LOCAL

If you give all your attention to your business, you will have no time to work against others. Wear a FISHER Guaranteed Suit, once and you will always wear them. New Fall styles ready for your inspection to-day.

The K. P. is pushing work at Pine Hill.

Rain coats of all kinds for everybody at Fish's.

That new fall suit is ready for you at Fish's this day.

The man who marries a grass widow doesn't always live in clover.

T. N. Noe has purchased the interest in W. T. Davis in the firm of Noe & Davis, mercantile business, at corner of West Main and William streets.

Who says it doesn't pay to advertise? Fish is selling good clothes by mail, in more states than our own, some even as far away as Florida and South Carolina.

There's always something happening in old Rockcastle and generally for the good. The year 1912 is proving to be the most prosperous in a decade.

FOR SALE—A cottage house on West Main Street. Terms very reasonable. I also have five shares of stock in the Bank of Mt. Vernon, which I desire to sell. S. H. MARTIN, Aug. 23-31.

Wednesday afternoon, in three o'clock window, at a second story on old Main street, Jack Kirk broke her balance, fell to the ground, breaking her arm and sustaining other injuries.

Neal Parrett says Dick Welsh's fresh potatoes couldn't find enough dirt to hide themselves under, so quite a bunch of them crawled under the smokehouse, and grew so large turned the building over, smashing an Irish buggy, other vehicles and machinery and scaring the rats into fits.

Samuel Ward, who passed over the river to the great beyond yesterday morning at Livingston, was one of nature's clever, big-hearted boys. The writer (J. M.) then a boy, met him at Paint Lick, 42 years ago, and has never forgotten the many courtesies and kindness shown us by him and his most excellent wife.

After weeks of intense suffering, at nine o'clock yesterday morning, the spirit of that good woman, Mrs. John W. Baker, took its flight to realms on high. For weeks her family had expected the fatal hour, they must stand by the bedside of mother and witness the light of that good life go out, and many a time had they answered the summons, thinking it was the last. Besides her husband, who is crushed at the loss of his all and all to him, the deceased leaves three sons and three daughters, all of whom were at her bedside when the last great call came. The burial will take place this morning at ten o'clock, in a lot near the home on Richmond street.

In the year 1864 occurred Judge T. Z. Morrow's first visit to Mt. Vernon, as a lawyer. That was 48 years ago. The Judge's presence at this term of court recalls old times when there was no railroad in this county and no telegraph, except a military line from Cumberland Gap, to Camp Nelson. The Judge's first trip to our town was ten years earlier, in 1854. There are but six of the houses, standing today, that were here at that time. There is not one man left in the town who was then a citizen of this place and but five women who have survived those 48 years and are yet residing in the corporation. Our people are much pleased over the continued good health the Judge enjoys, which he says is regulated by the use of local water, in places in one adjoining county of Pulaski. He is enthusiastic over the wonderful curative powers of the springs; (whose name we failed to get) praising them as the "fountain of youth." In 1864 Judge Greenville Pearl, of London, was circuit judge and Frank Finley, of Williamsburg, was commonwealth's attorney. R. M. Bradley, John Moore and Charles Kirkley were among the lawyers who were practicing before this bar. Judge Morrow carries his 77 years extremely well and actually appears younger than he did, some years ago. Our people wish to enjoy his hearty handshakes and friendly smiles for many years yet, to come and hope for his continued good health.

New Fall Clothes are arriving at Fish's every day.

R. H. Robinson sold to J. T. Rigsby seven head of yearling cattle for $100.00.

The stockholders of the Mt. Vernon Fair Association will meet at the Court House August 31st at 7:30 p. m.

E. R. GENTRY, Secy.

A two weeks protracted meeting will begin at Providence church, near Quail, Saturday August 31st, conducted by Rev. W. G. Roberts, of Illinois. Every body cordially invited.

Carroll Cook, the expert barber of the Vernon Hotel, sent the following order to a paint store when he opened his first shop: "Dear Sir: Please send me a can of your striped paint. I want just enough for one barber pole."

W. R. Allen secretary of the Kentucky Motor Car Co. of Covington, Ky. Mr. Thos. A. Terry, is general foreman of the Acme Auto Co. Mrs. Terry and Miss Edwina Hopkins drove through from Covington, to Berea, 140 miles in six hours, in a touring car. They had to drive this machine at Berea, and come on through on the train. Mr. Allen is a Rockcastle boy, from Eastern part of the county and is here to attend circuit court. Mr. and Mrs. Terry and Miss Hopkins, are enjoying the fresh air of dear old Rockcastle as Mr. Allen's guests. Let's have better roads next time they can drive into town.

