We are authorized to announce W. H. Lewis as a candidate for County Clerk subject to the action of the Republican party.

Somebody has figured out that the average boy who is dependent upon his parents for a livelihood until he reaches the age of twenty-one years costs them four thousand dollars. On this basis of calculation a brood, for instance, of six boys would represent an outlay of twenty-four thousand dollars.

Some time they get away from the home roof. The question arises does it pay to raise boys and are there no other crops that would prove more profitable? If a boy turns out to be a cigarette fiend with a "breath like a turkey buzzard" and a laugh that would make the untortured donkey feel perfectly at home in his society and with an untrammeled and unconquerable desire to avoid work, it is safe to say that his parents might have invested their four thousand dollars at a much better advantage. But if the boy grows up to manhood with the lesson well learned that the bread and success grow only on bushes watered by the sweat of one's brow, the parents need not begrudge what ever they have spent on him, for he will be a source of increasing pride and joy to their hearts, and when they grow old and their hands tremble and their legs wobble and their step is slow and faltering they have two strong arms to lean upon and help them over all the rough places that lie in their twilight path.

The voters of Kentucky will be called upon at the coming November election to say by their vote whether or not the Constitution, which so amended as to prohibit those who do not hold a tax receipt for taxes due the same year in which the election comes, shall not be permitted to vote. This law should have long since been on our statute books, for some of the bodied men, who will willingly and for a ck of pride, who are so loathe to honor as to allow their names to go upon the list of delinquents should not be allowed to have a voice in saying who the officers and chief executives shall be of one of the highest and loftiest duties of a good citizen to pay his tax for the support of his county and state and who falls to do this is not worthy of being called a citizen and should be disfranchised from exercising that right, the highest privilege of an American citizen—to vote.

When you go into your boots on the 5th of next month don't fail to vote in the little square opposite "Yas."

If the man, who toils fourteen hours a day, wears overalls and a checkered shirt, and his wife wears a poor quality of calico how does it happen that she who does the work at all years bread and cloth and his wife wears seal skin?

LAND, STOCK AND CROPS

W. L. Richards and E. S. Albright, Tuesday received from Chicago a car of 134 sheep, which have been leagued to different parties. It has long since been recognized that this country is especially adapted to sheep raising, but no very great attention has ever been turned in this direction in the past. Westerners hope the next few years will find our farmers taking advantage of the conditions and circumstances which will bring the best results, and there is no question but that in the Rockcastle a few hundred dollars invested in sheep, will pay a better dividend, in proportion to the amount invested than any other undertaking.

The raising of mule colts is getting to be a lucrative thing for our farmers. A few years ago the prices of good mule colts ranged from $25 to $35 and a real good one sold for $75. Now the sales are $100 and are so frequent as to excite a comment and still higher prices are by no means infrequent. The general prosperity of this country has much to do with this, and the special demand for mules has more to do with it, but the fact remains that the mule is now a days are intrinsically worth more. Several well known dealers remarked Court day that the display of weanling mules was the finest they had ever seen considering the number. The season with plenty of grass had something to do with it, nearly all of them were in good condition. But the credit for it is mostly due to the superior quality of the jacks used for sires. With the prices of mules that now exist, farmers can afford to pay a few dollars more and breed to good jacks and they find it pays by adding to the sale value of the colt.—Winchester Democrat.

IN MEMORY.

Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Burdett on September 28th and claimed for its victim their beloved daughter, many weeks of that dreaded disease consumption. The deceased was 23 years of age. When only 14 she was taken to the Christian church and has ever since lived a devoted Christian life. She leaves father, mother, four sisters and one brother to mourn the loss of an obedient and dutiful daughter and a loving sister.

Call not back the dear departed. Anched safe where storms are over. On the border land we cannot meet to meet and part no more.

When we leave this world of changes, When we leave this world of care, We shall find our missing loved ones, In our Father's mansion fair.

Her cousin, S. B.

Criticism is a medicine that sometimes kills but never cures. It is cured Lord Byron of some of his early foibles and lordly conceits, and it is said to have killed John Keats, an oversensitive young poet. But taking as a whole, criticism is a good thing if wisely directed and properly administered. It corrects errors, cultivates taste and conducts the world in the right paths to the attainment of the most substantial good to the greatest number.

