DRUM, the office hunter, who endorses Sapp and Sappism in Kentucky, and who is an up-to-date Senator, only in drawing his salary and working the office-seeking racket, says he's in favor of making a clean sweep, and rid the Senate chamber of Democrats, and weeps because Blackburn has a seat in that body, and had he had his way, Blackburn would not have got his seat. This is the "Civil Liberty" they have been howling for so long, and now that Sapp has pulled the mask off and exposed real republican "civil liberty," the people will see to it, that Deboe and those of his ilk, will be placed on the retired list, and that Kentucky may be honorably and properly represented.

James Howard (whose trial for the murder of Gov. Sobel is set for next week at Frankfort), had a fight with Caleb Powers in the cell in Frankfort jail Wednesday afternoon over a division of money raised in the Mountains by Col. J. K. Dixon Powers against Howard and told him that he owed him $32 which Howard denied. Powers then jumped to his feet and raised his hand and said "G—d—n you, you do" and started toward Howard who grabbed an ink stand and struck Powers in the head severing a temple artery. He was knocked senseless and lay in a dazed condition for a half hour, and it took four stitches of a surgeon's needle to draw the gaping and jagged wound together.

In Harlan county, where the republicans failed to nominate a ticket, Judge Moss, of the Harlan Circuit Court, granted an injunction, requiring the County Clerk, when any political party fails to nominate a ticket, to place upon the ballot, the name of the candidate, who first applied by petition, as a member of that party, restraining any subsequent petition. The case was taken to the Court of Appeals, but he will have to come again, before he gets even with Judge Moss' election injunction up in Harlan.

DICKSON, Tennessee is worried over the appearance of a bold bad man named Frost, in their midst, who proposes to open up a saloon to deal out damnation to its citizens, but in order to run him out they propose to organize a whisky trust, out of its most zealous Christians; open up saloons; sell red liquor to the citizens of Dickson at cost. Frost, with the aid of all the best citizens of Dickson, will more than likely turn out a first-class line of drunkards, and be a great stimulus to the whisky trade.

We are glad the many teachers of the county are gathered in our midst this week. Gladly we welcome them! They deserve much praise for the great responsibility they have assumed and nobly will they perform the duties connected therewith. We hope that they have spent a pleasant, as well as a profitable week, and we wish them a safe return to their schools; a successful year and a bright and joyous future. God bless them all! They are as fair as the sun ever shown upon.

Is the death of the Hon. Zack Phelps, Louisville lawyer, not only her best lawyer, but one of her best and most enterprising citizens in every way. In every enterprise started in that city, his name was to be found among the chief promoters, and from him, the poor people received as much, if not more, than any other man.

A Company of Colorado capitalists have been organized to build an electric railway to the top of Pikes Peak, the road starting from Colorado Springs. The building of the cog railroad, which now runs from Manitou to the top of the Peak, is a most wonderful piece of engineering; the Cripple Creek Short line was still a more difficult road for construction and still more difficult than that, will be the electric railway.

HON. T. S. Burman, of Madison county, has declined to accept the republican nomination for the legislature, and now an effort is being made to induce Mr. A. T. Chennault, a former Democrat, to run.

—P. T. Jones, Wichita, Kans.

SHOT—Will Tink Mullins, the oldest son of H. J. Mullins, was shot twice Friday night by Charley Durham, while attending a dance on Crooked Creek. Just before the shooting took place, there was a little trouble between Mullins and Durham over a place to dance, but their friends interfered, stopped it, and the boys shook hands, which as every one thought ended the trouble. But shortly some one called to Mullins to come out side, and as he passed out the door, two shots were fired, one taking effect in the leg and the other near the shoulder blade. Young Mr. Mullins is improving, and Dr. Pennington, the attending physician, says will recover. Durham escaped and his whereabouts are unknown.

