CONWAY

Bad stand of corn. The oats crop is backward. Meadows are going to be good. Fleeces have commenced to swarm. U. S. Berry and family visited in Berea Sunday.

Harvey Chensault has 175 cattle on the range here. A crowd from here spent the day at Slate Lick Springs Sunday.

Mr. Sewford Lambert and wife of Penola, is with relatives here this week. Mrs. J. H. Sigman went to Beth this week to have some teeth extracted.

On account of rain and hail storm we had no Sunday school Sunday evening. Miss Mattie McFerron, of Mt. Vernon, is visiting Mrs. D. N. Mastain this week.

Quails are pulling up and destroying lots of corn in this section, but it being against the law to kill them, all we can do is to shoot them out and plant again.

ADVISE TO CANDIDATES. The lion and the lamb shall lie down together—that's politics. Every man that says he is for you is sure to vote for you—that's a lie. Say you are forced by your friends to be a candidate—that's hot air. Begin making promises early—that's sure defeat.

Believe every one who says they have a power of influence if they only had a few dollars—that's bankruptcy. Worry over every report you hear—that's insanity. Kiss the babies—that's deceit. Patronize church fairs and benevolent entertainments—that's business.

STARTLING EVIDENCE. Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, to be unequaled. A recent expression from Dr. J. McFarland, Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all lung and throat troubles, consumption, pneumonia and grip. Quoted free, regular sizes 50c. and $1.00.

In a Negative Way Only.—Van Schmidt.—I don't believe old Kerr Mudgeover ever had a genuine smile. Fitz-Bile.—That's where you're wrong. He's been very kind to at least one woman, I'm sure. Van Schmidt.—How so? Fitz-Bile.—Well, isn't he a bachelor?

DRIVEN TO DESPERATION. Living at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of accident, resulting in burns, cuts, wounds, ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the best on earth. 25c. at all drug stores.

Very truly, BUCK VARNON.

WORST OF ALL EXPERIENCE. Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newton, Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel troubles. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel troubles, Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by all druggists.

Afrad.—Agart.—Mr. J. M. Jones, of Jones & Smith, Inc. Clerk.—No, sir. Agent.—Will you give him a message when he comes in? Clerk.—No, sir. If he comes back I'm going to run.

Clerk.—Run thing. He's been dead six months.

BUCK VARNON WRITES FROM SOMERSET.

We came to this happy little city ten days ago for the purpose of undergoing medical treatment for the various ailments of my "bunk emma" and almost hopeless body. We find Somerset one of the most industrial and business places on earth to its size, and by the way, it's no kid either. Everybody from the boy back-driver to the merchant, lawyer, doctor and banker are continually busy and in a hurry, you and the man of God, the preacher, comes in for a full share, and his task seems to be no light one, for he fights the devil on all sides, night and day too.

I placed myself under Dr. Waddie immediately after arriving here, and he looked me through and through; and over and over; analyzed my stomach, inspected my heart, liver, lungs and kidneys, then said "we sure enough in every part of the machine except the furnace—stomach. He said that it was badly impaired, and that it would take time, patience, temperance and medicine to recuperate. He next turned loose on me a machine which he called his battery and he burnt me from the sole even up to the crown. He certainly fixed me full of fire for the time being, but whether I improved I cannot tell. It rained a measured April Sunday and old mother earth has doaned her green dress for certain and is wearing a broad smile.

Well, to help the C. O. Correspondent to the further progress in the "C" and "A" column, will say one is 10, 18 and 18 and the other is 16, 12 and 12 and the larger is 12 1/2 per cent more than the smaller. Who can solve it? Will you please state it again? I think you left out a portion of the problem, as it did not seem to give an equation in the former statement. I fear I'll not be able to present at the congressional convention, but I am still for Gilbert, and I do hope all his friends in Rockcastle will be found doing their duty. Stand to your guns boys—I tell you the Repubs. of Pulaski are the most political set I ever saw. If they have no one else to fight or contest they'll jump on me head first, but they look upon it as a most heinous offense for us to contest them, yea, an unpardonable sin. It does indeed make a mighty heap of difference as to whose ox is gored and whose bull does the killing, don't it? and especially so if part of the cattle belong to the herd.

Talking of business and busy men, Editor Campbell is one of the most industrious that I have visited. He works hard day and night—and he makes his paper one of the best week-lies in the State and by the help of his (decidedly) better half, is doing it. "If he were to visit my old haunts in Rockcastle, he, cheered by Peto's cheering friends and announce to my friends "I'm better." My Dr. Charles Waddie is doing all he, or perhaps any other, can. Let me urge you to again, my Rockcastle democrats—Gilbert men—to work while it is day, for the night cometh when you can't.

