LIVINGSTON

John Lear, traveling salesman for the Paris Grocery Co., was here Tuesday—Mrs. C. E. Rice is on the sick list this week—Mr. Pittman, of Pittsburg is visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. J. Sams, at this place—Ed Woodall, of London, was here between trains Thursday.—We have not been fishing yet but think in the near future we will stroll off with a party of fishers in search of our portion of the sunny tribe.

We are having a season of quietude in Livingston at the present, no fight on any lawless doings now, the devil must be chained, or it is the calm preceding a storm, so we are having a lone feast just at the present—Judge Beharum and Circuit Clerk, Hugh Miller, were in our town Friday.—Mrs. J. C. McGuire has returned to her home at East Bernsadt after a weeks visit to relatives here—Col Ben Ward was in town Sunday.—Uncle Geo. Pope confabulates about the same.—There is some talk of the Right Gables hotel changing management; Jones will retire and John Ponce will take charge—Miss Rebecca J. Woodson, one of Livingston's pretty girls, is visiting in Laurel county this week—Judge Joe Messer, of Crab Orchard, is here this week armed with a mignon bucket and fishing tackle—L. H. Davis and others left to day for a two days' fishing trip up the river.

Mrs. Ab Sparks and children, of Mt. Vernon, have been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. D. Mingo—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hearn, of London, have been visiting Mrs. Sine Mallins at this place—Mrs. Nora Jenkins and children are visiting in Louisville this week—Chief Dempsey Lemond has returned from Paris, Tenn.—Mrs. A. W. Bourne and Mrs. C. A. Blanford were in London Saturday.—E. Baker, of Mt. Vernon, was here Monday—Rev. Livingston will preach here the first Sunday and Sunday in each month—Dock Jones, of the Sand Hill section, is confined to his bed with rheumatism.—Mrs. Oscar Argenbricht, and children are visiting in Corbin—Miss Grace Griffin is visiting relatives at Besset Patch this week—J. H. Dickerson has moved into his new brick store room, and we want to say that his store is hard to beat—E. L. Cockrell is moving his stock of goods into the J. S. Calloway store room—S. E. Pennington is having a new fence built around the hotel—Mr. Thomas Farley has repaired his house by putting new roofs on them.—The Livingston Lumber Co. have started their mill again; the section has taken on a lot of new hands and there is plenty of work for those that want to work, but the hardest job for some is to try to keep out of work.

A very sad affair occurred a few nights ago when Oscar Ponder, son of Dan Ponder, while trying to jump on a moving train had his foot so badly mangled that the doctors amputated it just below the knee. What ever caused the boy to do this knowing the danger as he did, is a puzzle to us. He is a splendid boy much fishing now in the river in Livingston. Fishing parties are to be seen on all sides. There have not been many caught yet. The luckiest man up to the present is B. Hagan, who always catches his share.—Judge Chennault of Richmond, who owns a tract of land down the river on which is located a coal mine, is here, surveying. We have not learned his intentions, but judge that he intends to operate the mine.—Edgar Mellins, traveling salesman of Mt. Vernon, was in our city Tuesday.—Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, Jr. were in Mt. Vernon Tuesday visiting relatives—John Graves, of the Sand Spring section, was in our town Saturday.—"Old Neech" as he is familiarly known, is still as full of life as ever—Well, after we had our almshouse aside and upon rising a few mornings thereafter, we beheld the greenness. The trees had put forth their leaves, the grass was putting forth its blades, the birds were singing new songs, you could hear the farmer humming a Spring time melody as he gazed about his planting. Soon the fragrant flowers will put forth their beautiful blossoms; then, we say, no more all nature smiles in the Spring time.

LEVEL GREEN

Mrs. Louisa Broyles of our town, was visiting here last week—W. E. L. Brown, of Somerset, spent Sunday with his mother here—Miss Jennie and Joe Davis and Mrs. J. S. McKenzie, of Mt. Vernon, were here last Friday to attend the burial of their grandmother, Mrs. Denny.—The farmers are busy now planting corn. A great many of them are trying it this year without fertilizer. They think they will save the money they would have spent for fertilizer to buy corn with next year.

