QUAIL

I have a few words to say on Choosing. Choose carefully I beg of you the path you would follow. The farmer is careful in the choice of seeds, he does not want bad seed or inferior seed, because he knows that such will give a poor crop. He looks for the best seed he can buy. If you choose to sow to the flesh you will have a corrupted harvest. If you commit a sinful deed it may land you into a dishonored grave. Choose is a solemn thing you can make this moment; a turning-point in your life.

Once during the conquest of Pizarro, Pizarro's followers threatened to desert him, they gathered on the shore to embark for home. Drawing his sword he traced a line with it in the sand from East to West, then turning toward the south he said, friends and comrades on that side are toll, hunger, nakedness, the drenching storm and death; on this side, ease and pleasure. There lies Peru with all its riches; here Panama and its poverty.

Choose each man as becomes a brave Christian, "for my I go South." So saying he stepped across the line and one after another, his comrades followed him and the destiny of South America was decided.

Napoleon was once offered position as officer in the Turkish artillery. He declined it; but had he chosen to accept it, the history of Europe would have been different. On your choice in spiritual things, depends your eternity. On the one side there is Christ; on the other, the world. Between them you must choose, do not wish to grow wheat and tares. Oh choose Christ! Let there be no half-heartedness; give him your whole heart, He died to redeem you from the curse of sin and He lives to save from power of sin. "No man can serve two masters," you can not belong to two kingdoms at once. Lord Brougham grew to be so fond of Cannas that he sought to be naturalized as a Frenchman; but found it was impossible to be both a peer of England and a citizen of a French town; he must renounce the one, to become the other. Now this is where the will comes in; it is easy to follow other peoples lead; to swim with the tide, but it requires character, moral backbone to stand against the current of popular opinion and practice.

During the late war a deserter came into the Federal lines before Pittsburg. He was asked; what did you go into secession for? His answer was, because they all did. That reason will account for many a man's action, he will act according to the saying, while you are in Rome do as the Romans do; neglecting to investigate and determine whether or not the Romans do right if they do wrong. A man should stand against a whole nation if need be—like another Daniel.

Almighty God set two sides before the children of Israel, and I set them now before you. Remember or you choose, that your eternity is in the balance. "See I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil; in that I command thee this day to love the Lord, thy God, to walk in His ways and to keep His commandments, and His statutes and His judgements; that thou mayest live and multiply and the Lord thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it. But if thine heart turn away so that thou wilt not hear, but shall be drawn away and worship other gods and serve them; I denounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the land whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it. I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death blessing and cursing; therefore choose life both that thou and thy seed may live; that thou mayest love the Lord thy God and that thou mayest obey His voice, and that thou mayest cleave to Him, for he is thy life and the length of thy days."

So choose carefully your path; young boys choose carefully your sweet-hearts. Fathers and mothers choose carefully what you teach your boys and girls. Choose what you belong to in the Baptist, Methodist, or any kind that you don't belong to (Mt. 16, 18. And I say also unto thee that 'Thou art Peter and upon this Rock I will build my church and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it. So Christian people are peculiar people.

The first Interstate fair ever given in the South will take place at the grounds of the New Louisville Jockey Club, Louisville, Ky. beginning Sept. 23rd and closing Oct. 5th.

Exhibits of all kinds, including live-stock, poultry, serals, and manufactured articles will be shown.

It is expected that every Southern State will be represented in some of the departments. Already, the fair has attracted outside attention, and entries are being received every day for the various classes. Live-stock exhibits will undoubtedly be the most complete the South has ever seen. The Live Stock Committee has offered Fifteen thousand ($15,000) dollars in premiums, and the following entries from nearly ten States: The Hereford and Short Horn Record Association have added Five thousand ($5,000) dollars to the premium money to be distributed among these classes of cattle. Special prizes have been also offered for horses, sheep and swine.

Another feature of the fair attracting extraordinary attention from the young people of the South is the Athletic Program Five thousand ($5,000) dollars has been offered in prizes to the Winners Record-breakers. It is open to all amateurs of the United States and every event will number its Contestants a holder of a World's Record. The program will consist of running races, relay races, hurdle races, shot-put, hammer throw, pole vault, broad jump, high jump and discus throw.

