Mrs. Broughton, our merchant's wife, found the famous cabbage snake in a head she was preparing for dinner. She said it was a well-developed reptile about 4 inches long, perfect snake head and tongue coiled and jumped at a fly that pecked it and struck with vengeance like other snakes. The upper half was deep red, while the other was paler when viewed with the naked eye, but spotted when put under a glass. She eats no more cabbage. We would like to hear from some of our doctors and scientists.

Answer to Livingston correspondent's question: You mean to say "Acts"; 38. Repeat and be aptized for the remission of sins." The word "for" is in some instances used as a conj. and in others it is prep.—more frequently a prep. depending of course on meaning and use. A conj. usually connects only while a prep. connects words and at the same time shows a relation of its object with a preceding word. The obj. and prep. form an adjunct modifying the antecedent term. Hence, we can clearly see that "for" is a prep. showing a relationship between its obj. remission, and the antecedent term, repeat and be baptized, "of sins," is an adjunct to remission. "Now we can clearly see that the Jews, on the day of Pentecost were commanded to both repeat and be baptized for the same purpose and can't be rendered otherwise unless we change the reading thus: "Repeat for remission of sins and be baptized." I want no controversy.

We have no news but could fill our column with personals and visits, but it would not be interesting. Some of our folks attended the fair at Somerset. Politics is putting on her electioneering dress and will wrap things up by the 15th of November. Poplar Grove church will receive the finishing touch this week, and quite a creditable structure for any country congregation or church.

Rev. James Cummins will preach at Mt. Pleasant and Poplar Grove this year.—Jas Mullins went visiting Sunday.—M. W. Brown and wife spent Sunday with J. N. Brown helping to make a long, wearisome day pleasant and fit did too. What a blessing good friends are when we come to the bed of affliction—only one thing on earth beats it and it is worth all else.

Now I will begin a series of Bible questions, running from Genesis along the whole Bible to Revelation. What is the first promise made to man after the fall? What command was given the adulterers? What is the difference between the law of Moses, the moral law, and the law spoken in connection with the prophets? Why is the law and the prophets? I may as well ask you to get up and get on your feet, and get on your feet, and get on your feet.

George Owens is wearing out by degrees; kept up now by opiates only.—O, how we dread death, but if we only fully understood what changes we undergo, what new order of things we enter, death would not be such a terror. It is a gate where two eternities meet; it is a step through leaving that and those that was or is most dear to us. Let us prepare to wish good people where we leave here.

BUCK VARNOR.

ARE YOU ENGAGED?

Engaged people should remember, that after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennington, S. C., says: "For years, my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a gastric fever, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her appetite, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." Sold by Mt. Vernon Drug Co., who sell and guarantee them at price 50c a bottle.

J. R. Taylor bought of J. M. Craig a nice horse. "Deck" says he paid $125, but we don't it very much. He also says he has quit the road for all time to come and that he intends to marry, settle down and go to living like somebody.—A number of persons from here are attending the Baptist Association at Pisgah this week.—M. G. Dowell and Walter Owens have returned from the mountains.—Some few have begun cutting corn.—Miss Helen Sawyer has returned from a several days' visit to Shelby City, Lunetta Spring and other points.—Fred Thompson, of Lebanon Junction, is visiting friends and relatives here.—John Cable, who has been in Indiana for past year, has returned for a two month's visit.—Like our Brodhead correspondent, we would ask the people to report all items of interest to us. The whole program was enjoyable, but most of it was the good dinner, which one never fails to get when in that splendid community, but way down on our heart we sympathize with Billy Donley, who, after eating only two big pieces of toast, one piece of ham, three pieces of chicken, two pies and a cake, drank so much wine (just put down) the girls told him to that he could not eat any more. We also enjoyed a trip to the mines at Lohets Sunday afternoon on the motor car. We have traveled faster, but we don't care it in us that car when it goes faster, although the motorman said it was running at only half speed.

THREE JURORS CURSED.

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler, of Highwater, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, Colby seat of Cleburne county, Ala. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some coffee and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drugstore for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I spent for, but that his medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one twenty-five cent bottle cured the three of us. For sale by all druggists.

strange how some persons can go about the world with a spirit of hate in their bosoms for certain persons and affairs from which they are never exempt. For years they pass out repress acquaintances and never speak, living neighbors they never commune together, and the best things they can say about the objects of their enmity are hard words and execrations. Often such conditions exist between blood relatives whose very ties of kinship should make them love and bear with each other if they are wise. And, just as often you find members of the Church, professed Christians, harboring the spirit of implacable hatred, which is one of the devil's chief graces. No wonder the world is full of trouble and sorrow and evil influences when the cold specters of malignity are forever stalking among us. It is only these strange characters who will only bridge that dark chasm of hatred with a word of love and fellowship, they would be surprised at the joy and peace it would bring to their souls.—Ex.

LUCKY MISTAKE.—When James Lucky Bennett the elder was editor of the Herald, Robert Bonner, publisher of the New York Ledger, was struggling to build up its circulation and decided to try a little advertisement consisting of eight words.—"Read Mrs. Southworth's new story in the Ledger"—and sent it to the Herald marked for "one line." Mr. Bonner's handwriting was so bad that the words were lost in the Herald office as "one page." Accordingly the line was set up and repeated so as to occupy an entire page. Mr. Bonner was thunderstruck the next morning. He had not to his name money enough to pay the bill. He rushed excitedly over to the Herald office, but was too late to do any good. In a short time the results of the page announcement began to be felt. Orders for the Ledger poured in until the entire edition was exhausted, and another one was printed. The success of the Ledger was then established. Ever after that time Mr. Bonner was an ardent believer in advertising and a liberal purchaser of space.—Ex.

The Christian and Baptist Church members should have a meeting and come to some conclusion as to what they could best use their buildings for, as from the outlook they have evidently abandoned all efforts of trying to get a pastor for either of the Churches. Church members and God-fearing people, what effect do you think will be the difference and neglect will have on the rising generation?

Markov Espinar.—On last Wednesday as they were returning from the Baptist Association, the team which A. W. Stewart was driving became frightened and started to run. Mr. Stewart was thrown from the wagon but continuing to hold to the lines was dragged for some distance, part of the time under the wagon, receiving many bad bruises and cuts about the head and body and for several days, it was feared that he was hurt internally. In the wagon with him was his wife, who was thrown from her seat in the wagon's rear and was unconscious for some time and the latest report from her says she is still in rather a serious condition. Mrs. Nannie C. Albright, who was also in the wagon, was thrown against a fence and received some rather painful but not serious injuries as a result of the accident. Her daughter, a step-daughter of Mr. A. B. Rossman and T. C. Bullen, all jumped from the wagon without any injuries whatever. Mrs. D. N. Williams, the most aged of them all, when the team was going at "break-neck" speed, made a jump for her life, which with the result of a little soreness was successfully made. In a short time after Mrs. Williams left the wagon, it struck a tree and one of the wheels was completely demolished.
