Nothing is truer than, life is made up of small things. The government reports show that the value of the egg crop of Kentucky is greater than that of our immense tobacco crop, and that the value of eggs, chickens, geese, etc., exceeds the value of all the agricultural products in the State. If that be true, and we have no reason to doubt it, in the least, then the good house-wives of Kentucky, in a very humble and quiet way, without making any fuss about it, are making more money and bringing more money into the State by way of their poultry yards than all the farmers of the State with their extensive farming, costly machinery, etc.—Brookline Review.

J. A. Wood, of Garrard, sold 300 sheep at 3 to 3 1/2c and bought 11 cattle at $25 and a bunch of yearlings at $20. Thomas Metcalf bought of Samuel Dudder 25 shoats at 4 1/2c. Lutes & Co. bought of James Coulter 50 ewes at $4. J. B. Foster bought of Willis Logan a bunch of 100-pound shoats at 4 1/2c.—Interior Journal.

W. C. Carpenter says he has bought over 200 hogs for March and April delivery at prices ranging from 4.85 to $5. He seems to be very confident of the continued advancement in the prices of hogs.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

W. A. Cox bought the Roberts tract of the Old Cook farm, comprising 16 acres.

STRIKES A RICH FIND.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Greer, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak run-down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all Druggists.

AN HONEST MEDICINE FOR LA GRIPPE.

George W. Waitt, of South Gardner, Me., says "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Samples free by Druggist.

TRICE PROVEN.

From the Vindicator, Rutherfordton, N. C. The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts afflicted and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by Theo. Wesley Druggist.

NIGHT WAS HER TERROR.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumed just about enough nightgown and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three 50-cent bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Theo. Wesley Druggist.
