

THREE SEVERE TESTS PUT TO MR. CHENAULT IN HIS RACE FOR AUDITOR.

In selecting a public official we are all three of these essential qualifications in mind or effect, and the people who elect him, may expect poor service. Mark the prediction!

How Do You Like Them?

This is the way we want to see the ticket lined up for November. If you suit you, hunt for them on your ballot, put your cross in the little square at the end of their names and you will have done well your part.

Lincoln County's Able and Efficient County Attorney.

The splendid and gentlemanly county attorney of Lincoln, is not only one of the best officers in the state, but is one of the most public spirited, one of the best and most enthusiastic democrats and in fact one of the best all round fellows to be found anywhere.

A REPORT AGAINST MEN.

The report against the monster man has just broken out again in a virulent form in the borough of Columbia, Md., and has from London above a new ally, the monster man of which is limited to a single year's term of years, has been formed for the purpose of assisting young women and those more advanced in years, with the temptation to enter the married state.

U. G. BAKER, "KING" OF LOW PRICES.

Men's best heavy work shoes for $1 a pair. Men's fine shoes cut to as low as 90c. Men's fine Patent Leather $4 shoes for $3. Men's fine " " Oxfords worth $4 for $3.

ALL the finest calicoes at 5 cents a yard. THE best yard-wide Domestic ever sold at 7 1/2 cents a yard. ALL the nice Lawns and Dimities worth 15c. now start at 7c to 10c a yard.

FINE FAMILY GROCERIES

Prices on groceries are same as advertised last week. Keep your eyes on this part of the SIGNAL for you will find quoted here each week Bargains that you can secure nowhere else.

The FARMER'S Friend, U. G. BAKER, Mt. Vernon, Ky

TOBACCO CULTURE IN ROCKCASTLE COUNTY. I have oftentimes been asked the question, "If in my experience in the culture of tobacco in Rockcastle county, would it pay?" and if I believed our soil was adapted to same?

BROODHEAD.

Mr. Parigan was in town Monday. Prof. Chandler was in town Monday. Mrs. Henderson is at her son's, Wm. Potts.

CONWAY.

P. S. Calahan was in Berea this week. Some corn has been planted between showers. Mr. Shockley, of Berea, visited relatives here this week.

ROBERTS.

Mr. Parigan was in town Monday. Prof. Chandler was in town Monday. Mrs. Henderson is at her son's, Wm. Potts.

ROBERTS.

Miss Grace Roberts visited home folks near Freedom Sunday. Born to the wife of J. R. Cass, Tuesday night, a fine baby boy.

NOVEL POST OFFICE PLANNED.

A site near the Independence National Bank in the town of Berea, Ky., is being considered for a post office.

POSSESSES STRANGE POWER.

Twenty-year-old girl in New York says she can speak to cats. Stella Lindell, the thirteen-year-old daughter of a Landville, a photographer of Free Junction, N. Y., has the strange power of speaking to cats.

ORDERED TO VISIT SUN.

The Missouri legislature considers the appointment of a committee for the trip.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

Walton Parker sold Bayless & Co. 15 fat hogs, average 250 lbs., at $6.50 per cwt. Earl Ferguson sold to Long, West & Co., of Cincinnati, 270 hogs, averaging 190 lbs., at $6.50. Paris Kentuckian.

WORLD WIDE REPUTATION.

White's Cream Vermifuge has achieved a world-wide reputation as being the best of all worm destroyers, and for its tonic influence on weak and unthrifty children.

WORLD WIDE REPUTATION.

White's Cream Vermifuge has achieved a world-wide reputation as being the best of all worm destroyers, and for its tonic influence on weak and unthrifty children.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Seven million bottles sold in past 12 months.

MT VERNON SIGNAL

FRIDAY, MAY 9, 1908.

Published every Friday by EDGAR A. ALBRIGHT.

SUBSCRIPTION ONE YEAR - $1.00

Advertising rates made known on application.

Vote for Chennett.

Don't forget Napoleon B. Hays.

Remember the primary tomorrow.

John Griffith can't be beat for Treasurer.

Remember Hubert Vreeland for Commissioner.

Watkins is the man for Superintendant of Public Instruction.

