

SUNDAY-SCHOOL CONVENTION AT BRODHEAD.

The following report of the Sunday school convention held at Brodhead, Ky., written by Rev. O. M. Hines for the Interior Journal has, by request been printed in full.

The County Sunday-school Convention met at the Christian church in Brodhead Friday and was called to order by the county president, J. R. Stucky, of Livingston, who is a wide-awake, up-to-date fellow man, and has been running on time and had plenty of snap and vim in the work.

After calling the convention to order the first address was delivered by Rev. Sawyer, which was hearty and full of hospitality and we were all made to feel at home. The following program was set up: 1. A whole heart in the work and if the teachers and superintendents will on carry out his suggestions we will have better Sunday-schools.

W. C. McLaughlin.

Who is a candidate for Prison Commissioner of Kentucky. Mr. McLaughlin is a fine blue Democrat from the west and has sacrificed as much for his party as any other man in the State.

QUAIL

Mr. Willis Switzer, of the Freedom section, is very low with Bright disease.

Mrs. William Elder remains about the same. There is considerable sickness in this vicinity at this time.

Mr. George Stucky was called home last week from Mt. Vernon college on account of his child being sick.

George Albright has contracted his farm to Dr. Lowell, at Mt. Vernon, who wants to buy 50 acres in a large tract for Eastern Capitalists. The farm sold for $7,500.

This is a section for Eastern Capitalists. Mrs. Rebecca Brown of the funeral of Mrs. Rebecca Brown at Fredston last Friday, Rev. A. J. Pike preached the funeral.

A husband and eight children survive and they have the entire sympathy of the community in the loss of a devoted wife and good and loving mother.

There is now a Sunday-school being carried on at every church in this community, and the 1st pt should not let them go down but should improve them, as there is nothing better for the young and rising generation than the Sunday-school.

It is the case very often for the people to let a Sunday-school go down, but we would like to see it this year, for every person to do their part and hold them up. It is now up against the people whether or not they will let the Sunday-schools go down.

Kodol Dyspepsia. Cure. Chas. C. Davis, our local druggist, does not hesitate to recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to his friends and customers.

Indigestion causes more ailment than anything else. It burges the stomach, and brings on all manner of diseases. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders.

Kodol is not only a perfect digestant but a tissue building tonic as well. Renewed health, perfect strength and increased vitality follow its use.

A great Mormon temple is to be built in New York.

Mrs. Belle Catron, wife of Henry Catron, is very sick, and has had Dr. Gibson, of Richmond called in. She was no better at last report.

Dr. W. H. Bentley, of Woodcock, one of the oldest and one of the best physicians of Kentucky, died last week after a lingering illness of long standing.

Mrs. Hurst continues to improve. Mrs. Goodpastor remains in a helpless condition. Her condition is indeed pitiable.

None of us know our going, and we are not to know our coming. The dwelling and cemetery of L. C. Critcher, O'Neil, of our town, was saved from total destruction by two neighbor women Saturday.

They came in when the fire had strayed and had reached a stable and opened wall. The family had gone visiting and "Crickie" was left with his very old mother.

Jack Torrey, of our town, was in the picture business. L. L. Harty's family (a poor body) that got married to Kame in the winter season will be well pleased with this country.

Ed instead of being away as when we were young, now he is here, and I want to tell him the same.

LEVEL GREEN

Plenty of peaches in some localities, but unmarketed for a pretty fair crop. Apples are badly done for.

Alex. Allen missed the dose for May for two days, when he heard the Federal Standard, and began his prophetic north.

Strange how much and how far some men can look into things that "to win" and "to lose" we have some who stop blood, but what they call a storm, and they say, "I've got a few who believe in 'ghosts' and they 'root' the Bible on to give a reason for the faith in them; and 'you must not dispute the 'Good Book'." It is indeed amusing to sit and listen to such old ladies, and sometimes old men also, tell their wonderful dreams, and they too, "root scripture" on us, and then they are a kind of tongue us. This is a very, very, strange world indeed, yet some might go people in it, both Jew, Gentile and Pagan.

