Mount Vernon has had an era of prosperity pleasing to us all. In the past ten years she has nearly tripled in population. There is now an educational awakening, the result of which we have two schools the joy and pride of our hearts. Our Sunday schools are larger than ever before and all our churches are enjoying a period of success never before experienced.

justly owe. Wise and sober counsel must prevail. We must reason together in good humor. Selfishness must give way, and in its place should rise a more liberal feeling and a greater desire to see our community enlarge and prosper.

The current issue of The Review of Reviews, under the caption of "Kentucky's Choice for the Senate," has the following about the Hon. Ollie James: "While the Senators at Washington have been discussing the propriety of allowing the voters to elect Senators by direct vote, the tendency in many States to and ways to deprive the Legislature of all discretion in this important matter has been manifest to an extent that shows the impossibility of a return of the spirit of the constitutional method."

It seems that nothing can be done but a movement made in Republican circles in Kentucky until Senator Bradley is consulted. But if the Senator's advice is always followed there is likely to result sometimes as much dissatisfaction among the faithful as was and is still manifested over the ousting of Postmaster W. S. Fisher, of Lexington, and the appointment of William Smith to the position.

It is an iniquitous and infamous principle that gives the double advantage to the one side or to the other, of winning a majority of votes in a county, or failing in that, of securing a majority of votes in a county, or failing in that, of securing a majority of the votes in certain precincts of the same county.

Through all time there have been people old-fashioned, enough to believe that whole wheat flour, stone-ground, is far and above better than the kind of flour in general use today; and now others are coming to believe that there may be something to this old-fashioned notion.

ATTACK LIKE TIGERS. In fighting to keep the blood pure and white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, saltiness and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "It is the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Rudahn, of Tracy, Calif., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood corpuscles and build up your health. Try them, soc. at Chas. B. Davis' CASTORIA For Infants and Children. William F. Ramsey, 75 years of age, secretary of the L. H. Ramsey syndicate and one of the best known citizens of Lexington, died this week after a brief illness of peritonitis. He formerly resided in Standish, where he was a prominent cattleman.

He enjoyed the distinction of never having smoked, chewed or tasted intoxicating liquor during his life. Besides a wife, he is survived by three sons—L. H. Ramsey, proprietor of the Hippodrome Theatre here and head of the Ramsey syndicate; George M. and Elmer T., all of this city. N. B. Ramsey, of Berea, a brother, also survives.—Lexington Herald.

The deceased was a relative of our townsman, S. B. Ramsey.

An impressive scene was witnessed on Thursday when Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Williams gave in marriage their only daughter, "Risse," to Mr. James Coleman West, a young business man of Louisville, Ky. Their handsome home was attractively decorated with Southern similiax palms, ferns and cut flowers.

Miss Frances Sparks, beautifully groomed, rendered an appropriate musical program, while Messrs. A. B. Furnish and Victor T. West, wearing the favorite flower of the bride, acted as ushers in assembling the guests.

The spacious living room was set apart for the ceremony, an altar being erected where the bride and groom pledged their troth.

Promptly at the hour of 10:30 the sweet tones of Iphigeneia heralded the approach of the bride, who could not have been lovelier than she was in the handsome tailored gown with stylish hat of soft bridle gray, carrying a bouquet of valley lilies.

The sacred ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. S. Watson, of the Presbyterian church.

After the ceremony the happy couple, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Williams, received in the drawing-room, while four of Mt. Vernon's most attractive maids—Misses Julia Fish, Lou-Ann Whitehead, Nora Jones and Lella Mae Lovell, groomed in dainty dresses of white, with sashes of delicate coloring flitted about graciously serving the delicious ices and iced favors.

The bridal gifts were unusually beautiful, among which were many elegant pieces of cut glass, silver and handsome household linens, expressive of the high esteem and sincere devotion of their many friends.

Among the out of town guests were—Mrs. M. C. Williams, Richard G. Williams, Jr., of Somerset; Judge and Mrs. R. G. Williams and Higgins Wood, of Covington; Mrs. Linda Benton, Miss Willie Benton, Brodhead; Mrs. Carlisle Clark, Middleboro, Miss Bessie Turley, Richmond; Miss Paulette Reed, Crab Orchard; Mrs. John L. Whitehead, Miss Elizabeth Whitehead, Williamsburg; L. C. Ewing, Arch Cooper, Mrs. Jael Cooper and C. A. West, brother of the groom, Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. West left on the evening train for an extensive Eastern trip and upon their return, will make Louisville their home.

Prior to the wedding some forty relatives and out-of-town guests were bidden to a high-noon luncheon, where an elaborate collation was served. The tables were decorated in ferns and white carnations. A charming scene was the bride's table, where she was radiantly beautiful, surrounded by her special cortege of friends.

The SIGNAL offers its hearty congratulations, and our people, while wishing her much genuine happiness, keenly regret the removal from our midst of one so much beloved and universally admired.

That weed right in the hill is your worst enemy.

The farmer is not much different from anybody else.