Some critics say the Washington Monument in Washington is not high art. They ought to be compelled to climb it.

The Press, Cleveland's recent speech of the negro question appears to have been with exceptional force to the Southern editors.

This is the time of year when one wishes that the scientific gentlemen who found the germ of laziness would hurry up and find the proper toxin.

A Milwaukee woman has named her child "Theodore Roosevelt Henry Clay Payne Bradenburgh." Is this not a case for the Society for the prevention of cruelty to children?

The Governor of Rhode Island says that republicanism supremacy in that state is maintained only by bribing and the "placation" of the state's "boss." Of course, the Governor is right.

More prominent democrats who discuss the tariff question announce themselves in favor of "moderate tariff revision." The old slogan of "tariff for revenue only" seems to have no supporters now.

The Pennsylvania "middle law" which specifically destroys the liberty of the press is a sample of the limits to which a Matthew Quay machine is willing to go to secure its own ends and perpetuate its own life.

According to the Interstate Commerce Commission the wages paid to all the cheaper classes of railway employees are lower than they were in 1899 and 1903, notwithstanding the widely advertised increase recently granted by some carriers.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Mr. Augustus E. Wilson, of Lexington, has announced himself a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor.

The Republican county convention held here resulted in a split. The Committee on Resolutions gave A. T. Siler, of Williamsburg, first instructions, and R. M. Woods, of Hyden, second. The Hon. W. S. Bassett, leading the Watson side, offered an amendment to have Woods name take the place of Siler's for first instructions. The trouble arose over the vote upon the amendment. During the wrangle the chairman, Siler's, was declared the county instructed for Siler and adjourned the convention. Woods's followers, who were in the majority, effected an organization of their own and instructed the county for him. This was by far the stormiest convention held in London for years.

"The Democratic party is in good shape all over the country," declared Senator McCleary to the Courier-Journal. "The nominee for president should be a man who can get the support of all Democrats. There are at least two such men—Judge Parker, of New York, and Senator Gosman, of Maryland. I found out before leaving Washington that these men were more widely discussed for the nomination than the others, and it is the general opinion that either of them can be elected if nominated. The preference should deal with merit and not with money. It should mean the best man for the job, and not the man who has the most money to spend." McCleary's statement is a strong endorsement of McCleary's statement.

SCRAPS

(BY SET)

Jobany—Now Willie, that you have come I guess I will have to go for the doctor.

Willie—My son!

Jobany—Pa says yoa' make him sick.

"It's a burning shame," said the man who occasionally thinks aloud.

"What a burning shame!" asked the youth with the shallow brainbox.

"That cigarette of yours," replied the audible thinker.

"Don't you think you had better try to keep these people from circulating contraband about you?"

"No," answered Senator Sorghum, "if I can create the impression that I am habitually slandered I reckon I will be better off."

The children had quarreled and Willie had struck Tommie. Instead of returning the blow Tommie turned and ran down the hall.

"Where are you going, Tommie?" asked his mother.

"Kitchen," answered Tommie tersely.

"What for?"

"You said if anybody was cross to me to heap coals of fire on his head, an 'I'm goin' for the coals.'"

Few Kentuckians have any distinct recollections of Henry Clay, but one of the "Great Common-places" of the world, and greatest admirers still lives and is as hale and hardy. He is Judge James Flanagan, of Winchester, Clark county. He is now eighty-two years of age and is the oldest native inhabitant of the town or of the county. He was appointed Circuit Judge by Gov. Blackburn and succeeded Judge Ben Buckner and has held other positions of honor. Judge Flanagan is tall and is as straight as an arrow. He enjoys splendid health and is a familiar figure on the streets of Winchester. He talks by the hour about Henry Clay, and quotes from any number of speeches which he heard Mr. Clay deliver.

The horsemanship is the greatest social, financial, artistic and popular institution of Kentucky. It goes hand in hand with the barbecue, and though preacher after preacher has knocked it out of the box, he has never gotten on well enough to its career to the sport man's heart. It appeals to the lover of beauty, grace, skill and endurance, and like Banquo's ghost, it is one of those things that refuses to down. One of the greatest authorities on the history of the track here was the present of the Derby. You could see a pleasant-faced man walking with a cane going from group to group on the piazza of the clubhouse, nodding to the men and shaking hands with the women. Now and then he disappeared to see a friend with whom he chatted over the old and new ways of the jockey club. That man is Col. Joe Burt, who wrote "The Old Open Bucket," and who knows more about "tickers" than any watchmaker in the city.

