LEVEL GREEN

No noise or importation to communicate to the public today. It came down here recently and the bottom fell out on the places that people call "roads," hence travel, traffic and other commercial transactions have been delayed. Win-win couldn't tote their eggs to the store. Yes, kaughpy haz riz and still has an upward tendency, corn is steady with an equilibrium of price. Here are preparing for boom there, business as soon as egg fall in price. Tom McLemore, who was tried before Squire Kinley, Saturday, on a charge of "Soyocide," was acquitted. "Some chicken stealing is now reported by the authorities. Our hunter raked up a 2-hoos-load of huxtery among our merchants last week. He paid an awful price for eggs—strange that egg zip up and hens keep down, ain't it. Jack Towery is home now boar'n' with his mammy. Jarvis Brown has done up 8 cases of measles at his home completely and it now ready to tackle small pox or any other 'ole thing' that comes along. It looks like raining and feels like snowing, this m., so it does—strange that the winter can look one way, feel another and do something else, ain't it? But sum gpeal do likewise all thro life. I have a nabor fur instance, that looks exactly like dimercal but never fails to vote the republican ticket. Uncle, the industrious, has begun his corn krrp by cutting down 3 winter bushes in his field. We'll begin a series of 'good road' articles next week and offer sum suggestions to our law-masters fur the pro boyvo public or sum other lig word o'vine inport and significance. Sumtimes I feel just like I want to work sum, but a short trial soon convinces me that I had been deceived by my feelings. Uncle is still convalescent and will soon be out. Mrs. W. F. DeFord continues, very poorly. Menages seem to be trying to make a clean job this time. Roscoe Norton is sick at Berea with pneumonia, where he is attending school, but as how better. Woodcock Lodge, E. & A. M. will give a public installation and dinner at their Hall on the 21st Saturday in this month. The public and neighboring lodges are cordially invited. Respectfully,

QUAIL

Charles Preston has been in this part. Stephen Elder sold to Fred Hahn a nice colt for $40. Miss Joan Craig is visiting relatives in Mt. Vernon.

Mr. George Parsons, Sr., is in very poor health at this time. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Thompson has been visiting relatives in this section.

Dr. Proctor is handling other goods besides drugs and is buying produce.

Eld. J. L. Davis filled his regular appointment at Providence Saturday and Sunday.

W. H. Brown bought 2 fat cattle of George Marley and 1 of P. H. Shutt at a fair price.

Mrs. Sallie George, of Walnut Grove, has been taken to the Hospital College, Louisville, for treatment.

The debate between J. L. Davis and the Mormon minister seems to be a thing of the past. The Mormon minister failing to meet Mr. Davis on his proposition.

Frank Cummins, who was taken to the Lexington Asylum last week, was brought back last week in a very critical condition. He is not expected to live but a short time.

Admitting that the farmer deserves the credit for continued prosperity, Secretary Wilson ought also to say a few kind words for the weather man.

A VERY CLOSE CALL

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Sickly, run down people at large, who are trying to make a clean job this time, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50 cents.

A Superintendent was reviewing a school in the lesson of the light and the public. In conclusion he said: "Now then, whose prayers does God hear?" A little chap promptly exclaimed "Republicans!"

BUCK VARNON

REVEREND P. B. MARTIN, L.L.D. Waverly, Texas, writes: "I had a morning when first I awoke, I found a troublesome cough, a phlegm, which produced a sneeze, and is very hard to dislodge. I took a small quantity of Ballard's Peppermint Cure, and it was soon dislodged, and the trouble is cured. I am so glad that you have a cure for this kind of cough, and it is so easy to use. I am most cordially yours, P. B. Martin."

EX GOVERNOR BROWN DEAD.