The Association has arranged a complete Midway for which some of the best Vaudeville performers of the United States have been engaged. Mr. Will S. Heck, a prominent Theatrical Manager of Cincinnati, has this feature in charge, and he has spent some weeks in New York in engaging talent. Some of the attractions of the fair will be The Japanese Theatre, Turkish Theatre, The Streets of the Orient, Animal Arena Congress of Dancing Girls, German Village and a number of high class Vaudeville shows. The Midway will be kept open night and day giving the visitors an opportunity to see the fair in the afternoon and evening.

The Railroads have been very liberal in matter of rates and have granted one fare for the round trip from all the prominent points in Kentucky. These tickets will be on sale the first three days of each week and will be limited to return three days after the fair.

The Jury in the case of Dock Lowrey, of Richmond, on trial for alleged criminal assault upon Mrs. Cordelia Millam, brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed his punishment at fifteen years' confinement in the penitentiary. This was the fourth trial.

Land, Stock and Crop

Catron and Wood sold to J. H. Poynter, of Dallas, Palaski county, 15 1100-lbs cattle, which averaged $40 each.

George Phelps sold to Simon Weil 32 head of export cattle, averaging 1,300 pounds at 5 cent.—Richmond Register.

The Stanford Journal notes the sales of 13 hogs, 180 lbs, at 5 1/2 cts; another lot at $5.40; two lots of seed wheat at 74 cts., and 500 bushels at 70 cents.

The Danville News notes the sales of a lot of hogs, at 5 cents; another lot at $5.30; six good mules at $150 each, and sixty fat hogs for September 20th delivery at, $5.40. The Manitoba wheat harvest is by long odds the best on record. The farmers of the prairie province expect to harvest at least 50,000,000 bushels of wheat. They require the assistance of 20,000 extra men in the work.

The Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat notes the sales of twenty lots of export cattle, a total of 1,561 head, weighing from 1,400 to 4,500 lbs. Most of them brought 5 to 5 1/2 cts., although a few of inferior quality sold at 4 1/4 and 4 1/2 cts. Most of them were purchased by Jonas Weil and Louis Joseph.

At the joint sale of stock and implements of Sim Slaughter and R. D. Bruce Saturday, there was a large attendance and bidding was spirited, but prices were considered low. Two-hundred and fifty sheep for $2.10 per head; 15 horses at from $70 to $75; 20 cows $15 to $25; hogs $5.25 per hundred. A load of corn was withdrawn at $6.10 per barrel.—Danville Adv.

On a trip to Winchester and Cynthia Monday we were impressed by the fact that the corn crop along the railroad will be a scant half crop. We have not seen any corn in Fleming county as poor as that to be seen between Paris, Winchester and Cynthia. Tobacco shows up fine, grass is excellent and hemp seems to be all right.—Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

At the sale of Mrs. S. S. Bell, on the 30th of August, Shorthorn cows sold for $115 to $27.50 per head; heifers $50 to $11.75; yearling bull, 65; 50-lb. shoats, averaged $3.45 each; mountain ewes, 66 head, 1 1/2 tons per head; timothy hay, 1 1/2 tons to pack, $17 per stack; horses, from $50 to $125; corn $16 to $20 per acre; ground rent until 1st of March at $1.25 per acre.—Paris Kentuckian.

Robinson & Son also sold to the same party seventy-five head at $5.37 1/2. W. S. Beazley & Bro. sold to same party 179 head at $5.50. The same firm also bought 125 head of Alex Gibbs at $5.37 1/2. This is one of the largest deals made in central Kentucky for some time. The animals were unusually large and fat, and beauties.—Central Record.

Mr. Clarence Vanarsdall got 115 pounds of grapes from one vine, from which he made 12 gallons of wine. The vine is 60 feet square and the variety is the white Martha.... B. F. Sanders & Bro. and Watkins & Caruthers, of Louisville, bought of Simon Weil, of Lexington, 18 car loads of top hogs at 5 1/2 cts., to be delivered in Cincinnati. Weil delivered a car load of them Monday, and is to furnish the same number every Monday in October, November and December. Sanders netted $175 on last Monday's load.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

Shannon McKinney, of Livingston, had a cow to disappear about three weeks ago; much time was spent looking for her, yet no trace could be found, but about the time the cow had been gone three weeks, he decided to take a peep in the stable, which was almost hidden by the weeds, and as he opened the door, what met the gaze of his eyes, but the helpless and beyond redemption carcass of his old cow.

