Sutton has purchased the stock of groceries of S. T. Proctor and will continue the business in the old stand. Fossalik—between 300 and 400 good red oak trees for sale. Will furnish wills. J. T. PURCELL, Mt. Vernon, Ky. W. C. Kirby has purchased the building now occupied by S. B. Ramsey for a butcher shop, and will move his restaurant from the Brown property. R. E. Brown will occupy the building now occupied by Kirby. Some one has been paying frequent visits to Judge J. T. Proctor after his business hours but as they were very liberal with the Judge and took in such small amounts, that it took some time for him and his clerk, W. M. Rowe, to get up their suspicion. Judge Adams is pretty sure he has the red spotted, but as yet has never evaluated the same. He is making further developments. Sales: I will sell at private sale between the 10th, and 25th of this month the following household goods: a folding bed and mattress, 6 dining tables, 6 side board, 6 dining chairs, 1 leather chair, 1 rock, 1 wicker chair, 1 Morris chair, 1 rocking chair, 1 parlor chair, 1 gasolene stove and oven, a gasolene lamp, 1 lawnmower and garden implements. M. L. Myers.

Very respectfully, Mrs. MARTIN E. PRICE, Feb 17 1911 Level-Crown, Ky. The latest and most improved manager of speaking (thieves) is to place a few more pipes along their path for them to run over, and when practicable run the pipe at the head of the 'Bigger' Big of steps in the house in when it starts to fall, will go to the bottom. Ask Judge Adams and Bill Rowe how it works.

Circuit Court Clerk S. F. Bowman is certainly proving himself a faithful and efficient clerk, and the splendid arrangement of his office, he deserves much credit. He has supplied the boxes for every set of papers, and all papers in the office have been put in, in the proper place, so that now, those who have papers there can go and find them and it only requires a few moments to do it. It has required a little effort to put the office in the condition which he now has it, and it affords us much pleasure to be able to say him this just what he deserves, a compliment. The records of the county clerk's office mean too much to each citizen individually and the county as a whole, for the records not to be carefully preserved.

Telephone, Hints—Two of three turns of crank by local subscribers is sufficient to throw "drop" at central. After ringing wait some ten seconds before ringing again, giving operator time to answer. Violent or prolonged ringing is unnecessary. When you wish to make two or more calls, tell operator when first call is made; it helps things along faster. The telephone under various conditions is a nerve racking institution, and users as well as operators, should curb their tempers. The operator has the hardest part to contend with answering hundreds of calls, but takes no time in ringing back and exercising. If all users would study just a little bit, the operators and offices found by telephone operators and the service would be improved and be more satisfactory to all concerned.

To build a big store, first build a big merchant. Emerson said that "an institution was but the lengthened shadow of one man." It is no greater than its owner. It will grow up to the stature of his biggest ideas, but not larger. Big stores in this town is growing up to its owner's size. So no matter how small it is to day it will become as big as he determines it shall be. For your "natural merchant" is a big advertiser. He may be able just now to use but a small space, but he is getting ready to use a big space. And he uses the small space persistently to get the advertising as inevitable a part of his operations as anything else—and aiming at a constant expansion of the space used. That sort of merchant will build a big store for his, potentially, a big merchant already.

Sheriff T. J. Nicely and Deputy Cam Mullins, had an experience at the St. Charles hotel, Hamilton O., which they do not care to have repeated. They were in search of some parties charged with misdemeanors and had gone to Hamilton to locate them. In the hotel gas is used for lighting purposes, and when they retired, they turned off the gas in the usual way. In a short time a porter came to their room to investigate about the escape of the gas, but Messrs Nicely and Mullins as well as the porter, feeling sure after investigation, that every thing was all right, the porter went about his business and Nicely and Mullins went off to sleep. In about an hour a policeman and the porter again came to their room, this time to find Mr. Mullins partially under the influence. It was after some effort that they were able to arouse him. Up to this time Mr. Mullins had no effect on Sheriff Nicely. An officer said Sheriff Nicely, thirty minutes later, Mr. Mullins would have been so far gone that it would have been impossible to have revived him. On investigation it was learned that less than six months ago two men were found dead in this same room from asphyxiation. It was an experience that neither Mr. Nicely or Mr. Mullins want to have repeated.

