The Bosworth-Wyatt Good Road Amendment to the Constitution of Kentucky, which passed the last Kentucky Legislature by its almost unanimous vote, and which is to be voted on at the next November General Election of 1909, by the voters of Kentucky, is as follows, to-wit:

"The credit of the Commonwealth may be given, pledged or loaned to any county of the Commonwealth for public road purposes, and any county may be permitted to incur an indebtedness in any amount fixed by the county, not in excess of five per centum of the value of the taxable property therein, for public road purposes in said county, provided said additional indebtedness is submitted to the voters of the county for their ratification or rejection at a special election held for said purpose, in such manner as may be provided by law, and when any such indebtedness is incurred by any county, said county may levy, in addition to the tax rate allowed under Section 157 of the Constitution of Kentucky, an amount not exceeding twenty cents on the hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of said county for the purpose of paying the interest on said indebtedness and providing a sinking fund for the payment of said indebtedness."

Section 177 of the Constitution of Kentucky forever prohibits the State from lending its aid to, or in any way helping the counties in road building, or taking any part whatever in behalf of the cause of Good Roads.

Section 158 of our State Constitution limits the power of any county to become indebted more than two per cent. of the assessed valuation, thus making it impossible for the greater number of our counties to raise sufficient funds to do any road building at all.

Section 157 of our State Constitution provides that a county cannot levy exceeding fifty cents on each One Hundred Dollars of taxable property therein for any purpose whatever, thus making it impossible for many of the counties to provide sufficient means to create a sinking fund and pay interest on the debt created to build roads.

As a consequence of these limitations and restrictions of the powers of the counties and also of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, good road building in Kentucky has been a thing of the past since the adoption of our present Constitution.

This Constitutional Amendment will remove these restrictions, which are a barrier to the passage of such a system of Road Laws by our Legislature, as will enable our counties and our State, and perhaps our Federal Government, to join hands in this important work of building and maintaining a system of improved highways in parts of Kentucky, the accomplishment of which would do so much for the advancement, progress and development of Kentucky, and would mean more than all else for the comfort, convenience and improved condition of all our people. If this Constitutional Amendment receives a majority of the votes at that election, it will then be possible for Kentucky to pass such a system of Good Road Laws as are in effect in the States of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Michigan, Massachusetts, California and Pennsylvania, and, in fact, every other State where progress and advancement is being made in building and maintaining good roads, while our own Kentucky is at a standstill.

If you are in favor of good roads, vote and work for the Bosworth-Wyatt Good Road Constitutional Amendment and lend a helping hand in making it possible for every county in our State to have the very best improved highways

SHEEP QUARANTINED.

Governor Wilson was notified by Secretary of agriculture at Washington that Kentucky, in the near future, will be quarantined to prevent the spread of scabies, a disease of sheep. Dr. F. T. Eiseleman, state veterinarian, is in receipt of a letter from A. D. Melvin, chief of the bureau of animal industry, stating that this action is to be taken because of the prevalence of the disease in the state, and the absence of state control over the movement of sheep in interstate commerce.

As Louisville is probably the largest sheep market in the state, and as Kentucky is a sheep breeding state, the quarantine will prove a serious obstacle. Dr. Eiseleman expects an immediate effect of the order of quarantine will be action on the part of the county fiscal courts throughout the state to kill off the disease in the various counties.

Denny B. Goode, editor of the Focus, published in Louisville, was assaulted by Adjutant General P. P. Johnson who struck him several blows with a heavy cane, breaking the stick in three pieces. Goode was sitting in his office when Gen. Johnson entered and asked him if he was responsible for an article appearing in the paper, in which Johnson was referred to as Peacock Johnson, and being answered in the affirmative, he struck him with his cane. Gen. Johnson was given an examining trial on the charge of malicious assault, and held over to answer to the grand jury.

Denny B. Goode is a native of Pulaski county, and a relative of J. O. Goode, of the Farmers National Bank.

