

GOOD NEWS To The Ladies.

BANNER SKIRTS. Come and See.

THESE SKIRTS are of the best goods for the lowest prices.

OUR $5.00 skirts are something Out-of-Sight. We have four colors to choose from.

COME LOOK at our $4.50, our $3.00, our $2.00, our $1.30—and our $1.00 skirts before buying elsewhere.

WE HAVE A FINE LINE OF Dress and Waist Goods.

COME we will be glad to show you through our stock.

Call phone 87, We will make prompt delivery of all goods to any part of town.

F. KRUEGER & SONS, MT. VERNON, KY.

HIATT

M. C. Jones attended court at Stanford M. Jones.

H. C. Jones sold to Clint Lear his farm near here for $350.

Rev. Bruce, of Copper Creek, attended church here Sunday.

Born to the wife of Jeff Holdman on Thursday last a girl.

Messrs. John and Robert Snuaker, of the firm of J. M. Lear and family.

J. E. Adams has been quite sick for a few days with something like measles.

Rev. J. C. Carrical filled his regular appointment yesterday and today.

Elijah Owens was at Scaffold Cane Friday to visit his daughter Mrs. Frank Blazer.

Mrs. Wm. Hysinger, who has been seriously ill for several months continues to grow worse.

J. J. Smith, who has been confined to his bed some time with grip is able to get up again.

Mrs. Lauretta Hiatt has been on the sick list for several days, but is slightly improved at present.

H. B. McClary returned home from Louisville Monday where he spent a pleasant week with friends and relatives.

W. J. Chesnut received a telegram Tuesday that his sister, Mrs. Rider, of Louisville is dead, but owing to sickness he was unable to attend the burial.

Clint Lear sold to Wm. McQueen of near Crab Orchard, a farm, price $1600. Mr. McQueen was formerly a citizen of this county. He will move to his new home shortly.

A. K. McClary, who has been suffering with rheumatism for quite a while, is slowly improving, and we hope that when the weather moderates he will get up again.

The small pox case in this vicinity seems to have about subsided. The doctors think they have the disease under control, and that a further spread of the disease will be prevented. One having died. All other patients reported better.

Miss Annie Parkinson, who has been attending school at Berea for some months, is spending a few days with home relatives, and one of our young girls who has been wearing a forelock expression during her absence is looking as if his life was all pleasure again.

DO YOU WANT STRENGTH?

If you want to increase your strength you had better get a bottle of the best tonic...

MANAGER WANTED. Trustworthy lady or gentleman to manage business in this county...

Prof. Webb went down to his office to take the bus one day...

BROODHEAD.

Mrs. Luther Jarrett is on the sick list. Mr. J. R. Cas was at home last Sunday.

W. H. Sower is on the sick list this week. Mr. Ed Hurt was in our town Tuesday last.

Miss Ollie Rash is visiting friends in Crab Orchard.

Mrs. Alex. Tyree continues very ill at this writing.

Mrs. Ed Newland is visiting her mother at Lowell.

Mr. J. H. Dunn went to Williamson Sunday last.

Little Nola Owens has been very sick but is some better.

Albert Cherry sold his span of work mules for $250.00.

Mr. Bert McClary returned home from Louisville Thursday.

Mr. John Lea is visiting his brother in Seattle, Washington.

Miss Carrie Frith is visiting relatives this week in Crab Orchard.

Boys don't forget the new barber when you want a clean shave.

Mrs. Walter Miller returned to her home in Livingston this week.

Miss Robinson, of Danville, is visiting Miss Ella Dunn this week.

Mr. Joe Ab Winkler was down Sunday to see one of our sweetest girls.

Mr. Larkin Hicks was in Mt. Vernon on business first of the week.

Mr. C. C. Cable, one of our finest young men is clerking for J. T. Cherry.

James Brummett bought a farm of Chas. Cummins, consideration $10,000.00.

Miss Clyde Cass returned home Monday, after a few days visit in Stanford.

Bro. Noel filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church last Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Ward, of Knoxville, Tenn., is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. S. Keising.

Mrs. Harry Magree, of Livingston, is the guest of Mrs. Jone M. E. White.

A. E. Albright and little daughter spent a few days in Louisville buying spring goods.

Mr. C. H. Ponder, of Morehead, has moved into one of J. T. Cherry's cottages on Silver street.

Mr. C. M. Brooker, of LaFayette, Tenn., was the guest of Mrs. G. W. Brooks the first of the week.

Bradford Albright who was so unfortunate as to get a nail stuck in his eye is not able to be out yet.