Very truly, BUCK VARNON.

Hope Sharp, formerly of this place, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Lydia Pritch. Miss Lydia Hilton entertained Monday evening in honor of her pretty little guest, Miss Katie Pittman, of Pittsburg. All report a pleasant time.

The heavy rains have stopped the farm work. Most of our farmers report a good stand of corn while there are a few not done planting. The Misses Keisling entertained Saturday evening in honor of their friend, Miss Maggie Sparks, of Gettysburg. Strawberries and other delightful refreshments were served and all reported a splendid time.

Misses Ella Dunn and Helen Thurman entertained quite a number of their friends at the former's home Tuesday evening. Pitt. Kinch was the guest of the evening, and he was the recipient of the most generous and kind words from the splendid refreshments served by Miss Thurman. Only three men were present, except the

M. Francisco, Burg Faris and John Anderson, from this section, were on the jury in Bentley case. Manley Albright has just returned from a trip to Casey county. hospitality of the Dunn family know that it is to spend an evening at their home. All went away feeling better to have been there. Miss Belle Roberts, daughter of Mr. Wm. Roberts of Cron Sulphur, and Mr. Douglas Brown, conductor on the C. V. R. R. were married May the 26th at the home of the bride's father. The Rev. A. J. Pike officiated. The bride is a beautiful and accomplished lady, while the groom is a worthy young man. They both have many friends here who wish them a happy life.

WILLIAMSBURG. Farmers are rejoicing over the fine rains we are having. Eggs are still selling at 15 cents per dozen in our town, and but few to be had at that. This does not speak well for the farming class in this county. It is better to have ten thousand dozen eggs at 10 cents per dozen than to have only two dozen at 15 cents. Miss Georgia Perkins left Monday for Ashland, N. C. where she will spend the summer to her heart's content. Mrs. J. H. Francisco, of Laurel letter, Tenn., is visiting relatives here. Mr. L. L. Gentry is making some attractive improvements on his brick residence. Mr. C. H. Kerton has begun a brick business home on Main St. nearly opposite the Bank of Williamsburg. The building will be 27x70, and will be occupied by Mrs. Carrie Mason. Mrs. Wood, wife of Prof. E. E. Wood is very ill.

J. W. BROWN, Chairman.

Drax - Mrs. J. E. Houk, the youngest daughter of Judge J. T. Adams, died yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, of consumption. For several months she had been in very poor health and while every one realized her condition and an end there was a change could not last very long, yet her death at this time was a great surprise, even to her immediate family. At 12 o'clock yesterday she returned from a driving feeling usually well and less than an hour before her death was sitting in a chair in the store talking. The husband and one child survive her. The funeral will take place from the Christian church at 2 o'clock this afternoon conducted by the Rev. Joseph Ballou, of Stanford, after which the remains will be laid to rest in the cemetery at this place.

The man who handles the local department of a newspaper learns after due experience not to expect very many thanks for a column of pleasant things, but he knows surely as comes the seasons that a single line in which there are unintentional mistakes will cause some one to be heard. Also that he has made pleasant mention 900 times of some person, place or thing, but on the 100th time falls to do so, he must not expect to be forgiven. The omission may have been not so accidental, inadvertence or oversight, but he knows that edge-it matters not. The simple fact remains that he will be judged on that. He may say good things about a man, but he will be judged on that. He may say good things about a man, but he will be judged on that. He may say good things about a man, but he will be judged on that.

THE SHOW IS COMING

In the sunshine of success and the adversity of hard times the Sun Brothers New Railroad Show has always been a success. It is now being advertised and truthfully presented, by which we gained the biggest principle of success in selling the recognized leading product of the World's Greatest One Ring Show, over all newspapers of this section. Managers of the show are always had three principal objects in view, namely: First, early objection; second, the most important is the first without it no enterprise can hope to succeed. The Sun Brothers have done this. They have had a cutting box done, and are now sending the money with the show train of cars good back for the people.

How many people, as well as newspapers, know right from left in pictures and illustrations found in newspapers? With many papers right is left and left is right and where are you if you have no diagram with explanations, etc.

The charge has been made, that the interview of Senator Farris relative to the action taken by certain parties in regard to putting Rockcastle in the Eleventh, was not correct. If any one doubts any part of it, ask Senator Farris, who read the article after it had been printed and said it was correct.

