LEVEL GREEN

Cool nights, warm days and dry weather, makes up about all the time we have in this part of the world. Farmers are through work generally and are praying for rain. It is rained on for two weeks since it rained. Now, there is something in this rain business that puzzles me and causes as much argument among the peep as polly tik or religion. One query is; does the Lord manufacture and send the rain direct? Another is; will pray in for rain bring it?

These are too hard for me to make out, for the Lord said: "I will send my rain on the just and unjust." That he sends it, we will admit, but does he do this in a special way as he did for Elijah, or is it done in a general way—by the workings of the ordinary laws of nature, like cold and heat, winter and summer, day and night, clouds and sunshine and much else which we all admit to be general, and not special?

In the matter of prayer for rain, I can not, neither will I, say that it is absolutely unnecessary for men and women to pray for it, because the scriptures teach us that, the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. I believe also that our Heavenly Father put a powerful machine in operation, (one which He made complete and entire, lacking nothing) on the day Adam was born, and we believe that it has run ever since and will continue to do so in order, and in strict obedience to His command, that was given when the great engine started, the machine and will never halt, under repair, need more fuel or oil until its labor is over.

While I believe this way, yet I catch myself ever now and then saying: "Good Lord send us a rain for we surely, surely need it," but I have never broat the moisture. Then I think, "well, I am perhaps, not good, for we know God heareth not sinners."

One of my nabors says "The Lord directly sends every shower." I asked him why I and my many nabors got a good shower on a certain day and Bill Doane and others near him got none, and they only live a short distance from me and are as good by nature and perhaps, better by practice; and their cereals and vegetables need rain as much as ours—"well," he said, "I don't know—well neither do I, but one thing I do know; we need rain and need it badly too."

It seems that most of our schools being Monday, Sam Brown, Pearl Mullins, Sally Brown, Vira DeBord, Wade Brown, J. B. Cummins, Joe Brown, D. R. Gentry, May Brown, P. H. Shuts, J. N. Brown and D. G. Bullock, began them and all these, except two, live in less than a radius of one mile of this place and they only a mile away, and I omitted A. J. Cress, who lives near by and teaches at Rock Spring. We also have other teachers unemployed. This speaks very well for Bossom Heller. Our Sunday School and Bible readings at the Christian church, has been injured to some extent by the emigration of so many teachers, yet it will live.

R. L. Brown, who has been temporarily located at Somerset for a time, is spending a few days with his parents. He talks of making the race for County Attorney or County Judge of this county.

We have but one thing to boast of now and that is blackberries—we just have pecks, bushels, barrels.

John, whose surname is Dick, snaked out his cornsagin. Nothing unusual found at this snaking except the large number of skeletons as a result of the first engagement. He says he's heard of Sahara Desert, the Valley of Death, the land round the Dead Sea. H-I's Half Acre, and various other parts of earth, but that none will compare favorably, in many respects, with his acre and a quarter; and that his mind had become somewhat tangled or he'd never so over crapped himself.

For the last month nearly two wagons have been daily running this road, handling tan-bark, staves and cedar posts, but the work is nearly over now. Sam VanHook had a mule killed by his teamster. Some others lost horses in the hot weather. A lot of petty thievery—stealing chickens, turkeys, milk, butter, plow hoes, &c. &c. has been going on here and hereabouts for some time, which must stop or prosecutions will be instituted.

This is the last call Squire Brannaman Esquire, you have enough, and eggs or chickens must come, or I'll tell—you know that, I know that you voted for Beckham and— Well, send for those fowls or something that will produce them.

Respectfully,
BUCK VARNON, J.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce
Chesley Payne,
as a candidate for Magistrate in the Second district, subject to the action of the Republican party.

A NEW horse has shed his castor into the political field. A new deck has been put in the game and a new deal has been made. Fish is off and Lewis is on; and this step brings on more talk. Tomorrow is "put up" day and several of the boys whose phrases are weak and wild even weaker, will stop before they start. After tomorrow we can begin to tell as the candidates will bunch and there will be more talk of the winner in each race. There is no music so sweet to the ear of our citizens as the music of politics.

