PERSONAL

Mrs. R. A. Welch is very sick. J. J. Cook is in St. Louis this week. Green McKinney's daughter is quite sick.

The Rev. H. H. of Lancaster will preach at the Baptist church Sunday.

Prænet conventions will be held tomorrow to nominate a candidate for Congress, Monday the county convention and Tuesday district convention which will be held at Shelbyville.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Mt. Vernon College Institute, held last Friday, it was decided not to retain any of the first year's faculty, except Prof. Bevington.

The series of meetings at the Christian church, conducted by Revs. Gillum and Campbell, closed Wednesday night, with three additions. The baptizing took place yesterday.

WILL TRANSMIT THEM.—In order to conform to the new Kentucky law prohibiting the co-education of whites and blacks the trustees of Berea college are arranging for the transfer of their colored students to other institutions.

GARNISHMENT LAW CHANGED.—Of interest to merchants is the new garnishment bill which was passed by the last Legislature and which became a law this week without the Governor's signature.

Mary Thompson, the negro woman who killed a Mr. Byrns at Lebanon Junction last week is now in the Louisville jail, but is expected to live till the time set for her trial, because of injuries received by the mob who attempted to hang her, which failed only for the reason that the rope broke.

James Dassel, an aged citizen of the Southern part of the county, is suffering from a third stroke of paralysis, but is improving.

A delightful affair was the dance given last Wednesday by Miss Emma Tierley, in honor of Miss Fannie and Beattie McKinney, at Mt. Vernon.—Richard Cline.

SCHOOL BOOKS SELECTED.—The County School Book Commission for Rockcastle county, composed of Supt. G. M. Ballard, Judge S. D. Lewis and County Attorney L. W. Bethurum, met on May 28th and selected the following books for use in the common schools of Kentucky for the next five years: The Spelling Pronouncing Speller, McGuffey's modern Ray's arithmetic, Manual Geography, Long's geographical history, Harvey's grammar, Maxwell & Smith's writing in English, New Century Physiology, Primary and Intermediate, Eclectic history, Primary and Advanced, Elmhurst's history of Kentucky, Frier's Civil Government, Frier's Civics, books, medium and pocket.

SOCIAL

William Frazier, Jr., a brother of George Frazier, of near Orlando, Florida, who has been in the country here some months, has been made aware of that dread disease. The social work place

NOTICE.—All parties owing me for year 1903 are earnestly requested to call "and settle same." These accounts should have been settled January 1, 1904, at least, and I think I have been very patient in waiting all this time. Please come at once. J. A. WOOD, Orlando, Ky.

James H. Haip, of Corbin, has bought of D. S. Purdon his barber outfit at this place and will take charge of the shop next Monday. Mr. Purdon was compelled to quit the trade because of rheumatism in his hand and arm, and is now under treatment at the hospital at Lebanon. The palm of his right hand which was swollen the worse, on examination was found to contain a large quantity of puss, which necessitated splitting the hand. The doctors say, he will soon be alright, which is earnestly hoped for by his many friends in Mt. Vernon.

KENTUCKY PRESS.

The Kentucky quill drivers number nearly two hundred met in the large parlor of the Louisville Hotel Monday June 13th to hold their annual business meeting. There was assembled the largest gathering of Kentucky newspaper men, that has been in many years. The meeting was called to order by President Paul M. Moore, of the Erlington office. After the report of committees and reading of some interesting papers prepared for the occasion, the Association proceeded to the election of new officers for the coming year. Louis Landrum, of the Lancaster Record, was made President, and E. A. Gullion, of the New Castle News, Vice President, and for Secretary there is no thought of ever selecting any, except Bob Morningsstar. At 10 o'clock Monday night, the party boarded a special train furnished by the Louisville, St. Louis and Henderson Route, for the big fair and to say that it is the "big fair" is expressing it mildly. The proportions reached by the Louisiana Purchase Exposition far surpasses anything heretofore attempted in the way of a World's Fair.

For us to attempt to give a brief description of all we saw during the short time spent there, would be an undertaking, which neither time nor space will permit. The Kentucky building, which is second to only one of the State buildings, that of Missouri and which occupies about the prettiest location on the grounds, is indeed an honor to the State and to the gentlemen composing the Kentucky Exhibit Society, through whose efforts it was erected. To every one who can possibly go, we say "go," for what you will see will well worth the time and money spent. The Pike attractions are great and in our next issue will give a list of those which should be visited by every one attending the fair.

On arriving at St. Louis, the party was taken to the Jefferson Hotel where they were entertained for breakfast by the pleasant Type Foundry, after which the entire party visited their large plant and were extended every courtesy by the management.

At 2 o'clock the entire party was entertained at the Woman's Magazine Building by Miss Ida May Adams assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. F. Lincoln, of Louisville and other Mrs. Adams' Rockcastle friends will be glad to know that she has a nice position inside the grounds. Mrs. Adams, who is running a boarding house at 396 1/2 Russell Ave., is getting along nicely but will probably return to Mt. Vernon in about six weeks.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolutions of the L. O. T. M. of Mt. Vernon Hive No. 23, upon the death of Sallie Honk.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our dearly beloved sister, (1) Resolved.—That we deeply mourn the loss sustained, by the death of one whose memory will ever be dear to us.

(2) Resolved.—That we extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved husband and many relatives of the deceased.

(3) Resolved.—That we record a copy of these resolutions in our copy of the Signal, and that the Hive are also have them published in the Mt. Vernon SIGNAL.
