Z. T. HANSEL AND CHILDREN.

A check for $87 drawn by C. C. Williams in favor of J. W. Croucher, was given out at the Berea post office, to a man by the name of Croucher, who forged the indorsement of J. W. Croucher on the check, took it to the Berea Banking Co. and got the money on it. The party has been located and more than likely before time of the publication of this article, will be behind the bars.

Nelson Banks and Robert Chandler, the two young men who froze to death in South Dakota, on Feb. 12, were here citizens of this county. Their homes were in North Carolina and about five years ago, while on their road to the West stopped off here and stayed with their uncle, S. E. Chandler, of near Level Green, for several months. The bodies arrived here Saturday afternoon but were not in time to be buried here this night for burial at the brothers of the deceased boys having decided to go out after reaching this point.

HANSEL.—At eight o'clock Monday evening the death angel knocked, and the spirit of Mrs. Sarah Hansel, wife of Mr. Z. T. Hansel, took its flight to the God who gave it. Mrs. Hansel was 57 years of age and her life a noble, christian one. For three years she had been suffering from that terrible disease, consumption, and as the end drew nearer to hand, one real day it more forcibly than she, yet with that calm sure, characterized by only the Christian, she met death without a murmur. On January 4, 1878, the deceased was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Z. T. Hansel, to which union four children were born, Elbert, L. & N. brakeman, Emmett, section foreman for the L. & N. at Lawwood, and Misses Maggie and Maud who are with their father. The burial took place Wednesday morning in the Mt. Vernon cemetery.

WE WANT NEWS.—On a few occasions we have heard of people criticizing the editor, because certain items were left out. It is not the policy of the management to leave out any item, worthy of mention, which comes to our knowledge, but unless people tell us, we cannot know. There are some who, it seems, try to make it a point to tell everyone else before the editor, and then if it fails to appear, ready to make some objection to the character of news which the paper has, because the one item which this particular person wanted published did not appear, and yet that party had passed the editor on the streets a dozen times. If you had told everyone else but me except the editor, "News is what we want and we will appreciate the kindness of anyone, who will stop us on the streets, call at our office or call over the phone"—No. 79—and tell us such items as you may know.

We'll meet again, how sweet the word. How soothing is its sound, Like strains of far-off music heard, On some enchanted ground. We'll meet again, meant on the "Ever Green Shore". We'll meet again, yes, meet to part no more. We'll meet again, the true heart speaks.

When do not ones depart;

And in the pleasing prospect seeks, Balm for the bleeding heart, In heaven's serene and endless rest. Secure from care and pain, There, in the mansions of the best, We'll surely meet again.