We to-day, Baptist and Camp followers, try to preach almost in sight of me! I feel unable to attend. These good brothers are, all of them, trying to show poor sinners the "Road that lead up to 'Yonder,' and they all have the same lamp, and profess to show clearly "The strain and answer any," but each declares emphatically that his is the straight and narrow way, and they get as usual confused and much tangled up in our thinker, for I will think when I hear them try to preach, at they will let me to see what they are left in it. I can't see any good reason for so many and such wide differences, for all of them read the same book, pray to, and seek help and guidance from the same Higher Powers, and they claim to receive the same Holy Spirit, and be, and is a wrong somewhere, and I can't think it is in the Book or High Power either, then it must be in the members.

And there are two great sources for them to draw from to produce such different opinions or sects; And will any one interested tell us what they are?—Ed. why did your question and answer column come up like Joe Brown's log? Such a thing can be made interesting and profitable. Let us have it.

We need something that will stimulate our educators and even pupils to greater and more determined action. Too many teachers, far too many, lay their books aside when they are licensed to teach until another "certificate has to be got." If a man or woman intends making teaching a profession, let even a number of years, or she (they) should be assiduous pupils; they should study to show themselves approved and improved workmen, thoroughly furnished and equipped, having on the whole a career, so that they may not have no task set before them, nor ashamed of any job they complete. Start that column this week, just fire in, as for me, I'm ready.

CRAB ORCHARD CONWAY

Mrs. M. E. Brough is visiting friends at Stanford.

Wade Perkins, who returned from New Mexico, lately is talking of going to Tennessee.

J. W. Guest has returned from Louisville where he has been attending the races.

Eph Payne, our inspiring merchant, is prepared to furnish fuel to his customers at any time.

A projected meeting will begin at this place the first Sunday in June, by several societies preachers.

George Thompson, of Pleasant Hill, Mo., arrived here on the 12th Inst. He spent the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Patton.

The members of the Christian church are striving to get money to rebuild. Any outside assistance would be thankfully received.

Several members of I. O. F. of this place, visited the Stanford Lodge yesterday, for the purpose of transacting some mutual business.

Mrs. D. C. Payne, who has been suffering with dropsy, is somewhat better. Her daughter, Mrs. Mattie Tanner, of Harrison, Tenn., is spending some time with her.

Prof. Gaswiler, of Parisville, has secured the public school at this place. He is highly educated, and the patrons of the school are to be congratulated on obtaining his services.

Boston Dillon, father of W. R. and A. W. Dillon, died at his home in Limestone last Sunday, was brought here Monday, and laid to rest in the Crab Orchard Cemetery. He was 87 years old.

A good crowd attended the funeral. I was disappointed in last week's issue, that the column for the benefit of the Rockcastle teachers, which the editor was kind to offer had not been accepted as yet. I think it might be made interesting, as well as beneficial, hope the teachers will not let the opportunity pass without making an effort to start something for mutual benefit. I need to be a Rockcastle teacher and yet interested in anything pertaining to education. I think the editor will all communications be addressed to a special department. As I have forgotten how it was to be designed, I will start the ball to rolling anyhow.

If 1/2 of a money equals 2 of 1/2, which has the most and what per cent. the most?

Mrs. Clara Patton has resigned the presidency of the American Red Cross and Mrs. John A. Logan will succeed her.

The Seventeenth District Congressional Convention was held in Lexington last week and there were five candidates in the field for the coveted honor. It is said that there were many deals in the convention which finally nominated the Hon. South Trimble of the county of Franklin.

James E. Cantrell, a senator, and Judge James E. Cantrell, a state judge, were reported to have made many deals looking to the support and pledging of votes for his father, Judge Cantrell, who is a candidate for judge of the Court of Appeals in this district, as a successor to Judge Burnam.