There is nothing that kindles the zeal of a modern patriot to a white heat than the prospects of an officer there is nothing that cools it off so quickly as the fading out of that prospect. The guns of political battle have begun. The primary is on and the artillery has been put in line. The horses and riders are suffering under the burning rays of the summer sun; the family is being neglected and the weeds are fast taking the corn; the oats and wheat need attention but we wait an office and we must get it by the 15th of August. Mr. Lewis will have to get in the field and shake the bushes. Wake up Mr. Hammond! Turn your oratory loose speaker Bentley and cross swords with Judge Gibson. Dickerson may be a little weak now but on election day he will be a "boss" for congeniality and handshaking will tell. Honor your partner, Mr. Tate! Swing dem co'nans, Mr. Griffin! While Lee has the great misfortune of being a little crippled, he will prove a swift goer. He is not only a good rooster but also a fast racer. George Griffin has tried his wind before but like Nancy Hanks, he will get better as he faces the grand stand on the home run. The old war veteran has started the ball in the race for clerk. Harry Blazer has left the ridge and started for the low lands of victory, while Bogue Phillips travels swiftly from voter to voter with the enthusiasm of a winner. Brother Lamb did not show up like a two-year-old in the committee meeting when all of us made speeches as he got wet the day before and his oratorical powers were considerably impaired, but the boys say that he is now warming to his text and soon he will be astride Leonard's neck on the rough and rugged hustings. His logic will be as convincing as the sword of Stonewall Jackson at Manassas, as the guns of Dewey at the battle of Manila. Hurrah, Mr. Ballard! Hop light, Mr. Davis! Run, Billy Baker or Jack Abney will catch you Uncle "Ike" Todd and Green Morgan make a splendid combination for assessor as do Geo. Proctor and Jerry Overday; Steve Ramsey and Anderson Burdette. But who is combining with our good friend, John Wesley Kirby? With much regret we learn that Steve Duzhand has withdrawn from the race for judge, when in fact he had it at most won "cushin" the votes. He has now declared himself for the high office of Justice of the Peace for Rockcastle county and the indications are that he will have no opposition as every one acknowledges Steve's fitness for this exalted position. Being on the pious, church-going, prayer-meeting order, soberly in all his ways; the very embodiment of Christian virtue; a stranger to all vices; a strong advocate of morality and education; a commercial club within himself. He gambles not neither would he sell, but give away whisky; a bridge and good road man. A gentleman in whom there is no guile and whose court record is as spotless as the driven snow. In fact, he, of all men, is the one that should be made a member of the court to take charge of our fiscal affairs because of the aforesaid qualifications and the fact of his cattle on a thousand hills and the vast amount of his landed possessions. Elected Steve by all means and a how of promise will span this county from Boone's Gap to the mouth of Eagle Creek, from Redd Hill to Beck Lick and the angel of hope will beckon our people to a new era of prestige and power, and to the paradise of permanent peace and prosperity.

HON. G. G. Gilbert says, that he will not only be a candidate to succeed himself in congress but will make an active campaign for the nomination. Texas Cobb would not only fill a seat in congress, Dick Miller would be as good as himself. Harve Helm would be a good timber, and Lieut. Gov. Carter deems himself destined that way.

THE Louisville Post has suffered another defeat when it let judgement go at Glasgow, for libel. A paper should be careful what it publishes and be able to substantiate what it says, but now and then it can not be done and trouble follows. This papers has said some pretty hard things in its day but she had the proof to back her up.

W. P. WALTON, of the Harrodsburg Democrat announces his candidacy for Railroad Commissioner. He should have the nomination without opposition on account of his superb fitness for the place. He is a man of fine business talent and would make an excellent commissioner.

The ministers of the Baptist Church passed a resolution so convention at Paducah, that they would not officiate at the marriage of divorced persons, unless the ground of the complainant against the former companion was adultery.

HON. W. J. BRYAN comments at length on the Ohio Democratic convention and criticizes that body for making him an issue. He says that he is not a candidate for any office.

POLITICS and POLITICIANS

A meeting of the Goebel Reward Commission will be held in Frankfort July 24.

The Republican Legislative convention of the Morgan-Wolf district nominated John T. Graham, of Wolfe county.

Collector Sapp returned to Louisville Monday from Chicago. He is still confident that he will be reappointed by the President.

Representative Dick, Republican, of Ohio, is said to be behind the movement to organize a bill from the recent Democratic convention in that State.

