CIRCUIT COURT.

On account of the death of Mr. D. N. Williams but little business has been done in court this week, as most all the cases set for trial, were cases in which Attorney C. C. Williams was interested. The case against Harve Smith charged with the killing of Ewan O'Neal ten years ago was tried Wednesday. This is a case in which the defendant has been found guilty of manslaughter and was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year, married and was doing well, but deciding that he had lived in exile long enough, surrendered himself to the officials of Missouri, and was brought here in the early winter to stand trial, since which time he has been confined in the County Jail. There is only one living eye witness Harve Nicely, who at the time of the killing was only 8 years old.

W. M. Sower, Allen Berdette, Richard Proctor, Carroll Martin, F. E. Shively, W. M. Pennington and re-elected, serving in all nine years. He once made the race for Representative against the late Robert Cook, losing by only six votes, notwithstanding the district was overwhelmingly republican.

In his younger days he took an active part in political affairs, and his advice was always sought upon all political questions as well as other matters. In 1873 he was appointed County Court Clerk for one year, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of E. T. Fish, being elected at the next regular election and re-elected.

He was elected to the office of Representative against the late Robert Cook, losing by only six votes, notwithstanding the district was overwhelmingly republican.

In 1873 he was the contending candidate against the successful candidate for Register of the Land Office. On the 24th day of April, 1869, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Haley and to this union were born five children, to bless and honor this union, four sons and one daughter all of whom are still living; Amy C. C. Williams, a successful manager of the local bank, Judge R. G. Williams, County-morwellth's Attorney of the Kentucky district, M. C. Williams, a successful druggist of Somerset and John Williams a prosperous merchant of Los Angeles, California, and the daughter Mrs. Oud...

When the death of her husband who since been engaged in the millinery business in Mt. Vernon and made her home with her parents.

Besides his wife, sons and daughter, he leaves two brothers, Mr. J. C. Williams, 124 1/2 years old, who is more 90 years, and Mr. W. H. Williams, of Aztec, N. M., who is nearing his four score years, and one sister Mrs. J. W. Vanwinkle of Mt. Vernon.

Short services were conducted at the home by Mr. W. H. Cox, after which the remains were laid to rest in Elmwood cemetery, with Masonic honors, the deceased being one of the oldest members of order living in the county. Brown Memorial joined in the march and attended the funeral in a body.

But few men could claim more admiring friends than the deceased which was fully demonstrated by the large number of sorrowing friends who came far and near to pay their last respect.

Peace to his ashes glory to his immortal soul.

WILLIAMS--Mr. David N. Williams, aged 73 years, died at his home in our little city Monday night, after an illness which lasted him since last December. For several months he had been in poor health, suffering from attacks of heart failure and other complications--Last fall, he made the race for County Court Clerk and made a hard and vigorous fight, notwithstanding the fact that his body, who fully realized that he was unable for such a task, appealed to him time and again not to make the race, but in vain. The task he undertook, was too much for him, and the hardships and over-work lessened his days. For more than four months before the race he was unable to lie down, resting as best he could in his big arm chair. Sneezeing had opened he was apparently much improved, often walking up town, and each day would walk out over his premises. On last Sunday and up till 10 o'clock Monday he felt better than he had felt in months, writing several letters Monday morning. But alas! it was only a forerunner of what was soon to come. About 10 o'clock he told his family that he was hurting so, that he believed he was taking pneumonia. Gradually he grew worse, until at 1 o'clock when he passed into a state of unconsciousness and exactly at 2 o'clock the death angel knocked, and his spirit was waited to the God who gave it. The deceased had always been until his last illness a strong and vigorous man, strong in body and mind.

"SUNSHINE" SUNDAY.