Home-grown plants are much superior to bought plants.

Cattle will never do well in the same pasture with sheep.

Land intended for spring crops should be plowed in the fall.

Have the holes for the trees to be removed dug wide and deep.

Squab raising seems to be a favorite occupation with suburban people.

Large trees should be taken up when the earth is frozen around the roots.

A farmer can tell the value of corn stover without making any serious mistake.

Land intended for roots should be plowed as soon as the ground is dry enough to work.

Mix poultry droppings with an equal quantity of the earth, and put one handful to the hen.

As soon as the calf learns to eat hay, place one handful of whole oats in the feed box once a day.

A beautiful hedge is made by using stinkies in the back row. Thin calliposts with white paint is a better.

Mangles and sugar beets are the best roots for cattle, sheep and pigs, and Belgian carrots for horses.

Asters can be planted in rows of white and lavender, with very pleasing results, provided the same kind is used in each row.

Young turkeys usually have black feet, which after two years turn gray and dull, and become paler and more sickly as age advances.

Stirrup suckers in blackberry or red holly hedges should be treated like weeds, but let the rest grow too wide nor too thick.

Hens in good health having access to the dust bath will usually keep clean from lice. The house should be swept clean every morning.

In most all branches of business, education is generally considered a great stimulant, but in the creamer business it has been overdone.

The stockkeeper who keeps eggs in his cellar from a week to a month needs to be looked after. Eggs should be shipped along as fast as possible.

Let the milk suck the cow a few days; this milk is not fit for human feed and is what the calf needs to clean the bowels and tone up the system.

It is said that naval oranges sprung from a single tree that was found growing on the northern shore of the Mediterranean sea, nearly 350 years ago.

In dipping pigs great care must be exercised to cover every part of his body from tail to snout. If a patch as big as a thumb nail is left untouched it may contain the nucleus of a new crop.

Look well after the water. Keep it always before the fowls, pure and clean, and renew it frequently. Do not allow them to eat snow. Do not let them drink water grown tepid in the sun.

More insects will be killed in a greenhouse if fumigating apparatus is placed at the foot of the house that the fumes will descend, rising vapors leaving the lower part of a house partly fumigated.

In careful tests made at the several stations it is found that there is little or no difference in the feeding value of the dry matter of roots and ensilage. The general opinion is in favor of the silage.

Honey is the purest and the least harmful of sweeten. The honey crop is mostly gone, for no flowers need necessarily be raised to pasture the bees. They aid in the fertilization of fruit trees and the smaller clovers.

By far the best way to use manure for grain is to spread it mix it with the soil before drilling; the best way is to spread the grain early in the fall, and the third best during the winter, when ground is dry enough to haul over.

Clay is called a heavy soil and says a light soil. This does not refer to weight however. Light and heavy as applied to soils are terms which refer to the drainage ability, and the which they can be plowed or cultivated.

SEEMED TO GIVE HIM A NEW STOMACH.

I suffered intensely after eating and no medicine or treatment I tried seemed to do any good. writes H. M. Youngers, Editor of The Sun, Lake View, Ohio.

INJUNCTION HOLDS AGAINST LOUISVILLE

BOARD OF EDUCATION MUST LET PRINTING OF SCHOOLS TO LOWEST BIDDER.

DOHERTY BACK ON THE BOARD

Committee Will Recommend That the Licking River be Improved—Governor's Message Nominations—Ex-Licet. Returning Dead.

Frankfort.—In response to a resolve of the board of education of Louisville in the matter of reappointing and repairing the school buildings, Judge W. C. Settle declines an intricate point of law. He holds that the work must be done under contract awarded by competitive bidding, after advertisement for same has been made. He rules that if the work on each building and cost less than $50 the work could have been done without calling for bids, but as the cost in each case was more than $50 it must be done by competitive bidding.

Suggested Changes.
Gov. Augustus E. Willson has written to President Taft suggesting that he come to Kentucky the day after the election to dedicate the Lincoln Memorial hall at Hodgenville, the Lincoln statue at Frankfort. He wrote the president that he supposed Mr. Taft would be in Cincinnati on election day and perhaps would prefer to come to Kentucky the day after, so as to avoid a trip from Washington. The first dates the governor thought of were November 9 and 10, instead of 15 and 16 as on previous dates. He says that the weather will not be good but in consideration he decided to suggest the earlier date, just after the election. The matter of the date will meet with the approval and the time will be fixed to suit his convenience. Gov. Willson plans to have the first address on the morning of November 8, reaching here at 4:15 o'clock. He will take breakfast with the governor, and Mrs. Willson will dedicate the Lincoln monument, probably about noon. Gov. Willson plans to have a special train take the president to Louisville in the afternoon, at a convenient time that suits Mr. Taft's reception in Louisville on the evening of November 8 is planned. It meets with Mr. Taft's approval. The following morning the party would go to Hodgenville, and Mr. Taft would go back to Louisville and on to Washington in the afternoon.