Mrs. J. G. Clark and son returned home Sunday, after a few days visit to Dr. O'Bannon, in Stanford.

Mrs. G. W. Brooks left Tuesday for Louisville where she will be in the training room for several days and will return with the most up-to-date stock of millinery ever brought to our little town.

Mr. R. W. Dallas, of Jeffersonville, Ind., has leased A. E. White's building and has fitted up a shop with up-to-date fixtures. Mr. Dallas is a fine journalist.

MORE RIOTS. Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system.

Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed.

There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver as Electric Bilets. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective remedy and the greatest all-around medicine for run down systems.

It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c and satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

Mr. Farvenne—Why didn't you come when I rang? The Bell-Phone I didn't get the bell no more.

Mr. Farvenne—After this thing and you don't hear the bell, come and talk to me.

NEWS ITEMS.

It is practically settled by the War Department that the Third Infantry, stationed at Fort Thomas, Ky., will be sent to Alaska.

The receipts of the Louisville postoffice for February, 1904, showed an increase of $6,357 over the receipts during the same month in 1903.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rice and their only child of Boone county, died of measles within a few hours of one another and were buried in the same grave.

Burglars who had almost ready for explosion a charge of nitroglycerin in the National Bank at Elizabethtown, were frightened away by a passerby.

The people of the United States eat $150,000,000 worth of candy in a year, and there are nearly 5000 factories making it, with a capital of $8,000,000.

A curfew law which went into effect at Ithaca, N. Y., affects adults as well as children, and it has been found necessary to quadruple the police force to enforce the provisions.

The convention of united mine workers of the Western Kentucky district has called on the national board to begin immediately the work of organizing Hopkins county mines.

Last year was a prosperous one for Chicago labor unions. Over 50,000 workers had their hours of labor reduced from 40 to 36, and the gain in wages will amount to over $5,000,000 a year.

Thirteen companies of State militia are on guard in Springfield, O., and are holding in readiness for three days threatened to precipitate a race war.

Mrs. Annie Oppenheimer was acquitted in Cincinnati of the charge of poisoning her baby. The jury was out only seven minutes, and there was a general demonstration of approval when the verdict was returned.

Adelina Patti sailed for Wales Saturday, after saying that she had done her last tour of America.

She said her engagements were cancelled by her manager on his own account. Her tour is said to have netted her $200,000.

By the breaking away of a wall under the Hudson river, New York and New Jersey were connected by a tunnel, making it possible to walk from one State to the other under the river after almost 30 years of constant digging.

Reports of the damage done by the Japanese during their latest bombardment of Port Arthur are conflicting, but dispatches from St. Petersburg say it was not material.

It is admitted, however, that several persons were killed by Japanese shells.

Sam Stout, 15 years of age, shot and killed his brother, William, age 13, at Bowling Green. The two boys had a fuss over a game of checkers.

The oldest boy accused his younger brother of cheating. He drew a pistol and fired, but claimed he did not know it was loaded. No arrest has been made.

Peter Nidemyer, one of the car barn burglars convicted in Chicago, says he has killed 23 men since he was for every year of his life.

Nidemyer refuses to make a confession unless a part of the reward fund is paid over to his mother by the police.

Gustave Marx, another of the convicted men, says he remembers to have killed eight men and is able to give particulars which indicate that his story may be true.

The directors of the Kentucky Livestock Breeder's Association will be called in a few days to consider the question of abandoning the Kentucky State Fair for 1904 owing to the late application of the Louisville Exposition will prevent.

Chicago, are the inventors of the original and only genuine Witch Hazel Balm. A certain cure for Rheumatism, Burns, Scalds, Tetter, Eruptions, etc.

There are many imitations of this cure, some of which are dangerous, while they are not effective.

In buying Witch Hazel Balm, be sure that the name is on the wrapper, and that it is made in Chicago, Ill., by Dr. J. C. DeWitt & Co.

THE NAME WITCH HAZEL. The name Witch Hazel is much abused. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, are the inventors of the original and only genuine Witch Hazel Balm.

A certain cure for Rheumatism, Burns, Scalds, Tetter, Eruptions, etc. There are many imitations of this cure, some of which are dangerous, while they are not effective.

In buying Witch Hazel Balm, be sure that the name is on the wrapper, and that it is made in Chicago, Ill., by Dr. J. C. DeWitt & Co.

TRAGEDY ADVERTED. Just in the nick of time one little boy was saved.

Wm. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. Pneumonia had played and havoc with him and a terrible cough seized his bosom.

Doctors treated him but he grew worse every day. At length he tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved.