ACQUITT - On last Wednesday morning the jury trying A. N. Bentley for the killing of Master of Trains, B. N. Rafter at Livingston last October, returned a verdict, "not guilty." Bethurum, Judge S. D. Lewis and attorney J. W. Brown, of the local bar, attorneys John S. Dewley and J. A. Chappell of Stanford, and Judge J. H. Sims, of Bowling Green.

WORLD'S FAIR HOTEL

ACCOMMODATIONS.

St. Louis Historical Prepared to Handle Five Thousand People - No to be Increased - Hotel Inside of the Exposition Grounds - With a Capacity For 6,000 Guests.

Ample hotel accommodations have been provided for the World's Fair visitors at St. Louis both within and outside of the Exposition grounds. The Exposition management has granted a free information service. A pamphlet has been loaned for gratuity containing explaining many of the conveniences that have been provided. A list of all the hotels, with rates, is contained in this pamphlet. The entire city has been canvassed, and many thousands of private homes holders have arranged to receive visitors. These houses are in every section of the city and the rates at which guests will be received is a matter of record on the books of the bureau. The inside line, a hotel on the Exposition grounds, has a capacity for 6,000 guests. The building management has control of the rates, which have been fixed at from $1.50 to $3.50 per day. European plan, including breakfast on the grounds. On the American plan the rates range from $3 to $5 per day. The hotel is 400 by 800 feet and is three stories high. There are more than 150 installed hotels in St. Louis, and a signed agreement has been made between many of their managers with the Exposition officials that rates shall not be raised during the Exposition period. Many new hotels have been built on sites adjacent to the Exposition grounds, and the published fixed rates warrant the assertion that no one need pay exorbitant rates for accommodations either at hotels or private houses. Among the new hotels may be mentioned the Hotel Bijou, headquarters, which stands at Chicago avenue and Sinker road, overlooking the Exposition grounds. This hotel, with 500 rooms, has a capacity for 5,000 guests. The rates, European plan, are $2.50 per day. The Grand View hotel, south of the Exposition, on Oakland avenue, has a capacity for 2,000 guests. The rates are $1 to $1.50 per day. European, and $2 to $2.50 per day on the American plan. The Hamilton hotel, west of the Exposition, on Broadway and Illinois avenue, has a capacity of 1,500 guests, with a rate of $1.50 per day. The above mentioned are a few of the new hotels that have been erected near the Exposition grounds for the accommodation of World's Fair visitors. All told there are about a thousand. All are within easy walking distance, and all are situated on high ground, with comprehensive views of the grounds. All of the structures are modern, and in some of them the most luxurious quarters are obtainable. The rates are established and will not be increased during the Exposition.

NEW MUSIC FOR WORLD'S FAIR

Three Compositions by Famous People. Band Tournament.

Musical people all who appreciate good music may thank the World's Fair for three notable compositions, written upon the invitation of the Exposition management. These are the "Hymn of the West," by the most distinguished living American poet, Edmund Clarence Steadman, the music for which was written by Professor John K. Paton, who is the head of the music department of Harvard University. "Laudamus America," by Frank Vanderruiter, leader of the Cincinnati Orchestra; and "Along the Plains," by Henry K. Tinker, of New York, who has won his laurels long before this as writer of operatic and other musical compositions. This music will be heard publicly for the first time upon the opening of the Exposition on Saturday. It will be frequently thereafter in the musical programs of the greatest of world's fairs. These are the only official compositions.

"Thirty thousand dollars will be given in prizes for the best music composed to be held during the Exposition. All through the World's Fair the musical features will be prominent. The most famous bands of the world are under contract to participate during the long and profitable period. The Grand Le Flamme Band, the Grand French Band, the Royal Orchestral Band, the Grand American Band, and the Grand British Band are the most prominent.

COWS TRAINED FOR THE TEST

Jerseys at the World's Fair Are Expected to Show That They Are Superior to All Other Breeds.

The herd of Jersey cows assembled at the World's Fair at St. Louis to represent the Jersey breed in the universal dairy test has been inaugurated and has been pronounced in perfect condition and ready to start their "six months' span on a day's notice."

W. H. Sprau of the Burr Oak Jersey farm, Dallas, Texas, was the inspector, and he was thorough in his work. He passed a week on the Exposition grounds, and much of the time was spent in and around the Jersey cattle barn, and the condition of each individual of the herd of forty cows was carefully observed.