DEAD.—Mr. Joe Poynter, who was fatally injured last Wednesday, a week ago, by a horse falling on him die Friday night. For about sixty hours he lay perfectly unconscious, and never at any time, was able to take any refreshments, not even water. There has never been a death in our little town when more sympathy was aroused, than there was in the death of Mr. Poynter, the unfortunate way in which he lost his life. On Wednesday morning he left his well and hearty, and as we heard some friends express it more cheerfully than usual. But little did he think that that morning was the last time, he would ever be able to do anything for his sick wife, or those little helpless children, which on account of afflictions, were so dependent upon him. A large number of friends and relatives accompanied the remains to the Old Freedom burying ground, where a goodly number had gathered to view the lifeless form, of their once old friend and neighbor.

The L. & N. will give one-half fare rate to the London Fair, which takes place, next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

To CINCINNATI.—The L. & N. will sell tickets to Cincinnati on Sept. 14th and 15th, limited until Sept. 28, at one fare for the round trip, on account of the Cincinnati Fall Festival.

REWARD.—The Bastin Telephone Company has posted a reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of the person who cut the wire between Round Hill and Silver Creek, Thursday.

DIVIDEND.—The Controller of the Currency, declared a dividend of 50 per cent. in favor of the creditors of the Somerset Banking Co. Some Rockcastle stock-holders want to know, where their dividends are.

TELEPHONE.—The Telephone Company has closed the gap at Kentucky river and this section of the State including Williamsburg, Barbourville, London and intermediate points can talk over independent wires to Lexington, Winchester, Nicholasville, Frankfort and surrounding territory.

APART SIXTY YEAR.—Our good friend Dr. R. Gentry tells us the following of two brothers, Harvey Long and Anderson Long, who had not seen each other for over sixty years: When only a boy eleven years old Harvey Long left Pulaski county and went to the state of Missouri, and for the last thirty years had been unable to hear any thing from his brother Anderson, who now lives near Walnut Grove, Polk county, and thought he was dead. But a short time ago, Frank McCreary, a brother-in-law of J. N. Brown, went to Missouri, met up with Harvey Long and told him about his brother Anderson, a man now 62 years old, and he at once boarded the train for Kentucky. Those who were present when they met, say that there were never no two happier souls, than they.

You are most cordially invited to come and examine my new stock of fall millinery.

LABOR DAY.—Monday last was Labor Day, which was appropriately celebrated, everywhere.

Mrs. Sallie Williams, DEAD.—Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, age 35, and Mother of George and John Thompson, died last Wednesday and was buried Thursday.

TO CURE A GOLD IN ONE DAY. Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE TABLETS. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. H. W. Grove's signature is on each box, 25cts.

IN COUNTY COURT.—Boes Mullins was fined $2.50 and cost, for breach of the peace. William French $2.50 and cost for disturbing a lawful assembly. John Fredricks was tried and held over to the Circuit Court, under a $100 bond for selling liquor unlawfully.

Mrs. Sallie Williams has just returned from Cincinnati, where she attended the grand opening of the wholesale millinery houses, and from which she made a selection of a most beautiful line of fall hats—which are now on display at the Brick Hotel.

ASSOCIATION.—Rev. William Williams, who was elected Moderator of the Rockcastle County Baptist Association, which was held at Freedom church, this week, reports a very successful meeting, and a large attendance, Granville Owens, of Brodhead, was made secretary.

W. R. Dillion has through his attorneys, Col. Welsh and Judge Alcorn, of Stanford, and Brown and McClure, of this place, brought suit against Bowman and Cockrell, to force them to move their boom on Rockcastle river, near Livingston. The boom belonging to Bowman and Cockrell is just a short distance above, where the plating mill is located, which Mr. Dillion recently sold to some Paris parties, and which, they have refused to accept unless he can force Bowman and Cockrell to move their boom.

GOOD HIT.—The Mount Vernon Band rendered such music during the Fair that all grumbles and frowns, as is usually the case, were driven away by words of praise. Mr. E. B. Mullins is President, C. Davis, business manager and Victor Tate leader. The "boys" are all good fellows, gentlemen, and no other band has so completely satisfied the people, who have attended fairs in this section. They were all well pleased with this section, and with the people and are now enjoying the good things of Russell Springs, waiting over to render efficient music for the Fair here next week. Our good wishes accompany them.—Adair County News.