I have a fine lot of "Mason's" Fringing perfect finished at Standford, Ky. The 47 inch fence at 25¢ each a rod, the 25 inch at 20¢ each a rod and so on. P. H. BOWEN, Feb 27 1911 Standford, Ky. WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES.

The Woman's Club continues to grow both in interest and membership. Back and every meeting is well attended. The Club holds its bi-monthly on a social meeting each month. The January social meeting with Mrs. Watson, deserves special mention, in that it was a "good roads" program. Great enthusiasm was shown by the number of gentlemen present, and the responses to calls for speeches were generous.

Prof. Houston and Rev. Watson have given delightful entertainment at the social meetings with readings. Victor Tate has also added pleasure to these occasions with solos. The Washington-Lincoln meeting was held with Mrs. Mat Williams on last Friday evening. The decorations with the National flags were in keeping with patriotic programs which consisted of National airs as address by Judge Bethune, readings from a "Perfect Tribute" by Miss McCard, and a paper by Mrs. Watson on Colonial and Present Day Women—a contrast. The costumes of the members emphasized this contrast.

The patriotic colors were carried out in the dainty refreshments served. A vote of thanks was extended to the Town Board for the street lights that are being installed. Many of the plans of the Club have been perfected and the consummation of other work will be carried out as soon as possible.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson.

The withdrawal of Congressman Ben Johnson from the gubernatorial race for the Democratic nomination came as a great surprise to his friends. It is said but seeing the handwriting upon the wall, this is certainly the most graceful method to be pursued in a losing game. The people of the state have already spoken in unmistakable terms, and James B. McCreezy no matter who stays on or who comes off, will be the next nominee of the Democratic party for Governor. With Ollie James holding down the seat in the United States Senate now held by the chief champion of Lottimes and McCreezy in the gubernatorial seat now occupied by Gussie, what better could the people want or desire?

TORTURED FOR 15 YEARS by a cure-defying stomach trouble that baffled doctors, and resisted all remedies he tried, John W. Modders, of Moddersville, Mich., seemed doomed. He had to sell his farm and give up work. His neighbors said, "he can't live much longer." He was raised a tinner and later developed into a mechanic, is a carpenter and electrician and a fine political stealer, and will begin his campaign in earnest that he intends to carry the campaign even in the enemy's own locality, and when the roll is called on voting on a bill he will answer, A. N. Beutly. So boys, you are all my friends, and I would dislike very much to see anyone of you beat, but you had better get your fighting clothes on. I am not in this fight as I am a hard shell Democrat. If you see I can start a political row, then I will do all I can to pay some of the Republicans back that start trouble in the Democratic ranks.

law suit On last Wednesday George and John Mounce came to the dept and claimed they had a trunk there, but had forgotten to bring their duplicate check. When the agent told them he could not deliver the trunk to them without the check, George got mad and began to use all kinds of language, which would not sound good in print. He swore that on the arrival of 22, he would whip the agent, but when 22 whittled they took themselves backward. The next morning the agent got a warrant for them and Lee Johnson took the papers and went and arrested Mounce who gave bond; and that night made good his escape. It is said they walked to Mt. Vernon and boarded the train between two days. No wonder Livingston has such a name when we have such as this to content with.

Nature makes the cures after all. Now and then she gets into a tight place and needs helping out. Things get started in the wrong direction. Something is needed to check disease and start the system in the right direction toward health. Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with hypophosphites can do just this. It strengthens the nerves, feeds famished tissues, and makes rich blood.

"I Suffered Intense Pains in My Left Side."

Do you realize it is better to be safe than sorry, that it is the best policy to lock the stable door before the horse is stolen. Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy cured Mrs. C. C. Gokley, of a stubborn case of heart disease, such as thousands are now suffering with. Read, write and say: "I should never be able to sleep again. The least excitement would bring on a severe attack of palpitation. I had scarcely been a half-hour in bed before I would be up with a great gasp, and I would take six or seven deep breaths before I could get to sleep. I was cured by Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy."

If you have any of the symptoms Mrs. Gokley mentions, if you need Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy, it is where you need it. If you do not have the faith to believe it will be returned. Ask your druggist for more information.
