LOCAL
Brodhead Fair Aug. 15 17 18

If you get it at Fish's the quality is all right.
Remember our motto—Do it for Mt. Vernon!
Will Cox bought of Harvey Owens 2 calves for $25.00.
Are you doing your part to make Mt. Vernon the city beautiful?

Jones Fish says that shortly we will have a pike out the Richmond road for the people are determined to have it. But what of the one across the hill?
Need—Our people are greatly in need of less selfishness and much more generosity. Let us get together as one big family working for the good of all. We want more united efforts and with them will come better results.

Judge B. J. Bethuram offers a premium at the Brodhead Fair for the best suckling colt any sex under 6 mos. old confined to Rock-castle Co., as follows $7.50 to first $5 to second and $2.50 to third. This kind of premium offering will do much good.
Farmers—Get your stock ready for the Brodhead Fair, it offers for the best mare or horse milk colt under six months old $7.50 to first; $5 for second and $2.50 for the third premium. These three premiums are confined to Rock-castle county. Also for the best mare milk colt under six months old $4, to first and $1 second and for the best horse milk colt under six months old $3 to first and $2 to second. A farmer can show his milk colt to two of these rings and has five chances to win.

The ladies of the Christian church have just had put down a hard-wood floor in the church building at their own expense and now the men of the congregation have gotten together and purchased new and up-to-date seats which will add much to the looks and well as the comfort of the church.
Mrs. W. J. Sparks, Mrs. Cleo W. Brown, Mrs. M. B. Salin, Mrs. Annie McElroy, Mrs. R. E. Gentry, Mrs. A. G. Lovell, Mrs. W. M. Poynter, Mrs. Meaback Gentry, Mrs. S. D. Lewis and Miss Mattie B. Williams worked earnestly to make these improvements and are entitled to much credit for the success of it.

Round trip ticket to Lexington for $2.70 Aug. 5 to 12 inclusive limited to Aug. 15 on account of Blue Grass Fair.
Remember you don't have to buy a lot to participate in the Barbecue or to get a chance on the free lot, Come to these Aug. 14th, 10 o'clock.
This is the season of opportunity for city improvements were it not for that restraining order called a temporary injunction and all more temporary it is the better it will be for the welfare of our people.

W. M. Fields and sons have purchased the stock of General Merchandise of Dr. G. P. Price at Level Green. They began invoicing Tuesday and the new firm will take charge at once. John, the oldest son will be general manager.
Mr. W. J. Sparks was asked the other day what he thought of the result of Mt. Vernon's legal tangle. Very unfortunate, says he and it will injure the city, that is certain. The question should be quickly settled and the work of improving the city go on. We want to improve in every way possible and we have no time to lose.

Bonds—The trustees of the Graded School met in the office of the President, W. J. Sparks on Tuesday last and opened the bids for the bonds ordered to be sold. Judge R. G. Williams got $200,000 worth of them and R. H. Haman $100,000, the other $30,000 will be sold later as the board needs the money. Miss Webster, of Louisville, has been employed as primary teacher which completes the list of teachers for the coming year.
The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sparks was thrown open on last Tuesday afternoon, the event being a "shower" in honor of Miss Kisse Williams, the bride-elect of Mr. James Goleman West. Miss Sparks, the hostess, gowned in a pretty lingerie frock as busy assisted in extending the courtesies by her mother. Mrs. W. J. Sparks, Mrs. Fannie Adams Miss Bessie Sparks and Miss Mattie Williams. The bride elect was unusually charming in a white gown with dainty touches of pink and graciously received the numerous and beautiful gifts. Later in the afternoon ices and bou-bons bearing the insignia of love were served. Some fifty guests attended the happy affair, greatly enjoying the occasion.

The Republicans of the 5th Magisterial district will assemble at Red Hill on Saturday, the 21st of this month, to nominate a successor to the late Squire Chesley Paype. The voters of that district should rally to the call and some wide-awake, progressive man who has a high appreciation of the important duties of that office should be chosen. The Magistrates control the entire fiscal affairs of the county and the people should be deeply concerned in selecting the very best and up-to-date business man that can be found and then urge him to accept it. If this contention should fail in this particular, the Democrats should nominate such a man and the country-loving Republicans vote for him or have the Independent Republicans choose a candidate and the Democrats vote for him.