SPRING OPENING.—The Mt. Vernon Collegiate Institute opened Monday with the largest attendance in the history of the school for the first week. The number enrolled Monday was over sixty per cent larger than ever before. The able and efficient instructor, Prof. A. E. Ewers, was successful in securing the very best and most up-to-date teachers, which means a good school, and one that everybody will be pleased with who have any appreciation of a good thing.

MARRIED.—Mr. John Howell, a first class young business man of Livingston, and the beautiful, Miss Cleo Mullins, eldest daughter of Mr. John A. Mullins of this town, were made one at Brodhead last Tuesday afternoon at a rock at the residence of Rev. A. J. The Rev. Pike is the uncle of the bride and is greatly loved by her and being a preacher of recognized ability he chose him to perform the ceremony. Miss Cleo had just come from Stanford where she had been on a visit to her Aunt, Mrs. E. J. Brown and by appointment the lucky young man met her at that happy, hospitable town of Brodhead. We congratulate you, Mr. Howell, on your gallant fight and splendid victory in winning the heart and hand of such a splendid woman.

Mrs. WELMOTH POWYNER, W. M. POWYNER, D. C. POWYNER.

WARNING.—Nick Parks, a negro, was given two years in penitentiary from Lancaster Circuit Court last Tuesday on charge of having, in company with Tom Naylor, a white man, broken a number of glass insulators from telephone poles between Lancaster and Crab Orchard by throwing rocks at them. Naylor forfeited his bond of $300, with his father had to pay. Some of the parties on Bee creek line and at other points had better be careful or they may go over the road in same manner as Parks was sent.

RECEPTION.—The most brilliant reception ever given in Rockcastle, was rendered Wednesday evening by Judge R. G. Williams, to the Executive and other invited guests, in honor of the Misses Goodall, of Nashville, Tenn. The large crowd was graciously received by Judge Williams and the honorees, assisted by Mrs. M. C. Williams, Misses Ellen Butler and Ella Joplin. The lawn was aglow with bright Japanese lanterns and dotted here and there were rustic seats. The long veranda was converted into an ideal veranda, banked with palms and ferns and bright flowers. In its entirety, it was a thing of beauty.

A guessing contest was pleasantly indulged in, Prof. C. W. Barnes, of Georgetown, having won the prize, "The Helmet of Navarre." During the evening delightful refreshments were served in the dining room by Misses Rissie Williams and Reba Baker. A string band added charm to the occasion by rendering many catchy pieces. The following is a list of those present, who registered, besides a number, who attended and failed to register, whose names we were unable to get: Misses, Bertina Mellins, Lula Dyer, Sallie Dickerson, Bessie May Houk, Georgia McFerran, Bessie Miller, Mattie McFerran, Helen Smith, Jalia Colyer, Ellen Butler, Ella Joplin, Lillie Butler, Rissie Williams, Reba Baker, Mattie Barks, Nannie Beles, Louella Jarrett, Nannie Hysinger, Helen Singleton, Maggie Hansel, Lola Hansel, Grace Cox, Minerva Price, Pearl Mullins, Arthusa Cloyd, Emma Pennington, Laura D. THE LINEN SUIT.

Man that is born of woman is of few days and full of trouble, and he hunteth for most of it.
Behold, he getteth a large bunch thereof when he buyeth a linen suit.

Yes, verily, the linen suit is naught but vanity and vexation of spirit.
At first it fitteth like unto the paper on the wall, and the price is lower than that of ice.
It feeleth cool and looketh the same.

A man walketh about the streets
and is glad.
And sayeth unto all he meets:
"Lo, this is a wondrous thing that I have found. Behold, it is a lulu and a daisy."

Yet there lurketh in the linen suit more deceit than is held in the heart of the poker player.
For it taketh unto itself divers
shapes and many wrinkles.
The coat sacketh in the back and the vest groweth a twist like unto a corrugated iron roof.