A young lady of this city went into a dry goods store the other day and blushing asked the head clerk if he had any of those elastic bands, capable of being elongated and adjusted at pleasure, and used by the feminine portion of mankind for putting around the lower extremities of their locomotive motors to keep in the proper position and the required altitude of their "busts." The clerk is now on a sheep ranch.

An exchange says there are two reasons why some people don't mind their own business. One is that they haven't any mind, and the other is they haven't any business.

The Franklin county grand jury Monday returned an indictment charging Caleb Powers, now being held in the Goebel Penitentiary, with putting around the lower extremities of their locomotive motors to keep in the proper position and the required altitude of their "busts."

The effect that Henry Owsbey, of Newport now in the State prison under conviction of complicity in the Goebels case, had admitted that he found the shoe which killed Goebel in January, 1900. The others indicted with Powers are Howard M. Benton, of Newport a lawyer, Jennie Gentry, alias Julia Sara of Lexington, and Dave Cashion said to be of Kenton county.

Pay no attention to slander or gossip mongers. Keep straight on your course, and let their back slanders die the death of perfect truth. That is the use of lying away at night brooding over the remarks of some false friend that run through your brain like forked lightning? What's the use of getting into a worry and fret over things that have been so often said to your disadvantage by some meddling busy body who has more time than character. These things can't possibly injure you, unless indeed you take notice to them and in imbibing give them a better character. If what is said about you is true, it's yours' right at once, if it is false, let it go for what it will teach. If a bee stings you would you go to the hive and destroy it? Would not a thousand come upon you? It is wisdom to pay little respecting the injuries you have received. We are generally losers in the conflict we stop to fluffe all the backbitings and slanders we may hear by the way. They are annoying, it is true, but not dangerous, so long as we do not stop to expostulate and scold. Our characters are formed and sustained by ourselves and by our ways. Bear in mind that calumnies may usually be trusted to time and the slow but steady justice of public opinion.—Ex.

HIS DEAR OLD MOTHER.

My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. It puny children too are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by Chas. C. Davis ofading draught, 50c.

Governor Beckham Wednesday appointed Judge J. S. Morris, of O'Banion county, as special judge of the Scott Circuit Court to preside at the fourth trial of Caleb Powers on the charge of complicity in the Goebel murder case. Judge Morris was a member of the last General Assembly, and served for years Commonwealth's Attorney of the O'Banion-Sheley Judicial district.

BARGAINS

My name is George Johnson, and I have a store close to Logan Thompson.

I built it this year on the old Carpenter lot.

It has a flat floor and slanting top.

It has shelves and counters to hold all kinds of goods.

Its walls are of concrete and the rest is mostly wood.

I built this house for the rich, the high, the low and the poor.

And if you ever visit it you will do your trading here for ever more.

I am in it and there to stay, until old Gibril sounds his whistle on Judgment day.

Others might come, and others may go, but with me I'll say for ever no.

My goods are new, just from the factories you see, as our the country you roam

And the prices are so low you are bound to take some of them home.

My competitors are few because they don't know how to buy.

And when they see my store they turn their backs and wonder with a sad, longing sigh.

Now dear friends come and see me and don't pass away. If you do you'll regret it till your Judgment day.

 The damage suit of G. W. Gentry, Jr. against Rev. J. E. Blackburn for $1,000, was decided yesterday in favor of the defendant.
 Lee Wiggins was shot and killed at the home of Clell Smith, who lives near Brodhead, Sunday night by Smith's wife. Wiggins was a brother-in-law of Smith, had gone to the latter's house under the influence of whiskey. A difficulty arose between them when Wiggins drew his revolver, struck Smith over the head, as reported to us, was attempting to shoot Smith when Mrs. Smith grabbed the shotgun firing, the center lead entering Wiggins' stomach killing him instantly. Mrs. Smith and her husband were arrested by deputy sheriff John Robbins, and brought here Monday and lodged in jail to await their expiring trial which is set for today. One amusing fact connected with it is that a short time before the killing, Wiggins had passed the residence of John Hopper, firing several shots into the house to which Mr. Hopper promptly responded with a double barrel shot gun, and when the bullet was carried back a little later by Mr. Hopper's horse, he was sure that he was the one who had fired the fatal shot and early the next morning he was in Mt. Vernon to surrender himself to city officers, and was lodged in jail. Hopper came to Rockcastle only a few weeks ago from Frankfort county.