Fifty years ago, in 1862, among the names of prominent families, who were citizens of Mt. Vernon, appeared the following: Smith, Williams, Newcomb, Carpenter, Miller, Dysart, Fish, Frazer, McCall, Terrill, Stigall, Jones, Brown, Langford, Joplin, Adams, Owens, Griffin, and many others. All the men, with two exceptions, have died or moved away, these two are Willis Adams and J. T. Proctor. Twelve women who were here then and remember something of the civil war that was being waged at that time remain. They are Mrs. Ann Fish, Mrs. Wm. Poynter, Mrs. D. C. Poynter, Mrs. J. W. Vau-Winkle, Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Mary Carter, Mrs. Sarah Whiteleg, Miss Kate Moore, Mrs. Margaret Griffin, Mrs. Fannie Adams, Mrs. Dr. A. G. Lovell, and Mrs. James Marot. Six of them are widowed, two others were, but remarried. Two prominent families, bearing different names, have entirely disappeared from our town, in the past half century. Most of the fourteen remaining here after the lapse of half a century, were small children fifty years ago.

Miss Corinne Harmon and Kathleen Lewis, two of London's most talented musicians, gave a public recital this evening at the Chapel of the Graded school in this city. The large audience present showed their appreciation of the splendid entertainment. CIRCUIT COURT

The Rockcastle circuit court convened Monday. Judge B. J. Bethuram is presiding and Commonwealth's attorney, M. L. Jarvis, is present, looking after the state's interest.

Judge Bethuram did not dwell at length upon the different violations, in his instructions to the Grand Jury, except on the illegal sale of whiskey, which is one of the strongest ever dealt with. Grand Jury Judge Bethuram pointed out that right in Mt. Vernon the amount of liquor being sold, and we might add that in places it is almost equal to open saloons. But the officers have been spotted and mark what we say, that before many weeks the whole business will be behind the bars. Nobody is fooled, the only trouble, as the Judge expressed it in his charge, there are too many large-sweaters and it takes positive proof before a man can be convicted in open court, no matter what the outside proof might be. The following gentlemen were selected as jurors:

GRAND JURY: Marion Signore, Joe Bullock, John Sigmon, Jake Pike, Daniel Fowler, Wm. Dowell, J. H. Reynolds, S. B. Ramsey, Ed Fletcher, M. C. McKiney, Bill Payne, S. S. Daily.

PRIT JURY: Harry Chaney, Tom Philbeck, Wallace Laswell, Jim Barnett, Milt Warren, Frank Anderson, Jim Arnold, Geo. Deatrage, Ben Pike, Clint Leay, Milt Sowder, John Dowell, Wm. McClure, W. A. Taylor, C. K. Scott, Luther Means, W. F. DeBord, M. F. Craig, Allen Mounce, Isaac Leger, Jno. Crawford, Tack Langford, Jake Payne, John French.

The following cases have been tried: Richard Carpenter, building liquor to a minor, $50; Willie Williams Snootbars, killing stock, $50 and cost; Mitchell Mullins, breach of the peace, 1 cent and cost; Roscoe Hansel, giving liquor to a minor, $50 and cost; Terry Brock, giving liquor to a minor, $50 and cost; Leonard Hopkins, shooting in the town of Brodhead, $50; John Harris, concealed weapons, $5; Hardin Baker, malicious shooting, and wounding, $50; Bob Mize, building liquor in two cases, $50 and cost in each case; John Hard, giving liquor to a minor, $50; Tadeo Lewis, selling liquor, $50 and cost.

The case against Maurice Farris for the killing of Daniel Wood, was called Tuesday and both sides announced ready. The following gentlemen were selected to try the case: Milt Warren, Tom Philbeck, Jas. Barnett, Geo. Deatrage, Isaac Leger, H. H. Chaney, M. F. Craig, Wm. McClure, Jake Payne, Jno. R. Alcorn, W. H. Reams and Timon Coffey. The evidence and arguments in the case were completed yesterday. Attorney C. C. Williams and Judge L. W. Bethuram were the attorneys for Farris, while Commonwealth's Attorney, M. L. Jarvis, took care of the prosecution.

The trial of Sanford Isaacs, for the killing of John Allen is before the court today.

The L. & N. will run a special train from Richmond to London the last day of the Laurel county fair, Friday, August 30. This train is via Staunton. Parties between Staunton and Livingston can ascertain the time of arrival by inquiring of the depot agent. The special arrives at Brodhead at 8:00 a. m., Mt. Vernon 8:27 a. m. Returning leaves the London Fair ground about 4 o'clock. One fare, plus 25 cents for the round trip.

U. G. Bafer has converted the lively stable and ride, now in the furniture building and has filled it to its capacity, with everything in the furniture line. It is an ideal place and the especially attractive way in which the building is finished makes it all the more desirable.

F. Kreager has converted the second floor over Grimm's feed store into a hall for any kind of gathering desiring to use it. It will supply a long felt want.

