SURAPS.

Housesekers in great numbers are going to Florida from the West. Men of science have not yet decided whether microbes are plants or animals.

In Yokohama the insurance companies own the fire engines and pay the firemen. The latter get about $8 a month.

Red P., once the home of Grover Cleveland, in Washington, was sold the other day to Herbert Knox Smith for $25,000.

A peculiar kind of nut, with a shell as thin as paper, the Ingaisus Regis, is being imported into this country from China in increasing quantities.

The world's largest telephone exchange is at Hamburg. It now takes care of 11,000 lines, but arrangements are being made to double that number.

The Greeks of Pergamus first made parchment for writing purposes from the skins of goats or sheep. Called pergamenum from the city of its origin, the material became parchment in old French and "parchment" in the English tongue.

Japanese army officers are testing a new bullet proof coat just invented by a native. It is said that bullets fired from a revolver at a distance of twenty five feet make only a slight dent in the coat.

Beef gall is the old time remedy for lockjaw. When the beef was but herded the gall was poured into a bottle, corked and hung up in a cool place. When a child ran a rusty nail into its foot a cloth was saturated with the gall and applied to the wound. In country districts, where doctors are not handy, it would be well to revive the ancient remedy. It is good for all sores.

Grover C. Kennedy, aged seventy-two years, died at his home near Crab Orchard, last Saturday morning after a short illness of double pneumonia. Mr. Kennedy was one of the best-known men in this part of the State. He had seen a world of trouble, but held a host of friends throughout his life and accumulated a goodly estate...

with the knowledge that all had been released, two having been paroled and one dying a few months ago. Mr. Kennedy was married by his wife and six children the latter being Mrs. Jesse Weisbach of Corbin; Will, John, Mike, Ben and Frankie Kennedy. In Louisville Times—Kennedy's trial in the killing of his uncle was held in Mt. Vernon in 1878, 0 '79 on change of venue from Garard county.

Call McClure says when legislator E. B. Thompson was investigating for the nomination to support a farm-house, one day, and in the street of the lady at the gate if her husband was at home. "Yes" responded the woman. "Might I have the pleasure of seeing him?"

"He's down in the pasture burying the dog," was the reply from the individual at the gate. "I am very sorry, indeed, to learn of the death of your dog," came in sympathizing tone from the candidate. "What killed him?" "He wore himself out barking at the candidate's," said the woman.

Of more than a hundred once familiar family names known in Rockcastle the following have all or nearly all, disappeared from the list of our citizenship: Dysart, Dazy, Bragg, Severance, Joplin, Pickens, Babham, Hazelwood, Padgett, Reid, Bowen, Brown, Ashley, Wehr, Cruse, Slavin, Stanley, Barton, Brewer, Gresham, Forsythe, Merriman, White, Black, Green, Rowell, Hickey, Conruff, Cook, Dean, Stigall, Earl, Pearl, Byers, Kemper, Franzer, Coyle, Hartz, Spradlin, Spivey, Livingston, Newcomb, Colyer, Swain, Ray, Brooke, Bronwell, Sambrook, Bruce, Henderson, Huff, Bell, Hart, Haley, Conway, Duke, Shumate, Mershan, Figon, Ruppert, Nesbit, Carter, Middleton, Bolton, Hood, Vowels, Dillon, Gover, Otter, Terrill, Stewart, Kincaid, Hironemus, Davidson, Kirrlie, Croucher, Christopher, Lawless, LeFlore, Quinn, Wallace, Elkins, Griffith, Snodgrass, Bates, Swadlow, Linjoe, Welch, Cress, Denny, McCook, Vanhook, Sweeny, Cooper, Conn, Limerick, Curtis, Paris, Tunlin, Wolf, Lunsford, Brinkley, Wadde, Pallad, Hockins, Ricketts, Godale and others. Many of these are dead to other localities and states. A large number have gone over the river. The time of the passing of a majority of these names from our county is less than 25 years, and but few as far back as 45 years. It is remarkable the many changes that can take place in less than half a century. Nearly all of the families mentioned above have left no descendants wherever in this county, bearing their names.

Her Uncle's Boots was presented to a full house on Friday evening in the new chapel. The curtain riser, a Topsy Turvy song, by ten Junior girls, preceded the play. They responded to an encore with a little military song. In the play itself, Jamie Morrow Miller took the part of a wealthy girl concealing her identity and working her way through college. In the attempt to give away something of real value to herself, she opened her uncle's boots in a box to be sent to an Old Folks' Home. The script of the play, represented by Gladys Kriv, discussed the boots in the box reorganized them as the possession of her lover at first days and the mystery of her silence is revealed. The other girls of the cast did their full part in bringing out the humorous side of the plot. After the play, the guests were shown over the dormitory.

On Tuesday evening the "Society" church was filled with her pupils, of Miss Dyer in regular. The Glee Club looked especially attractive in their white dresses, and responded to "encores" after each appearance. At the close of the program, the audience called for Miss Dyer who graciously responded, playing "Homage to the Dance No. 6."

Seven members of the Shively family, of near Brodhead, have died since September last. The land of sorrow is laid heavily upon them.

