He stood the operation first class and will soon be able to return to his home.

Mr. J. F. Waters, of Stanford, that splendid old round newspaper man and prince of good fellows, always ready to do a friend a kind deed, came to our rescue this week and only by reason of his splendid services, have we been able to carry things like supply the wants of our customers.

Dr. J. Harry Hodren was here yesterday and this. "No" do you would leave for me in about two weeks for a tight creek. Let me tell you, the point, where the Big Hill Coal Co. expect to begin operations about January 1st. The Dr. is quite an acquisition to our county and we regret very much to lose him.

Mr. W. F. Ames, who assisted in starting the bank at this place, was here yesterday, the guest of A. B. Furnish. Mr. Ames is now cash-ier of a bank in Virginia and we are glad to know is making a success. SAYES

After an absence of a few weeks I will come again. I may not have anything very interesting to write but as I write for the pleasure of the writer and not the reader, my pleasure or benefit the reader may derive from what is written, it matters little what I say.—Ben Smith filed his regular appointment at Freed of Saturday and Sunday.—W. H. Owens visited J. N. Brown Sunday afternoon.—The writer spent Sunday night at Level Green.

SAYS

We understand that certain parties are circulating the report that W. J. Craig is to be elected Superintendent of Schools, and I tried to induce him to make the race for Superintendent of Schools, and the said Sparks, as an indication of his faith, that he would make the race, he would support him for this office. This is a wholly untrue. We never gave Mr. Sparks of any one saying that we would make such a promise to Craig, and have always been and are now for the straight Republican ticket.—M. C. Miller, S. D. Lewis, L. W. Bethurum.

LEVEL GREEN

After an absence of a few weeks I will come again. I may not have anything very interesting to write but as I write for the pleasure of the writer and not the reader, my pleasure or benefit the reader may derive from what is written, it matters little what I say.—Ben Smith filed his regular appointment at Freed of Saturday and Sunday.—W. H. Owens visited J. N. Brown Sunday afternoon.—The writer spent Sunday night at Level Green. From our volunteer pumpkin plan, I remem-ber the spot, W. H. Gentry has raised ten large pumpkins. The largest measuring five feet in circumference and weighing sixty-three pounds.—We will probably soon have a new post office at W. H. Owens' store.—The members of Providence church have purchased of Providence the largest church bell in the county. This bell measures forty two inches in diameter, weighs 770 pounds and can be heard three miles.—Mr. and Mrs. M. Dowell, of Hopedale, Ky., are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Dowell has just visited her native home and is returning home.—The Sayers has the "boss" of the neighborhood.—Candidates who they are as thick as hops, I have become so accustomed to them that when I meet a stranger I do not ask him to tell me that he is a candidate but tell him his name, and I will be glad to hear of him.—Perhaps I will come more regular here and—"well, ring off."

DENIAL

I understand that certain parties are circulating the report that W. J. Craig is to be elected Superintendent of Schools, and I tried to induce him to make the race for Superintendent of Schools, and the said Sparks, as an indication of his faith, that he would make the race, he would support him for this office. This is a wholly untrue. We never gave Mr. Sparks of any one saying that we would make such a promise to Craig, and have always been and are now for the straight Republican ticket.—M. C. Miller, S. D. Lewis, L. W. Bethurum.

I confirm the truth of the above statement. I never had a conversation with any of the candidates in regard to this matter of Craig's race for County Superintendent.

I learn that Mr. J. M. Craig is circulating the report that I tried to get him to make the race for Superintendent of Schools. This is not true. Mr. Craig and Mr. W. J. Sparks came to my house and I refused to give them any money. I told Mr. Craig that he would not stop him from making the race. I told Mr. Craig that he would not stop him from making the race. I told Mr. Craig that he would not stop him from making the race.
