Through experiments with Eosipa Pallidus, the famous Italian medium, who is now in New York attention will once more be directed to what has been called "spiritualism." This may not be a correct name or a scientific name. It may not be the name by which it will be finally known. Spiritualism was a name given in fifty years ago in an era and area less critical and more credulous than can be found to-day; but by whatever name it may be called, the facts remain that there is a positive force and an apparent intelligence that transcends the known or normal. At a seance held in New York under rigid and unswerving their scrutiny, a table was seen to rise entirely from the floor. Either the spectators were hypnotized, or was also the camera which took an instantaneous picture, or else there was levitation independent of normal, mechanical or physical means. But this phenomenon is not new or even rare. Thousands and tens of thousands are familiar with it. It has occurred in family circles, independent of mediumistic assistance, and thousands more may, with a little trouble and patience, produce the same results in the family circle, where the hostesses of those present will eliminate the suspicion of trickery. How it is done? We do not know. Spiritism may be a mediumistic phenomenon, or a force, or a supernatural power, or a combination of these.

of vulgar professional mediums flourish fortune tellers who subsist on human credulity and human sorrow. The presence of a force unknown to science and a supernatural intelligence cannot be denied—is not denied except by scientific dogmatists.

The inauguration of the President of the United States occurs but once every four years, and the wet and snowy blizzard of March Fourth last and the proverbial bad weather of that date has aroused a sentiment for changing the date to the sixth of April, the date on which President Washington was inaugurated. With improvements in means and cheapness of travel with enlarged accommodations in Washington the number of visitors will greatly increase, and it has become a question not only of public convenience but of public health that a more salubrious date shall be selected for this national event.

Ex-president Roosevelt made a vain effort through consultation with college presidents and football highbrows to ameliorate or humanize the game. It was after his effort that his son has just entered Harvard University had his nose broken. In the last few days four promising young men have met their death through this brutal game. College presidents are preaching against it, but such is the intensity of the craze that it is doubtful if the terrible recent examples will be potent for more than a temporary check of deadly football.

C. H. Frith made a flying trip to Cincinnati first of the week on business. Mrs. Mollie S. Darrin is numbered with the sick this week—John E. and W. T. Evans left Wednesday for a business trip through the Kent-Cky mountains.—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pike served quite a number of their friends with an oyster and fish Fry Sunday last. They "bumped" coffee among the number and can truthfully testify that we received a very warm reception and had lots to eat. We hope the time will come again soon when we shall have another opportunity.—Mrs. J. B. Cass and sons, Robert and William, visited Mrs. R. L. Collier at Crab Orchard from Saturday until Monday.

The youngest son of Roy Robins is very sick.—J. W. Greear, our photographer is in Pulaski county this week.—C. A. Stegner, of Louisville, is here this week, the guest of Tilden Frith.—Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Cornelius and Miss Verna Jarrett, of Durango, Colorado, are here for a six weeks visit to their many friends and relatives.—Quite a number of our young folks were very joyfully entertained last Saturday night at a "Good Night" party at the hospitable home of Miss Etta Cable.—Miss Ada Wesley, of Liberty Ky., will arrive Tuesday for a two weeks visit to her grand mother, Mrs. Mollie Durham.—Mrs. Benton and son, John, were in London Wednesday.—Name Rumor says, wedding bells are soon to ring in our city.—C. A. Wheldon our clever "hello boy" spent last week with homefolks in the Quail section—Granville Owens and James H. Barrett went to Danville last Saturday to see C. U. and Georgetown College meet on the gridiron.—A. M. Hiatt spent from Saturday until Wednesday in the country hunting quail.—Don't forget the Declamatory contest at the Grand School on Thanksgiving night. The receipts go for a good cause. Gold medal to winner—Dr. O. O. Stone, of Middlesboro, and M. B. Bowling, of Livingston were here Sunday for some unknown cause to some people.

MONEY THAT TALKS BACK

There's a lot of money here and in this vicinity. Possessors of that money read this paper; they sweat by it. They want to be shown. If your goods are right, they want to buy. This paper talks back that money at regular intervals. It tells money what to talk back and talks back strong. Get your share—do your talking through our advertising columns.

NEWS ITEMS

The Yale Princeton football contest Saturday was won by the score of 17 to 0. It was the blocked kick, which has proved disastrous to Princeton this season, that contributed eight points against her Saturday. All the players put up wonderful exhibitions. The immense audience was wild with enthusiasm for two solid hours.