While Spain shows calm in the interior, the situation in Morocco is still serious. Spain is assembling reinforcements to carry out the purposes of her campaign in Africa while the Moore are gathering to resist the Spanish advance, and this week is likely to see champions of more or less gravity.

It is said the Johnson warehousemen are pending a lawsuit for the Barley district soliciting the growers to keep out of the barley and equally poor and dispose of their stock through the warehouse. The agents are said to have not with considerable success.

Mrs. Mary Copley Traw, mother of Harry K. Traw, Saturday made public a statement in which she compared the testimony given by witnesses in behalf of Traw's effort to free himself from the insane asylum to the evidence given by Mr. Jerome's "allenters." The closing argument at the insanity hearing was made Saturday at St. White Plains, N. Y., and a decisive verdict was rendered.

Surveyors have been at work for two or three days getting a proper grade of the streets for side walks etc. The board of trustees are to be commended for having this done, so there can be some system, and uniformity in the construction of streets and sidewalks. In 1684 Nicholas and Samuel Gentry settled in Virginia and with singular uniformity" says Richard Gentry all can trace back to a Virginia ancestor.

Prof. J. S. Koepfert died at his home, "Ravenwood" in the East side of the county Sunday night.

It is said that Prof. Reppert brought about his death by an over-dose of morphine, taken with suicidal intent. For months he had been more or less demoralized; times, and only a few days ago, took a dose of morphine for the purpose of ending his life, and as soon as he took it, sent for Mr. S. Griffin to come to his house when he told Mr. Griffin just how to make his coffin. Prof. Reppert, when at himself, was a man of extraordinary ability and had a wide scope of information, but like all men, who prefer to weigh in the balance of reason, the teaching of the Holy Scriptures, his usefulness among neighbors and friends as a teacher and educator was lost in obscurity. Although Prof. Reppert sought to live and die in that light of God's teachings which his better judgement told him was right, yet, we have no doubt, but had he realized the approach of that awful hour, like the great Voltaire his last words would have been: "If there is a God have mercy on me." Peace to his ashes glory to his immortal soul.

Judge L. W. Bethurn has called the Fiscal Court together on next Tuesday, to consider a proposition of installing safety file boxes in the County Court Clerks office. This also includes steel racks with rollers for the books.

We want to commend Judge Bethurn for action in this respect to the court to consider the matter and we feel sure that if the court acts favorably on the proposed plan, that it will have the hearty indorsement of every citizen, in the county and especially those who have valuable papers in the clerk's office. With the present arrangement it is almost an impossibility to keep the office in anything like order, while with the systematic arrangement which these safety boxes afford, it would be an easy matter to keep the office in perfect order, and there would be no reason why any document left there should ever be misplaced. The county clerks office is one of all places, that every landowner, business man, or person who has any business at all, is particularly interested for there are important records kept. Nothing that will add to the safety of records and convenience of handling them would be extravagance and we will install the safety boxes for they are certainly needed.

Since they are too numerous to thank personally I wish through the SIGNAL to express my hearty appreciation of the patrons who pledged me their substantial support in my school at Mt. Vernon and to those who for the last two years have given me their patronage. I have already been pledged 55 day pupils and 16 boarding pupils. These are certainly bright prospects to abandon but having been called to the principalship of the Brothead Graded School without even an application on my part I feel that a larger field of usefulness has been opened for me by the people of my own county. Catalogue of the Brothead Graded school will be out by Aug. 25th.

To the good people of Rockcastle who have stood so loyally by me I would like in behalf of the Board of Trustees of this the first school of the kind in our county to extend a hearty invitation that you send your children to us. A Clean Man Outside cleanliness is less than half the battle. A man may scrub himself a dozen times a day, and still be unclean. Good health means cleanliness not only outside, but inside. It means a clean stomach, clean bowels, clean blood, a clean liver, and new, clear, healthy tissues. The man who is clean in this way will look it and act it. He will work with energy and think clear, clear, healthy thoughts.