Never was more intelligent and careful treatment lavished on animals. No athlete was ever better trained for contest requiring the development of speed, skill and endurance than has been the herd of Jersey cows. It is known that this herd is composed of selected herds of Holstein-Silky, Jersey, and other breeds, and that the herd making the best score for the production of butter, milk and cheese is to establish the standing of the various breeds, the importance of the cows being in perfect condition may be understood.

For a solid year the Jerseys have been in constant training. Twenty-four cows will participate in the contest. Cows were selected from the best herds. Last November, they were removed to St. Louis. The cows are the property of individual members of the fair, and are under the supervision of T. C. Graves, a breeder at Millington, Mo., who selected the superior stock to be entered. He has been highly commended by Dr. Richardson for the wonderful condition in which he has placed the herd.

A number of model dairy barns have been built for the herds competing in the test. The barns are equipped with stalls, and are so arranged that the cows are in the center of a wide promenade, which is open on both sides and view the cows as they stand in their stalls.

The milking and feeding are to be done in plain view of the public, and representatives of the various herds will all have access to the stalls. The test will only consist in showing the amount of butter, milk and cheese produced, but the cost of production is taken into consideration. Every ounce of food given each cow is weighed and carefully recorded. The cows are milked, the milk is evaporated to a model creamery in the Agricultural building, which is open on both sides and view the cows as they stand in their stalls.

Superintendent Graves is sanguine over the result of the present test. He says the Jersey breed has demonstrated their superiority over all other breeds when placed in competition, and this time they will show to better advantage than ever. Not only is the Jersey milk rich in butter fat, but the milk of any other breed, says Mr. Graves, but it can be produced at a low cost. The Jersey cows are the standard of the breed, and he believes that they consume less food, they assimilate their food, and it is converted into milk and butter and is not used in building up and maintaining a large carcass.

"We are going to make all other breeds take to the woods after this test," said Mr. Graves. "A few days ago I was taking some of our Jersey milk, and my hands were all sticky and greasy from the enormous amount of butter fat the milk contained. Mr. Von Hepp, who is in charge of the Holstein milk, took a quantity of his milk for me to test. Of course, from a commercial standpoint, there was no comparison between the milk of the Jersey and that of the Holstein. The Jersey milk will have a bouquet of Holstein milk around him to wash my hands in after testing my own rich Jersey milk."

The test begins May 10 and continues 120 days.

Unique California Map.
A unique exhibit at the World's Fair was revealed by the agricultural department of the University of California. It is a large map, so colored as to show the character of the various soils of the state. It gives a clear idea of the situation and the extent of the arable and suitable sections. In the sections that cannot be cultivated are shown the meadows, the lava beds and the deserts. The map is a valuable asset to the agriculturist, and it is a most interesting exhibit.

Mr. Myers adds to John Cress 25 good cattle for $400.

John Stringer is numbered with the sick - threatened with fever.

Rumor has it that there is to be an wedding in this community before many more days.

The little son of Joseph Todd remains in a very serious condition at the home of William Miller, bone tumor.

Dan Brown, Sr., of Missouri, is here visiting relatives. He comes especially to see his brother John M. Brown, who is in very poor health at Stanford.

Twenty-two deaths by violence was Louisville's record for five days last week.

We want to impress on the minds of the young men that no lawbreaker was made to keep him from going to hell if he is bent on going there. The young man who drinks whisky may be smart in many respects, but as far as drinking is concerned he is a fool. We have not as much sympathy as you might think we will all this sympathetic talk about the poor drunkard! If the young fellow understood that when he commences to drink it will mean that he can't get a job and can't get into respectable society, and if he gets drunk he will land on the rock pile - if all these were understood there would not be quite so many young men going to the devil on a fast trot as there are at present.

FOR A HUNDRED YEARS.

For a hundred years or more Hazel has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, to discover how to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other antiseptics, in the form of a salve. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises and piles. The high standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name, "DeWitt," on the package, and accept no other. Sold by Chas. C. Davis, the druggist.

In the highlands of Indiana - a two hours ride from Louisville there flow wonderful healing waters, that you'd spend hundreds of dollars to enjoy if they were in Europe.

A recent visitor from Philadelphia, who formerly went to Carlsbad every year, said: "I do not see why anyone goes to Europe for medicinal waters. The water is as beneficial, and the scenery and surrounding country, the air and the opportunities for recreation are better; the hotels and all accommodations are much finer at French Lick-West Baden Springs" - and this gentleman is a native of Switzerland.
