LOCAL

One week from next Monday is circuit court. If you are in arrears for subscription, the Signal man, who is on the grounds would be awfully glad to write you a receipt for the amount. The officers and directors of the Mt. Vernon Fair are entitled to much credit for the arduous work done in their efforts to give a successful fair to W. M. Bullock, the wheel horse of the whole team, is due the greater praise for the part he performed in the undertaking. So closely has he watched and pushed the work since his inception last January that we have no doubt he has put in a dozen full nights sleep since the starting of the subscription paper for stock. The Signal votes him the blue ribbon on the successful accomplishment of the desired and by his energetic pushiveness. Tie the blue on him and arrange for the next ring.

BROODHEAD.

Who said Mt. Vernon fair would not be a success? A complete list of premium awards will appear in our next issue. There are forty of Kentucky's best race and show horses on the grounds. Mt. Vernon Fair certainly has some live wires for its officers and directors. Wm. Bullock has worked day and night and to him is due much of the credit. Marcum, of Monticello has his pacing stallion and two runners on the ground. The floral hall display is immense. It has never been surpassed in Southern Kentucky. The high diver gave two successful performances Wednesday. The same for Thursday and Friday. What about those people for the first day of the first fair ever held in Mt. Vernon. That is going some. R. R. Gearty, the secretary, is certainly on to his job and is delivering the goods to the satisfaction of all. The Kay Pee works at Pine Hill suspended operation and attended the Mt. Vernon Fair, Wednesday, in full force. Mr. D. E. Davis was here for a few hours. Mr. Davis expects to buy property here and return to Mt. Vernon. Mack Hughes is here from Harrodsburg, with five good ones. Mack is one of Kentucky's best horsemen. The President C. C. Davis has done nothing but work and talk fair for weeks and the reward is a crowning success of the first year's exhibit. Hoary Trainer the veteran race horse man, is here with his partner. Mr. Broulev, with a nice string of running, trotting and show horses. A little fair news this week and not much paper is all we have to give our readers. The Signal force wants to see the fair as well as other people. Mack Hughes won first in Wednesday trotting race with Lady Belfast; W. C. Granley second with June Light; and Bob Walker third with Mory Booth. Stock is arriving, and the crowds are gathering for the Great Brodhead Fair. Meet your friends there next week, and see the best fair ever held in eastern Kentucky. Among the colored people, who were formerly citizens of Rockcastle county, attending the Mt. Vernon fair are M. M. and Julia Hyatt, grand daughters of the old time John W. Taylor. There are visitors here to attend the Fair and how coming from Virginia, Tennessee, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Arkansas and Alabama, and possibly from other states. The concession people are all busy and Uncle Pullen Francisco the best hotel man in the state, is feeling the people right on the grounds and every one is sure to get his money's worth. The Air Ship arrived at Brodhead Thursday, and the man who will sail above the clouds that day of the fair next week, is expected in Mt. Vernon Friday, to tell the people that he is ready to deliver the goods. E. A. Chilton, the best fair man in Kentucky has been an indispensable factor in the organization and carrying on of the fair. When he cannot tell you right what to do, there is not much use of asking the other fellow. Listen what the concession people and other visitors have to say of the Mt. Vernon Fair. "The Mt. Vernon Fair is a dandy and you can take our word for it, it is a fair that will be talked about after it is over." As we went to press two days ago this week, we were unable to give the vote in the Anderson piano contest. The vote will be given in next issue. NOTICE: To tax payers, your tax for 1912 are due. Please call and settle at once, and save cost. The penalty will be added as the law directs. J. T. NICKLAY, Sheriff, Rockcastle County.