The suit of Bowman & Cockrell against the heirs of Capt. J. W. Thomas, to remove a dam in Rockcastle River is expected to begin today. A big land sale was made Wednesday when Dr. G. W. Evans, recently purchased the Mrs. M. Garrett Hughes of Washington D. C., 3,500 acres of land at Conways for $30,000. J. W. Nicely, aged 17, died at the home of his uncle John Nicely, on Skaggs creek, Wednesday morning after an illness of two weeks of typhoid fever. Mr. Nicely had a hemorrhage of the nose which began Friday and continued until his death, that being the immediate cause of his death. He was a son of the late Sherman Nicely. The remains were laid to rest yesterday in the Nicely burying ground.

We call attention to the announcement of W. H. Lewis as a candidate for County Court Clerk which appears in the proper column in the issue. This is Mr. Lewis' first venture on the political arena; he was born and reared in the county and with the exception of the last few years, during which time he has been engaged in railroad work he has made his home among us and is well known to a large majority of people of the county.

Last week was the autumnal equinox. The sun apparently crosses the line" on Sept. 22nd on its way to give the southern half of the earth its summer season, and to leave the northern hemisphere to the mercy of old boreas for a few months. At this time the days and nights are equal, the sun rising at a. m. and setting at 6 p. m. The time is usually followed by a storm epoch of a few days or weeks when there is chilliness, cloudiness, windiness and more or less rain. Last week we had a touch of these freedom chilly spells, but it is probable that the worst will come soon. Astronomy teaches us that this is the ending of summer and beginning of winter. The morning stars now are Jupiter and Mercury, and the evening stars are Venus, Mars and Saturn. The most brilliant of them now is Mars and the evening view is very striking. —E.

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN HAND-BOOK

THE WORK OF CLUMSY DODGERS.

The Campaign Hand-book of the Republican party in Kentucky, the real platform of that party in the present State campaign, the document from which the leaders of that party expect their orators to get inspiration for the work upon the stump among the voters, has been issued by its Campaign Committee. Aside from its own Campaign Hand-book and the literature which it is distributing, the Democratic State Campaign Committee could find no better document to place in the hands of its speakers with which to explode and clear up the Republican charges of mismanagement of the public affairs of Kentucky during eight years past. Like August E. Wilson, the Republican gubernatorial nominee, the author of this Republican publication has demonstrated that he is a clumsy dodger on the live issues of campaign; that he isn't even an expert at juggling figures in an effort to show a bad financial condition for the commonwealth, and he contented himself with reviving matters brought up a year ago by a defeated candidate for gubernatorial honors, and which the people of Kentucky then had an opportunity to investigate and found with out foundation in fact. Also with reproducing so-called editorials from a Frankfort paper, which ceased publication for lack of support a veritable campaign sheet, issued by disgruntled Democratic politicians making a factional fight within the party.