The lives of 400 men were sacrificed in an explosion in the mines of the St. Paul Coal Company at Cherry, Ill. But twenty five men escaped after the disaster and six men who went to the rescue of their entombed friends lost their lives in a futile effort. The mine had been sealed up in the hope of checking the flames which broke out after the explosion.

"Labor Sunday" is a suggestion laid before the American Federation of Labor in a resolution introduced by Secretary Frank Morrison at Toronto. The resolution would designate the first Sunday in September or each year as the occasion when the churches of America devote some part of the day to a presentation of the labor question.

Heath Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Willis, of Crab Orchard who was stabbed by Horace Benton, at St. Louis, three weeks ago is dead. His remains were brought to Richmond for interment.

By experience and training, we are prepared to do the best of watch and jewelry repairing. If you need any thing in our line give us a call. Shop over Peoples Bank. We guarantee our work.

Nov. 19-21. F. L. MOGGER.

We regret very much to learn of the death of young Heath Willis, caused by a wound received at the hands of Horace Benton, while in a difficulty at St. Louis, three weeks ago, but we are glad to know that the facts vindicate Horace for his act. We have understood that Capt. Willis father of the dead boy, and he would not prosecute Benton, but we can not verify the statement. It is a most unfortunate occurrence and the bereaved ones on both sides have our sympathy.

A declamatory contest will be given by the young ladies of Brodhead Graded School No. 1 at seven o'clock on the evening of November the twenty-fourth.

The contest will be held at the graded school building and the proceeds will be used for making the interior of the Chapel more attractive. An admission of 25 cents for adults, fifteen cents for pupils over twelve years and 10 cents for children under twelve will be charged. Everybody cordially invited.

The big mail order houses of Chicago are rocking so much money out of Rockcastle county people as they owe old, and they should not get any. Your home merchants never fail to help you when there is a new church to build or when you are in need but if you show us a local enterprise or lurch to which any Mail Order house in Chicago has given assistance, we'll give up the fight. Our good people are not to be trifled in sending their money away from home which they know it never comes back. Spend your money at home and you will have more money. Every merchant has to say things the farmers have to sell and they are glad to do so when they trade with them. Patronize home industry. Read the SIGNAL every week and see what the merchants of Rockcastle have to offer.

John Smith, colored, better known as "Happy Hooligan," who with another negro named Smith, broke into E. Krueger & Son's store a few weeks since, had his trial Tuesday. Also Edder and Dorman, negroes, the former who runs a hotel and the latter a clothing and drug house at Middleboro in whose possession W. H. Kestel, a colored merchant who has been located his goods and whom "Happy" says were partners of his in various and shifty trades, were on trial, charged with concealing stolen goods. Edder was discharged but Dorman held over under bond which he gave.

"Happy" is a first-class thief as he admitted on the witness stand, when he told how he and the other negro, who made his escape, robbed the store, took the trunk to the depot and had it checked to Crab Orchard, then went to Sparks Quarry caught a train to Crab Orchard and the next day took the trunk of clothing and went to Middleboro, where he says Dorman and others took possession of his goods and converted them to their own use, paying him such amount as they saw fit. While "Happy" needs no one to push him forward, yet his story, that he was and had been being the stealing for these negroes for a long time, is a credible one and was believed by most of the large crowd who witnessed the trial. Dorman and Edder looked to be well fed, but their general appearance indicate that they are capable of being "Happy" in his guilty to the others. It is to be seen the full extent of the law administered, and the whole bunch ended behind the bars.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Snodgrass, of Kansas, are here on a visit, the first visit since they left the state 39 years ago. Mr. Snodgrass is a son of Isaac and Jane Snodgrass, the Virginians who located in this county in the early part of the nineteenth century and seventy four years ago. Mr. W. J. Snodgrass was born on what is known as the Snodgrass farm in the Quail section. He is one of a family of seventeen children, fourteen boys and three girls, sixteen of whom lived to manhood and womanhood, however there are only two living now, himself and his brother, Mr. Larkin Snodgrass, who resides at Los Angeles, Cal., and who is now 84 years old. Mr. Snodgrass is a successful farmer in Kansas, and being somewhat of a believer in the Reformation doctrine, he and Mrs. Snodgrass was a native of Marion county Ky., have nine children to bless their union and comfort them in their declining years. There are only a few of the older citizens whom Mr. Snodgrass remembers, but these few he hopes to see before he returns to his western home. Two particularly mentioned are Albert and George A. B. R. of our town. Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Davis and will be in the county a few days longer.