We were in the city of Lexington last Sunday afternoon.—Born to the wife of Ray Johnson on the 11th inst.—Floyd Gentry, who has been attending school at Pitts has returned to his home near Quail.—There is still more fraternal coming over and attending schools. We can count on five of our nearest schools that have employed Public School teachers. Of course if they were qualified they could get certification and teach in their own county, but they are not and therefore not the desirable teachers out of these schools. There are four boys and girls that their parents agree upon without their consent to send them to school to educate them, that will be knocked out of school by outsiders, which I think the trustees and Superintendent should put an end to.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Price spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. T. P. Price—Mrs. Katie Catron is being visited by the little child of Sim Denny, that has diphtheria, is almost dead and there is some hope of its recovery—J. M. Craig was in this section Tuesday evening wool at the very low price of 15 cents, while others are offering only 10 cents—"Uncle Bill" has been very sick for the past two weeks.

On last Friday at four o'clock P. M. death claimed for its victim "Old Ains" Billie Denny, aged 83 years. She was raised in this county but about 18 years ago she moved to Missouri and lived there until something near a year ago, when her son brought her back to Kentucky, and since that time has lived at the home of A. C. Nowder, where she was attended with the greatest care till the end came.

BROODHEAD

Rev. J. W. Carter and wife are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Carter. Mrs. Carter will probably stay in Brodhead until June.—Mrs. Susie Sharp and son, Carl, have returned home from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Stewart, at Delaware, Ohio. Zebulon Wallin and wife met them in Cincinnati—Mrs. T. J. Pennington and children, of Livingston, have been visiting Mrs. O. A. Frith.—Miss Carrie Spoonamore who has been with her brother, P. A. Shelton, for several months will return to Louisville soon to take another treatment from Charles Whitmore.

A crowd of the young folks attended the party given by Joseph Carter, at his home on the ranch last Saturday night. Everyone had a delightful time. Last Saturday night they went on a hay ride to a party at the home of Robert Taylor in Mareburg and another good time was reported and Sunday the same crowd attended the dedication of the new church at Hilt, by Rev. A. J. Pike—Dick Newland the insurance man from Stanford was in town Tuesday—Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hilton, of Stanford spent from Saturday until Monday morning with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Case—Margaret J. Collier and Miss Clara Collier, of Crab Orchard were in town Wednesday advertising for the play entitled "Brother Josiah", which was played here Thursday night.—Roy Robins is looking very bad after taking the third degree in the night of P. Tuesday night at Crab Orchard.—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cherry spent

MEMBER OF KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION

Senator James B. McCreary speaks vigorously in the interest of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor at Burlington Boone county last week. He made known his views on some of the most important questions of the day.

He said he favored the divorcement of the state penal institution from politics and an examination and inspection of banking institutions. He also declared for the election of the United States Senators by the direct vote of the people. He said in part:

References have been repeatedly made to a convention to adopt a platform and also to certain State questions now being discussed. In the interest of the harmony and united Democracy I am in favor of a State convention of Democrats to be held after the primary election is held to adopt a platform. The plan of holding a State convention and adopting a platform after the primary election is held has been urged to Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee and other Southern States and gave satisfaction.

I am in favor of general improvement of our educational system. There should be better schools better school houses and more of them, and more school children in attendance, and better pay for the teachers, and there should be county high school in every county as authorized by the existing school law. Education is the foundation of progress and if the people are properly and intelligently educated, necessary progress is sure to come.

There should be such legislation as will provide better roads and bring the roads in each county of Kentucky to a high state of efficiency. The cost of bad roads is a continuing heavy expense and the best remedy is the construction of good roads.

Tax revision is desired by many persons, and it is asserted that the business interests of the State demand it. Two commissions, after considering this subject reported in favor tax revision. If I am honored by being elected Governor, I will improve any bill passed by the General Assembly providing for the submission to the voters of the State an amendment to the constitution of Kentucky Assembly to revise our present tax system. This important matter will thus be left to the voters of the state to decide whether the General Assembly shall be authorized to revise tax system.

I favor divorcement of the State penal institutions from politics and nonpartisan management of the State Fair, and of the farmers' institutes required to be held in each county.

I favor business examination and inspection of banks; election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people; organization and co-operation among our farmers and also among laboring men, faithful upholding of the cardinal principle written by Thomas Jefferson, which declares in favor of freedom of religion, and also of that part of the Constitution of the United States which declares religious qualification never required as a qualification to any office of public trust under the United States, and which is also substantially set forth in Section 5 of the Constitution of Kentucky.
