Four more car loads are yet to come. There are 14,449 bushels of wheat in the consignment, and it is to be distributed for seed purposes in Kansas and Oklahoma. It is the greatest shipment of hard seed wheat ever brought to this country. The purpose is to improve the quality of Kansas hard wheat for export flour and the importation is the result of experiments made by B. Workentine, of Halstead, Kansas. The wheat is in two-bushel sacks, and will be distributed from the government warehouse to points on the Rock Island and Santa Fe railways. J. Bookwalter, of the Niland Grain Company, of that city will have charge of the distribution. The cost of laying the wheat down in Kansas City was $2.23 a bushel. —Danville News.

GET A HOME.

Did you ever think of the importance of being the owner of a home? If not, stop, think, meditate—then act.

As a money investment it pays better dividends than are known to the speculative world. It touches the owner industry and the importance and value of leisure hours that would otherwise be thrown away—you live in rented property—your heart is not there—it bears not the sacred name of home—it is but a shelter, an abode. Your leisure hours are spent in idleness, not in improving or adorning the place that will soon know you no more.

But if you own your own home—this leisure, otherwise worse than wasted, will be used in improving and beautifying the home, adorning it with shade trees and flowers, rebuilding the fences, cutting the briars and the brambles, and preparing for the future comforts and enjoyments of life.

There is born a child every minute. But there are no more acres of land on the earth today than when the stars sung to gather in the morning of the world.

These new comers must have room; they must have food and raiment.

As the world grows older and people increase the value of land must go up.

In Belgium, the most densely populated country in Europe, land is worth from $1,500 to $25000 a acre. The time will come when America will be the Belgium of the world. The oppressed of all lands, home-seekers from all countries, are landing on our shores.

The forests of to-day will be the wheat fields of to-morrow—the deserts of yesterday the garden of to-day.

While it pays in dollars to have a home, in morals, in the intellectual, empire, and in good citizenship, it pays infinitely better.

Washington had a home. Benedict Arnold had no place he could call home.

Tom Payne, the infidel was a wanderer. Benjamin Franklin, the good and the pure, was a land lord in Philadelphia.

Hamilton, the noble and true, the great and the learned, built a palatial home.

Bari, great in power of mind, low in thought and vicious in action, pilloved his head upon a borrowed bed.

Get a home. "Be it ever so humble," get you a home.

Get a place you can call your own—a place where no man can come and say to you "get out."

Home! Here is where character is formed and destinies shaped for time and eternity.

It is a school of untold importance. The learning of a college may fade from the halls of memory, its illuminated walls and classic shades may be forgotten, but the influence of home—a kind word—a pleasant smile—a good book—a pleasant walk—a good book—the feel of the earth—an inspiration by day and a solace by night, is boundless as the ocean that rolls on without a shore.

A bad man is worse when he pretends to be a saint.

Much bending breaks the bow; much unbending, the mind.

That is half granted which is denied graciously.

A man's nature runs either to herbs or weeds; therefore let him seasonably water the one, and destroy the other.

The human race is divided into two classes,—those who go ahead and do something, and those who sit still and inquire why it was not done the other way.

Farmers ought to sow turnips, and lots of them. It is the right time for sowing and a good crop should be raised. They make good feed for milk cows. It would also be well enough to sow rye for fall and winter pasture, as it comes on very quick and makes excellent pasture for stock, especially for cold-land calves.

The Republicans of Maryland held a State Convention at Baltimore, nominated a ticket by acclamation and adopted a platform lauding the National administration.

The Harrodsburg Democrat, which grows better with every issue, blossomed out as a semi-weekly Tuesday. The weekly business was too slow for its energetic editor.

The republican city and county executive committee announced the recent primary and determined to hold a delegate convention Aug. 21 to nominate a ticket for city and county officers of Jefferson.

Gov. Bradley was up from Louisville Monday, returning that night. He is delighted with his new home, but says the heat is awful. "H—I may be hotter," said he, "but I doubt it."—Lancaster Record.

Bryan's Commoner: Another week has passed, yet not a republican organ has seized the opportunity to declare that the drought is a direct result of "Bryanism." The g. o. p. organs are growing extremely careless.

The republican committee of Adair named the following candidates for county officers: Judge, T. A. Murrell; Sheriff, F. W. Miller; Clerk, T. R. Stults; Jailor, J. P. Conover; Assessor, Ed Burton; Superintendent, W. D. Jones.