It has been noted that on an average the thermometers have usually registered a degree higher in Mt. Vernon than in Louisville since winter set in.

County Clerk S. F. Bowman gives the total assessed valuation of Rockcastle property for taxation for 1919 as being $4,753,055 being an increase of $66,892 over the assessment for 1918.

J. H. Tinsley, aged 73, late U. S. district attorney for Eastern district died in Covington last Saturday and was buried at Harboursville Tuesday. Mr. Tinsley was Commonwealth's Attorney in this district when Judge W. H. Randall was circuit judge from 1876 to 1880.

Hardin county claims to have eighty-five tax payers belonging to the Miller family. Rockcastle has more than 150 Owens, the Teters and about as many Mullins; then follows the Grimes, Browns and Jones families each almost equalling in number Hardin county's Millers.

Young Goss Galiff, who killed Rob Rigby, near Wildie, some four or five years ago and has been a fugitive from justice since that time has surrendered himself to the Sheriff in New Mexico, and Sheriff J. N. Nease, just west of Louisville, and County Attorney S. D. Lewis, will leave today or tomorrow for New Mexico, to get Galiff, and bring back to Rockcastle for trial.

The stock holders of the Mt. Vernon Fair Association met Tuesday night. The only business transacted was to authorize the directors and officers to proceed at once and purchase ground, which in all probability will be the land of T. N. Nease just west of town and a most desirable place. By a vote of 35 to 3, Aug. 7, 8 and 9 was named as the dates for holding the fair.

E. C. Walton former owner and editor of the Stanford Interior Journal, and who has been engaged in newspaper work at Orlando, Fla., for some time has purchased the Somerset Times, of Cecil Williams who now has a position in State auditors office at Frankfort. The Times is the leading Democratic paper in the eleven district. Mr. Walton will probably change the paper to a semi-weekly at an early date.

At the regular meeting of Town Trustees Friday last the question of tax collecting was discussed and it was decided best not to collect the taxes for two years at one and the same time. Two taxes are due on and after 1st day of March but owing to present conditions the Board will probably not have the collection begun until a little later on. The clerk was directed to have notices posted, calling attention of property holders especially in business part town, to Article XI Section 43 of Book of town ordinance which directs that owners keep sidewalks, abutting their property, free of all obstructions, including snow, etc.

Boys send in your names to county school superintendent and have them entered in Rockcastle Cou. Club contest. Come on boys, send in your names this is an effort to help you and give to which you should be willing to lend our assistance.

The Young People's Missionary League of Mt. Vernon will meet at the Presbyterian Manse, Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Lesson assignment, Chapter 4, "The Uplift of China".

The recital at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening by the music pupils of Miss Claudia Dodson, was greatly enjoyed by the large audience which attended.

Those who were present one year ago and heard the same young ladies and then heard them again last Tuesday evening, were impressed with the wonderful progress which each one has made under the instruction of Miss Dodson, who is very proficient herself and requires thoroughness on the part of her pupils.

S. T. Proctor, authorizes us to say that the proposed plan for Mt. Vernon will be a go. We are certainly glad to hear this good news, and those who know Mr. Proctor, will appreciate the importance of such a statement. The company will start with something like $7500 and most of the stock is already subscribed. Outside parties are interested in the light plant, but how, people are the principal stock holders in the planing mill. The two will be run in connection.

The graded school has been closed this week in order to have the heating plant put in proper condition. During this cold weather, it simply was not equal to the emergency and during the past month, it has been under adverse circumstances, that the school has tried to run. The plant was installed by Mr. J. D. Bada, of Stanford, and was not properly put in. Mr. Clark of Lexington, the man who installed the heating plant at the Brown Memorial, and a man who knows his business, is now at work on the plant and says he will soon have it going.

Rev. Geo. S. Watson returned on Tuesday of the week from a trip to Harlan county where he visited and preached for, last Sunday, Rev. C. T. Michel who is well known in Mt. Vernon.

The occasion for Mr. Watson's visit was that Mr. Michel was having Rally Day in his Sunday School and was celebrating the getting into the assembly room of the manse for church services while the new church is being built.

There is now no question about the railroad being built out of Livingston back through to Jackson county. An Eastern syndicate purchased the large boundary of timber belonging to the Thomas estate and to move this timber it is necessary to build a railroad to it. The latest and reliable information is that work will be begun at once. Civil engineers are now at Livingston and will soon begin the survey of the route. The fact that the route is to be surveyed is the best evidence that there is something doing, as there is no other reason except for the building of the road as proposed, that such a route should be surveyed. Mr. R. L. Thomas, who was in Mt. Vernon a few days ago, said that his company expected to do more work at Livingston than ever before. This certainly looks like a brighter day is coming for Livingston and the east side of the county.

FOR SALE:—150 acres of land about 1 mile North of Livingston, 50 acres about 1 mile North West of Livingston, 150 acres about 1 mile S. south of Livingston, 100 acres about 2 miles South East of Livingston, 25 acres about 1 mile South East of Livingston. Address: JOHN MAGRE, Danville, Ky. Feb. 24.