It is reported that a contract for the influence and support of Franklin Owen and Fayette counties in the coming Appellate Convention which is to be held in Lexington in August, was made. Such contracts should not be having, and the voters of those counties should see to it that such pledges are not carried out, unless it is the will of the majority of the people.

Judge M. G. Sautley, of Stanford, is a candidate for that honored position against Judge Cantrell, with fair prospects of winning the nomination. Judge Sautley is an able, conscientious judge, and a brilliant lawyer; ripe in experience and in scholarly attainments and it is greatly to be hoped that he will be a winner in the coming fight.

The Hon. Allie Young, the present head of the Democratic State Central Committee, has taken a bit out with everything and everybody in his management of party affairs, and he now threatens to resign to recognize the delegation from the city of Louisville, although it would bear with it the proper credentials signed by the County Chairman, it is passing strange that a man of his ability and who would assume so much power and authority and refuse to recognize men who were legally and properly elected delegates to a State convention because he disliked them.

When the chairman of any committee reaches the point that he refuses to recognize a properly delegated authority, it is one of personal dislike, then such an officer should be deposed at once, and in his place should be put some man who has better judgment, more discretion and a higher sense of right and justice. He has created a great deal of discord in the Democratic party in the last two years, and it is now high time some other man should be put in his place. We would like very much to see the coming State Convention select some man other than the Hon. Allie Young for chairman of that important Committee.

Abraham Lincoln seems to have been very much opposed to "criminal aggression," for he said, "Those who deny freedom to others deserve it not for themselves, and under a just God, cannot retain it." All honor to Jefferson...

Our party committees have been invested with too much power, and they should be stripped of it in the coming State Convention. The Democratic party believes now as it always has believed, in local self-government, and this should be the motto of the State Convention...

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson in the International Bible for May 16, 1904. The Parable of the Sower. GOLDEN TEXT - Sowing and reaping.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. Jesus has so far in the Bible illustrated from things seen; now it is a person, a soul, and it is a father's heart that speaks for him.

At an old Virginia Republican convention, the chairman being minister at the opening offered the following prayer: "Oh Lord, these people have assembled to deliberate, nominate and try to save this commonwealth from thy arch enemy, the democratic party."

"It was Nerve." A newspaper was sent in a New England town was used to report an entertainment where managers sang, recited and other stunts. In the account of the affair, the woman wrote: "Mrs. Blank sang two songs with her usual nerve."

"But it will make Mrs. Blank angry." "Tell her that it was a typographical error. That will appease her wrath, and all who heard Hiram will commend the paper for its truthfulness."

Two Kinds of Mothers. - The following is told by "Beechley" in the Catholic Standard and Times. Speaking of Christian mothers, and others recalls the story of the family friend who after an absence of twenty-five years, "hunted up" the Allans of his native town.

"A Mother Superior" - the funny title Alice of long ago is - "possible" exclaimed the old friend. "And Margaret, your younger sister?" "Is in Baltimore."

"A Mother Superior also?" "Better still," smiled the "fairy little Alice" of friendly memory. "I am only a Mother Superior; Margaret is a superior mother!"

"In a small town in Pennsylvania there is a female preacher. One afternoon this week she was preparing her sermon for the following Sunday when she heard a timid knock at the parsonage door."

"Why not?" "Because he's swallowed 'em."

The cause of the Russian Japanese war is summed up in the following few lines: After the war with China, Russia held Manchuria, giving as the reason that by so doing she would keep the peace, but promising to evacuate it at a certain time. That period expired last October, but Russia showed no signs of moving. Japan knows that Russia has the reputation of holding fast to anything she gets, and that her real presence is a constant menace to the Japanese empire. Japan's only hope for preserving her integrity as a nation is by displacing every encroachment of so powerful a nation as Russia.

