WALL STREET DEMORIALIZED

Not Since October Has Stock Exchange Been So Shaken.

THE CAUSE OF THE COLLAPSE

'Factors of Great Wealth' and 'Certain of Their Sort Are Believed to Have Discerned an Element of Danger to Their Interests in the Apprehension of a Revival of Political Activity Against Corporations and Wealth Brought About by Recent Exposures.

New York, Sept. 23.—The shudder of the transactions at the stock exchange Tuesday during the demoralized break in prices was not greater than the excessive confusion and contradiction of the opinions held as to the cause of the collapse. That it was proof announcing to a demonstration of the fictitious and excessive nature of the previous advance was agreed to without dispute. There has been general admission of this fact since the market has been in a general agreement as to the responsibility of groups of powerful capitalists for the advance. The responsibility of the collapse which prices have undergone has not altered the conviction as to the source of the operations which advanced them previously, but the speculates which prompt the abandonment of the previous position offer a subject for the most divergent opinions. Nothing indicates urgent necessity for legislation, with surprise reserved of the banks still above $100,000,000, in spite of the inroads made upon them, and with call loans easily procurable at 1 per cent or slightly above. This strengthens a conviction that the leaders of the recent speculation must have been entangled with supplies which would have protected them from pressure of lenders which would precipitate any such urgent selling on the market as is now seen. When it is considered that the purpose attributed to the movement to advance prices was to help restore confidence, with view to stimulating business revival, and further the minor question of new capital issues, the question arises whether that purpose has been abandoned or restricted on the latter standpoint of the stock market campaign, considered wholly as such, its success in attracting any general public demand for securities and a distribution of stocks at the high prices is doubted by all those observers of the market. On the contrary the rise in prices had the growing effect of bringing to market holdings of an foreign, or partly investment character, both from home and foreign sources. The necessity of accepting these offerings in order to maintain prices proved a growing burden to the efforts of the supporters of the market. It is not believed, however, that it had become impracticable with the resources credited to those supporters. That the bitterness of the revived agitation against corporations and the public resentment at the supposition of corporation influence in politics has proved a shock to a feeling of security which had grown up amongst groups of very wealthy capitalists is an interpretation of the present market decline much heard. The prolonged rise in prices was accompanied, almost constantly by public expressions on the part of prominent financiers that public sentiment toward corporations was changing and that the political had spent its force. The recent tone of the political campaign and the sensation created by the Archbold-Forsaker correspondence has shaken this confidence amongst capitalists. The connection with this element of the situation there was the openly expressed suspicion on the stock exchange floor that the disorder in the market was a deliberate purpose of forces which had fostered the previous advance with the object of obtaining a measure of the dangers to be apprehended from a revival of political activity against corporations and wealth.

Sales of upward of 100,000 shares in Tuesday's market were ascribed to the fact that many had had the largest share in executing the orders which carried forward the long advance in prices. Stocks of stocks were hurried upon the market from all quarters, and when prices showed any disposition to rally. With the market generally better at prices than the bears appearing very reluctantly and their buying to cover shorts, toward the end of the day on an unimpaired scale.

THE DANGER OF PEACE IN NAVY

Another Terror Disaster Has Been Recorded.

THE ENTIRE GUN DREW KILLED

The French Navy is Again Shocked by a Disaster Similar to That of Last August Only on a Larger Scale, When an Explosion During Gunnery Drill Off Toulon, Claims the Gun Crew of Thirteen, and Completely Wrecks Cruiser's Turret.

Toulon, France, Sept. 23.—During gunnery drill, one of the big turret guns of the French cruiser Latouche Tréville exploded with terrific violence, completely wrecking the turret and killing outright the entire gun crew of thirteen men and injuring eighteen.

The turret was being proceeding for a considerable time, when without warning the whole turret seemed to blow out. Disembodied bodies were thrown in all directions and several men were hurled into the sea through the great breach caused by the explosion. The spectacle was horrible, the dead and wounded men, in arms and legs, littering the decks. A hail of quarters was sounded and as speedily as possible the vessel was raised for the gun that exploded was 7.8 inches bore, of which the cruiser carried 12. Happening at 3:30 p.m. after the accident on the Cruiser, the explosion caused a sensation in naval circles and investigations will lead to a most rigid investigation.

Uncle Sam Walks on Stars-- So Can You

When it comes to economizing, in some ways, Uncle Sam beats them all. He believes that it pays to buy the best. Now, if there is anybody that is hard on shoes, Uncle Sam's soldiers are. Just think of what an expense it must be to furnish his soldier boys with shoes. If you want to set a good shoe, let a soldier wear it. That would be a sure test. Uncle Sam is now buying "Star Brand Shoes."

The STAR BRAND SHOE is the Best Made

You don't have to take our word for it. Take their record. "Star Brand Shoes" have been on the market ten years. Last year was the tenth year. The sales amounted to ten million, forty-one thousand, three hundred and eighty-five dollars and sixty-five cents. You know last year was the year of the money panic. In addition to this there was a big shoe strike. In spite of all these difficulties the Star Brand Shoes have forged ahead. Two years out of the ten, their shipments increased over two millions of dollars. No other shoe company can boast of such a record.