J. W. Rider has rented the Mt Vernon hotel for next year so as to be enabled to accommodate the racing public while building new hotel on site where Miller house now stands.

Mr. P. H. Shotts tells us that he has his part of the subscription $2500.00 for the pike from Mt. Vernon to Bromo made up, and it is now up to Mt. Vernon. What has the committee done? Cashiers W. L. Richards and M. B. Still were appointed soliciting committee for Mt. Vernon, gentlemen what have you done? The country people have gone down in their pockets to help build roads so as to be able to come to Mt. Vernon and transact their business. Business men do you want their business if so get busy and help them in this fight. Now is the time to strike. If you are interested in your town and want to help build your own business, then help build this pike. Don't stand back and say yes I want the pike, but keep down in your back say "let others do the building and I will get the benefit" but do your own part. If the spirit of progressiveness existed that should, every man in Mt. Vernon, would be looking for the soliciting committee to subscribe his part instead of waiting for the committee to move him. Will Mt. Vernon do her part or not? That is the question. The business man of professional man who does not subscribe to this fund in proportion to his ability to do so, should never ask business or patronage of any kind of his town or country. Let us all get busy and do something can't we?

Grant Mission. The girls society is preparing for an open meeting to be held soon after Thanksgiving.

The Glee Club is soon to give a musical setting to "The Departure of Blawie." Miss Nell Shunklin of Cincinnati will give a piano recital and the Glee Club will assist on the program with the above rendition. The date of this recital will be announced.

A certain subject for each week has been adopted in the chapel exercises. Monday morning quotations from the Bible bearing on diligence and industry, were given by the pupils and Tuesday we had quotations from outside sources bearing on the same thought. Wednesday morning Miss McCord read an article entitled "One Thousand Successful Men" ending with this quotation from Grover Cleveland.

Work, work hard! Learn to work intelligently, persistently, faithfully. Next to your labor, value your capacity to work. Practice your health but work. Ambition enough to be a self-respecting man, but work. The pious, producing eternally helpful heritage of man is to work and not to rest.

The parents of our boys and girls are earnestly requested to keep their children at home in the out of school hours and see that the study. We need a greater spirit of earnestness. Thursday morning Francis Forbes will read "Bible pages" which are selected from the best from the scriptures of Friday morning we will have songs of praise to "The Show-

For Coughs and Colds

Troubled with a cough? A hard cold, bronchitis, or some chronic lung trouble? There is a medicine made for just these cases—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Your doctor knows all about it. Ask him what he thinks of it. No medicine can ever take the place of your doctor. Keep in close touch with him, consult him frequently, trust him fully. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of those experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. He thought that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an untailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

Fred Lake, a Mercer county convict, was pardoned and the figure 13 seems to control a very important event in his life. He was born on the 13th, was accused of committing an assault on his sister-in-law on the 13th, was arrested on the 13th, tried and convicted on the 13th, sentenced to 13 years in the penitentiary, was received at the penitentiary on the 13th, was pardoned on the 13th, and he is the 13th child of his parents. When he was released the money at the penitentiary awaiting for him amounted to $13 13.

The Floyd county, Ind. grand jury Saturday returned an indictment against Thomas Jefferson Hoel charging him with murder in the first degree in having shot and killed Jacob Hangary Fawcett, with the purpose of robbery. Hoel will be kept at the State reformatory at Jeffersonville pending his trial.

LIVINGSTON

He Dooley of Mullins Station, was here on business Saturday.—Uncle Elsha Carpenter is very low and not expected to live.—Charles Keener, of Pittsburgh, Ky., was with our merchants this week.—Mrs. Sue Mullins is repairing her house on Main street.—Eight boys of Jellico, Tenn., were here a few days ago, and is having his hair cut.—The L. & N. carpenters are re-building the oil and gas house which was burned down a week ago.