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

"A awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she would die from Pneumonia before morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her the fearful night, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of Consumption. After taking, she slept all night. Further use entirely cured her." This marvellous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all Druggists drug store.

A public meeting was held in Louisville Monday night to express sympathy for president McKinley and condemnation for the attempted assassination. It was held in Music Hall.

J. T. Merton, of Carthage, Mo., was killed by a train in the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad yards at Lexington.

Take the SIGNAL, and get all the news; all the time, from all over county and State.

A GREAT calamity befell this country when on last Friday Pres. Wm McKinley was so ruthlessly shot by the hand of an assassin.

Peacefully smiling, he greeted the assassin who bore the deadly weapon in his hand, and after having received into his body the deadly pellets, and while sinking back with his eyes on his fiendish assailant, he said: "God forgive him."

The Pres was standing at the Buffalo Exposition on a platform amid the plaudits of his fellow-countrymen extending to them his friendly hand. It was an inspiring scene for the great leader was in the best of spirits. He was delighted to greet the people and the great throng rejoiced to be greeted by him.

We deeply deplore in common with all good citizens, this dastardly attempt upon the life of the nation's head and we share in the universal sorrow and sympathy felt throughout this and other countries for our stricken chiefman.

The bullets that pierced his body passed quickly into the hearts of us all and caused the nation to suffer in great agony. What had this good man and devoted husband done that he should be killed? A model man in every regard; beautiful in his devotion to his wife, faithful to his country and brave in the discharge of every duty.

In the breast of every true and patriotic American citizen there burns in white heat, a flame of indignation for the wretched perpetrator of such a foul deed. Damn be he who would seek to destroy such a man, send a piercing, deadly dagger through the heart of such a noble woman as Mrs. McKinley and cause the heads of the great American people to bow in deepest sorrow.

The despicable cur should meet a death commensurate with the terrible crime committed. Slay the serpent and destroy the vile and wretched villain! He would make a bon-fire of our schools and churches; he would dynamite our happy homes and forever destroy our government.

He is an enemy to the human race and his delight is in the use of the torch, the dagger, the pistol and the dynamite as weapons of destruction. The God of Leon Czolgosz and his tribe of anarchists 'tis the God of hate; their creed is murder, and their heaven is hell.

THE road leading from the J. L. White place to Langford station, for the benefit of which, the surplus road fund of $500 was appropriated by the Fiscal Court, is now nearing completion.

Under the management of that splendid gentleman, Mr. W. B. Whitehead, a splendid road is being built, and one that even those, who fought it most bitterly, will be proud of, when completed.

The road is there to show for itself, and to prove conclusively to the people that a mint of money is in no wise necessary, in order to build roads throughout this county.

Mr. Whitehead in speaking of the surplus of $500, which this county had two years ago, had this to say: "The $500 was proportioned among the 200 overseers throughout the county, which gave to each one $2.50, and what kind of a showing can any overseer make with the pitiful sum of $2.50?"

JUDGE Alex P. Humphrey struck the key note and spoke words of wisdom and truth when he said last Monday night in the mass-meeting in Louisville to pass suitable resolutions on the attempted assassination of Pres. McKinley that "we want stern jurors, stern judges and stern executives who will not exercise clemency to those who take the lives of their fellow-men."

In the Boyle Circuit Court last Tuesday Sol Downey was convicted of false swearing and sentenced to the penitentiary for swearing a lie to obtain marriage license. Rockcastle would be better off today if he would send to the same place about one half dozen men for the same offense.

POSTPONED is the case of Jim Howard, the assassin, till the January term of Court at Frankfort. Strange indeed that such culprits can not be speedily tried, convicted and executed, with probably a dozen or so, some of them sojourning in the land of "fugitive rest."

Oil for the Children.

Give them oil—cod-liver oil. It's curious to see the result. Give it to the peevish, fretful child, and he laughs. Give it to the pale, anæmic child, and his face becomes rosy and full of health. Take a flat-chested child, or a child that has stopped growing, give him the oil, and he will grow big and strong like the rest.

This is not a new scheme. It has been done for years. Of course you must use the right oil. Scott's Emulsion is the one. Scott's Emulsion neither looks nor tastes like oil because we are so careful in making it pleasant to take.

Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 40 Pine St., N. Y.
