Ab Sparks has rented the Dr. Myers property on Main St. and will move to town in a short time to install the big crusher for his brother W. J. Sparks and S. W. Davis.

We overlooked the two persons in our last issue of Capt. M. F. Smith, who spent a couple of days in Louisville and Dr. J. F. Baugh, who was called to Tennessee as a witness in an important damage suit.

F. L. Durham, who was sheriff of the election at Brodhead came up yesterday with J. W. Tate who was judge, to bring the ballot box, Fred, as we all call him, is the splendid and efficient correspondent for the SIGNAL at Brodhead. In him, we can claim the biggest and one of the very best correspondents of any local paper in the State. Fred is only 22 years old and tips the beam at about 375.

W. H. Smith has sold his property on Main Street to R. B. Mullins.

Read of F. Krueger & Son undertakers, found elsewhere in this issue.

Joe Taylor was tried last week and adjudged an imbecile. His brother, John, was appointed a committee for him.

"The Willing Workers" will have pies of different kinds to sell in the hall way of the old brick Saturday afternoon Nov. 9th.

The Lady Maccoebes will give an oyster supper at the Court-house next Wednesday evening Nov. 13, for the benefit of the lodge. Every body asked to come and help.

The old Board of Trustees for Mt. Vernon, composed of Dr. A. G. Lovell, R. B. Mullins, S. C. Franklin, F. Krueger and J. R. McKenzie were re-elected. John F. Sower was elected Marshal.

Although the Republicans will not have a majority on joint ballot, and will not be able to elect a United States Senator, it is certain that J. C. W. Beckham will not be elected Senator. There will be enough Democrats opposed to him to defeat him, and it is now the general talk among politicians in Louisville and at the Democratic State headquarters that another Democrat will be elected.

Subscribers, especially professional men and officers, when leaving home for more than a day, should ratify telephone "Central" as to the date of their probably return. This information is for the benefit of their correspondents and others having business with them. It benefits both parties as well as making the work easier and more satisfactory at "Central." Think of this the next time you make a visit of a day or take a trip for a longer period not necessary if you don't wish it, to state your destination, just mention date of your return.

Every family should have a curfew which should positively "ring" tonight and every night if needed. These curfews are inexpensive and can be home made. Take a piece of siding two feet long and white one end down to a handle; then take the child that needs the curfew and bend him over your knee. Now take the piece of siding in the hands and use it for a clapper. Put it on her. Divide the strokes evenly and see that some music is heard for a day or two. The age of sixteen, and applications are warranted to cure the most pronounced case of street loafing that exists. The music the curfew makes is finer than singing "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight."

Mrs. Anna E. Miller is expecting her new post office cabinet to arrive in a few days, which, when set up will be a handsome piece of furniture and a credit to the town. Mrs. Miller has gone to a considerable expense to get this cabinet and the people should show their appreciation of the fact, by renting boxes which are more conveniently arranged, and much larger than those in old cabinet now in use. In fact, we can not see how it is possible to handle the amount of mail which comes here with the old cabinet which is hardly suitable for some of the smallest street routes offices. The people owe it to Mrs. Miller to show in every way possible their appreciation of her efforts. She expects to have the new cabinet in and the office moved to the new location in a very few days.

The death of Mr. Harvey Chesnut, Sr., occurred last Wednesday evening at the home of his brother, David Chesnut. After a long and painful illness of stomach trouble. His death was not unexpected yet, like every invasion of the Grim Reaper, a shock to his family, friends and community at large. Deceased was about sixty years old and unmarried. He was widely connected in this and adjoining counties and was universally liked for his generous and congenial disposition. He is survived by one brother, Mr. David Chesnut, from whose home the funeral was conducted on Friday morning after which his interment took place in the Richmond Cemetery.—Richmond, Clinch.

Mr. Chesnut made his home on Conway, this county for two or three years previous to his recent illness and had many warm friends in this county who deeply mourn his death.

BECKHAM'S SACRIFICE.

JUDGE S. W. HAGER.

Born forty-eight years ago in the schools of the county of his birth, Little county of Masspin, at the He, later attended the A. & M. four-hill of the Cumberland mound training received there has put him to young manhood in the mountain in a position where he could repay hamlet of Salyersville, its county his teachers for what they did for seat and the home of the leading him while in school, for as an people of that section of Kentucky ficial he has materially aided the His father was William J. Hager, institution, and promised it elected a successful merchant and one of the office of Governor, to assist the best known men of that section in making the college a great of the State. His mother, Phoebe Ann Hager, was a native of Gallia county, Ohio, and of Kentucky went into the schools at Salyersville as a teacher. There he spent two years. Twenty-one years ago Judge Hager obtained his first scholastic training in the humble of the richest section of Eastern Kentucky. Here he engaged in business, later becoming President of the Mountants National Band. That position he held until he became an official of the State of Kentucky, eight years ago.