The "honest election democrats," who couldn't be induced to even wink at the slightest political corruption, have no place to lay their innocent heads, since that republican primary election in Louisville.—Georgetown Times.

The Democrats, Populist and free silver Republicans State Central Committees of Nebraska have practically agreed upon fusion and have called conventions to meet in Lincoln on September 17. Mr. Bryan addressed the democratic and populist committees and declared himself in favor of fusion.

Bryan's Commoner: A large majority of the democrats who voted for Mr. Cleveland in 1892 believed in free silver, but he selected a cabinet of gold men. The reorganizers show a similar disposition to ignore the voter in order to please the financiers.

The new State Election Commissioners met in Frankfort and organized. Mr. Allen E. Smith, of Louisville, who was Secretary of the old commission, was re-elected. The commissioners directed the Secretary to notify the State Central and County Committees of the two dominant parties to make recommendations for county commissioners.

R. A. Burnside, Judge of the County Court, and R. F. Parsons,

a member of his court of Lancaster, engaged in an altercation at the court house over the measurement of some rock in which the former was considerably bruised about the face, says a special to the Lexington Leader. Arrests followed and a small fine was assessed against Judge Burnside in Police Court.—Climax.

"The republicans are kicking like bay steers over my way," said a gentleman from Kingsville to us yesterday, "and a good many say they are going to vote the democratic ticket tonight. They don't like the new converts' getting the best offices and a number of them are not going to put up with it," he added. We congratulate the republicans of the Kingsville section on their good sense. They have reason to kick and they should kick.—Interior Journal.

Among the prominent young democratic county officials of Kentucky is Judge Dick Williams, of Kockcastle county. Judge Williams enjoys the distinction of being the only democratic county judge in Kentucky who was elected in a strong republican county. His majority was 203, and he holds his office by virtue of his popularity and ability. When one knows him well personally there is no surprise that he should win at anything. He is capable and a born politician.—Akron Progress.

PINE HILL

Mrs. E. Mullins, of Mt. Vernon, is here this week.

Mr. Frank Loggins was in Mt. Vernon Monday, on business.

Mr. E. Fishback passed through here en route to the County seat.

John L. Meteser returned from Louisville, where he had been on business.

One day this week, Mr. B. N. Roller gave Pine Hill a short, but very pleasant call.

Our community is called on today to mourn the death of a good woman. Mrs. Wm. Meadows passed peacefully away about four o'clock. Thus has gone a faithful wife, a loving affectionate mother, and a sympathetic kind neighbor. Each one as they looked on her peaceful face, remarked "she never said anything harmful of any one." The funeral took place at Pine Hill Cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

What collection and highly prized fruit, comes into Rockcastle county on every breeze and every storm cloud that rises,—candidates (comely-dates) and a cyclone isn't a circumstance to what follows their coming and going, these men who are to represent law and order for the State, but Pine Hill enjoys some blessings—your talented hand stopped and discovered their sweetest music for an appreciative, though small audience. Mt. Vernon has just cause to be proud of such musicians.

Joe K. Dixon is making speeches in the Eastern Kentucky counties in an effort to raise money for the defense of Caleb Powers and Jim Howard.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce Chesley Payne,
as a candidate for Magistrate in the Second district, subject to the action of the Republican party.

TRIP Vacation we needed and vacation we took. On the morning of August 1st, Capt. Rose, of the L. & N. landed us in Louisville for a splendid breakfast, after which, we proceeded to the Seventh street depot, where a goodly number of the Kentucky editors, wives and sweethearts, had gathered to board the train for Madisonville.

By the Henderson Route, which road cheerfully carried special cars
for the "corn crackers," the party was carried down the beautiful valley of the Ohio, crossing both and going up Salt river, arriving at Henderson about 1 p. m., where a special train, furnished by the

L. & N. was waiting to carry us into Madisonville. On our arrival at the metropolis of Hopkins county, a reception committee met us, that quickly escorted the party to the hotel "Lafayette," where we were bountifully cared for and looked after. At night there gathered at the Morton's opera house, one of the finest audiences the editor ever faced and he said his little say on "the subject assigned him," "The Country Weekly as an Auxiliary to public improvements." A dance followed and we had the pleasure of meeting some of Kentucky's most beautiful women. The Orchestra's fine music, and the white skirts of light and beautiful dancers, put delectation in my heart, and once in my life, I really wanted to