Deposits are profitable. Pack all fruits carefully. Cows need pure, fresh water. There is always a demand for turkeys. Oats and peas will not inoculate ground for alfalfa. No ewe should be bred until she has reached maturity. Concrete floors in the cow stables are sanitary and easily cleaned. The size of an apple can be influenced to quite a large degree by picking. Don't let the cows out in the storms to stand around. It doesn't pay. The colder the milk when separated the greater the loss of fat in the skim milk. The cows that produce the largest amounts of butter fat do so most economically. The calves should by all means be kept in clean, well-lighted and ventilated stables. A proper kit for farm work is about as handy a thing as the average farmer can buy. A ten-cent bolt now may save a dollar's worth of time when the rush of work comes. You cannot fatten a brood sow and fatten a hog alike and make the best success of both. A gallon of cream testing 35 per cent should churn a little over two pounds of butter. The object of cow testing and keeping record is to improve the herd and increase the output. Frequent treading of the soil is said to be a good preventive of rust forming on the cultivator. Look out for the potato bugs on the tomato and eggplant plants. They prefer them to the potatoes. For sandy land the mammoth red root is proper superior to alike or the medium red varieties. A good night mare is the cow's delight, and a delighted cow is more profitable than a discouraged cow. If the soil leaves the plowshare shiny and wet, wait a day or two before plowing makes a cloddy ground. In looking for an occupation that will return pleasure as well as profit take up the breeding of fancy poultry. Guessing at the quantity of salt to put in butter is a little risky. An ounce to the pound is about the right proportion. Nurse the young pig and the alfalfa; pig more of both another season, also a large acreage of root crops and pumpkins. A hen that goes around with her mouth open is not a comfortable hen; she is too warm. Give her a place to sit down and cool off. Ventilation in the chicken house is a very important consideration, and the health of the fowls in a great measure depends on it. The value of cowpeas as a stock feed crop is now firmly established and will grow in favor as they become more generally known. Get rid of male birds except those to be kept for breeding. They are star boarders and eat up the profits of the flock. Never pasture too deeply. Leaves are essential to plant growth, and enough should always be left to promote a good growth of plants. Keep away from the straw rooms who retain the plant the last cuttings; they will be needed in further developing a good crop of corn. Begin to check the colt early if you would have an easy time with the work and a wretched horse. A two-year-old is easier to break than a four-year-old. If you intend to plant a few choice trees next spring, dig large holes for them this fall. Fill them with manure, removing it next spring and filling in up to the desired depth for the tree. The farmer who raises fruit for his own family should have a much larger variety than the commercial orchard; because the latter must produce enough of each kind to ship to advantage. A stumbling block may be caused by ignorant or careless hitching. Too much hitching will injure the calves. Sometimes a harness with a tight check rein will destroy the balance, and the horse is liable to fall. While the hog is a docile creature, it is essential for the breeder, farmer or feeder to manage so as to make the greatest amount of money at the least cost and the quickest time. To do this there is nothing of more importance than feeding alfalfa. NOTICE: I will be at the Mt. Vernon Fair on Thursday, Aug. 9, to help speed matters from 9 to 5 every day. Anyone having a good male for sale please meet me there on that day. J. M. CZAPKA.

WHEN THE SHOW COMES TO TOWN.

Amusement seekers and show goers of Mt. Vernon will have the treat of their lives Sept. 3 when the famous Sun Brothers' World's Progressive Shows appear here. Nothing better has ever been seen in this section.

Every dream of boyhood days will be realized. The peanuts, the clowns, the pink lemonade, the games and the smell of the fresh sawdust, the whole good atmosphere of the tented show will be there. Every act with the show this season is entirely new, novel and of an unheard-of character. A noteworthy engagement this year is the positive appearance at such performance of the famous Electric De Kantos, a quintet of high air repartition artists. Did you ever see a whirling dervish? This act is doubly discounted by the Electric De Kantos. They don't fly through the air like winged seraphs and whirl through the empyrean like whirling dervishes, and all that sustains them is wires gripped in their teeth. It is indeed one of the most amazing and superbly dramatic feats of height performances ever conceived.

Nearly one hundred performers take part in the big program and are all artists of extraordinary ability. In the wild best performance will be seen many unique, strange and distinctively novel specimens of the animal kingdom and zoologic creation, and all explained by competent handlers and lecturers. Seats are provided for all patrons and the tents are well ventilated and commodious. Courteous members are in attendance to show visitors to eligible seats. Convey being a red letter with the Sun Brothers' Shows. The big aggregation will arrive here by special train, and will spread their tents on the grounds at Mt. Vernon on Dr. Lee's lot. White addition on Tuesday, Sept. 9th.