With such misrepresentation abuses by men who, like Mr. Wilson, have been unsuccessful in every political ambition, the author of this campaign Hand-book contented himself, hoping thereby to draw to the Republican side such Democrats as were not lined up on the side of those who were successful in the Democratic State primary election of last year. Not a word does this Republican publication contain regarding the flagrant violations of law by use and abuse of the military power during the dark days of Bradley and Taylor, from 1896 to 1900; Not a word of criticism has it, as had William Marshall Bullitt in the convention which nominated Mr. Wilson, for the murders of William Goebel, or of Republicans in power at that time, and who are now inquisitors from justice, declining even to return under promise of immunity from arrest, offered by the Commonwealth that the Goebel murder by those who were responsible for its commission. With an announced motto "The Firm, but Judicious, Enforcement of all Laws," and a reproduction of the weak, vacillating plank of the Republicans' platform upon temperance and not a word upon the important subject of observance of the Sabbath Day Laws, the book authorizes the Republican speakers for whose information it is intended, to dodge about on these live questions and issues, and to talk to suit the community in which the speaker happens to be at the time he has then under discussion. It reproduces the letter of the Rev. Dr. E. L. Powell, of Louisville, charging Governor Beckham with being insincere in his fight for temperance and observance of the Sabbath, a letter which has been discredited in its every line by the policy which the Governor pursued in the city of Louisville. The author and publisher didn't ask the Rev. Dr. Powell for his latest views on this matter, or he would have had a contrary view to publish. The word "Judicious" inserted in the Republican motto on the opening page of the publication is doubtably the loop hole through which the Campaign Committee expects the Republican gubernatorial nominee to escape should he ever have the good fortune to be at the head of the government of Kentucky. This rather remarkable publication contains, from beginning to the close, rumors and hints of what it plays up in black type as "Graft," but in not a single instance does it make the charge specifically, always contenting itself with reference to an editorial of a friendly newspaper, and going on for as long as its Editor thinks to arouse a suspicion that all is not right in the affairs of the government. Representatives of the Republican party, among them postmasters, and the former private Secretary of the fugitive William S. Taylor, had access for months to every department at Frankfort, and right well did they work in a fruitless effort to fasten these insinuations upon the officials in power. All that work, their changing Hand-book issues, and if you do no better than to reprint and reproduce utterances of disgruntled persons who spent as much time as did they in seeing what could be found, corruptionist wrongdoing by the Democratic officials who the people have trusted for six years past. The cry of a "lock up the books" which was for a time in 1895 falls flat this year.

The bold statement made in this Republican Campaign Hand-book to insinuate "Graft" is in an article which the author of the book copies from the Frankfort Call, which terms a "Democratic Newspaper" but which was never at all time during the period of its publication for it is now defunct, edited by a loyal Democrat "good" never pose as a Democratic newspaper. Under the largest black type in the book this article, which is headed "Graft-Graft-Graft," "Capitol Graft," is printed, and the Republican party thereby takes responsibility for it. At the time this article was first published in either the Board of Capitol Commissioners, nor the Supervisors, but others charged with the work of building the magnificent Capitol, paid the slightest attention to it. The circulation of the charge had no approval except in the immediate vicinity of the Capitol, and while it is in a place, and where it is known, better than anywhere else, its editors and writers do not know to be dis-granted and factional politicians, whose failure to be on the successful side within the Democratic party had soured them against their successful opponents. For these reasons those attacked in the article would not dignify it with a response and the telling of the facts in the matter on which the charge was based. This would not be done at this time, but for the fact that Mr. Willson and his fellow Republicans gather the state money and attempt through it to poison the minds of the voters of the State against the men who have made the new Capitol possible. Judge Hager and Governor Beckham. Unable to bring a single specific charge of misdoing in the construction of the Capitol, or the wrongful expenditure of a single dollar, and over seven hundred thousand dollars has already been expended in the work of construction, the Republicans now rely upon such a publication to get votes.

The article in question goes on to state that it is known at Frankfort that the Superintendent in charge for the Architect quit the job and publicly gave as his reason that "The whole thing was rotten and he could not afford to risk his reputation as an honest Architect by staying longer". The author of the Republican hand-book prints this charge but does not print a quick and prompt denial by the Superintendent to whom it referred. That denial is herewith printed: "I notice that the call of Sept. 5th makes certain statements which they claim were given out by me to several parties with reference to the Superintendent of the new State Capitol Building and my reasons for tendering my resignation. I wish to absolutely renege any knowledge of having ever made any such statements and desire and desire to state that my reason for resigning were purely a personal matter."

A. R. Corral, Editor of the Signal, says: "I have seen the article in the Signal regarding the Superintendent of the new State Capitol Building and my reasons for tendering my resignation. I wish to absolutely renege any knowledge of having ever made any such statements and desire and desire to state that my reason for resigning were purely a personal matter."

EASY TO MIX THIS.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, as formulated by a noted authority, who claims that he has found a positive remedy to cure almost any case of backache or kidney or bladder derangement, in the following simple prescription, taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in bottle and take in teaspoon doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic affliction with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to filter and filter from the blood the acid acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.