Licking, Too, Will Be Improved.
The committee of Newport citizens appointed by Mayor Krigger and the Newport commercial associations, met the congressional committee on its return to the Ohio launch. They were accompanied by Congressman Arthur Rouse, of the Sixth district, who is making the Licking navigable. The congressional committee assured the delegates that they were in favor of the improvement, and that they would make a recommendation to that effect to congress upon their return to Washington.

New Military Company.
The new Frankfort military company was formally mustered in by Major C. W. Longmire, with a full complement of men. A. G. Hodges, Jr., who has served as first sergeant in the regular army, was elected captain and his experience should make him one of the best equipped captains in the state guard. Jas. M. Pulliam was elected first lieutenant and John Wright second lieutenant.

Assistant Atty.-Gen. John F. Lock who has been ill for several weeks has been taken to the Norton infirmary, in Louisville, for treatment. It may be found necessary to perform an operation for his trouble, and it was thought best by his family to have him in the best military in case an operation is decided upon.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Dead.
Telegram was received at the death at Toronto, Canada, of Hon. R. T. Tyler, of Hickman. He was a retired lawyer, financier, lieutenant governor. Was identified with many prominent business enterprises and was one of the wealthiest men in Western Kentucky.

Fire at Breathitt's.
Fire which started about noon in the attic of the house occupied by Judge James Breathitt, attorney general, did considerable damage before it was extinguished. The loss to Judge Breathitt resulted from the loss of the house being flooded.

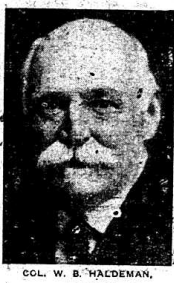

County Clerks.
The fifth annual convention of the Kentucky County Clerk's association will be held September 7 and 8.

Rate Complaint.
A complaint was filed with the state railroad commission by the Ohio Valley T. Co. against the Louisville Henderson & St. Louis railroad. The complaint says the railroad company has collected $949.38 more than it is entitled to receive from shippers on the line. A hearing will be given on the matter on the first Wednesday in September.

The postmaster general designated at the post office bank to begin business August 25.

A KING WHO LEFT HOME set the world talking, but Paul Methinks, of Buffalo, N. Y., says he will always KEEP A HOME the King of all Laxatives, Dr. King's New Life Pills—and that they're a blessing to all his family. Cure constipation, headache, indigestion, dyspepsia. Only get at Chas. C. Davis.

Explosion at Parliamentary.
One of the cylinder heads of the big engine in parliamentary blew out but no one was seriously hurt. The cylinder head shattered itself against the stone foundation of the boiler for the other engine, and did no damage to the building. It will take several days to repair the damage, but the auxiliary engines will probably be able to keep the machinery in all the shops going till the repairs are completed.

COL. W. B. HALDEEMAN, Newly Elected President of the Kentucky Press Association.

High School Cadets.
Gov. Willson has received a letter from the assistant secretary of war calling attention to the fact that the vision has been made for the organization of high school cadet companies in the various states and urging that Kentucky organize such companies. The department is interested in having such companies formed and will furnish plans and equipment and allow for rifle practice. It is expected that the Kentucky legislature make some provision authorizing the formation of such companies before anything can be done.

Crowds At Capitol.
Eight hundred men, women and children came to Frankfort in one day to see the capitol and other points of interest. They were from Baltimore and New Castle, and came on a special train. The capitol was crowded all morning in the afternoon the other places of historic interest swarmed with the delegation.

Roberts Succeeds Shelby.
Gov. Willson decided to appoint Samuel J. Roberts, of Lexington, editor of the leader as election commissioner to succeed John T. Shelby of Lexington. David W. Fairleigh, of Louisville, was appointed to succeed Shelby, but declined.

W. B. Doherty is a member of the state life commission. He was appointed to succeed Miss Fannie Lawson as a member of the board. Miss Lawson's vacancy was caused by her election as secretary of the commission.

Prof. M. A. Scovell, of the experiment station, lectured on the islands of Jersey and Guernsey and told stories of his trip there in the last of his trip there in search of the cattle for James B. Higgins's Kilmordart farm.

Lexington.—At a meeting of the road committee of the fiscal court a resolution providing that no one in the employ of Fayette county should be permitted to sell rock, was passed.

OFFICER IN DUEL.
Lexington.—In a duel, in which one man used a revolver and the other a knife, the former came out victorious. Henry Wise, the knife user, was slain by Constable John Stivers. A man by the name of Lee Wise, who went to the constable's assistance, was badly cut, while Stivers was in a serious condition from several knife wounds.

A letter has been received from the officers of the Farmers' National congress, making that Gov. Willson apply for delegates from Kentucky to the meeting which will be held in Washington on October 15. The governor will name a list of delegates, if he can find farmers who want to attend from this state.

THIRTY YEARS TOGETHER
Thirty years of association think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there's no guess work in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years and it's the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it forty years. It's the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for laryngitis, asthma, hay-fever, croup, whooping or sore lungs. Price 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Chas. C. Davis.