He will never be troubled with liver, lung, stomach or blood disorders. Dyspepsia and indigestion originate in unclean stomachs. Blood diseases are found where there is unclean blood. Consumption and bronchitis mean unclean lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery prevents these diseases. It mingles a man's inside clean and healthy. It cleans the digestive organs, makes pure, clean blood, and cleans, healthy flesh.

It restores tone to the nervous system, and cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. It contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. Consumption is the most unclean uncleanness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure it. They never gripe. Easy to take as candy.

Women Suffer Agonies from Diseased Kidneys

And Most Women Do This Not Knowing the Cause of Their Condition

These poor, suffering women have been led to believe that their misery of mind and body is entirely due to "the state of their system." Usually the kidneys are the cause, and are responsible—largely so. And in such cases, the kidneys and bladder are the organs that need most attention.

These torturing, enervating back headaches, dragging pains in back, groin and limbs, bloating and swelling of the extremities, extreme nervousness or hysteria, indigestion and constipation, general weakness and feebleness—are almost certain symptoms of disordered and diseased kidneys, bladder and system.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills have, in thousands of cases, been demonstrated as remarkably beneficial in all such conditions of female organism—affording the most prompt relief and permanent benefit.

INSURANCE.
companies alone pumped through the arteries of New York City's financial and business system last year upward of $1,120,000 every day. Indianapolis, which is only a little over 100 miles from Louisville, has something like twenty life insurance companies, and the business in Indiana has been growing very fast.

The amount paid for life insurance premiums in Kentucky last year was $2,755,822, and the South is now paying out for life insurance about sixty millions of dollars annually.

Kentucky should have a big life insurance company. It is the first Southern State to offer to policyholders the guarantee of a compulsory reserve deposit law. The statute now in effect was enacted March 24, 1906. It provides that every domestic life insurance company must deposit with the State Treasurer for the security and benefit of all its policyholders, an amount equal to or greater than the ascertained net cash value of all such company's policies in force. It is worthy of note that the men who fought for this law were the managers of the Citizens Life Insurance Company and the same gentlemen who are now promoting the Citizens Life Insurance Company and the same gentlemen who are now promoting the Citizens National Life Insurance Company.

The plan in brief of the Citizens National Life Insurance Company is first to merge into it the Citizens Life Insurance Company. As already indicated, the same men who during the past five years have made life insurance history through the exceptional development of the latter company are the guiding spirits of the new organization. The further purpose of the new company is to take over other companies of the South and elsewhere which may decide to discontinue business or may find it more profitable to consolidate with a company of great strength.

There seems to be nothing impracticable about the plan, nor does it appear when analyzed, but advantage can come to the policyholders and stockholders of the Citizens Life or any other companies which may be merged into the new company. No doubt the stockholders will see it to that thoroughly equitable arrangement of the stock for the exchange of holdings in an existing company for stock in the new corporation. It is pointed out to policyholders of the Citizens Life in particular—and the same conditions must apply to the policyholders of any other company merged into the big company—that the consolidation of the two companies will make one of the strongest companies in the country, and for that matter, in the world.

There are purchasers of life insurance who do not care particularly for big company. Some on the other hand will insure in no other kind, but will insure especially in a big company when seeking life insurance protection. This is the new company will not secure business from those who are content to buy insurance from a small company, but to those who want to those who want to purchase very large or even small policies and demand great financial strength, it will stand the severest test. But there is a deep interest and significance to the general public in the organization of a ten million dollar insurance company in the South and an added local interest when it is considered that Kentucky will be the home office of the company. Mr. W. H. Gregory, president of the Citizens Life and one of the guiding geniuses in the advancement of the new company. Mr. W. H. Gregory, president of the Citizens Life is one of the guiding geniuses in the advancement of the new company, has in a recent letter to the policyholders of his own company called particular attention to what might be styled the Southern phase of the situation. The points cannot be well stated more clearly, and we quote from his letter:

"The tremendous power gained by Southern people in the organization of the company is the check it will put on the flow of millions of dollars annually in life insurance premiums from the North and East. I believe confidently that this is one of the greatest things ever done financially for the South. The South is coming to the front. It is making more progress than any other section of the country. Southern people have been awakened to the great power they have, and they have taken together the cotton mills, for instance. The cotton mills, for instance. The South once set its cotton to New England. There it was manufactured and sent back and sold at a good profit. The South paid the freight to New England or the raw material, paid the freight back on the finished product and paid the manufacturer in New England a profit on the goods handled and capital invested, to say nothing of the millions of dollars left there to pay Northern labor. But his changing the order of things. The capital of twenty-one millions once invested in cotton mills in the South in the past few years increased to three hundred millions. The people of the South at one time, did not appreciate just what the cotton crop amounted to, and I dare say some do not yet appreciate just what it means. Some probably do not know that every plant in this country has experienced in years has been checked and stopped by the cotton crop. The people who raise cotton are a power. And they are beginning to realize it. And likewise, Southern people are beginning to realize their power in the insurance world.

"The thing that we wish to accomplish now is to have a company strong enough to take care of the immense volume of business in the South. You can appreciate just what that means. At the time the Citizens Life was organized, the Southern life insurance companies had practically no business on their books that was not surprised, therefore, when I tell you that the Southern companies to-day are carrying nearly one-third of a billion of dollars of life insurance. This is a stupendous, yet it is only about 3 per cent of the total amount of insurance carried in the United States.

"The big banks of the North and East have been built up largely by life insurance money, with the south all these years paying the freight, as it were, and the banks themselves have in turn been a powerful factor in the commercial development of the North and East. Yet the South pays out enough money each year in premiums for life insurance to build up some of the strongest banks in the world in the South."

The business associates and the friends of Mr. Gregory, Mr. Helm Bruce, Mr. Charles D. Pearce and the other gentlemen who are striving industriously for the success of this great enterprise have confidence in their ability to carry it out. Kentucky will apparently have every good reason to pride herself on being able to furnish the world. But greatest good will come to the largest number by people of the South being able to secure their life insurance in a great and powerful institution, destined to go through generations to come as a monument to Southern enterprise and enterprise.

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH OF THE UTERUS CONTAINING MERCURY.
as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and it acts internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, and bringing Hall's Catarrh Cure to the surface of the genital tract. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Dr. King's Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The Text cotton crop is in need of rain. The plant in Louisiana and Texas is reported in good condition, and some improvement is noted in Alabama.

The best remedy we know of in all cases of Kidney and Bladder trouble and the one we always can recommend is DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. They are anti-septic and once assist the kidneys to perform their duty. But when you ask for these pills be particular: you get DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. SOUTHERN LIFE IN. BROWN-MEMORIAL SCHOOL LIVINGSTON

From time to time there comes along a substantial testimonial of the South's financial progress. Development is a word constantly increasing in usage in our vocabulary. Opportunities that were once permitted to come and go unheeded are now being seized and utilized down. Languid indifference more frequently than formerly gets a jolt from aggressiveness and the Southern business world profits as a result of the encounter. A striking illustration of this latter-day tendency to curb suspicion of enterprise and welcome Southern progress came recently with the announcement that plans are under way for the organization of a great life insurance company for the South, with headquarters in Kentucky. It is significant that the proposition has been received by as many as six persons as it was launched by the few sincerely. Twenty, ten, or even five years ago the announcement would have met with scant welcome. To-day it seems to have been received with a cordiality not unaccompanied with enthusiasm. Men recognize in it an agency of benefit for both Kentucky and the South and consequently a personal friend. The moment the swaddling clothes were ripped off the Citizens National Life Insurance Company an organization which is to have $5,000,000 of capital stock and $5,000,000 of surplus—people began to lift up their heads and give notice. Since then, it is declared letters and telegrams have poured in on the promoters from every section of the South—actually wishing God-speed to the enterprise. That the interest has not been limited to merely verbose sentiment, is demonstrated by the substantial financial support professed with every arrival of the mail. The man who is even more than a student of current events is impressed when introduced to the magnitude of the life insurance business in the United States. Out of apparently bewildering volumes of statistics he can readily discern, however a conception dazzling in impressiveness and particularly useful in an understandable contemplation of the territory south of the Mason and Dixon line of the establishment therein of the proposed Citizens National Life. It is well to bear in mind that the East in particular has until most recent years enjoyed almost as described as a monopoly of the life-insurance business. While Easterners have drawn with tremendous profit to themselves the money from Southern policyholders, they must also be credited with possessing increasing faith in life insurance. In 1873 the total amount in policies reported to the New York Insurance department was $2,086,027,178. This total had increased at the end of 1908 to $10,623,733,785; New York City's life insurance assets aggregated in 1908 $1,725,000,000. Hartford, Conn., has a population of 30,000. It had life insurance assets in 1908 of $260,000,000. Montpellier, Vt., has a population of 7,000 and in 1908 had life insurance assets of $44,000,000 or $6,282 per capita. These figures, however, do not convey their full significance until contrasted with Louisville's aggregate life insurance assets in 1908 of about $2,000,000 with a population of 250,000. There is no end to the evidence that life insurance business is profitable for a community. We are wont to turn eagerly to New York when we study things financially. One prominent New York company twenty years ago had a little over $6,000,000 of assets. Its statement showed assets in 1908 of $236,000,000 and the assets have probably increased to about a quarter of a billion of dollars to-day. Four prominent metropolitan life insurance companies in 1908 had the total income $29,857,719. Allowing three hundred per cent. for the year, this means that these four