I our letter concerning the election of the Town Board we neglected to mention Hon. Sam Ward, who was elected a member also. We are sorry we failed to get his name, but man is simply a bundle of mistakes and we are not an exception to that rule.—H. Walton and H. W. Bowman have gone into the butcher business. Any one having any butchering to be done will do well to call on them. The reason we recommended them is because they are so swift with their work. They were six hours killing a calf and had a hand to help them.—W. H. Burton went to the Sinks Friday and arrested, Will Reece on the charge of selling whiskey and took him to Mt. Vernon.—John Seben and family left Saturday for Jackson county to attend the "Holy Rollers" meeting. They claim they are having a fine meeting there.

Charley Whitehead received a letter Friday from Stanton revealing to him that he was the father of a fine son. Oh, the impatience that poor Charlie did undergo from that time until the arrival of the train is not to be imagined or even guessed at. Mrs. Whitehead has been at Stanton for the past month.—Jim Wals, One and Mrs. James Mullins took their horses and went to Crooked Creek Saturday to take a weeks fox hunt. Any one wishing a good time should join the chase, for if ever any one enjoys it is a Mullins.—The Mormon, or "Latter Day Saints", are here trying to drum up a congregation here, they preached on the street Saturday to a few. We know it is not right to judge, but we judge them by their past history. They claim that Joe Smith and Brigham Young were true Prophets and they are followers of them. Now, we all well know the history of them and it fits not enough we know the history of the Mountain Meadow massacre in which 13 emigrant wagons were crossing the plains and their occupants were all killed, history says by Mormons and Indians. Of course there is no one here that believes in them, for there are none so ignorant as to believe in polygamy or a plurality of wives.—This morning the Mountain Elders checked their grips and shook the dust of their feet as a witness as they call it against Livingston and departed. Their absence is a pleasure. Of course none would believe their teachings except a few ignorant men and by a vertical woman, for after reading their history and knowing what we have learned about them even their name mentioned in our presence bites like a serpent and stings like an adder.

Mrs. Sue Mullins, who has put down more concrete than any other person in town has begun the repairing of her house. Gloomy lines does not worry her. We are bound to exclaim in the language of holy writ: "Blessed are the widows".

S. E. Pennington is painting his new house.—Mrs. Lou Jones, of Mt. Vernon is with her sister, Mrs. T. J. Pennington, here this week.—A Mr. Robinson of Jackson county, has moved into E. McClure's property on the peak of Pennsylvania.—App Taylor and E. J. Anderson have reduced their force on the section six men each. This is something they can't help but we are at a loss to know what will be next.—Charley Rice is the new fisher, Monday he landed a 10 pound bass. Jess Imminger, his fellow at that particular moment.—James Burton is working night at the restaurant.—All the boys to Knoxville to accept of training.—

THE DIME NOVEL.

The case of the 17 year-old boy of Louisville, Ky., who did a modern Jack Sheppard deed, with one man dead and two others dying, is laid at the door of sensational dime novels. Probably most of the inspiration for boy's deed came in just that way. Its cotinity is such that unless, he had been a child of the devil himself, he could not have nerve himself to its commission except by long and continuous reading and pondering of criminal methods as contained in stories of a certain type. In defense of the cheap type of blood and thunder story, with its "Bang! Bang!" of revolver shots, punctuating at stated intervals a narrative always dealing with bad characters, it may be urged that evil gets its just reward in the end and that good is triumphant. The hero is the young fellow who runs incredible risks and saves the heroine, or battles a hundred pursuers. That is true enough. But opposed to the good, in order to furnish the proper height of interest, there must be the bad also. The good people, it may be urged, are the only ones meant for emulation. But not unobscurely the bad people make just as deep and lasting an impression as the moral lesson of the cheap and highly colored tragedy goes by themselves just as often as not. Ordinarily one fails to see wherein the cheap novel does anything save to create a false notion of life, to furnish wrong ideals and to turn impressionable youths in the wrong direction.—Evansville Journal News.

Within the last few years there has been a tendency to regard the dime novel as an evil of the past. Boys of yesterday, now grown men, have recently been wont to tell of the unctual influences of the cheap trash which they used to read and to regard the tales of desperadoes and robbers bold as things of the past. The "yellow backs", however, seem to be abroad in the land and perhaps by quite as large a majority as ever. Apparently unalloyed as a result too much reading of dime novel variety, the toy bandit (Hoel) tried his hand at robbing shop down three in cold blood before he was finally captured and will have to answer for one murder, if not three.—South Bend Tribune.