Mr. Jefferson will make no contest against Mr. Greinger, Democratic nominee for Mayor, and no account of the ballots will be asked for. The committee will finish the formal count Tuesday, and will then be ready for formal notices of contest.

Mr. Samuel H. Stone, who is an applicant for Collector of Internal Revenue, to succeed Mr. Charles B. Sapp, was in Frankfort this week, seeking the indorsement of prominent republicans. Senator Debor went to Canton, Ohio, to see President McKinley in his behalf.

Land, Stock and Crop

WANTED.—I want about a dozen horses or cattle or both to pasture, on extra good grass.

J. H. ALBRIGHT,
July, 12-31. Brodhead, Ky.

W. M. Robb bought Saturday a couple of car loads of lambs for immediate delivery at 4 1/2 and 4 3/4 cts. Late lambs are showing more quality than those earlier in the season.

Carlisle Court.—A very small crowd in town. The market on all kinds of stock, excepting hogs, was extremely dull. No good cattle offered. About 150 head of low grade cattle on the market, but few of them sold, prices obtained were very unsatisfactory to sellers. One lot of scrub heifers sold for $16.50, the best sale of the day. Calves brought from $10 to $13. A few dry cows sold at $15 to $28. The usual number of plug hogs were on the streets, but few cheap jackies.—Carlisle Mercury.

The charbon epidemic in Mississippi has advanced the price of hives in the Memphis, Tenn., market. Good stock is now bringing from $1.50 to $2.25 head. It is possible that the price will pass this mark within the next few days. The heavy buyers at this time are the levee contractors and the Mississippi planters who have lost their heavy mules as a result of the prevailing disease. Many of the contractors have lost their stock and as they are under contract to complete a certain amount of work in a stipulated period they are forced to pay almost at price. Then there is a great amount of railroad work going on in Arkansas and Mississippi, all of which makes the demand on the Memphis mule market greater than usual.—Nashville Banner.

Hunk & Adams bought of Frith & Dunn a carload of corn at $2.50 on the car.

The Paris Kentuckian reports sales of 98 export cattle at $5.40.—John Wood bought 500 lambs last week at from 4 to 4 1/2 cts. T. B. Gentry made an average of 18 bushels of wheat on 88 acres.—John Webb sold a bunch of butcher cattle to Jesse Lynn at from 2 to 5 cents. A. A. Wayne has sold 700 bushels of wheat to Anderson & Spillman at 57 cents.—Bud Davis, of Perryville, has sold his crop of 500 bushels of wheat to Lapsley Ewing, of Parksville, at 55 cents.—Alex. A. Johnson, who lives near Parksville, says wheat is averaging about nine bushels on land which averaged 18 last year.

Joe Ware's crop of 120 acres of wheat averaged 20 bushels to the acre, and 60 acres on W. F. DeLong's farm averaged 26 bushels.

J. T. Stewart bought in the Brumfield neighborhood last week 750 lambs at from 3 to 4 1/2 cts. and shipped them to Louisville.—Danville Advocate.

Lipps & Co., the Hustonville millers, have bought several crops of new wheat at 54c.—Interior Journal.

Those farmers in Rockcastle county who have suffered losses by dog raids on their sheep should adopt the plan of D. J. Thurman, of Lanes county. Mr. Thurman has a pair of Angora goats that run with his flock. These goats will fight a dog so ferocely that they will attack a flock of sheep but one that is protected by them, for they can whip any cur that travels on four legs, frequently killing the dog outright.

L. W. Hudson, of Louisville, bought of Smith & Nell, 10 large mules, extra good ones, at an average price of $140 and two combined gelding from Coffey Bros. for $260.—Adair News.

Last year 4,933 horses were imported to Ghent, Belgium, 3,303 of which were slaughtered for human food. Ered Forsythe sold Simon Weil 450, 1,000-pound cattle, Wednesday, at $3.80. They were sloped at Thompson's distillery.—D. N. Cogar received and stored 15,000 bushels of wheat at the depot the four first days of last week. He is paying 55 cents a bushel.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

PINE HILL

The heat seems to have spent its force, also, Sols rays are still ardently shining. Our peaceful, village was thrown into a state of unusual excitement Saturday evening, too much fire water in circulation.