Brown Memorial School will open Sept. 7th. Barring our claims upon what the school has done for the community, and especially upon the record of our last year's work, we come to the people of Mt. Vernon and vicinity asking, a continuance of the co-operation and support which contributed so largely to the success of last year. While we had a large attendance and good work last year, we expect a much larger enrollment this year, and feel sure that with a better knowledge of the conditions and needs of the school, and acquaintance with the pupils, we can look forward to a much better year of work, even than we had last year. Brown Memorial School is here to serve its pupils in the best manner possible, and it will even be the earnest purpose of the management of the school to maintain the high standard of excellence in scholarship and character, for which Brown Memorial has stood. That education which does not develop the child along all sides of his nature, physically, intellectually and spiritually is not worthy the name. To establish it in principles, strong conviction of questions of right and wrong, adherence to duty, in short, a Christian Education, making men and women who are "thoroughly furnished with all good work, rightly dividing the Word of truth" is our aim, to this end. Daily systematic study of the Bible is required of all grades. The course of study will be practically the same as last year, conforming as far as possible to the course of the Louisville Public School and the County High School Course of Study, looking toward the establishment of a County High School in Mt. Vernon. Few changes have been made in the personnel of the faculty, although some changes have been found necessary in the assignment of work, as Miss Thornton and Miss Lee will not be with us this year. Miss Waddell, who has been very successful in primary work will have charge of the first, second, and third grades. Miss Louise Hotchkiss whose work in the Intermediate grades was so satisfactory last year will again have charge of that department, having the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Miss Laura Wiley of Greensboro, N. C. who is a graduate of the Normal Collegiate School at Ashville, and of Wooster University, Ohio, has been secured for High School work. After graduating at the Normal, Miss Wiley taught very successfully for two years, and has since taken a four years course at Wooster University where she was graduated last June. Knowing the character of work done in both these institutions, we feel we are very fortunate in securing the services of Miss Wiley. The classes in Mathematics in the High School will still be in charge of Miss McCord, and Miss Ruth Smith will have History and Bible. Miss Keys will again have charge of the music. The teachers need no introduction to the patrons of the school. Anyone wishing further information concerning the school, call or write to Miss McCord and it will gladly be given. It is important that applications for enrollment in the school be made as early as possible, as from present indications the school will be full. Those who have already made applications for a place in Langdon dormitory are asked to write at once to Miss McCord making definite arrangements in terms, otherwise the place will be given to some one else. Those who have not yet applied should send applications to Miss McCord, 17th and 5th streets, as vacancies will be filled in order of date of application. Any families who desire to take students to board at the school, will please communicate with Miss McCord as early as possible.