"Know Lewis Clark?" says the Colonel in his city.

And in his city, sweet and coarse, he settles himself in a chair and gazes out over the track. "The Hon. W. S. Bassett, leading the Watson side, offered an amendment to have Woods name take the place of Siler's for first instructions. The trouble arose over the vote upon the amendment. During the wrangle the chairman, Siler's, was declared the county instructed for Siler and adjourned the convention. Woods's followers, who were in the majority, effected an organization of their own and instructed the county for him. This was by far the stormiest convention held in London for years."

"The Democratic party is in good shape all over the country," declared Senator McCleary to the Courier-Journal. "The nominee for president should be a man who can get the support of all Democrats. There are at least two such men—Judge Parker, of New York, and Senator Gosman, of Maryland. I found out before leaving Washington that these men were more widely discussed for the nomination than the others, and it is the general opinion that either of them can be elected if nominated. The preference should deal with merit and not with money. It should mean the best man for the job, and not the man who has the most money to spend." McCleary's statement is a strong endorsement of McCleary's statement.

According to the Interstate Commerce Commission the wages paid to all the cheaper classes of railway employees are lower than they were in 1899 and 1903, notwithstanding the widely advertised increase recently granted by some carriers.

LIVINGSTON

Lyda Cook is visiting at Mt Vernon this week.

Sen. Gen. Paris was a guest at the Mellins Hotel Wednesday.

Lloyd Marel was down Wednesday, repeating the telephone wires.

R. Carter left Tuesday, for Nashville, Tenn., to attend to some pressing business.

Capt. Thomas bought of Wm. Ward the bent field on south side of River for $1,500.

Merjames J. R. Stuckey, Jacob Simbrook, James Strange and J. R. Peyton, are visiting in Louisville this week.

John B. Mahoney, L. & N. fire man who was hurt at Pittsburg, has sufficiently recovered to visit with his family at Coleburg.

High street is being overhauled from Main to Second. J. B. Singleton is not to be outdoors when it comes to beautifying cottages.

Mrs. Eliza Mullins was down from Withers Monday looking after the erection of tombstones to the grave of her son, Ben Mullins. Contractor Bradford is with us again. We like to see Mr. Bradford come, his presence means more well and abundance, but he can't locate just where he will put the next. Presumably at Roundstone bridge.

The BACHELOR'S CREED.

Article 1. I believe that liberty and the unquestioned privilege of the latch key constitute the only true happiness.

Article 2. I believe that marriage is often a failure because men don't understand women.

Article 3. I believe that I am the only man who does thoroughly understand women.

Article 4. I believe that hatpins and veils are a danger and an aggravation to man and should therefore be suppressed.

Article 5. I believe that all mothers with growing daughters are highly dangerous to the youthful bachelor, but the daughters themselves are pretty, innocent little darlings.

Article 6. I believe that all women are jealous of one another, and that therefore one may not go to bed with her sister.

Article 7. I believe that land ladies are a much maligned race, but land ladies' cats are the very mischief.

Article 8. I believe that stolen knives are the sweetest—yet another inducement to remain a bachelor.

4000 Biblical Questions

To Be Asked and Answered in This Column.

CHAP. 12.

9th.—After his father's death, did Abraham stay in Haran? No.

10th.—Why did he remove? Because God told him so to do.

11th.—Who went with him? Sarai his wife, and Lot and their servants.

12th.—What relation was Lot to Abraham? His nephew.

13th.—Where are Ur, Haran and Canaan? Ur is in Chaldea, toward the south east of Babylon; Haran is in Mesopotamia, between Nineveh and Taurus; and Canaan is on the eastern shore of the Mediterranean sea, and is now called Palestine or the Holy Land.

14th.—Where did Abraham first settle, and what was his first act in the land of Canaan? At Sichem, in the plain of Moreh, near Samaria, where he built an altar to God, who appeared to him.