"trip the light fantastic."
On the next morning, the editors
again assembled at the Morton opera house to hold their business session. President R. M. Brown read a very fine article on the Kentucky Press Association, after which the following officers were elected for the next year. President, Harry McCarthy, of the Jessamine Journal; Vice-President, Mr. Thos. G. Watkins, of the Courier-Journal; Secretary, Mr. R.
E. Morningstar, of the Bowling Green Times, and Assistant Secretary, Mr. J. B. Wallace, of the Warsaw Independent. On motion of Secretary, Morningstar, a committee was appointed to draft resolutions and also select a present for Mr. J. H. Ringgold, of the L. & N., which is to be paid for by the Association and to cost about $75, as a token of their appreciation for the many courtesies extended. At 11 o'clock, the L. & N. sent a special train to carry the party over to the St. Bernard Mines, at Earlington, where we saw and met the Chesterfield of men, "Bill" Sheridan, who never forgot a friend in all his life. Sheridan is the very picture of health and as usual, was in the best of a real good, jolly time. We also met our old friend Jack Lawrence there, looking hale and hearty. The St.
Bernard Mines has the largest output of bituminous coal, of any mines in Kentucky. There in true old Kentucky style, a delicious dinner was served, after which we returned to Madisonville and completed all arrangements for our trip through the Rockies to Salt Lake City. At ten o'clock Friday night, we mounted a train of Pullman sleepers, pulled by a special engine furnished by the L. & N.
and left for St. Louis. There we were met by a reception committee, which escorted us to the beautiful park, in which will be held the World's Fair in 1903, where we took about an excellent breakfast, which Ex. Gov. Francis, of Missouri had prepared for us. We had only two hours stay in St.

Louis, when we left for Kansas City,
the place we always wanted to go.
It was there that Bryan was nominated. It was there that Kentucky's son, Adlai Stevenson, was put on the ticket with Bryan. Both were defeated, but both are great and good men. It was in this city that Harve Helm slept on his imagination and Gov. McCreary paid his money before he got his board. In going over Kansas City, you go up one hill and down
another, and yet they have splendid streets. This is an argument, that Rockcastle, although a little hilly, can nevertheless build roads.

MR. NATION, whose wife was the "noted" Carrie Nation, has found it impossible to bear everything that confronts him, and has at last brought suit for divorce. Mrs.
Nation says she never wants to marry any more, and she judge her decision a wise one, from the fact, that she will more than likely never be favored with such an opportunity.

GREAT floods have lessened the population in China something near 20,000. Pity they were not all boxers.

LOUISVILLE is to have a $40,000
free bath house, and Louisvilleans can certainly clean up.

MASSACHUSETTS has 69,398 more
female than male citizens. Boys, now is your chance.

BRODHEAD

was here Monday.—Miss Ella Dunn returned home Tuesday, from a visit to relatives in Danville.—Jno.
Wallen, who has been working for the Wrought Iron Range Co., in Miss., is at home for a few days,
and he is also papa again.

Mrs. J. W. Tate, who has been visiting relatives at Jellico, returned home Monday.—Mr. Coleman, representing the Royal Wheel Co.,
was in our little town Monday.—
The Surveyors for the Southern Railroad, are now camped at this place. From the present indications, it will not be long until, we will be able to hear, the whistle of the great Southern trains as they approach our little village.—"Candy" Jim Owens opened up a first-class meat market Thursday.

ASTONISHED THE EDITOR,
Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes,
"my wife was greatly run down,
she had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at all Drugists.

THEIR SECRET IS OUT.
All Sadville, Ky., was curious to learn the cause of the vast improvement in the health of Mrs. S.
P. Whitaker, who had for a long time, endured untold suffering from a chronic bronchial trouble. "It's all due to Dr. King's New Discover-ery," writes her husband "It completely cured her and also cured
our little grand-daughter of a severe attack of Whooping Cough." It positively cures Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis, all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free: at all Druggists drug store.

My Hair

"I had a very severe sickness
that took off all my hair. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor and it brought all my hair
back again."
—W. D. Quina, Marseilles, Ill.

One thing is certain—Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. This is because it is a hair food.
It feeds the hair and the hair grows, that's all there is to it. It stops falling of the hair, too, and always restores color to gray hair.
10c a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you,
send us a dollar and we will express
you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your druggist, and of the address.

LOCAL.