Why Such Wonderful Success?

It is because these people own and operate ten shoe factories. Where other shoe companies least factories and buy shoes in the open market and put their brand on them, the "Star Brand" people make the shoes they sell. Fifteen thousand merchants sell these shoes and over three millions, American people wear them. If you are not a member of the Three Million Club, we want you to join. If you want to do like Uncle Sam, economize by buying good shoes, you will walk on stars. Every "Star Brand Shoe" has a star on its heel. Every shoe with a star on its heel is sold under a guarantee.

Mrs. Lovell and Southern went to his relief as quickly as possible but the road to the home had been buried by the extreme mud and nothing save temporary relief could be administered. Charley as he was called, was 30 years old and a splendid young man. He had been in the service of the L. and N. for some years and was a better and more faithful man the road did not have. He could claim almost every one of his associates as his friends. His remains were laid to rest Wednesday afternoon in Elmwood Cemetery with Masonic honors the members of the Order, Blue Lodge, Chapter and Knights Templar officiating. The flowers were beautiful, in testimony of the sympathy shown to him by Mt. Vernon. Peace to his ashes, glory to his immortal soul.

Senator J.B. Foraker Saturday wrote a letter to Judge Taft announcing that he would not attend the Republican rally in Cincinnati Tuesday, where he had been scheduled to deliver an address introducing the presidential nominee. It is now practically certain that Foraker will be eliminated from both the State and National Republican campaign. Senator Foraker issued another statement yesterday in reply to the charges by W. R. Hearst his St. Louis speech. He says the draft for 50,000 was sent as a loan in a contemplated newspaper deal by friends of Foraker. The deal afterward fell through and the draft was returned. The Hearst charges were again the uppermost topic in political circles in Ohio and many conferences were held by the Republican leaders. Judge Taft, however, declined to make any statement for publication.

The Indianapolis Star, the organ of the Republican party in Indiana, in an editorial Saturday virtually concedes the loss of the Hoosier State to the Republicans. It lays the blame of the disruption to the party on the Fairbanks machine and Gov. Hanly. It enumerates briefly the causes for loss of the State both for Gov. and the nation at ticket.

PANICS CAUSED BY REPUBLICANISM.

Yes, a Republican President issued bonds in time of peace; and a Republican President has since issued bonds in time of peace. Then, where is the difference? Here! The Democratic President issued them immediately after going into office, in order to help the financial condition of the country, brought on by Harrison's administration. The Republican President issued his bonds at a time when his party and himself had been in control for a dozen years. Now isn't this as plain as Plato's feet? The rich Republicans and trusts are trying to stay off the present panic until they can get a Democratic President in power, and that will be no longer than the 4th of next March. Now the secret of the whole matter is a short story and is told in this way. The panic that was brought on by a Republican reign of ruin and partiality to the classes from forty days of the 4th of 1892 was duplicated in old Grover. And again, after a dozen years of class rule, the climax came, but just a little too soon to get it soaked upon a Democratic administration—thank the Lord, Hallelujah.—Hornet.

After arguments, Chief Justice Clegg, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia Tuesday directed that president Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, should reply to the question regarding the contents of the September number of the American Federationist in the course of taking testimony in the contempt proceedings against Mr. Gompers and other officials of the federation.
Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, made the contention for the labor officials that they had not violated the decree of injunction.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely get to my room at night. When you have a cold you may be sure that it has been caused indirectly by contamination and consequently you must first of all take more preventive measures. This is what was made Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup so successful in curing colds, coughs, etc. It does not constitute like most of the old-fashioned cough cures, but on the other hand it gently moves the bowels, and thus relieves irritation and delays inflammation of the throat. Sold by Chas. C. Davis.

WATSON, BRYAN AND THE SOUTH.

Tom Watson apparently cares little for being President. Having accepted the Presidential nomination on the Populist ticket, he has made his campaign a crusade against Mr. Bryan based on the charge that Mr. Bryan is not a friend of the South. The question of Mr. Bryan's friendship for them is not one for them to see one which is given the Southern people much concern. The exigencies of politics have given him little opportunity for practical demonstration of his good will, but the fact that he has overlooked no opportunity is an evidence that, with Mr. Bryan as president, the South will have no cause to complain of unfair treatment. The amusing feature of the Watson performances is that while he is accusing Mr. Bryan of want of friendship for the South he is assuming that the South has forgot that when Kiefer, of Ohio, attempted to have South's re-representation in Congress cut down, he was found in Watson. Some of its strongest supporters, Watson declaring that "it makes no difference South or the Southern people whether the representation in Congress or the electoral college is reduced or not." Mr. Watson's belated zeal for the South and its people against the imaginary danger in the event of Mr. Bryan's election is, naturally, not creating the alarm that Mr. Watson would, doubtless, be pleased to see.

A PAYING INVESTMENT.

Mr. John White, of 38 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "I have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was halting, the cough was all gone. This winter the cough has followed; a few doses have more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." Sold under guarantee at Chas. C. Davis' drug store. 50c and $1.00 trial bottle free.

John W. Kern, the Democratic vice presidential candidate, will open the Democratic campaign in Maunfield, O., on tomorrow.