Ex-Gov. John Young Brown died at his home at Henderson, Ky., Tuesday morning after an illness of several months. He was 86 years of age. He was born in Elizabethton, Hardin county, Ky., in 1818. He received a common school education and afterward attended Centre College, Danville, Ky., from which he graduated. He then began the practice of law in his home town. He made the race for Congress in that district in 1859, defeating a very popular man, quite a heated campaign. He was elected before he was of the constitutional age of twenty-five years. The following year (1860) he moved to Henderson, Ky., where he entered on the practice of law, which was successful from the start. For the terms, 1867 to 1868, and 1873 to 1875, he represented the second congressional district in the lower House of Congress. During his congressional career one of his most notable speeches was that in which he severely criticized Benjamin R. Tucker, and another famous speech was in the matter of the Election Commission. After his term in Congress had terminated he resumed the practice of law. He rapidly acquired a reputation as a criminal lawyer and pleader, which extended throughout the State. In 1891, the State Democratic convention at Louisville nominated John Young Brown for Governor, and in August of that year he was elected by about 28,000 votes over his Republican opponent, Maj. A. T. Wood. This was the last election held under the old Constitution of 1850. After the close of his term, the sudden death of his eldest son, Arch D. Brown, occurred. This was a great blow to him, and it is said by his intimate friends that he never fully recovered from the shock. Arch was killed by a runaway horse while driving a stagecoach. He was buried in the cemetery at Henderson, Ky., and his remains were taken to his home in Henderson, Ky., for interment.

HEAD

J. L. Brown was at home from Saturday until Monday. Mr. Eben Mahaffey is visiting relatives in the Freedmen neighborhood. Mrs. Lou Carroll has gone to Lebanon Junction to see her sister Mrs. McArthur. Danus Owens went to Louisville Wednesday, to lay in a stock of under-akers goods. Wm. Row, of Skeggs creek, was here last week making preparations to enter school next Monday. John Fowler led his friend's goodby Wednesday and pulled out for Berea. John is a good citizen and our town don't like to give up such men. James Turpin, of Estill county, paid his brother, Owen, a visit last week. Mr. Turpin is a preacher and he delivered two interesting sermons at the Baptist church while here. Lee Robins was brought home Monday, mashed up somewhat by a piece of timber falling on him while at work with the bridge gang at the L. & N. If we had a few of the Legislators up in Rockcastle this week and take them a horse-back ride from Berea to Mt. Vernon, or most any other route they might select, I believe we would stand some show of getting some legislation on the road question. Good roads, better farms and the development of our territory is what we need just now. A VEST POCKET DOCTOR. No err in the way, no trouble to carry, easy to take, pleasant and never failing in results are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. A vial of these little pills in the vest pocket is a certain guarantee against headache, biliousness, torpid liver and all of the results from constipation. They tonic and strengthen the liver. Sold at Chas. C. Davis, druggist. (Note card) visited a Harlem man whose wife was chasing him around the city. And she did.

Charcoal and Gaid

By F. H. LARCASTER.

BUT his work had never seemed to him to be a "fine job," as the young woman who had just been hired to look after the house would have put it. He had always thought of it as a "job," and he had never been able to get any satisfaction out of it. Loss of Flesh

When you can't eat breakfast, take Scott's Emulsion. When you can't eat bread and butter, take Scott's Emulsion. When you have been living on a milk diet and want something a little more nourishing, take Scott's Emulsion.

To get fat you must eat fat. Scott's Emulsion is a great fattener, a great strength giver. Those who have lost flesh want to increase all body tissues, not only fat. Scott's Emulsion increases them all, bone, flesh, blood and nerve.

For invalids, for convalescents, for consumptives, for weak children, for all who need flesh, Scott's Emulsion is a rich and comfortable food, and a natural tonic.

THE next morning, at eight o'clock, Marie tried to pull together the long skirts wrapping about her ankles. She tried herself, but she could not do so; she had to call her mother. Her mother came, and she had to help her. Marie had to call her mother again, and she had to call her mother again. Marie had to call her mother again, and she had to call her mother again.