Judge Hager then entered public life in 1897, then, over his protest, the Democracy of Boyd County, placed him at the head of their county ticket at the nomination for County Judge. Notwithstanding that Boyd County had, in 1896, given William McMillan a majority of about eight hundred votes, Judge Hager carried it by more than three hundred majority over his opponent. His standing was such that scores of leading Republicans of the county suspected him openly. Having this right taste of politics, Judge Hager enjoyed the same, and soon became the most prominent man in its Congressional district. This brought him to the attention of the leaders in State politics; and when the convention of 1899 met at Louisville, he was easily the choice of the Democrats of the State for Treasurer of Kentucky. In this convention he was an ally of the late William Goebel, who was chosen to lead the ticket as the gubernatorial candidate. With the reputation of being a successful banker, and being a man of pleasing address, the candidacy of Judge Hager met with much favor among Democrats of the State. Being of the faction within the Democratic party which was about to inaugurate a new order of things in the old Commonwealth, he yet had to respect and good-will of the old line fellows who had long been in control of the public affairs of the State. During the memorial political struggle of 1900 he was a close advisor of Governor Beckham, the youthful successor of the married Goebel, and was with him at Frankfort during the dark days when two seats of State officials, one holding the old Capital by force and the use of military, and other quartered at the historic Capitol Hotel, both surrounded by armed guards, defied each other for weeks and weeks.

He assisted the young Executive in bringing order out of chaos, and has through the years of his administration, been his close personal friend. Holding for the entire eight years a place in the Executive Cabinet by virtue of being an official, Judge Hager has for four years past held the second place in point of importance in the State Government, that of Auditor of public Accounts.

Coming to public office from the director's room of a prosperous banking institution, Judge Hager has had a special aptitude for managing financial affairs of the Commonwealth through the offices of Treasurer and Auditor of Public Accounts. Since he entered public life, he had the satisfaction of seeing the bonded indebtedness of the State wholly wiped out, and Kentucky placed among the half dozen States of the Union which are free from bonded debt. He dropped a day off his campaign tour in September last for the purpose of stopping off at Frankfort and taking in and burning the last evidence of this bonded debt. During his political career, no man who ever filled an office has given more of his attention. As promptly as the most humble clerk under him he has been at his desk during the working hours of the day, and often remaining much later in the day than any of his subordinates. He has watched after the business of the Commonwealth as carefully as if it were his own individual business, and taking as much pride in seeing its indebtedness met and discharged. An evidence of his feeling in this matter is contained in a recent speech which he made from which is taken the following paragraph:

"My party has behind it many decades of honorable dealings with my people, and before I many years of sacrifices to the citizens of the Commonwealth. It has its credit a long record of unbroken promises, and the history of the State terms with wise and prudent judgments of its principles and policies. In the peace, quiet and hapness of her people Kentucky ranks with the best of the American States. Old Glory as it unfolds to the winds of Heaven does not wave over a better people or a happier land. Nowhere in the 'land of the free' are the homes indwelt with peace and happiness more than in the 'Old Kentucky Home' whose doors open ever in hospitality to the stranger, and across whose portals the waves of cheering sunlight roll and through whose windows pours in sweetest melody the music that God with his breath has laid in whispering symphony upon the trees. Nowhere under the stars of the blue canopy of God's eternal home are the people better governed, their interests better protected, or wiser and more beneficent laws exist than in our beloved 'Blue Grass State.'"

ANNOUNCEMENTS We are authorized to announce G. T. JOHNSON as a candidate for County Clerk, subject to the action of the Republican party.

THE result of Tuesday's election teaches a moral, to those in power don't try to put a collar around every man's neck, within the jurisdiction of your domain, as has been the aim and purpose of Beckham ever since he became the head of the State. Only the chosen few have ever received any consideration at his hands and by his wanton acts, to further his own cause, has placed the affairs of a Democratic State in the hands of the Republican party. We love the Democratic party and the principles it advocates, but we do not propose to stand for any so-called Democrat just because he is called a Democrat, to the detriment and almost destruction of the party, such as has been the course of Beckham. It was our great pleasure to do all we could against him, in his underhanded race against Gov. McCreary, the man who had been largely instrumental in making Beckham what he is, and we now join with hundreds of other good democrats in a request to Mr. Beckham, to quit the race for U. S. Senate, that some good democrat may have the honor and be an honor to the people of the State. The loss of Hager and the rest of the State ticket, with a possibility of the Legislature being Republican, all because of Beckham, makes it doubly hard to reconcile.

The last Thursday in November is the day set apart by this great country of ours, (these grand and glorious United States) for Thanksgiving day, a day wherein every man, woman and child should bow their heads in prayer to our Maker for the multitude of blessings which He has seen fit to bestow upon each and every one of us, though wicked and sinful we might have been all of our lives. He has been good to the sinner as well as to the saint, He has caused the rain to fall upon the unjust as well as the just and yet how far we fall short of our duty to our Maker. A great many people, certainly misstrue the object and purposes of Thanks giving day. There are some who with gun and dog take to the fields to shoot the innocent and "expecting quail or dove, many others for any kind of sport, fun or frolic amusements of any nature, anything but the real purpose for which this day was intended. Some few have a different view and these will remain at home and talk, and discuss our neighbors' their faults and habits, not for a moment do they speak of good traits of these friends and neighbors, but gossiping and tattling seem to be the ruling enjoyment of the day. Then there is a class, who well knows the object and purpose of Thanksgiving day and this class though small, yes, very small, will respect his good day, and spend it as the day should be.