DEAD.—The fourteen-months-old child of G. W. Gentry, died Saturday morning and was buried Sunday.

The latest novelty was a young American 7 or 8 years old, with his bottle of "Kentucky Dew," having a glorious hic, time—on Main St.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—My house and lot in Mt. Vernon Ky. Call on or address.

R. H. LIVESTAY, Mt. Vernon, Ky., Aug. 16-21.

STOPS THE COUGH AND WORKS ONE DAY COOLD.

Lexative Bromo Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure no pay. Price 25 cents.

CORRECTION.—In last week's issue appeared a statement that Will Pike, of Livingston, was fined one cent and the cost for breach of the peace. The name should have been Milt Pike instead of Will Pike.

Mrs. W. T. Short, who recently returned from a visit to her parents in Arkansas, brought back with her a sweet potato, which measured ten inches in circumference and weighed two pounds and two ounces; it was raised by her father last year and has kept so well that it looks as though it was dug only a few days ago. The editor had the pleasure of devouring the larger portion of it.

SHOT.—Capt. Delph, passenger conductor of the L. & N., and helping to unload the coffin for Mrs. Meadows at Pine Hill Tuesday night, let his pistol fall from his pocket, firing; the ball first struck the side of the car and glancing, struck him in the breast inflicting rather a painful but not serious wound. Capt. Delph was taken on to Livingston, where he, at once secured the splendid aid of Dr. Cooper.

NEW STORE AT LIVINGSTON.—The substantial firm of Messrs. Houk & Adams, two clever gentlemen at this place, have purchased the store house and large stock of goods of Fields & Browning, of Livingston, the consideration being in the neighborhood of $5,000. Messrs. Houk & Adams, will still continue to handle an immense stock of goods here as well as Livingston. They are thoroughly live business men liberal and enterprising and such men are always a boom to a town. Mr. Houk, the Junior member of the firm will manage the store at Livingston, and Mr. Adams, the Senior member, will always greet you with a smile, at their big store on Main Street. We are glad to see this indication of prosperity and hope it may continue with them.

Go to the Brodhead Fair next week. Cheap rates on the railroad.

The L. & N. will sell tickets for $1.75 round trip to Cincinnati, Saturday night.

CONCLAVE.—Remember the one-half fare round trip over the L. & N. to Louisville August 27th.

DROPPED DEAD.—Mrs. Mitchell Norton, dropped dead, of heart trouble Tuesday afternoon, at her home at Level Green.

MARRIED.—Miss Fannie Drew and Wesley A. Abney were married Wednesday at the residence of J. C. Carmical, who performed the ceremony.

TO CURB A COLD IN ONE DAY.—Take Lexative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Rogers's signature is on each box.

DEAD.—Mrs. Wm. Meadows, mother of John Meadows, of Pine Hill, died Tuesday and was buried Wednesday. Funeral services were held at the family residence conducted by the Rev. J. C. Carmical.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Mrs. Jas. Lawrence attempted suicide Saturday last, by taking fifteen grains of blue vitriol. It was soon discovered, what she had done, and Dr. George Lawrence was called in and soon brought relief. She is improving rapidly.

CADRETT.—Wade Smith, son of Thomas Smith, was caught stealing corn from the field of G. W. Treadway on Cove Branch. He was tried Tuesday morning before the County Judge and held to answer before the grand jury in the sum of $500 bond, which he failed to give and was committed to the care of Jailer Griffin.

HERE THEY ARE.—At the republican primary, held in this county yesterday, the following candidates, were nominated for the various offices:

Judge, S. D. Lewis, Attorney, L. W. Bethurum, Sheriff, H. L. Tate, Clerk, M. C. Miller, Jailer, J. W. Parsons, Assessor, J. W. Kirby, School Supt., G. M. Ballard, Surveyor, S. N. Davis.

GOOD MAN.—In Friday's issue of the Interior Journal appeared a good picture and splendid write-up of that sterling gentleman, Mr. Isaac Herrin, who is the democratic nominee for Jailer of Lincoln. While Mr. Herrin has rather a strong opposition, yet, it is a foregone conclusion, that owing to his own personal worth and high standing, that he is sure of the office to which, he aspires. Here is wishing Mr. Herrin success, and hoping that his majority, will be as large as it is possible to make it.