Why should not every Sunday be a Sunshine Sunday? Why should not the admirable idea, which we will make bold to ascribe to our parent hearts' friend, A Gordon Murray, why should it not bear fruit of joy, uplift and of solace fifty-two times in the year? It is a strange thing, which we will not attempt to explain, but which nevertheless is demonstrably true, children considered en bloc do not feel at home in church, except on those stated occasions, when, as on Easter Sunday, the church is turned over to them and, if we may be permitted the unwarlike conjunction; they are given the center of the stage. Even then, those of lesser social brilliancy, those whose feathers are thin and bedraggled, those whose behavior needs curbing and controlling, who cannot be joyful without slighting to whom a whoop or a whistle is a safety valve, those feel sadly out of place for all they appear roughness and redness, for all their associated callousness and contempt; they are sensitive; they feel or imagine a slight, they nurse an inarticulate grievance, they are penetrated with the depressing conviction that either they are being persecuted as the evil example or else they are not wanted. The nation that Heaven, so far as it may be represented on earth, is peopled by well-dressed, well-fed, self-satisfied angels, somewhat amiably superior to the rest of the world.

Vernon Monday on business. - Dec Bryant, of Lebanon Junction, is here repairing his property. - The Livingston Lumber Co have men here at work on their saw mill and it will be just a few days until we can hear the welcome sound of the whistle and we will know then that a plant that has lain so long in idleness has awoken from its sleeping lethargy and has once more gone to work. - If I should not get a very long letter this week the readers can rest assured that it is on account of a very sore hand which I had the misfortune to get burned.

Col. Sam ward seems to be improving. - Dr. W. J. Childress was asked why it was that he had taken a notion to leave the county his answer was, "I want to get where there are good roads" he said that. "We have such poor roads here that it not only hurts a horse but kills a man". Well Mr. Shuts hurry up your good road talk and lets get better roads before we lose some more of our best citizens on the account of having roads. - Lev Livingston filed his regular appointment Saturday and Sunday. - Dr. R. G. Webb has purchased Dr. W. J. Childress house and lot, price paid $2000. - Dr. W. J. Childress and Lee Johnson were in Mt. Vernon Tuesday. - A. C. Carpenter one of the grand jurors is at home this week. - E. McClure is very sick at this writing. - Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Reynolds are in Louisville this week. - Miss Olive Lear is visiting Miss Lyda Cook this week. - Mr. G. D. Cook has moved into the Mullins hotel. - At present we are having a quiet time in old Livingston. - Seems like all are trying to attend strictly to their own business. - Now this suits me and I am hand to suit. - There read you here that took exception to what Lead about the heretofore being buried and peace being restored now I am for peace at any cost and who men who are recognized leaders in religion and educational circles should object to peace is more than I can comprehend while there has been accused of taking sides this might have been the case. - I mean it that way. I want to admit to advocate the peace.

error when we think we are doing right but I hope I will hear no more from the man that cross swords with me over what I said about peace.

CONTESTANTS GETTING BUSY.

IN THE SIGNAL'S BIG PIANO CONTEST.

VOTING ALREADY BEGUN.

Voting has already commenced, and as some of the young ladies are putting forth their best efforts the race promises to get pretty warm in the next few days. The girls who are now in the race seem to have the right spirit and are out to win it hustling will do.

If there are other young ladies both in Rockcastle or adjoining counties who would like to enter, we will be glad to have anyone send in their names as nominees. The person who nominates the successful contestant for the piano will be given a year's subscription to Taylor Trotwood Magazine. In case two nominate the same winner then the Magazine will be given to the person first making the nomination. A coupon for making nominations will be found in another column.

The piano to be given away this contest will arrive soon and will be placed on exhibition. The contestants are all well distributed in various parts of the county which will give each player an equal opportunity to win the piano. Besides the piano there will be other nice and valuable prizes. Every young lady entered will have an equal chance to win the piano or one of the special prizes.

The voting will be entirely fair to all contestants and will be the supervision of three judges whose honesty, integrity and fairness will not be questioned by anyone. Remember there is nothing like a good start if you want to win one of the handsome prizes offered, and nothing like keeping effortlessly at it after you have started. If you haven't been working hard and have been meeting only with ordinary success, begin now and redouble your efforts for, you know nothing succeeds like success and success comes only to those who persevere. There are plenty of persons who are ready to become subscribers merely for the asking and it only remains for the asking and it only remains for some energetic young lady to secure them.
