Will The REAL FREEMEN Uphold Wilson's Hands?

Woodrow Wilson has refused emphatically to accept contributions to his Campaign Fund from the interests, from corrupting influences, from any questionable sources.

Who is Getting The Money of The Trusts? So sure has been Wilson's stand, so well known his incorruptible purpose, that no private interests have dared to approach either our candidate or his committee.

What is a "People's Campaign?" We are addressing ourselves to the real freemen of America, the upright, Progressive Voters of the country...

Woodrow Wilson Has Clean Hands Woodrow Wilson is the cleanest man in national politics... He came to this country, who laid by blood and heredity the foundation of a future President...

How Much Money Will You Give? How Much Can You Raise? There are big campaign expenses to be met if we are to win on Election Day in November.

All Wool in Clothcraft Proved by Test

JUST remember this when you want to make sure of getting all-wool clothes: Cotton mixtures are so skillfully made now-a-days that even an expert eye cannot distinguish them from all-wool cloth. The cotton is so cleverly woven with the wool that the only absolutely sure way of detecting its presence is by a chemical test.

This test consists of dipping a piece of cloth into a boiling solution of caustic potash, which completely dissolves the wool and leaves the cotton intact, if present. Every piece of cloth used in Clothcraft Clothes must be able to withstand this searching chemical test. Therefore, you can know positively that you are really getting all-wool clothes—if they bear the Clothcraft label. Every Clothcraft suit or overcoat is guaranteed all wool. This guarantee is found in the inside pocket of every Clothcraft coat—also insures lasting shape, satisfactory wear and service. At Clothcraft prices—$10 to $25—can you ask for more?

DR. E. J. BROWN SPEAKS FOR THE BOND ISSUE.

Dear Editor:—Having eagerly watched the fight in Rockcastle, for good roads and my intense desire to see it victorious, causes me to break the silence which otherwise could I, Judge Williams, Judge Betharum, or Dr. Childress or any other ex-Rockcastle citizen have except the betterment of our dear old home county? It is to the interest of every citizen, regardless of position in life, to be for good roads. It is the opportunity of his life for the man on whom good fortune has smiled, to farther advance his prosperity, help to build the morals, intellect and religion of his community and build a lasting monument to the future generations to follow. I will frankly admit, I am prejudiced in wanting to see the old county climb to the top morally, socially, intellectually and religiously because I care not where I live or die it is my home. What are its possibilities commercially and otherwise? Its valleys and tablelands are fertile and productive. Its forests abound in valuable timbers. Its hills are bursting with coal, valuable stone, and probably other and many valuable minerals only awaiting valuable development. She has within her borders as noble people as live. You must invest citizenship and capital to develop these vast resources of wealth. Voters remember that no stream can rise above its fountain head it is just as impossible for a county to rise above its avenues of intercourse.—Good roads will open fields of wealth, give employment to the laborer, undreamed of by the most optimistic. Avarice and sin travel rough and unbroken paths.

BUILD Your House of Stone or BRICK in disual forest, and leap from crag to crag, while philanthropy and christially travel upon beautiful highways, where the bright sunshine has kissed the sparkling dew-drops from the grass and flowers, and happiness and prosperity abound. While this opportunity may pass forever, may the people of my home county, think and act intelligently, and vote for the bond issue to make good roads and in no wise can they ever regret it.

Yours,
E. J. BROWN.