In other words give the people of this county a real, first class Magistrate from that district.
AN AUCTION SALE AT BROD-HEAD—We are reliably informed that J. Thos. Cherry has sold his farm in Brodhead to the Henry Reaty Co., of Paris, Kentucky. This is a beautiful tract of land and if we are rightly informed, these people are going to sell a portion of this land in residence lots on Aug. 14th to the highest bidder, giving very liberal terms to the purchasers. This will be quite a nice addition to Brodhead and will add greatly to the school and town generally. These people come to us well recommended and we feel that we will get a square deal at their hands. Last but not least there will be one nice lot given away not to the purchasers, but to every white man or lady who attends this sale will be given a ticket which entitles them to draw that lot free for. There will also be a barbecue served free of charge. We can see no reason why this sale should not be a success. Watch for their ad in next weeks paper and remember the date.

JUDGE BETHURUM'S CHARGE.

The charge delivered by Judge Bethurum to the grand jury at the special term of court at Somerset called to investigate the murder of Magistrate A. B. Beatty and Constable W. P. Heath, by James Ellis and Fount Helton at Burnside, was considered the strongest charge ever delivered to a grand jury in the Somerset Court House.

Believing there to be much contained therein which can be applied in our own county, we copy the charge in full: "I believe that a speedy trial of persons charged with crime is absolutely essential and necessary to the proper administration and enforcement of the criminal laws of our Commonwealth. Delay is the favorite weapon of the criminal. They all play for time with the view of feebly wear[ing] out the case. He knows that with each continuance of his case the chances for an acquittal are greatly improved. Of course he does not know how, but he hopes for some thing to happen to his benefit. In the first place, he wants public sentiment to die out. He realizes that public sentiment is a powerful influence in bringing the criminal to punishment, and he figures that with this gone and out of the way, his battle for freedom is more than half won; then he hopes to be able to get new and valuable evidence in his own behalf either by bribery or otherwise, and, again, there is a probability of the death or removal from the State of important and material witnesses for the State.

"All these things and hundreds of others induce the criminal to fight for a postponement of his case. My policy as Judge is to favor the accused as little as possible along these lines, and to force them to trial as speedily as possible under our practice and consistent with justice and fairness both to the State and the accused. In my judgment, an official, in adhering to this policy and determining what will do more to reduce crime in this district than anything else that he can do; it will strengthen the faith of the people in the power and virtue of the law. It will lessen the clamor of the people for mob violence, and lynchings will be less frequent in the future than in the past."

Continuing, he said: "I am not here to pass upon the question of the guilt or innocence of the two defendants, Ellis and Helton, who are charged with this crime. That is a question that is left entirely with the trial jury. I am not acquainted with the facts in this case, and will not be, till the evidence is heard in the regular way. It is true that I have been told about what has been done at the time of this killing, but I shall not be influenced by that. But if I am correctly informed of the facts connected with this killing, Pulaski county has never been cursed with a more diabolical and brutal murder than the one you are to investigate."

"The county has witnessed some of the blackest murders known to criminal annals; men have been killed and burned for their money, and women have been brutally outraged and young girls have fallen victims of savage scoundrels, and their happy lives have been rendered worthless, and all this has happened in this county, but if all accounts are true, in point of brutality and savagery the killing of Beatty and Heath hasn't a parallel in the history of the county. It seems that there was no excuse for the killing, but we can't say what the trial will develop. I promise that their trial shall be fair and that all their constitutional rights will be fully protected."

"I learn that there was talk of a lynching in Burnside on the evening of this unfortunate killing, but I am proud that the good, sensible, law-abiding citizens of that good town asserted themselves and that a situation so grave and serious was so controlled that the great county was spared the disgrace that a lynching by an mob would have brought to Burnside, while it has its lawless element, is blessed with some of the finest people in the world; and it is due to their good judgment and wise counsel that no trouble or disturbance followed this killing, and we are all deeply indebted to them for this manifestation of love for law and order upon their part. They are to be congratulated for their splendid self control at a time when men's souls were being tried. It speaks volumes as to their worth and character as law-abiding, high-toned citizens, opposed to lawlessness in every form.

"But these good people have been unusually patient, and they have just cause for complaint on account of this killing. It is like waving the red flag in a bull's face. They are justified in the belief that the town has been wantonly outraged by the shedding of the blood of their officers. These men as officials, were engaged in a battle royal with the worst element of the blind tiger brigade, and in this battle for supremacy of law and order upon the one side and the tiger" upon the other it was manifest that the blind tiger was about to hoist the white flag, and the friends of temperance were beginning to feel that Burnside was saved, and that the tigers were doomed to inevitable extinction.

"The citizens were backing the officials, and all were working together. And at this time, when hope was in the heart of every lover of law and order and their breasts were swelled with the glory of their achievements, these lawless men swoop down upon them, and kill the officials who won for them the battle.