And a sordid dirt always ap-peareth on the back of the coat and runneth from the shoulders unto the southeastern boundary thereof.
And the trousers—which the vulgar call pants—verily, they call forth more bad language than a thermometer.

For they hang out at the knees until the man looketh as if he were wearing brackets.
And they crawl up on one side and down on the other, so that the legs look like the long and short of it.

Paradventure the man sayeth unto himself: "Behold, I will even send this suit unto the wash."
And he doeth so.
And the suit cometh back with all the bottoms gone, and it is filled with starch.

So that the man hath to smite
with a ball bat before he getteth
it loose enough to put upon him.
Yet, when he tryeth to wear it,
behold it hath shrunk.
And the coat gathereth itself into a bunch at the edge of his shoulder blade.

And the pockets thereof are under his arms and the sleeves giveth
it up at the elbows.
Yet again he sendeth the suit unto the laundry, and this time it doth not shrink, but getteth longer.
So that he hath to take reefs in the trousers and useeth the coat for an alster.

While the vest hangeth down as an apron.
Verily, the linen suit is the strenuous element of summer life.
It is as a puzzle which hath no
answer.
Or as a conundrum which meaneth
naught.
For no man knoweth which way
it will jump.
Or why it will jump when it
jumpeth.

Beware, the linen suit, my son;
when it gleameth aright in the show window and when it spreadeth itself upon the counter.
For at the last it pincheth like a vice, or else rometh into space.
Is not this so, even as we have thought it out.—Baltimore American.

Land, Stock and Crop

Catron and Wood bought of J. T. Litsay 2,100 pound steers at 3 3/4 cts. also 2 short horn yearlings at $5.
Hilber Bros., of this county, have bought of T. H. Clay 40 head of 4,000 pound butcher cattle at 3 1/2 cts. and of J. E. Boardman 29 head of 900 pound heifers at 3 1/2 cts.—Bourbon News.

Charley Glick sold 100 barrels of new corn at $3 per barrel.—Joe Jordan of Atlanta, who is with Fox & Logan, bought a car load of horses in Boyle and Lincoln counties last week at from $70 to $150 per head.—Danville Advocate.

Georgetown Court.—150 cattle on the market Mondays. Good cattle of 850 pounds weight sold at $3.25 to $3.75 per cwt., heifers at $2.75 to $3.00; calves $1.60 to $1.75 per head; horses $30 to $75. Forty-one sheep sold at $2.50 per head.—Times.

A dispatch from Lancaster says Julian Frank, agent for a New York firm, bought Friday from W. S. Beasley & Bro. and Gibbs & Beasley, 300 head of export cattle for September delivery. They averaged 1,000 pounds. The price was from $5.37 to $5.50 per hundred. The above firms will receive over $5,000 for these cattle.—Winchester Democrat.

Brent Bros., of this city purchased several hundred acres of new hemp last week at $5 per 112 pounds. Only about two-thirds of this year's crop has been yet cut. This yield will fall a little below that of last year, but will, as a whole, be an average crop for the past five years.—Paris Kentuckian.

Mr. R. A. Dodd, of Wilmore, on Monday bought 2,500 bushels of wheat from M. E. Mulcahy at 68c a bushel. He also bought three horses and a mule here at $65 to $100 each.—Mr. Scott, the Lexington hemp man, who was in Versailles Monday, says that hemp in Central Kentucky will make more than an average crop.—Woodford Sun.

The damage done to crops Grant county by the drouth can hardly be estimated. In some parts of the county corn may make as much as half a crop and it is doubtful if the average in the county will be as much as a third crop. Tobacco has not suffered so much as corn, and it will, if frost keeps off until the first of October, make something like half a crop.—Williamstown Courier.

STRAYED.—A black sow, white spot in forehead, crop in right ear and a split in left, weight about 200, left the farm of John Coffey, near Langford 2 weeks ago, will pay a liberal reward for her return or information as to her whereabouts.
SAM HYSINGER,
Mt. Vernon.