A few of these good people will meet in their holy sanctuary and there lift up their voices in prayer to their Master for the many blessings and comforts showered upon them and theirs. These people are few and far between, yet the good Lord will hear and answer these prayers. My dear young men, stop and reflect 'er you desecrate this great and good day. Celebrate it as it should be and as it was intended to be, a day of prayer and thanksgiving to our good Master for his goodness and kindness to us through all of our lives. As the day rolls around our sad times reflect, when we see the youth of the country preparing for wicked and sinful sport that he intends to participate in, how greatly the meaning of this good day is misconstrued. Turn over to the leaf, young man, in life's history and you will see no more, but instead assemble with those who do know and will always be found doing the right thing at your church, and there in humble submission to His will, offer up to your good Master a prayer for his blessings.

To consecrate this good day in the wicked and sinful way that you have been doing in the past, hold this Thanksgiving as a holy day.

It is stated in Washington that conservative financial leaders have requested President Roosevelt to call an extra session of Congress to deal with the currency question. As an alternative, in the event that the President does not see his way clear to call an extra session, he is asked to make a public statement to the country. These matters are still under consideration, but no statement is given out at the White House regarding the President's intentions. In the meantime Treasury officials are agreed that the financial situation is distinctly improved day by day, and advice from financial experts are said to be of a very reassuring character.

A young man with a practical knowledge in his head, skill in his hands and health in his body is his own letter of reference. Mix him up with sixty millions of others, and he will have a habib of being on a desert island and he will be at the head of something. He does not go whining over the land, blaming fortune and saying he has no chance but goes out dogs something and goes out and does it again and better. Men that can do things either with head or hands are the men that are wanted and the demand is as great here and now as it has been at any time since the beginning.

TUESDAY'S RESULTS.

For Tuesday's results in Kentucky, Czar Beckham is entitled to the credit. By the undaunted methods of one man, to further his own cause, the whole State ticket must have fallen into the hands of the Republican party. But there's no use to grieve over spilled milk, it is done and all we can do is to make the best of it. The unofficial vote gives the majority of the Republican ticket about 10,000, with some hope that the General Assembly will be Democratic by a Assembly vote majority.

Grinstead defeats Tyler for Mayor of Louisville about 5000. Senator George Farris loses in Garrard for Representative by about 300. Massachusetts re-elected the entire Republican State ticket, headed by Gov. Curtis Guild, Jr. Henry M. Whitney the Citizens' Democratic candidate for Governor, polled a much heavier vote than Chas. W. Bartlett, the anti-republican Democrat. Pennsylvania elects John O. Sneath, Republican head of the ticket for State Treasurer, by a large majority.

New York State elects Edward Bartlett and William Bartlett, joint candidates on the Republican and Democratic tickets for Justice of the Court of Appeals, over the candidate of the Independence League (Hearst). New York City elects the Tammany candidates by considerable majorities over the Independent League, Republican Progen candidates. New Jersey is claimed by both sides. The early reports indicated a plurality for Frank S. Katzbach, Jr., Democratic candidate for Governor, but later returns show John Franklin Fort, Republican, making large gains. The Democratic State Committee claims a plurality of 6,000 to 8,000. The Rhode Island returns indicate the re-election of Gov. James Higgins, Democrat, over Frederick H. Jackson, Republican, by a plurality estimated to be about 1,500, showing a Democratic gain from the previous year.

The election of the Democratic ticket to Mississippi, headed by R. F. Noel for Governor, is a foregone conclusion, as the no opposing ticket. In Nebraska M. B. Reese, Republican candidate for the Supreme Court, the most important State office voted on, is undoubtedly elected by a majority of about 12,000. The morality contest in Cleveland resulted in the election of Tim Johnson, present Mayor, over Congressman Burton.

The American or anti-Mormon party of Salt Lake City, are estimated to have the largest pluralities ever given in that city. At Toledo Mayor Brand Whitehead and the "Globe" Independent ticket is elected. Cincinnati elects Col. Leopold Markbreit, the Republican candidate for Mayor.

Reports from San Francisco show Taylor, Democrat, and a good government candidate for Mayor, leading, with the Union Labor candidate showing unexpected strength.

SHAKE IN A BOTTLE.

Now is the time when the doctor gets busy, and the patent medicine manufacturers reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet dry. This is the advice of an eminent authority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble neither is here, and also tells what to do in case of an attack. Get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. Just try this simple home made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism, or if you back ache or you feel that the kidneys are not acting just right. This is said to be a splendid kidney regulator and affords certain remedy for all forms of Rheumatism, which is caused by uric acid in the blood, which the kidneys fail to filter out. Any one can easily prepare this at home and at small cost.

Doggett in this town and vicinity, when shown the prescription, stated that they can either supply these ingredients, or if our readers prefer, they will compound the mixture for them.
