"OLD HICKORY" CHIPS.

(By Our Associate Editor.)
What did Mr. Roosevelt expect to hang on that Massachusetts Crane?

If William Allen White is bald, how can the device will Boss Platt take his scalp?

If Mr. Roosevelt keeps on driving nails in his political coffin, it will soon be all nails.

Common sagacity should have kept Mr. Roosevelt from committing himself against Schley.

Mr. Roosevelt seems to be cultivating the practice of kicking republicans out of office.

A joint discussion by Gov. Van Sant and Mr. Schwab on "Are the trusts dead?" would be interesting.

Gen. Nelson A. Miles is loved for the reprimands he has received for not bending in adoration of the powers that be.

If Secretary Long wishes to make the people a New Year's gift that will be appreciated he will tender his resignation.

All honor to Gov. Van Sant for declining to be bulldozed or cajoled into letting up in his fight on the big railroad trust.

King Eddy seems more likely to be known in history for his corruption decrease than for any act of statesmanship.

Senator Hanna is loudly advocating peace between capital and labor, but he isn't saying a word about peace between himself and Senator Foraker.

The people of this country regard that reprimand as a new honor for Gen. Miles and another demerit for the administration.

Chauncey Depew has landed on the other side and resumed the talk where he left off. Incidentally he has also taken a bride.

Wanted—An effective muzzle for talkative army and navy officers. Send samples to T. R. White House, Washington, D. C.

Kansas kept up its reputation as a producer of the extraordinary when one of its writers pierced the thick skin of Senator Platt, of N. Y.

The points of resemblance between the characters of the Emperor of Germany and the President of the U. S. have been quite conspicuous of late.

Mr. Schwab, president of the big steel trust, must be envious of the notoriety Hanna gained by saying that there were no trusts, or he would not have said that trusts are forever dead.

It is now up to Congress to see that justice is done to that brave officer and gentleman, Winfield Scott Schley; if Congress fails, it will be for the people to act, and they will do it.

Mr. Payne, the coming Postmaster General, will need all the political shrewdness he has been credited with to keep the Roosevelt machine from going to pieces on the rocks of popular disgust.

The man who is doing the best work toward the return of the democratic party to power is Hon. Theodore Roosevelt. He has only to keep it up to make the next President a democrat.

Wise holders of cable stock will not be in a hurry to exchange it as par for stock in Marconi's wireless telegraph system, notwithstanding reports of a panic among holders of cable stock in London.

All towns look alike to the people of the District of Columbia. Therefore they are not getting excited over the subtraction of one North Carolina "nigger" for another North Carolina "nigger" as one of their best-paid local officers—the Recorder of Deeds.

LOCALS FROM SIGNAL OF CHRISTMAS 1887.

All peaceable on Brush creek. Mumps is raging at Mareburg. Lee Coffey injured by boom pole. Boys are being arrested for jumping.

Sak at Albright & Co's., Brodhead.

Whitehead's drugstore for Xmas trix.

Colby Hays, thrown from horse and hurt.

John R. Vowels is the devil in this office.

Cheap Holiday goods at Williams' drugstore.

Mrs. J. W. Nesbit is giving instructions in music.

Bargains at Thompson's in all lines of merchandise.

Jack Catron went to Wayne county to get married.

Pat Welsh ran our army press at rate of 400 copies per hour.

Adam Catron went to Atlanta, Ga., with a car load mules.

James Rash adjudged insane and ordered to Lexington asylum.

H. H. Wood, the clever Disputant merchant, was here Tuesday.

George Ricketts, of Knoxville, married to Miss Mollie Taylor Dec. 21st.

Mrs. Nancy Cook, of Scaffold Cave, visited her sister, Mrs. Dr. Williams.

A. T. Fish, Wildie's popular merchant, made us a pleasant call Monday.

H. C. Gentry has the thanks of this office for some gratuitous blacksmithing.

Mrs. M. E. Brown, our worthy post-mistress, was a welcome caller Wednesday.

J. H. McKinney and Miss Ophelia McAllister, of Pulaski, were married last week.

Nate Evans, night operator, and sister, Mrs. A. E. Miller, visited Zanesville, Ohio.

W. H. Cocks mentions gas having been struck in Smith oil well some years since.

Misses Amanda Ping, Julia Coyle and Mattie Rowze, paid this office a pleasant call Wednesday.