REDUCTION.—The following reductions have been made on coal rates, by the L. & N.: From Stoneva, Va., from $1.45 to $1.20, from Jellico, from $1.25 to 80 cts., from Grays, from $1.25 to 60 cts., and Pine Hill, from 60 cts to 25 cts, per ton. The purpose of the company, in making these low rates, is to encourage a greater consumption of coal at the local stations, by giving consumers cheaper coal, and at the same time affording a wider market, for the mines along the road, whose production has greatly increased over former years.

BRODHEAD FAIR.—On next Wednesdays commences the Brodhead Fair. This is the sixth annual exhibition of the association, and will unquestionably be the best they have ever had. They offer liberal premiums in every department. This is one of our greatest county enterprises, and for it to succeed in a way, that will benefit the county, the people must lend their support in order to make that success. A large crowd the first day, the second day and the last day is what the association justly and properly deserves. Public enterprise is what we need and what we must have in order to build up our county.

HELD OVER.—Hiram Fanning was tried Wednesday in the County Court for shooting into the North bound passenger Sunday morning at Pine Hill and held to answer before the grand jury in the sum of $500 which he failed to give and was committed to jail. J. W. Brown, assisted Judge Cooper in the prosecution, while L. W. Bethurum represented the defendant. Fanning was also tried for drawing his pistol in the coach and was fined $50, and 10 days imprisonment in the county jail. Keep sober boys and leave your pistols at home.

MOUCE CASE.—The damage suit of Allen Mounce against the L. & N. R. Co., for injuries to Wm. Mounce, which resulted in his death, was begun last Tuesday in the Circuit Court. The following gentlemen, Thomas Mink, J. J. Cummins, W. C. Burdett, J. D. Pennington, Andrew Baker, John A. Sigman, Wm. White, J. P. Riddle, W. F. Cress, B. A. Riddell, W. A. Owens, G. W. Brown, were accepted to try the case, after which Judge Williams stated the cause of Mr. Mounce and Judge Alcorn presented the side of the Company. As soon as the testimony is all in Judge Morrow will send the jury to view the yards at Livingston, where young Mounce was killed. The case will then be argued by Hon. Robt. Harding, of Danville, and C. C. Williams, for the plaintiff, and Judge Alcorn and J. W. Brown, for the defendant.

'CAN'T Afford TO Paint.'

THE man who says that, forgets that painting properly done is economy, and the fact is he can't afford NOT to paint.

HOW often you require to paint is largely dependent upon the paint you use.

The Sherman-Williams Paints out last others. They are the most economical paints you can use, because they cover most and wear longest. Add to this their good appearance, and you have perfect paints—THE SHERMAN-WILLIAMS PAINTS.

They are made for many different kinds of painting. Whatever it is you want to paint—a house, or anything in or out of the house—we make the right paint for that particular purpose—not one slap-dash mixture for all.

WHAT IS A KISS.
PERHAPS ONE OR MORE OF THESE TERMS WILL MEET YOUR APPROVAL.
Some years ago the following definitions of a kiss were published, and they are here reproduced, being considered well worth the space given them, says the Cincinnati Enquirer:
A kiss is an insipid and tasteless morsel, which becomes delicious and delectable in proportion as it is flavored with love.
The sweetest fruit on the tree of love.
The cheerer plucked the more abundant it grows.
A thing of use to no one, but much prized by two.
The baby's right, the lover's privilege. The parent's benison and the hypocrite's mask.
That which you cannot give without taking, and cannot take without giving.
The food by which the flame of love is fed.
The flag of truce in the petty wars of courtship and marriage.
The acme of agony to a bashful man.
The only known "smack" that will calm a storm.
A telegram to the heart in which the operator uses the "sounding" system.
Nothing divided between two.
Not enough for one, just enough for two, too much for three.
The only agreeable two-faced action under the sun, or the moon, either.
The sweetest labial of the world's language.
A woman's most effective argument, whether to cajole the heart of a father, control the humors of a husband or console the griefs of childhood.
Something rather dangerous.
Something rather nice.
Something rather wicked.
Though it can't be called a vice.
Some think it naughty.
Others think it wrong.
All agree it's jolly.
Though it doesn't last long.
A kiss from a pretty girl is like having hot trenches poured down your back by angels.
The thunder clap of the lips, which inevitably follows the lightning glance of the eyes.
A report at headquarters.
Everybody's acting edition of "Romeo and Juliet."
What the child receives free, what the young man steals and the old man buys.
The drop that runneth over when the cup of love is full.
That in which two heads are better than one.