COMMENCEMENT.

The Commencement exercises of the Mt. Vernon Collegiate Institute began Sunday with the preaching of the Reconciliation sermon by the Rev. Geo. J. Jeptha, of Mt. Sterling, who took his text from Prov. 3: 6: "In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths." Rev. Jeptha was a fine speaker and presented the beautiful lessons drawn from this text in a most interesting manner.

Friday evening came the entertainment of the Primary department, in which some fifteen or twenty of the little folks took part. The graduating class was given by the Intermediate department and on Wednesday at 2 p. m., commencement proper. The members of the graduating class were: Miss Faunty Sparks and James McKenzie Brown. "Our Isiah," was the title of the song, read by Miss Sparks, which was well written and nicely delivered. James McKenzie Brown, Valedictorian, chose for his address, "Our Children," which had a beautiful meaning. His special address, which has been an honor to our commencement, is full of interest and inspiration.

The class address was delivered by Judge R. G. Williams, of Covington, who always has something to say on the occasion. His address was a beautiful one, and it is the purpose of the editor to either ask or answer any questions, in this will all be left entirely with the class.

The Ideal Entertainment at the Christian church Friday evening was a decided success. There was a crowded house in spite of the inclement weather. Should they return in the future, they will be met with a warm welcome, as they are so close to every respect.

We return with feelings of deep emotion the death of Mrs. June J. Van Nuy, which occurred May 17 at the Mountain residence. Her career as a missionary of the Presbyterian church was of such a varied and interesting nature, and so well highly respected by the people of this and adjoining counties, that her passing was felt in every part of the community. She was born in 1852, and lived 81 years. Her husband, Rev. B. B. Van Nuy, died in 1912. She was the mother of 12 children, 6 of whom are now living. She was a member of the Christian church, and was a devoted wife and mother.

McDonald, of Danville, Ky., and were of the most solemn and impressive character and the tears of the audience showed the great love and esteem in which she was held. The casket was covered with the willow flowers she loved so well. At her request Dr. McDonald took for his text "She hath done what she could." He referred to her as being possessed of a very superior and well-balanced character. She was pre-eminently a Christian, permeated with the spirit of the Gospel and continually interested in everything that pertained to the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ. Her spiritual nature was the dominant part of her being. Believed by all who knew her. She was of a cheerful and the strong and kind, warm-hearted, eager and ready to help those in trouble or in need. She was a most devoted wife and mother. This community will greatly miss her. The remains of her husband were buried in the church yard and were disinterred today and to night (Wednesday) they both start for their old home in East Millstone, New Jersey. Judge Jacob Sambrook accompanied their remains at her special request.

What Is An Orphan?—In a suburb near a teacher once proved that it may be embarrassing to use oneself as an illustration. She was hearing a class in spelling and defining words. The word "orphan" had been correctly spelled, but none of the class seemed to know its meaning. After asking one or two of them she said, encouragingly: "Now, try again. I am on my own. Now, can't you see of you guess what it means?" The blank look on their faces remained until one of the scholars raised his hand and said, in a most gentlemanly manner possible: "It's some one that wants to get married and can't get a husband."

UNCLE SAM'S WONDERS

All Executive Departments Send Treasures to the World's Fair.

Display installed in the Largest Governmental Exposition Building Ever Constructed - Precious Documents - Rare and Valuable Statutes and Soldiers' Working Postals - Etc.

The United States Government Building at the World's Fair occupies an elevated site just south of the main plaza of the Exposition. This great central cause of the Governmental building is visible from the very center of the fair, looking across the picturesque garden grounds that lie between the Palace of Mines and Metallurgy and the Liberal Arts.

The hill slope in front of the Government Building is traversed by broad stairways, almost completely level, leading to the building. The main floor is 225 feet by 225 feet. The building is a masterpiece of modern architecture, the entire floor is supported by steel arches forming a splendid tunnel effect.