D. N. Williams showed us an old letter from Gen. Winfield Scott, dated Washington, Dec. 17, 1851.

C. S. Nield, formerly a journalist of Harrodsburg, made himself at home among our exchanges Monday.

Miss Lucile Jopl'n brightened the gloom of this office with her presence for a few minutes Tuesday afternoon.

The Stewartville, (Mo.,) bank, that collapsed two weeks since, caught our townsman C. W. Adams for $2000 in gold.

When our London friends meet a fine looking Mt. Vernon boy in their town this week, we hope they will treat him well—but not too often. He is the SIGNAL's traveling solicitor, Mr. R. C. Williams, and has gone there to corral subscribers and job work.

All things work together for good of those who love the Lord. As if to furnish Jim Merle news when news is scarce, the people of Rockcastle county have broken out to killing each other, two or three strong men have bitten the dust there in less than a week—Lynchman Enterprise.

A WOMAN'S AWFUL PAIN.
"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. L. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to see Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful remedy. Cures Liver and Kidney troubles. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, etc. Only 50 cts. Get it at once. For sale by all Druggists.

QUAIL

J. M. Craig was in Mt. Vernon last Saturday.

Dr. M. D. Bryant was in Mt. Vernon Tuesday.

Born, to the wife of John M. Brown, a fine boy.

George Marler was at home from Pittsburg last Sunday and Monday.

W. H. Brown and Josh Wilson have been in the country buying cattle at very fair prices.

Judge R. G. Williams passed through this country last week, en route to Pulaski, on professional business.

G. B. Sutton, H. G. Sutton and J. M. Craig, attended court at Lancaster last Monday and report the market dull.

Land, Stock and Crop

A car load of California honey was barred from the Chicago market recently by the Pure Food Commission on the ground that it was not pure honey. It was marked "pure clover honey," but was a good article of glucose, or at least it contained about sixty per cent of glucose.

Corn is selling at $1 a bushel in several counties in the Blue Grass Region. The price in car lots in Cincinnati, Thursday morning was Yellow ear, 72 1/2 cts., on track, No. 2 yellow, 70 cts., and No. 2 white for same, 60 cts. No. 2 white, 51 1/2 cts., No. 2 mixed 50 cts. on track; wheat, No. 2 winter red, 85 1/2 cts., and 86 cts. on track—Winchester Democrat.

Counting Them All In.
George's mother insisted upon his repeating the prayer of childhood. He started sleepily, requiring promptings at the beginning of every line. Brown, who had lately won the mastery by the time that he had obediently got as far as "my soul to take."

"Well, bless—" prompted his mother. "George has a long list of relatives. There was a flutter of his sleep-laden lids as he bumped them together."

"Well, bless the whole shooting match!"

"And he was asleep at last."—Boston Transcript.

The Deacon's Theory.
"Deacon," said the minister after the congregation had been dismissed, "how do you account for the unusually poor collection we had this morning?"

"Well, parson," replied the deacon, "the only way I can account for it is that the people have decided to pay according to the sermons delivered."—Chicago Daily News.

SOUL TORTURE.
Her voice used to thrill him; His heart leaped within him; His soul was aflame.

Her voice made his heart leap; When he was her lover— Since she's a stranger she kills him. He jumps up all over!—Chicago Times-Herald.

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE.
Constable (to deaf witness)—His witness asks if you are married man? Witness—No, sir. I got these accidents a couple of months at night last a week ago—Alli Slippy.

Another Bubble Picked.
The sun shines not on all alkis. I'll waver all my alkis; For some it's very kindly tans And some it's meanly trickies.

Her Object Attained.
"Forgive me, my dear," said the gossip, humbly, "but I thoughtlessly mentioned to Mrs. Johnson the things that you told me in strict confidence."

"There is nothing to forgive," replied the wise woman, pleasantly, "it was for the very reason that I told them to you in strict confidence."—Chicago Post.

His Mistake.
"Percy—I met your big mistake when I asked old Oetox for his daughter's hand, and told him I was descended from King Alfred the Great!"

"Percy—How was that?"

"Percy—Why, he said so was his family, and he didn't believe in marriage between blood relations."—Puck.

Heard the Shirt.
Hewitt—Did you recognize my voice the other day when I telephoned to you?

Jewett—No.

