are footing the bills. How long! Oh how long! will this continue? Will this enlightened people forever tamely submit to such oppression?

By the idiotic editors of the Bourbonville Pathfinder, think that it is their duty as journalists, to attack, judge, and blame, and to expose the mistakes of those of this State against their duty, fall far short of the duties as editors. Their issue of February the 14th, is a disgrace to true journalism, and such papers as this sheet have paralyzed enterprise in Eastern Kentucky; and by their lightning breath, have created strife and bitterness throughout our State, and caused the mountains to be denounced as a pestilence.

THE DISPATCH—Louisville Dispatch is in the hands of a receiver, and what a pity it did not get there sooner. Founded by the people for the purpose of disseminating pure democracy through out the country, it soon fell into the hands of those who loved money more than principle, and sold, soul and body, to political enemies. Whenever those who help to found this paper, and those who helped to support it after it was founded, learn that it has passed its life to the hands of these, there will be great rejoicing among them to know that one more Judas Iscariot has passed from earth. It has for sometime been a synonym for deceit, treachery, contempt etc. Let us all give thanks when the demise comes, and pray that his life may never be seen again among men.

Gov. BREWER Wednesday received the resignation of Gov. Del-lin, of Indiana, for the return of that State of John and George Reeves, charged with murder. The prisoners, while retaining extradition, submitted a petition to Gov. Beckham setting forth that they would willingly return to Indiana if they could be exchanged for fugitives W. S. Taylor and Charles Plafey. The petition was not considered, and the prisoners were turned over to the Indiana officers last night. In surrendering their Constable Harrod ignored a writ of habeas corpus that had been sent out by the prisoners' attorney. Turn about, hair play! Now what will Gov. Durbin do with the requisition from Gov. Beckham for Taylor and Finley?

L. Owens, the father-in-law of Sowder. Owens and Hysinger both swear that no such statement was made as Sowder imputes to Hysinger.

The above cut represents an improved vehicle wheel attachment on which D. C. Poynter, of this place, secured Letters Patent No. 558,733, dated August 14th, 1900. The improvement consists of a cylindrical metal socket and open meriste for receiving end of spoke and the ends of the fellyes by which means the fellyes are held rigidly to their places and prevents their being displaced when where the tires have been put on for a long period. The ends of the fellyes cannot split, as is too often the case when the fellyes are joined in the old way, with doveel pins. By the use of this invention the tire cannot flatten over the end of the spokes as it now occurs in the old pattern wheels. This improvement overcomes the common trouble of loose tires in warm weather, these metal parts expanding and contracting in the same manner as the tire, will keep it always in the same relation to the rim or fellyes of the wheel. The fellyes, with this improvement, being at the end of a spoke, and not between the spokes, as they are, where this invention is used, this point is made to prevent any part of the rim and spokes from coming in contact with the tire, and thus prevent it from being cut or worn.

He says: "I had kept adding to cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Bonbrun and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pack back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. The Editor of this paper greatly appreciates the many favors shown by our many friends in Livingston.

Fred Mullins, of Withers, who is attending school here, went home Saturday to see home folks, and reports that his father is quite sick.

Atty. W. M. Johnson seems to be prospering as a lawyer as he had quite a number of suits at this time of court and handled them with alacrity and ability.

Mr. W. C. Sympton, of Pine Hill, while here attending court reported that considerable coal was being mined by the new managers of the mines at his place.

Our local telephone manager tells us his company will run two more wires from Lancaster to London this spring, and during the year, will build additional lines to various points in Rockcastle, connecting them with the Mt. Vernon exchange.

Mr. A. F. Ramsey, who left this county many years ago and located in Crawfordsville, Indiana, and prospected, is one of the leading men in that city, and besides being president of a bank, owns a big block of its stock, has any number of houses, stock farms, president of an insurance company, and is one of the leaders in his State, which have grown to immense proportions. In his prosperity he doesn't forget his native county or friends. Some of his relatives are often remembered by him in many helpful ways, especially in the financial line.

Mr. W. P. Walton's first visit to this place for past 25 years took place last week. On his former visit here, Judge Randall and Commonwealth's Attorney, J. H. Tinsley, were running the Circuit Courts. Among the practicing attorneys were, Charles Kirtley, Ben Halman, R. M. Bradley, John Dishman and others, many of whom have since passed into the great beyond. Mr. Walton remembers that after court organized in the afternoon, he was here, a quarter of a century ago, he was invited to accompany several of the legal profession to the Buckeye spring, just across the track down by the town branch, which was lined with mint, where cool waters gushed forth, sugar was plentiful and the supply of old jordan was ample. The veteran editor, though feeling indisposed, when here last week, is looking remarkably well after doing more work than any two men every week for more than twenty-five years.

R. G. Hale, cashier of the Somerset National Bank, is to answer next Monday before the Federal Court at Louisville, for embezzlement. If thieves, pistol "toters" and whisky sellers were prosecuted much more vigorously this county would be far better off.

The debate at Burnetts chapel, Pulaski county, last week, between Reys, Davis, of the Christian church, and McNamee, of the Methodist church, lasted about three days and closed, we are told, with each fellow believing he had the better of the argument.

MISTAKE.—In printing the county claims two weeks ago, we make a mistake on two allowances, which we now desire to correct. Dr. R. H. Lewis allowed for waiting on Sparks' family $25 instead of $2.50. Same for waiting on Cloise's family $150, instead of $1.50 as we had it appear.

C. C. Fish has purchased from the Spradlin heirs, their interest in the old Fish farm, consisting of nearly 100 acres for $1,000. By this deed, we hope that that interest which they have always displayed towards Rockcastle and its people, will not be lessened in the least. For their friends and fond admirers in Rockcastle are many and are always glad to see them return to their first love, although their stay be short.

So far this has been one of the most unhealthy winters ever known in this county. The weather has not been cold, but on the contrary warm, for winter, and for some reason we can't explain, the sickle of death has reaped a harvest—a harvest too, of many who had only entered the race for life, and whose prospects for the future were unusually bright and promising. How true the scripture which says, "Man born of woman is of few days and full of trouble."

In the Mounce case against the L. & N. R. R. Co., for damages for the killing of Wm. Mounce, in the Livingston yards over a year ago, the Court, after hearing testimony for three days, gave peremptory instruction to find for defendant. Motion and grounds for a new trial were filed by attorneys Harding & Rawlings, of Danville, and Williams & Williams, who represented the plaintiff. Judge Morrow, after able arguments on both sides, took the question under advisement.

Squire J. N. Brown took to the Masonic Orphan's Home Saturday, the 13-year-old daughter and the 9-year-old son of the late C. D. Burnett. As a charitable institution, the Masonic Order unquestionably stands among the greatest in our land. While we are not a Mason, yet we never hesitate, when an opportunity presents itself, to sing the praise of this, the grandest of all organizations created and established by and among men. May the Masonic Order ever live and continue to grow stronger in the land.