He's now sound and well. He's ready out to show us the only sure cure for Coughs and Colds and all lung troubles. Send for a bottle today.

James Collier is sick with a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Henry Wells' family have all been down with measles.

Mrs. Mary Ham has been sick, but is some better at this time.

Miss Alice Green spent Monday night with Miss Ernie Mettler.

Run Down Prices.

$1.98 For Ladies $2.50 and $2.75 Shoes, made of the very best Vici Kid. All sizes.

$1.20 For Ladies $1.50 and $1.75 Shoes, choice of 100 pairs, all sizes and widths.

$1.20 For Men's $1.50 work Shoes, best Values on earth. A large line of all kinds of Shoes at very low prices.

All Dry Goods at COST. Men's and Boys Suits at Wholesale Cost.

DON'T FAIL to get our Special 1 Oz. Hires, Best on Earth. A complete line of Staple and Fancy Groceries at 'Live and Let Live' prices.

L. H. DAVIS, Cenl. Mdsr., Livingston, Ky.

CRAB ORCHARD LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

P. M. Corder is in Lexington on business last Saturday.

James Collier is sick with a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Henry Wells' family have all been down with measles.

Mrs. Mary Ham has been sick, but is some better at this time.

Miss Alice Green spent Monday night with Miss Ernie Mettler.

Little Miss Clara Mettler had a very sick spell for a few days, but is able to get up.

Miss Virgie Worrel, one of Gardner county's first-class teachers, was in town last Saturday.

J. D. Under announces himself a candidate for assessor, subject to the will of the democrats.

Miss Myrtle Wells took the examination in common school branches for graduates in February.

Mrs. C. H. Singleton has gone to Asheville, N. C. to spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Annie Gover.

Mrs. W. H. Parr, of Flat Woods, formerly Miss Arthusa Floyd, spent a day last week with her aunt, Mrs. Patton.

Walter Adams, who has been running an accommodation wagon around town, is going to move to Brodhead in the near future.

George L. Coudor, clerk in the postoffice, waits on his customers with a smile on his face. He is a great favorite with the ladies.

Mr. Elrod, our gentlemanly photographer who is occupying part of M. Gierke's house, has all the work he can do.

Married, on February 14, at the home of the bride, near Shelby City, James J. Floyd, a former Rockcastle boy, but now of Greenfield, Ill., and Miss Ella Fox.

Ceremony was performed by Rev. O. M. Huey. They had a lovely home wedding at 8 o'clock in the evening, several friends being present.

The groom is an estimable young man, and the bride is a jewel. They have been lovers from childhood.

The writer extends congratulations and wishes for them a long life of prosperity and happiness.

THE NAME WITCH HAZEL. The name Witch Hazel is much abused. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, are the inventors of the original and only genuine Witch Hazel Balm.

A certain cure for Rheumatism, Burns, Scalds, Tetter, Eruptions, etc. There are many imitations of this cure, some of which are dangerous, while they are not effective.

In buying Witch Hazel Balm, be sure that the name is on the wrapper, and that it is made in Chicago, Ill., by Dr. J. C. DeWitt & Co.

THE VICINITY of LAW racebuck are dying from a mysterious disease, which closely resembles blind-staggers in a horse.

The victims live but a few hours after being attacked.

Keeney's Jacks—Fifth black Beauty, the mare, is 12 years old, weighs 235 lbs. and is 17 1/2 inches high.

Her colt is about one year old, weighs 200 lbs. and is 16 inches in height.—Winchester Democrat.

George W. Comer, of Owensboro, owns three of the small fat cattle here. His weight estimates in the State Rooms.

John Peed of London, who is traveling for a while and has been company at Law, says the disease is this week spreading in the neighborhood.

Mr. J. J. Downing, live agent for the L. A. N. R. R., was here last week to see D. C. Phillips in regard to his claim against the company.

Mr. J. J. Downing, live agent for the L. A. N. R. R., was here last week to see D. C. Phillips in regard to his claim against the company.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

James Linsley and wife, of Berea, are visiting relatives here.

No nuts, sweet or potatoes planted yet and the ground soaking wet.

U. S. Berry received the soil news Saturday, of the death of his brother, James Berry, at Marion, Va.

Several of the boys here will go on the railroad to work this week. This will make farm hands and loafers scarce here.

Mr. Harvey Chenoweth is sending ingoville, owns three of the small fat cattle here. His weight estimates in the State Rooms.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

Johnnie Hays, who has been attending a business college in Kentucky for past six months, is here working for J. J. Wood, a local stock raiser.