Hewitt—But you seemed to know at once who it was.

Jewett—I could hear the colored shirt you had in Town Topics.

Ignorant City Politics.
City News (reprovingly)—Uncle Wayback, why do you pour your coffee into the sugar before drinking it?

Uncle Wayback—To cool it. The more air surface you give it, the quicker it cools. Guess these 'ere city news don't teach much science, do they?—N. Y. Weekly.

She Knew Him.
Visitor—I wonder what that avial roaring would be! Can it be that a storm is coming up?

Mrs. Growell—Oh, no, don't be alarmed. It is only Mr. Growell upstairs hunting for a lost needle button.

Chicago Daily News.

Enough for Her.
"Do you think you can manage with my salary of $12 a week, darling?" he asked her she had said yes.

"I'll try, Jack," she replied. "But what will you do?"—Philadelphia North American.

A Key Attraction.
Friend—Are you going to have a sea serpent this summer?

Proprietor Summer Hotel—No; I've arranged for a second in high season. It will please here early in the season.—N. Y. Journal.

Disobeying.

W. M. Poynter.

GOOD SUCCESS.—W. M. Owens says the singing school just closed at Chestnut Ridge school house, was a great success. Mr. James Cromer, the instructor, gave such universal satisfaction, that another class has been made up to commence work the first of January.

The pupils receiving the highest grades at the College for the month of December, are the following:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Grade (COLLEGIATE DEPT., INTERMEDIATE DEPT., PRIMARY DEPT.)

CLOSED.—The Collegiate Institute closed Friday night for the Holidays, with a nice entertainment and musicale. "Lucy's Old Man" was played by Misses Minerva Prince, Aggie Thompson and Rena Baker, and Messrs. Cosie Station and Willie Krueger, and was greatly enjoyed by the large audience which filled the College chapel to its full capacity. Misses Rice, Williams, Alia Thompson, Fannie Sparks and Ms. Magee each played a piano solo, while Earnest Ewers and Claud Cox sang a duet, all of which, was creditably done and specially enjoyed.

NOTICE

I wish to thank my many customers for the liberal patronage they have favored me with for the past year, and hope to have a continuation next year. It is agreeable with you. Put in order for me to accommodate you. I will be compelled to call on those who owe me on the present year's account, to call and settle same. We should settle in full at least once a year. So I hope you will respond to this call and oblige.

Christmas passed off very quietly and but little trouble is reported from any part of the county.

John Payne cut Logan Thompson at Crab Orchard Tuesday, inflicting a slight wound in the shoulder.

MISS BESSIE POYNTER WINS THE CHRISTMAS PRIZE

Miss Bessie Poynter, the bright little 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Poynter, wins first prize—$2.00, offered by the Courier-Journal for the best Christmas poem. Miss Bessie is one of the smartest and best read girls, of her age, we know of, and the poem printed below, that won the prize over several hundred contestants, is only one of her many creditable productions.

CHRISTMAS

One Christmas Eve, in Bethlehem, 'A little baby lay, In a manger, where the cattle fed, Cradled in the hay.

The shepherds watching o'er the flock Of straying, wandering sheep, Very tired and weary grown, Had fallen fast asleep.

When an angel appeared to them and said, "Peace on earth, good will to men; The baby lay in swaddling clothes, They went forth and worshipped Him there."

The star appeared up in the sky, To guide the wise men from the East. Who brought gifts of frankincense and myrrh, To Christ, the Prince of Peace.

They rode on camels white as snow, To where the baby lay; No lace adorned His little crib— He was cradled in the hay.

"Peace on earth, good will to men, Glory to God," the angels sing; "Christ our Lord is born this night, He is our Savior, He's our King."

'CAN'T Afford TO Paint'

THE man who says that, forgets that painting properly done is economy, and the fact is he can't afford NOT to paint.

HOW often you require to paint is largely dependent upon the paint you use.

The Sherman-Williams Paints out last others. They are the most economical paints you can use, because they cover most and wear longest.

Adopt this their good appearance, and you have perfect paints—THE SHERMAN-WILLIAMS PAINTS.

They are made for many different kinds of painting. Whatever it is you want to paint—a house, or anything in or out of the house—we make the right paint for that particular purpose—and one slip-dash mixture for all. C. H. FRITH, BRODHEAD, KY.