15th.—What remarkable circumstance in the history of Jacob happened there? Jacob buried under an oak there the idols and earrings taken from his household. Gen. 35, 4.

16th.—What acts of Joshua's again distinguished this spot when he first subdued Canaan? His assembling of tribes of Israel to renew their covenant with God; his appointing Shechem one of the cities of refuge; his renting the law between Mounts Gerizim and Ebal. Josh. 24, 7, 25: 10, 20, 7, 8, 15.

17th.—At what place did he rear the tabernacle, and at his death make a covenant with Israel? At Shiloh, near Sichem. Josh. 18, 1; At Bethel. See Num. 10.

18th.—What events in the New Testament yet further endorse the spot to our Lord's conversion of Sycher with his disciples? The conversion of Sycher with his disciples.

19th.—Did Abram continue to live at Sichem? No? He removed to the neighborhood of Bethel, being doubtless directed by God to enter farther into the land. Gen. 12, 8, 9: 13-17.

20th.—What sin was Abram guilty of in Egypt? Of want of truthfulness and faith respecting Sarah his wife. Gen. 12, 11, 20.

21st.—What does this teach us? We have before proved, both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; as it is written: "There is none righteous, no, not one. Rom. 3, 9, 10.

CHAPTER 13.

22th.—Was Abram a rich or a poor man? He was very rich. Gen. 13, 2.

23rd.—How had Lot prospered? Very much. Gen. 13, 5.

24th.—What was the result? A quarrel between the herds of the two. Gen. 13, 6, 7.

25th.—How did Abram behave on this occasion? He proposed that they should part, and gave Lot the choice of the land. Gen. 13, 8, 9.

26th.—Do you think Lot behaved as well as Abram in this affair? He was not liberal offer in return, and thought more of the goodness of the pasture than of the character of the people. When choosing a family of a place to reside, he should know whether God is feared in it, and His truth faithfully taught.

27th.—Had Lot cause to repent his choice? He suffered constant distress of mind and at length escaped with his wife, with the loss of his wife and of many of his family, and of most or all of his substance. (Gen. 19, 12, 29.)

28th.—Delivered your Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked; for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds. 2 Pet. 2, 7, 8.

29th.—Why? What kind of people did he go to sojourn among? E exceedingly wicked. Gen. 13, 13.

30th.—After the separation how did God manifest Himself to Abram? He repeated to him His promises. Gen. 13, 14, 17.

CHAPTER 14.

31th.—What foolish news did Abram soon hear from Lot? That Lot and his goods had been carried away in a war with Sodom and Gomorrah. Gen. 14, 12, 13.

32th.—What was the result? A quarrel between the herds of the two. Gen. 13, 6, 7.

33th.—How did Abram behave on this occasion? He proposed that they should part, and gave Lot the choice of the land. Gen. 13, 8, 9.

34th.—Do you think Lot behaved as well as Abram in this affair? He was not liberal offer in return, and thought more of the goodness of the pasture than of the character of the people. When choosing a family of a place to reside, he should know whether God is feared in it, and His truth faithfully taught.

35th.—Had Lot cause to repent his choice? He suffered constant distress of mind and at length escaped with his wife, with the loss of his wife and of many of his family, and of most or all of his substance. (Gen. 19, 12, 29.)

36th.—Delivered your Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked; for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds. 2 Pet. 2, 7, 8.

37th.—Why? What kind of people did he go to sojourn among? E exceedingly wicked. Gen. 13, 13.

38th.—After the separation how did God manifest Himself to Abram? He repeated to him His promises. Gen. 13, 14, 17.

CHAPTER 14.

39th.—What foolish news did Abram soon hear from Lot? That Lot and his goods had been carried away in a war with Sodom and Gomorrah. Gen. 14, 12, 13.

40th.—What was the result? A quarrel between the herds of the two. Gen. 13, 6, 7.

41th.—How did Abram behave on this occasion? He proposed that they should part, and gave Lot the choice of the land. Gen. 13, 8, 9.

42th.—Do you think Lot behaved as well as Abram in this affair? He was not liberal offer in return, and thought more of the goodness of the pasture than of the character of the people. When choosing a family of a place to reside, he should know whether God is feared in it, and His truth faithfully taught.

