It is said that the highway to Hades is paved with good resolutions...

A good resolution for the people of Rockcastle and Mt. Vernon, and one which may be easily kept...

It was in 1842 that the Baldwin locomotive works at Philadelphia made the first locomotive...

Heretofore the "boosting" has been done by just a few people...

Macon, Ga. is making great preparations for the coming reunion to be held in May...

will extend the right hand of fellowship to the men who...

A committee of Representative business men headed by John J. McKay is in charge of the campaign for funds...

NOTES ON FIRST KENTUCKY RAILROAD.

The first railroad in Kentucky, the Lexington and Ohio, was chartered in 1830...

It was in 1842 that the Baldwin locomotive works at Philadelphia made the first locomotive...

The first track laying of the L. & N. road was done in the summer of 1855...

Train orders by telegraph came into the many years after the introduction of railroads...

finding any obstacle. The better part of the morning was consumed in sending and receiving the messages.

First Agent at Mt. Vernon for L. & N. or about the first, was J. L. Brown...

The following toys are among those who entered boarding department of Welch Morrow school this week: Bradley Brown, Norton, Victor Price, Lee Norton, Colton Stebbins. John H. Fish has been promoted by L. & N. He has been train dispatcher at Blue Ridge Ga. for some years past. His new position is that of chief dispatcher on Henderson division with headquarters at Harrison Ky. Will Wright who was a dispatcher at Livingston for many years goes with Mr. Fish as assistant chief. Our people are glad to hear of the promotion of these worthy men. Mrs. W. J. Sparks and daughters, Misses Frances, Bess and Martha left Wednesday for Louisville to spend two or three months. For the next several weeks a good portion of Mr. Sparks' time will be required in Tennessee where the W. J. Sparks Co. has a large contract, and by his family being in Louisville during that time. Our people can be with them much more of the time than if they were in Mt. Vernon.

There has been some talk that when the meat market goes out in the town, that there would be one or two open up just outside the corporate limits. Judge Beathum says the men who try to find will find Jordan a hard road to travel. The people and the officers both town and county have determined to stop meat as so, and the indications point pretty strong in the direction of their stopping.

Mr. J. L. Godfrey, editor and Mr. Thomas J. Green, business manager of the North and South a Monthly Magazine, published at Louisville, were here for a write up of Rockcastle county and her resources. The object of the article which will appear in the North and South, is to give an exact account of the county what it has and what it most needs, with the hope that capitalists somewhere will be interested and come to assist in it.

Businessmen here least 1000 copies of this magazine. It contains articles concerning territory through which any branch of their road would pass. Such an article as will appear in the North and South will probably be worth much to Rockcastle. Let us hope that it will be at any rate.

The Signal extends its best wishes to this splendid young couple. The gauge of the L. & N. track the war was raised to 10 feet 8 1/2 inches. After close of war it was changed back to 10 feet. It was sometime in the 80's that it was changed again to its present gauge of 10 feet 9 inches.

Mrs. Maggie Short, wife of Deputy City Clerk T. J. Short, died at Richmond last Saturday, after some weeks illness. Many of our people remember Mrs. Short, whose family were at one time residents of our town until Mr. Short was filling the position of Deputy U. S. Marshal.

CEDARVILLE.

Cold weather and rabbit hunting is the order of the day. According to the old folks saying we will have 21 snows this winter. They say as many days old as the moon was when the first snow came there will be that many and the moon was 21 days old when the first one came. There has been to and a good prospect for the other 11.

Old Aunt Margaret does not say how well she is. Her eyes are getting but better. She is 87 years old some where in 30 years, and is as fit as a child. Rev. J. H. Barnes has sent an appointment to Pleasant Valley church, on next Friday at 10 o'clock to represent the Farmers Union. After Bro.