Judge Lewis' grand crop was a failure this season on account of a defective seed. He has ordered a supply of seed from China for next year, of the circular Middle variety, in accordance of the convention, of having the guard on your arm when you feed. The Judge has also under other individual drinking grounds to replace each.

Returns to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Penn., proved "Six bottles of Electric Bitters" he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. It's folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at Chas. C. Davis.

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY FAIR
GREATEST SUCCESS YET
The seventeenth annual exhibition of the Rockcastle County Fair association, pulled off at its best head last week, was its greatest success, in the history of its association. The crowd for the three days was a third more than ever passed through the gates during any three days exhibition. Secretary, A. M. Hiatt, has certainly worked and he worked hard to accomplish this, and his friends rejoice that he was not disappointed in his effort. Besides the usual number of liberal premiums, there were a number of good attractions which proved splendid drawing cards. Mr. Hiatt informs us that the association will meet next year on the grounds, and by a more desirable location, closer to town, just on the East side of the River, which matter will be decided at an early meeting of the board of directors. Secretary Hiatt also requests us to announce that the Eighteenth annual exhibition will take place in Brookfield the third week in August, 1913. Following is the premium awards for the three days:

Clay, who is condemned to hang at an early date for the murder of his wife. The operation will be performed immediately after the execution. No eye specialists have faith in the success of the undertaking.

GOV. MARCHALD was notified in Indianapolis of the 20th of his nomination as vice president of the Democratic ticket. He replied in a brief speech, accepting the nomination and pledging himself for the Baltimore platform. He takes the middle of the road in great issues, and declares he is opposed to extreme action of public questions.

S. C. FRANKLIN, the watch inspector, is Rockcastle's original Bull moose of the 11th district congressional race. He is sporting a full set of antlers which has grown through his head covering. On one prong appears Willson and Marshall's colors, on the other Seavy's in evidence.

On Bull moose campaign literature appears the picture of H. H. Seavy Progressive candidate for congress, dressed in his overall working clothes, as he appears when on duty pushing a locomotive through the mountains.

THE SIGNAL will be twenty five years old on September 27th, having been established during that month in the year 1887, by James Maret and J. B. Seavy, and was printed on an alloy press on which was used hand rollers.

In this issue will be found the card of Mr. H. H. Seavy, of Corbin, who is the candidate of the Progressive Party for Congress from the Eleventh District.

THE Ohio man who says he has "the biggest bull moose head" doesn't mention the particular kind of moosehine he has been using.

Col. Roosevelt is said to be the only man on record, who thinks lightning ought to strike three times in the same place.

The three big prizes will soon have their campaigns under way, and the people in general will have to take to the woods.

Forty eight years ago Judge T. Z. Marrow spoke at this place for Lincoln, in the campaign of the president.

All indications point to the triumphal election of Willson and Marshall.

President Wilson's campaign pretty good, thank you.

PIKE FAMILY REUNION.
 Rev. A. I. Pike is planning one in Broadhead, Ky., Sept. 13, 1912. My father, Jacob Pike, was married to my mother, Miss Bethanna Jones, in the year 1846. And to this union there were born eleven children, eight boys and three girls. My mother died when Jacob Pike, Jr., was two years old, he being the youngest of the eleven children. My father remained a widower fifteen years and then married a second wife, and they had six children born to them, three boys and three girls, thus making him the father of seventeen children. He died in 1890, leaving these seventeen children with out a father, and eleven of us with out a mother.

It is my desire to know that they are all living at the present time, but extended inquiries disclose that the Atlantic and the Pacific Oceans had the writing being the older son and having the only responsibility and care, not only as a brother (but to some of the younger ones) that of a father. This double relation has filled me with a great anxiety for their well being and happiness. And this anxiety has led me to locate and correspond with, each one of them, all I have secured a promise from them all to respond to this call. They have all agreed to meet at my home in the town of Broadhead on September 28, 1912. Our plan is to ask the executive board of the Rockcastle Association to call their fifth Sunday meeting in September for Broadhead and we can go through with our work as a board on Saturday and Sunday night the 28th. And on Sunday the 29th we wish to invite all denominations of Christians, and all our friends in Rockcastle and adjoining counties to come and spend the day with us in the fairgrounds in Broadhead. And we will have what we call a basket dinner on the ground. And we ask all, who can conveniently do so, to bring a good supply of refreshments, so all may be supplied. We will have a number of preachers present and will have a reunion sermon preached at one o'clock in the morning. We want to spend the day in eating and drinking, preaching and singing. So we cordially invite all our friends and we hope that will take in every body (for we hope we have no enemies) to come and spend the day with us and enjoy this reunion, in heaven, where we all hope to meet our fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters, in that home our Saviour is preparing for us, on conditions we are prepared to join that company. I have assurance from many in different parts that they will be with us. Respectfully, A. I. PIKE.