43th.—Had Lot cause to repent his choice? He suffered constant distress of mind and at length escaped with his wife, with the loss of his wife and of many of his family, and of most or all of his substance. (Gen. 19, 12, 29.)

44th.—Delivered your Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked; for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds. 2 Pet. 2, 7, 8.

45th.—Why? What kind of people did he go to sojourn among? E exceedingly wicked. Gen. 13, 13.

46th.—After the separation how did God manifest Himself to Abram? He repeated to him His promises. Gen. 13, 14, 17.

CHAPTER 14.

47th.—What foolish news did Abram soon hear from Lot? That Lot and his goods had been carried away in a war with Sodom and Gomorrah. Gen. 14, 12, 13.

48th.—What was the result? A quarrel between the herds of the two. Gen. 13, 6, 7.

49th.—How did Abram behave on this occasion? He proposed that they should part, and gave Lot the choice of the land. Gen. 13, 8, 9.

50th.—Do you think Lot behaved as well as Abram in this affair? He was not liberal offer in return, and thought more of the goodness of the pasture than of the character of the people. When choosing a family of a place to reside, he should know whether God is feared in it, and His truth faithfully taught.

51th.—Had Lot cause to repent his choice? He suffered constant distress of mind and at length escaped with his wife, with the loss of his wife and of many of his family, and of most or all of his substance. (Gen. 19, 12, 29.)

52th.—Delivered your Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked; for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds. 2 Pet. 2, 7, 8.

53th.—Why? What kind of people did he go to sojourn among? E exceedingly wicked. Gen. 13, 13.

54th.—After the separation how did God manifest Himself to Abram? He repeated to him His promises. Gen. 13, 14, 17.

CHAPTER 14.

55th.—What foolish news did Abram soon hear from Lot? That Lot and his goods had been carried away in a war with Sodom and Gomorrah. Gen. 14, 12, 13.

56th.—What was the result? A quarrel between the herds of the two. Gen. 13, 6, 7.

57th.—How did Abram behave on this occasion? He proposed that they should part, and gave Lot the choice of the land. Gen. 13, 8, 9.

58th.—Do you think Lot behaved as well as Abram in this affair? He was not liberal offer in return, and thought more of the goodness of the pasture than of the character of the people. When choosing a family of a place to reside, he should know whether God is feared in it, and His truth faithfully taught.

59th.—Had Lot cause to repent his choice? He suffered constant distress of mind and at length escaped with his wife, with the loss of his wife and of many of his family, and of most or all of his substance. (Gen. 19, 12, 29.)

60th.—Delivered your Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked; for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds. 2 Pet. 2, 7, 8.

61th.—Why? What kind of people did he go to sojourn among? E exceedingly wicked. Gen. 13, 13.

62th.—After the separation how did God manifest Himself to Abram? He repeated to him His promises. Gen. 13, 14, 17.

CHAPTER 14.

63th.—What foolish news did Abram soon hear from Lot? That Lot and his goods had been carried away in a war with Sodom and Gomorrah. Gen. 14, 12, 13.

64th.—What was the result? A quarrel between the herds of the two. Gen. 13, 6, 7.

65th.—How did Abram behave on this occasion? He proposed that they should part, and gave Lot the choice of the land. Gen. 13, 8, 9.

66th.—Do you think Lot behaved as well as Abram in this affair? He was not liberal offer in return, and thought more of the goodness of the pasture than of the character of the people. When choosing a family of a place to reside, he should know whether God is feared in it, and His truth faithfully taught.

67th.—Had Lot cause to repent his choice? He suffered constant distress of mind and at length escaped with his wife, with the loss of his wife and of many of his family, and of most or all of his substance. (Gen. 19, 12, 29.)

68th.—Delivered your Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked; for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds. 2 Pet. 2, 7, 8.

69th.—Why? What kind of people did he go to sojourn among? E exceedingly wicked. Gen. 13, 13.

70th.—After the separation how did God manifest Himself to Abram? He repeated to him His promises. Gen. 13, 14, 17.

CHAPTER 14.