Candidates as you hope for mercy (and election) send no more such beverages among our Ky. braves.

The school in our district begins Monday next, just think of the injustice and cruelty to our bright little boys and girls, cooped up in a hot school room, with themometerting roating round about in the 90s, teacher has the advantage of moving around, cultured Kentucky should look better after her children.

Your humble correspondent and sister, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Stucky, of Livingston, had the honor to be one of the favored few hundred, Kentuckians at the Twentieth Century C. E. Convention, who standing sang Kentucky State Endeavor song to tune, "My Old Kentucky Home" at the close of this the Chairman stepped forward to announce our C. E. plan of action for next two years.

"We propose to take Kentucky for Christ" beginning with Pity at Home. "Could anything be better? When it was announced that Kentucky lead the C. E. world in prison work she was "cheered to the Echo," and all were admonished to "go and do likewise." Alas! that we have to much such work to do, Endeavors let us help break the chains, that bind these prisoners, before they are placed behind the bars. This is our watchword for Rockcastle, prevent or watch.

Many thousands have been restored to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. James Meadows brought his crew up from Pine Hill, to assist Mr. Adams, the section foreman, in laying some new steel.

SPRAINED.—Tyece Gentry, an L. & N. brakeman, got his ankle sprained Monday, while watering an engine. It caused rather a painful hurt, but nothing serious.

WANTED.—Fifty experienced stove men to work in West Virginia. Wages $1.50 per day.

J. JONES, Jellico, Tenn.

ACQUITTED.—Bounce Hardin, the oldest son of Jim Hardin, who killed Frank Taylor at Boones Camp seventeen years ago, last October, was arrested last Thursday by Deputy Sheriff Jim Wood; H. C. Jones was placed over him as guard until Tuesday, when he was brought here to stand a trial. After the killing Hardin went to Indiana, and from there to Illinois, where he has been every since, until three months ago, when he returned to this county. The only witnesses left to tell the story for the defense were, James Asbury, who ran a saloon on the Gap at the time, and Harison Lambert, while for the prosecution, Tom Taylor, a brother of the deceased, and Barney Allen Riddle. After hearing the evidence, the court discharged Mr. Hardin.

J. C. CARMECAL, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

The consolidation of Center College and Central University, and the Danville Theological Seminary and the Louisville Seminary, was completed at a joint meeting of the boards, held in Louisville Tuesday night. The Richmond people, who think they have been unjustly deprived of their college, by means of the consolidation, have taken steps to start a new college at that place.

Lives of poor men oft remind us in this world we have no chance, the more we work there grows behind us bigger patches on our pants, once new and glossy, now are stripes of different hue, all because subscribers linger and don't pay us what is due. Then let each be up and doing, pay our mite however small, or when snows of winter strike us we shall have no pants at all.

The Ginseng business at Somerset is in a thriving condition. Jacob Hommelstein, commission merchant, has just shipped to New York $1,500 worth, and has nearly one-third as much more. He handles each season from 1,000 to 1,300 pounds.—The Belgian.

FROM THE START, which our townsman, Mr. S. C. Franklin is making along this line, we may expect to hear encouraging reports from him before many seasons have passed.

FROM AMBUSH.—Mr. Meteser, of Pine Hill, while standing in the yard, just behind his kitchen, was shot at Saturday about 7 p. m., by some unknown party, who was hid in the bushes, about 75 yards from the house. The man was loaded with slugs, one of which struck Mr. Meteser in the flesh part of the heel, others burying themselves in the house near him. There is no punishment to be levied, for a man, who would be guilty of such a crime, and there is nothing too mean for them to do.

UNFORTUNATE.—It is indeed, unfortunate that Mr. Jones Fish, on account of ill health, had to surrender, that which, he had already won and had firmly within his grasp, the nomination for the county judges place. Mr. Fish is a progressive business man; believes in improvements; a man who works for the upbuilding of his county, both morally and commercially, and had been chosen to the county judges place, a man whom the people would not have ashamed to honor and call the judge of our county.

Milch cows brought $20 to $30; young cattle $10 to $24 each; horses $60 to $75; corn $2.75 per barrel, and two shares of bank stock in the Bank of Mt. Vernon at $100 each.