"I say that, in the light of all these things, the people have a right to be aroused, and it is natural for them to feel that they have been outraged, and that the laws have been prostituted. I don't blame them for their activity in this prosecution. They would be true to their colors if they should show the white feather at this time.

It has not been many months since a desperate tiger man assaulted the Hon. E. T. Wesley, a prominent lawyer of this bar, and cruelly beat him about the head and face for no other reason than Wesley was engaged in prosecuting him for violating the local option law. This was a foul outrage upon decency, and was an open insult to every decent person in the county. All this is referred to in order that the public may understand how desperate these persons are and to what extremes they will go in order to thwart the officers and defeat the purposes of the law. So matters have gone on and the struggle continued, with the law and order forces gaining ground, until the tiger men became so desperate that it is freely charged by good people that the death of these two officials were ordained. These people assert that there is a principle involved in this matter that is of far greater consequence to this county than the loss of human life, and they demand the punishment of these defendants, not alone as punishment for murder, but as a vindication of the law, and for the vindication of the principal for which they are fighting, and they call upon all the good citizens of this county to stand by them in this the supreme struggle of their lives for the supremacy of the law and the extermination of the blind tigers in their community.

"Gentlemen, I often say to the grand juries in charging them that if we could rid this land of the boot-legger and blind tiger we would have the battle for law enforcement forever won. This law is difficult of enforcement. The customers of the tiger will hedge and often bear false witness rather than indict the offender. Although difficult to enforce this law it can be done. I am committed to the declaration that before my term of office expires there will not be a single tiger doing business in this entire district, and I propose to make good that declaration. I have great faith in the strength of the people and in their ability to enforce the law. My purpose is to arouse the people to a sense of their duty, and urge upon them the necessity of their cooperation with the officials in this business of enforcing the law.

"The officers are powerless to correct evils and enforce the law unless they have a healthy public sentiment behind them. The people must encourage the officers. I want to warn the people of this county that their part in this matter of government is not complete until finished when the ballot is deposited and the official is elected. It is their duty, as good citizens desiring good government and strict enforcement of the law to keep the officials posted as to the violations of law, and to do any and all things necessary to help bring the offenders to justice. You can't shut your eyes to all these evils and refuse to help punish the offenders and then with any sort of conscience, abuse an official for not detecting the criminal. You must bear your part of the burden, and this you can't escape and be a good citizen.

"These officials at Barnside were receiving the proper encouragement from the citizens of that town. The absence of this liquor business was broken, but required the sacrifice of two lives to do it, or at least two lives were given as a sacrifice upon the altar of reform. You know that if it had not been for this infamous blind tiger business today these two men would be alive with their families at home. Instead they are asleep in death, and their families are bowed down under a perfect mountain of sorrow and bereavement, with nothing but the generous hand of charity to sustain them.

"I appeal to the good citizenship of this county to do your whole duty and redouble your efforts to the end that these tigers be exterminated, these enemies of the human family, these curses that have wrecked more homes, produced more crime, destroyed more manhood, sent more souls to perdition and filled more asylums for the insane than all the combined evils that the world has known."

Henry of the Herry Realty Co., Paris, Ky. The company is now grading some nice streets from West St., running to Fair ground in College St. and streets running in same direction as Silver and Main St. This will mean a great gain for the town. On August 4th at 10 o'clock a. m. will be a lot sale and some beautiful and valuable sites can be obtained. Free dinner will be given to all who attend and a free lot given away. To each man or woman attending will be given a ticket that will entitle them to a chance on the lot. Remember the date.

THIRTY YEARS TOGETHER

Thirty years of association think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—the worthlessness of a bad one. So there's no guess work in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years and its best cough and cold cure I ever used." One of its finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it forty years. It's the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hay-fever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs. Price 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Chas. C. Davis.

The first passenger train was run to Harlan three weeks since it was greeted by hundreds of cheering natives.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

Spiced hot and cold lunch at all hours at Wallin's Restaurant. The survey of Skaggs Creek pike has been finished to town limits and everything will soon be ready for bids on construction.

Geo. White, a G-trard county farmer, and Miss Ethel Giles of Lincoln county drove in town Tuesday morning and were married at the Court House. The Rev. T. C. Duke said the word that made them man and wife.

Change—T. Proctor is getting ready to move his residence back 30 ft. from the sidewalk and raise it 2 ft. higher. With the fence down and these improvements made he will have a very attractive home. Tom is a progressive man and believes in building up all the time.