71th.—What foolish news did Abram soon hear from Lot? That Lot and his goods had been carried away in a war with Sodom and Gomorrah. Gen. 14, 12, 13.

72th.—What was the result? A quarrel between the herds of the two. Gen. 13, 6, 7.

73th.—How did Abram behave on this occasion? He proposed that they should part, and gave Lot the choice of the land. Gen. 13, 8, 9.

74th.—Do you think Lot behaved as well as Abram in this affair? He was not liberal offer in return, and thought more of the goodness of the pasture than of the character of the people. When choosing a family of a place to reside, he should know whether God is feared in it, and His truth faithfully taught.

75th.—Had Lot cause to repent his choice? He suffered constant distress of mind and at length escaped with his wife, with the loss of his wife and of many of his family, and of most or all of his substance. (Gen. 19, 12, 29.)

76th.—Delivered your Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked; for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds. 2 Pet. 2, 7, 8.

77th.—Why? What kind of people did he go to sojourn among? E exceedingly wicked. Gen. 13, 13.

78th.—After the separation how did God manifest Himself to Abram? He repeated to him His promises. Gen. 13, 14, 17.

CHAPTER 14.

79th.—What foolish news did Abram soon hear from Lot? That Lot and his goods had been carried away in a war with Sodom and Gomorrah. Gen. 14, 12, 13.

80th.—What was the result? A quarrel between the herds of the two. Gen. 13, 6, 7.

81th.—How did Abram behave on this occasion? He proposed that they should part, and gave Lot the choice of the land. Gen. 13, 8, 9.

82th.—Do you think Lot behaved as well as Abram in this affair? He was not liberal offer in return, and thought more of the goodness of the pasture than of the character of the people. When choosing a family of a place to reside, he should know whether God is feared in it, and His truth faithfully taught.

83th.—Had Lot cause to repent his choice? He suffered constant distress of mind and at length escaped with his wife, with the loss of his wife and of many of his family, and of most or all of his substance. (Gen. 19, 12, 29.)

84th.—Delivered your Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked; for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds. 2 Pet. 2, 7, 8.

85th.—Why? What kind of people did he go to sojourn among? E exceedingly wicked. Gen. 13, 13.

86th.—After the separation how did God manifest Himself to Abram? He repeated to him His promises. Gen. 13, 14, 17.

CHAPTER 14.

J. C. Hocker & Co., Livingston, Ky. Headquarters for Ladies and Gents Furnishings, Dry Goods and Notions. Tailor-Made Suits a Specialty. The place Hocker & Co., Main St., Livingston, Ky.

W. H. CHASTEEN, IN BASEMENT of Old Brick, IS the place to get your soup and hot luncheon. WE can furnish at any time, and we are also headquarters for Fresh Fruits and Canned Goods of all kinds.

WHITE'S CREAM WORMS VERMIFUGE For 20 Years the Best of Worm Remedies. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS. JAMES F. BALLARD, St. Louis, Mo.

FAIR DATES. The following is the list of fair dates fixed for this year: Richmond, July 13, 6 days. Crab Orchard, July 23, 4 days. Georgetown, July 28, 4 days. Guthrie, July 29, 4 days. Danville, August 4, 4 days. Madisonville, August 4, 4 days. Lexington, August 10, 6 days. Park Creek, August 18, 4 days. Lawrenceburg, August 18, 4 days. Breathed, August 19, 20, 21. Shepherdsville, August 25, 4 days. Somerset, Sept. 1, 4 days. Birdstown, Sept. 1, 5 days. Elizabethtown, Sept. 8, 4 days. Bowling Green, Sept. 15, 4 days. Owensboro, Kentucky State Fair, Sept. 21, 6 days.

Tired Out. "I was very poorly and could hardly get out of the house. I was laid up all the time. Then I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it was perfectly well."—Mrs. N. S. Swain, Pittsboro, Mo.

The Strength of Lion Coffee. Lion Coffee is the best of all coffee, and it is the only coffee that is made in this country.

COX BROS., Mt. Vernon, Ky. METHUENISTS TO PRINT PAPERS. Philadelphia Churches to Print All Sporting News and Will See You on Sunday.