LOUISVILLE, KY, AUG. 16.—The eyes of the public are centered on this city as the meeting place of the knights Templar Triennial Conclave, August 27-30. Uniformed Sir Knights to the number of 25,000 are expected from every section of the Union. The official programme has been announced and a week full of pleasure is assured the city's guests. Twenty thousand Templars and 100 bands of music are expected to appear in the parade on Tuesday morning, August 27. The line of march lies through about four miles of the finest streets in the city. Wednesday will be devoted to the competitive drills. Local jewelers now have on display the prize trophies—five in number, of an aggregate value of $7,600. A number of society belles from various cities of Kentucky have been named as maids of honor for the conclave ball at the Horse Show Building on Thursday night. Excursion rates from all Tennessee, Indiana and Kentucky points will bring Templars and their friends to the city in large numbers. The Grand Commandery of Kentucky Templars will have headquarters in the Custom House, where the State's reputation for hospitality will be well maintained. Hundreds of visitors to the Conclave will make side trips to points of interest in Kentucky, Tennessee and Indiana during the week of their pilgrimage to Louisville. No former celebration in the history of the South has attracted so many visitors from all sections of the country as will be brought by this event.

From the Christian Guide we copy the following flight of eloquence and truth from Ex-Gov. Robert L. Taylor, of Tennessee, one of the greatest lecturers on the American platform, is worthy of a wide circulation, and we publish it with pleasure for our readers:
"I sat in the great theater in the national capitol. It was thronged with youth and beauty, old age and wisdom. I saw a man, the image of his God, stand upon the stage, and I heard him speak. His gestures were the perfection of grace, his voice was music, and his language was more beautiful than any I had ever heard from mortal lips. He painted picture after picture of pleasures and joys, and sympathies of home. He enthroned love and preached the gospel of humanity like an angel. Then I saw him dip his brush into the ink of mortal blackness and blot out the beautiful picture he had painted. I saw him stab love dead at his feet. I saw him blot out stars and the sun, and leave humanity and the earth in eternal darkness and eternal death. I saw him, like the serpent of old, worm himself into the paradise of human hearts, and by his seductive eloquence and subtle devices of sophistry, inject his fatal venom, under whose blight its flowers faded, its music was hushed, its sunshine was darkened, and its soul was left a desert waste with the new-made graves of faith and hope. I saw him like a lawless and erratic comet, sweep around the celestial sky, he flared in his self-wrought fire, generated by friction with the insensitiveness and eternal truths of God. That man was the archangel of infidelity, and I said: How true is holy writ, which declares that the fool has said in his heart: 'There is no God.' Tell me not, O infidel, there is no God, no heaven, no hell! Tell me not, O infidel, there is no risen Christ! What intelligence less than God's could fashion the human body, that drives those throbbing engines of the human heart, sending the crimson stream of life bounding through every vein and artery? Whence and what, if not God, is this mystery we call 'mind'? What is it that thinks, and feels, and plans, and acts, O, who can deny the divinity that stars within us? God is everywhere and is in everything. His mystery is in every bud, and blossom, and leaf, and tree; in every rock, and hill, and mountain; in every spring, and rivulet, and river. The taste of his wings is in every zephyr, his might is in every tempest. He dwells in the dark pavilion of every storm cloud. The lightning is his messenger, and the thunder is his voice. His awful tread is in every earthquake and on every angry ocean. The heavens above us teem with his myriads of shining witnesses—the universe or solar systems whose waveling orbits cause the crystal dread halls of eternity, the glory and power and dominion of the all-wise, omnipotent, and eternal God."

SETTLED AMICABLY.—An agreement has just been reached between the consolidated Presbyterian University at Danville, and the local committee relative to the school property here. According to this agreement the grounds and buildings, with the exception of the Chaucer's residence and the residence formerly occupied by Prof. Wilson, at the northeastern extremity of the campus, are to be sold to the local alumni and to be turned over to a board of 18, composed of Madison county citizens, to have and to hold for educational purposes. Arrangements will be made at once to open school at the usual time in September, but as it is late in the season now and no advertising or soliciting has been done, the school will have to depend mainly on local patronage. A prospectus will be issued later setting forth more definitely the plans of the school.—Richmond Climax.

WHITE MAN TURNED YELLOW
Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only one Sold by all druggists.