OUR MISTAKE—In the large circulars printed this week for U. G. Baker, our type read under the head of 'Staps' 4 bars Big Deal for ten cents and 100 bars for $2.00. It should have read 4 bars Big Deal 15 cents and 100 bars $2.50. Read the adv on last page in this issue where you will find it corrected and as it should have read on circular.

Regular services at the Baptist church Monday Aug. 6th conducted by the pastor subject 11 a. m. The Church and its Power Acts 2:38-39 Subject 7:45 p. m. The Fruit of the Spirit, Gal. 5:22. Sunday School to a. m. Baptising 4 p. m. Public cordially invited to attend all these services. Special invitation to the stranger with a year given.

The rats has stopped the marble game in front of the court house. "Shoe," "hold back," "pin judgment," "roll up," "vent backs," "fads on mudder," "fat," "reverse," "knuckle down," "no plumping," "picks," "my lag," "your go," "my go," "ring em up," "first shoot," "Joe's last shoot" and like expressions have been a dead issue for one day at least.—Hyden Banner.

Election—Tomorrow is election day in each school district (though out Rockcastle in which school will be elected the ten year plan coming year. Rally boys, and hit flag for higher education. Set the best and most progressive man possible. The school per capita this year for this county is $4.36 for which each district should have good service; hence the school should be well attended.

Street—What a beautiful street Newcomb Ave. would be if her side-walks were completed and the street graded and macadamized well. This could be done by issuing bonds on the ten year plan. And the expense would be no cash paid that no one would feel as hardship at all. Wake up gentlemen, along that beautiful highway and do something that will not only help the town but benefit you individually. Let all this time speak at once.

In sending a telegram a written message is filed with operator. It usually requires from two to five hours and often even longer to get a reply. It does no good to show impatience either. Just let the same person put in a long distance telephone call and wait ten minutes for answer to his call, he, or she, is almost willing to make oath they have been waiting an hour; and if two hours passes by they simply say "it takes all day to reach anybody over this old phone I will send a postal card." People show wonderful patience in some things but not with the telephone.

Lecture—President R. H. Crossfield of Transylvania University, Lexington, delivered a very forcible lecture at the Graded School building on Thursday night of last week which was a strong appeal to our people to give the people more interest in the education of their children. Prof. T. A. Houston introduced the speaker before which the audience was highly entertained by a beautiful solo by Mrs. Anna Miller and Miss Mae Miller, a piano solo by Miss Lella Mae Lovell and a vocal solo by Miss Margaret McCall.

"GOING SOME" Guess it's going some to have reputation of selling the BEST Furniture Rugs Carpets and House Furnishings in this section of Kentucky. That's what they all say, and I am proud to state, I can prove it. I'll take pleasure in showing you the NEWEST that's NEW.

This fact ought to encourage those who earn moderate incomes. It ought to induce them to do something toward accumulating a worth-while provision for the future. We maintain that a savings account at this bank (an account in which the owner is REALLY INTERESTED) is an investment hard to beat. Yours truly, PEOPLES BANK. PHONE 46.

Williams, George Livesay, S. H. Martin. ATTACK LIKE TIGERS: In fighting to keep the blood pure and white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt-rheum and sores multiply and break and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bile to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys; and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahar, of Tracy, Calif. "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. See at Chas. C. Davis. School—The Graded school is soon to open. All should be deeply interested in its success. The sidewalks have been ordered along the street leading to it for a long time and yet they have not all been put down.

Bad Spells "I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 3 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed." TAKE THE CARDUI Woman's Tonic. If you are weak and ailing, think what it would mean to you, to recover as quickly as Mrs. Navy did. For more than 50 years, this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, has been used by thousands of weak and ailing sufferers. They found it of real value in relieving their aches and pains. "Why suffer longer? A remedy that has relieved and helped so many is ready at the nearest drug store, for use at once, by you. Try it, today. With an Ladies' Advisory Diet, Chamberlain's Medicine Co., Chalmers, N. C. See Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent free.

ACCUSED OF STEALING H. B. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Mo., boldly accuses Rockcastle Anna Salve of stealing—she being from here. He reads the path from stores of all kinds—the dirt trail from four piles on piles. "It robs your store, and your name," he says, "is being ruined." He says, "I was healing remedy it equal don't exist." Only 25c at Chas. C. Davis.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA I suffered intensely after eating and no medicine or treatment I tried seemed to do any good." writes H. M. Youngsters, Editor of The Sun, Lake View, Ohio. "The first few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets gave me surprising relief and the second bottle seemed to give me a new stomach and perfectly good health." For sale by Chas. C. Davis.
