...of the Democratic party. Your action is regretted.

OUR love for the party, if nothing else, would prevent our abuse of a man who has done so much for democracy as Mr. Hearst has.

Andrew Carnegie is said to have sent word to President Roosevelt that not to worry about money for his campaign.

We suppose this is just a continuation of the charity work Mr. Carnegie is doing.

A GREAT discovery is announced which promises to be of immense benefit to the South.

SECRETARY TAPP says, "It is our idea to get capital to the Philippines without giving up everything."

Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, seems to be the probable Democratic nominee for President.

On Both Coms.—Father—Jimmy, what did you teach keeper you in Jimmy—Aw—conduct an ignorance.

Spectacular.—"Are you enjoying Dante, Miss Skitterer?"

Disguises We Run Into.—Pauline—Somebody says that clever people are such fools.

Checkmated.—Grames—Ernest, don't you think it rather extravagant of you to eat better than that delicious jam?"

Under "sketchy little thing," exhibited by Jones, there hangs a printed card which bears the words: "Do not touch with cases or umbrellas."

The Goddess of Liberty on the American coin uttered a hasty exclamation, "Hush!"

Possible Explanation.—"In the course of time," said the captain of the ocean liner, "the sea casts up everything it swallows."

Needed Inventions.—A needless person.—A frosted peach.—A useless street car.—A useless slot machine.

Also, continued the party lady who was delivering a lecture on the duties of a model wife.

"Man, Tam," said Sandy, the cattle man, to his friend the other Sunday.

Hadn't Missed It.—An old negro was taken ill, and called in a physician of his race to prescribe for him.

"Did the doctor take your temperature?"

She Coat Him Dear.—A lady meeting her gardener in the grounds said to him: "Sandy, I am surprised you do not marry."

CRAB ORCHARD Miss Dissie Albright is visiting at Livingston Junction.

Several of our young ladies, with their fellows, attended Easter services at the Catholic church, Ottumbeim.
