A BILL fixing a flat passenger rate of two cents a mile was passed by the Indian Senate and will go to the House for consideration. Since the railroads have been relieved of so many dead heads who rode on passes, a one cent reduction will not very likely result in a decrease in earnings, providing those who once rode on passes continue their travel and pay their fare.

THE Somerset Times, Woodson May and Cecil Williams' new paper, made its appearance Friday. A six column quarto, full and running over with choice reading and attractively set advertisements. A thing of beauty and we trust a joy forever.

Bros Embury & Richardson, of the Danville News, are putting the big spot in the little one. They got their new press by coming out with a three color print.

SOME ROCKCASTLE HISTORY

One of the SIGNAL's valued subscribers, W. H. Williams, of Aztec, N. M., in a recent letter to his brother, D. N. Williams, of this place, after expressing his appreciation of the articles on above subject, which have been published in this paper, says:

"Tell Mr. Maret in giving the early history of Mt. Vernon and Rockcastle county, not to forget that James McCall had a large tanyard just below the bridge. (Griffin's mill) working 15 or 20 negro men, all bossed by a Mr. Albright, and that Lane-Smith had a large tanyard mill 100 yards west of the railroad depot, and J. T. Hyronimus had a carding machine that was run by tread wheel power, just about where J. Miller's store building now is. [Mr. Williams only missed the location a few feet. Ed.] that George Houk & Sons had a wagon shop just about where Fish's store is. Here is where Mr. Williams missed it; this space was occupied by Elkin Tever, later run by Thomas Smith up to about 1870.—Ed.] and Stephen Langford ran a hotel just above the courthouse on the next street; Reubin H. Elkins ran a hotel on Main street that was afterward run by Thos. J. Smith. Thos. J. Joseph, Joplin, where Miller Hotel now stands, started the first drug store in Mt. Vernon; that Dr. Bryant, from Crab Orchard, practiced in Mt. Vernon in 1851 and a part of 1852, but that the county was so healthy that Dr. Joplin was able to attend to all the patients and take care of his drugstore. In the fall of 1850 some of the best citizens of Rockcastle county moved to Buchanan county, Missouri, among them were Jonathan, James and Logan Dyrast, Judge William Carson, his sons, James, Jonathan and William; Lerkin Kirtley and James Kirtley, brothers of W. H. Kirtley, father of Mrs. W. M. Poyner. These are just a few of many early recollections."

Speaking of McCall's tanyard there is yet in existence, after more than 60 years, pieces in position of the old vat in the old tanyard in the bottom near residence of D. N. Williams. R. A. Herrin first introduced the "rafter cornice" finish in this county about 1888. This finish suspended the old style "box cornice" which had been in use since Noah corniced his ark. Life caught the idea in 1895. R. S. Martin took the prize at St. Louis world's fair on manufacture of tobacco. R. S. Martin, Brodhead, was the first man in Rockcastle to use and introduce commercial fertilizer within our borders.

Remember this fact, farmers, for this is the law.

Mr. D. N. Williams, a few days since in making change with some one, came in possession of a twenty-five cent piece, made in 1877.

On one side it only has the date and on the other side is letter "C" handsomely carved.

From its general appearance it looks as though it might have been held by some one as a souvenir.

It is the original piece and gets same by calling on Mr. Williams.

Deputy Collector W. T. Short, of this city, accompanied by several companions, has returned from a successful moonshine raid in Breathitt County.

Mr. Short is a fearless officer and usually gets what he goes after—Richmond Climax.

H. J. Mullins was here for several days looking out a location, as he has sold most of his land on Crooked creek.

He will likely buy the James I. White place, now belonging to John McKenzie.

A special from Pierre, S. D., dated Feb. 4th says:

"Wesley E. Banks and Robert Candler, who came here recently from Mount Vernon, Ky., to operate the sheep ranch, were frozen to death on the prairie in a storm last Friday night. Their bodies have been found and brought to this city. They are being held for orders from Kentucky relatives. The ranch had been residing on their ranch near Hayes.

If there has ever anyone in Mt. Vernon who has been "cut off" by the parties above referred to, no one here has any recollection of it being from Mt. Vernon, Ky., is a pity.

AVOID The INTERNAL WRONGS of ALUM

Alum in food causes stomach disorders—Its continued use means permanent injury to health.
Following the advice of medical scientists, England and France have passed laws prohibiting its use in bread making.
American housewives should protect their households against Alum's wrongs by always buying pure Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder.
Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder is to be had for the asking—
Say plainly ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Buy by name—ROYAL BAKING POWDER
